NEW TRIAL FOR LIBEL SUIT

Judge Maughan Grants Rehearing of Suit of Viola Lewis vs. Standard Co.

HAPPY ENDING OF ROMANCE.

Race Meet in Ogden Fair Grounds—Edward Arnold Fined for Striking Lady.

Ogden, Utah, Aug. 22.—In the district court, before Judge Maughan, late yesterday afternoon, the defendant's motion for a new trial in the case of Viola Lewis vs. the Standard Publishing company and William Glasman was granted. The case is a libel suit which was tried before Judge Maughan about a year ago and in which the jury awarded the plaintiff damages in the sum of $1,000. The granting of the defendant's motion means a retrial of the case.

FINED FOR STRIKING LADY.

Ogden, Utah, Aug. 22.—In the police court yesterday afternoon Edward Arnold was fined $50 for striking a waitress by the name of Maggie Reid, of the Pacific hotel. The complaining witness stated that when she went into the kitchen to get an order for a guest, the defendant pushed her against a steam table, which burned her arm and then she called him a coward and was struck by him. Her testimony was corroborated by her companion.

MIDWAY.

DEMISE OF NOBLE WOMAN.

Mrs. Thomas H. White Passes Away Mourned by Many.

Special Correspondence.
Midway, Wasatch Co., Aug. 19.—Mrs. Emily White, wife of Thos. H. White, and daughter of Francis and Elizabeth Oliver, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lizzie Bronson at Midway, Wasatch county, Utah, Tuesday morning, Aug. 13, of cancer of the stomach, after a lingering illness.

Mrs. White was born at Crabgutter, England, April 19, 1848, where she joined the Church and remained a faithful member. She came to Utah with her parents in 1868, her mother and one sister dying while crossing the plains. She was married the following year to Thos. H. White in Salt Lake City. Soon afterward they moved to Farmington, Davis county, where they lived for a number of years. Since leaving Farmington they have made several homes but finally settled at Woodland, Summit County, Utah, where they resided at the time of her death. She was well known throughout the country for her kindness to the sick and those in need. She was the mother of 11 children, three of whom preceded her to the grave. Her husband, eight children and 30 grandchildren survive her.

Short funeral services were held Thursday morning in the Second ward meetinghouse at Midway, after which the remains were shipped to Farmington, where services were held Friday and the interment took place.

Members of the family and a few intimate friends were present. A large reception followed the ceremony. Miss Edna Edmonds made a dainty bridesmaid; H. J. Plunhof acted as best man. Miss Edna Edwards played the wedding march as the bride party took their places. The bride wore a beautiful French white mousseline gown with Battenburg medallions made en-princesse with shower bouquet of white sweet peas. Miss Edmonds wore pink organdie and carried pink sweet peas. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. A. Smoot, Jr., parents of the bride, assisted in receiving. The dining room was decorated in pink and white with festoons of smilax. The bride and groom left on the 11:50 train for a wedding trip to Los Angeles.

A wedding of interest to a large circle of friends and relatives took place last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theron Geddes, when their daughter, Jenna-Budd, was married to Homer C. Dunbar, Rev. Charles E. Perkins officiating. The bride colors, pink and white were carried out in the house decorations, sweet peas being used with great effect. The bride looked charming in a white lingerie gown with white veil and rich lace. A diamond ornament which had been worn on several similar occasions fastened the veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses. Miss Katherine Geddes was maid of honor, Miss Eloise Sadler Miss Genevieve McCormick, Miss Pearl Van Cott and Miss Nora Van Cott being bridesmaids. Sidney Hooper, uncle of the groom, was best man. The ushers were Leslie Savage, Chas. H. Frank, Miles and Gus Holman, Jr. Sweet music and shaded lights added to the impressiveness of the scene as the bride party entered through an aisle of white satin ribbons. Mrs. Leslie L. Savage and Mrs. Walter Eller presided in the dining room. Mr. and Mrs. Dunbar will take a trip to New York after which they will make their home in Los Angeles.

A very pretty church wedding took place last evening at St. Mark's when Miss Winona Jones was married to Austin Park Larabee, the Rev. H. S. Johnson performing the ceremony. The church was beautifully decorated with palms, pink and white asters, white ribbons being draped at the center aisle and joined to the pews with bouquets of pink and white flowers. An imposing spectacle was presented as the wedding party walked slowly in to the music of the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin." The maid of honor was Miss Minnie Wingate, the bridesmaids were Miss Elaine Nelson and Miss Bertha Dewdney; Franklin Schott was best man, and the ushers were Harry Shearman and E. D. Heister. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white tulle with rare lace, a long tulle veil caught with a diamond ornament, and she carried a bouquet of bride's rose. The bridesmaids were in blue and white, the maid of honor, in pink and white. Professor Peabody was at the organ, the beautiful strains of the Mendelssohn wedding march mingling with the pealing of the church bell at the close of the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Larabee left for a bride's room in the mountains, after which they will be at home in the Oxford flats.

SALT LAKERS AT LONG BEACH, CAL.

Current Gossip Among the Colony Of Utahns at the Seaside On Vacations.

WILL RETURN NEXT SUMMER.

Prior to Coming Home They are Already Making Plans for Next Year's Outing.

Special Correspondence.

Long Beach, Cal., Aug. 20.—Two of the busiest people of Long Beach are Miss Linda and Miss Emily Jessup, who have a cozy cottage on the ocean front, where they keep kindergarten during the morning and see the sights here the rest of the day. A number of Long Beach tots are under their care and they teach the pretty Froebel study plays with the sigh and sound of the ocean surf in their eyes and ears.

Miss Emily Jessup has obtained a position as instructor of music in the Throop school in Pasadena and will spend the winter there. Miss Jessup has also a lucrative church position in prospect which will bring her fine vocal gifts into prominence—and she is highly pleased in consequence of her good fortune. The Throop school is considered the most important in Pasadena and a place among its corps of instructors is in itself a compliment.

Miss Linda Jessup will return in a month's time to Salt Lake. Mrs. Jessup and Miss Florence Jessup will be down shortly to join Miss Emily, and they will occupy the Lavagino bungalow for the winter.

Miss Ella Dukes leaves this week to resume her school work in Salt Lake. She goes with the regret with which all home people bid good bye to the delightful beach, and with the others here is building a mental summer home in which to spend prospective future seasons. In fact, if all these mental plans come true, Long Beach will be the summer Mecca for the most of the Salt Lake people who have sojourned here. All are delighted with the place, and have registered vows to choose no other spot in future for their summer outings.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollin W. Dole spent the day at Long Beach recently. They are still residing at Huntington Beach and have furnished up a pretty bungalow there for a stay of some months.

Miss Jean Hyde is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Dole at Huntington.

Mrs. Mary Godbe, who has been here since January, will leave for home about September 1.

Mrs. May Brooks and the Misses Marjorie and Miriam Brooks leave shortly for Salt Lake.
