

M. S. QUAY TAKES OATH OF OFFICE

Senate Galleries Crowded With His Personal and Political Friends
—The Scene a Memorable One—Made a Gala Occasion
Congratulations on His Victory.

Washington, Jan. 17.—Hon. Matthew Stanley Quay, re-elected yesterday as a senator from Pennsylvania, today presented himself at the bar of the Senate and took the oath of office. His election was accomplished after a most memorable contest, and the scene of his induction into office today was no less memorable. The galleries of the Senate were thronged by a gay and brilliant assemblage long before the hour of meeting. Scores of Mr. Quay's friends, personal and political, had come from all parts of Pennsylvania to witness the final scene of a great contest—a scene which, by the way, was made a gala occasion.

Mr. Quay had been assigned to the second seat in the back row on the Republican side, the desk formerly occupied by Mr. Hanna of Ohio. An hour before the Senate convened, elaborate and beautiful floral pieces began to be piled on and around the senator's desk. By the time the Senate was called to order the messengers had found it impossible to place to advantage any more of the floral offerings. Not in the history of the Senate has a single senator been the recipient of such a profusion of flowers, beautiful in themselves and lavishly elaborated in their arrangement, as the Pennsylvania senator received today. One of the handsomest pieces was a huge keystone arch of white immortelles, the keystone being of deep red immortelles. It was several feet in height. The flowers came to the capitol literally by the wagon load, and it was found impossible to display all of them in the Senate chamber. Many of them were allowed to remain in the Senate corridors.

Just before the Senate convened Mr. Quay entered the chamber. Tremendous applause swept over the crowded galleries. It was prolonged for a full half minute. Mounting Mr. Quay was receiving the cordial congratulations of his colleagues on the floor of the Senate.

By this time the Senate chamber was thronged by senators and others entitled to the privilege of the floor. Scores of members of the House had come to the Senate side of the capitol to witness the induction of Mr. Quay into office. Practically the entire Pennsylvania delegation came over from the House.

As soon as the Senate convened Mr. Penrose, who was also the recipient of several handsome floral pieces, presented the credentials of Mr. Quay. They were read and placed on file.

Mr. Penrose then requested that the oath of office be administered to his colleague. As no objection was offered Mr. Penrose escorted Mr. Quay to the desk of the president pro tem, Mr. Frye. Before taking the oath Mr. Quay shook hands cordially with Mr. Frye. The president pro tem previously had announced to the people in the galleries that no applause or demonstration of approval or disapproval was permitted under the rules of the Senate. Thus, no demonstration occurred when Mr. Quay had taken the oath. After he had signed the roll at the desk of the secretary he retired to his seat where he was overwhelmed with congratulations. Within a few minutes hundreds of people had left the floor and galleries, the floral offerings had disappeared from the chamber and the Senate had resumed its wonted appearance.

A bill to provide for sub-subs of entry and delivery in the Hawaiian islands was reported by Mr. Hanna, from the committee on commerce and passed.

Rheumatism

Rheumatic pains are the cries of protest and distress from tortured muscles aching joints and excited nerves. The blood has been poisoned by the accumulation of waste matter in the system, and can no longer supply the pure and health sustaining food they require. The whole system feels the effect of this acid poison; and not until the blood has been purified and brought back to a healthy condition will the aches and pains cease.

Mrs. James Keil, of 707 Ninth street, N. E., Washington, D. C., writes as follows: "For months ago I had an attack of acute Rheumatism in the form of a fever. The pain was so intense that I became completely prostrated. The attack was an unusually severe one, and my condition was regarded as being very dangerous. I was attended by one of the most able doctors in Washington, who is a member of the faculty of a leading medical college here. He told me to continue his prescriptions, and I would get well. After having tried twelve times without receiving the slightest benefit, I declined to continue his treatment any longer. Having heard of S. S. S. (Swift's Specific) recommended for Rheumatism, I decided to try it, and after I had taken a few bottles I was able to hobble around on crutches, and very soon thereafter had no use for them at all. S. S. S. has cured me sound and well. All the distressing pains have left me, my appetite has returned, and I am happy to be again restored to perfect health."

SSS is the great vegetable purifier and tonic, is the ideal remedy in all rheumatic troubles. There are no opiates or minerals in it to disturb the digestion and lead to ruinous habits. We have prepared a special book on Rheumatism which every sufferer from this painful disease should read. It is the most complete and interesting book of the kind in existence. It will be sent free to any one desiring it. Write our physicians fully and freely about your case. We make no charge for medical advice.

crisis and officers' deputations awaited them. The empress watched the proceedings from the palace balcony. General Von Bock-Polach, in behalf of the officers' corps, congratulated his majesty on the occasion of the celebration and called for three cheers for the emperor, which were heartily given, and accompanied by the band playing "Heil dir im Sieger Kranz," the Prussian national hymn. After the emperor had replied to Gen. Von Bock-Polach the march past was ordered and the emperor and his party then returned to the castle.

INVITATION FROM MAYOR.

Promise to Show the Finest Live Stock Section in the West—Will Leave on Saturday.

A large number of the delegates to the National Live Stock association have determined upon visiting the Snake River district, Idaho, and will take advantage of the excursion arranged over the Oregon Short Line to St. Anthony. The following letter was received this morning by President Springer of the association, from Mayor Bowerman of St. Anthony inviting the delegates to his city:

Dear Sir:—In behalf of the citizens of St. Anthony and Fremont county, Idaho, I extend a hearty and cordial invitation to you and members now in session at Salt Lake City, to visit our city of the great Snake River valley. To those who honor us by their presence we guarantee a hearty good time and will show the grandest farming and stock-growing region in the West.

The Oregon Short Line Railroad has kindly placed at our disposal a special excursion train to leave Salt Lake City at 1:30 o'clock Saturday morning, Jan. 19th, and has made a round trip rate so low that all can come. Come and see the Valley of the Great Snake River. The train will leave Salt Lake at 1:30 a. m. Saturday and return Sunday in time to make connections east at Ogden and Salt Lake. Already all the berths in two Pullman sleepers have been engaged for the trip by delegates.

SPIKE AND RAIL.

After a long delay the local office of the Southern Pacific was removed today to their new quarters on West Second Street.

Chief Clerk Spencer of the passenger department Oregon Short Line is absent from his desk in the office owing to the severe sickness of his infant child.

City Ticket Agent Keyes of the Oregon Short Line says that enough tickets have been sold for the Portland excursion on the 19th to assure its success.

Superintendent Ellerbeck of the Utah and Pacific is up from Milford.

S. V. Derrah, the newly appointed general passenger agent of the Rio Grande Western, says he is getting down to business and will soon have the affairs of his office well in hand.

The local traffic on the Rio Grande Western this week has been much heavier than was anticipated by them. Mr. Asper, the chief clerk, said this morning that nearly 1,000 people had come up from southern Utah alone.

Now doth the coal man tear his hair
And cry in vain for coal;
He tryeth hard to please each man,
But can't, to save his soul.
He greeteth each one with a smile,
And maketh smooth excuse,
But still he reapeth his reward,
Trouble and abuse.
And yet the coal man smileth on,
And e'en bursts into song,
"2,000 lbs in every ton,"
He doeth no man wrong.

GENERAL DELGADO SURRENDERS.

Was Formerly Head of the Insurgents in Island of Panay—
Sent Word to His Followers to Come in—Troops
After Filipinos.

Iloilo, Island of Panay, Jan. 17.—Gen. Delgado, formerly the head of insurgents in the Island of Panay, has voluntarily surrendered. Since November the insurgent force has been broken up into small bands. A truce conference between Delgado and Maj. Noble, adjutant general of the department of Visayas, resulted in Delgado and his staff entering Iloilo and surrendering to Gen. Hughes. Delgado sent word to the remnant of his command, numbering seventy men, that they were to come in and surrender.

The commands of Generals Pulido, Piceno and Quilban Sala are holding strong positions in the mountains of Capiz province. Battery G, of the Sixth light artillery, with four guns and a considerable force of infantry, are trying to dislodge them and compel the Filipinos to fight an open engagement.

Rear Admiral Remy and his officers held a reception this afternoon on board the Brooklyn.

THE VENEZUELAN REVOLT.

Minister Loomis Reports that That in the Barracks is Suppressed.

Washington, Jan. 17.—The only advice over night from Venezuela was a short message from Minister Loomis, indicating that the revolt which has broken out in the barracks at Caracas had been suppressed last Monday.

The navy department was unable to forward its instructions to Commander Sargent last evening, but the message went out early this morning and by this time the Scorpion probably is starting from LaGuayra for Guanoaco. This port lies about 75 miles up the San Juan river in northern Venezuela, and is the point of shipment for the asphalt of the Bermudez company, which is brought by the Guanoaco and LaBrea railroad from the pitch lake 15 miles to the eastward.

Boers Concentrating.

London, Jan. 17.—Gen. Kitchener, telegraphing from Pretoria, under date of Wednesday, Jan. 16th, says the concentration of 8,000 Boers at Carolina, Transvaal, is reported. He adds that Colville's mobile column was engaged near Van Tondes Hoek. The Boers were driven off with heavy loss. Three hundred Boers entered Aberdeen yesterday, looted the stores and retired on the arrival of a hundred British infantry.

EX-GOV. TANNER WITHDRAWS.

So Do Other Candidates Leaving the Field to Senator Cullem.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 17.—Former Gov. John R. Tanner, withdrawn from the senatorial race shortly after noon today. A moment later the announcement was made that the other senatorial candidates, Cameron, Ritz and Prince, had withdrawn from the race and that Cullem would have no opposition in the caucus tonight.

The announcement of Gov. Tanner's withdrawal caused the greatest excitement in the Leland hotel where the headquarters are located and in a few minutes the corridors were filled with a shouting, hurrahing crowd of legislators and political workers. A rush was made for the headquarters of Senator Cullem, where the aged senator was fairly borne down by his enthusiastic, cheering supporters.

Spanish Regime Arraigned.

Madrid, Jan. 17.—The Liberal today publishes a vigorous indictment of the present regime, written by Senor Pi y Margall, the chief of the Republican Federal party. He says that following the closing of the chambers the nation has become less hopeful and more fearful regarding the future. He adds:

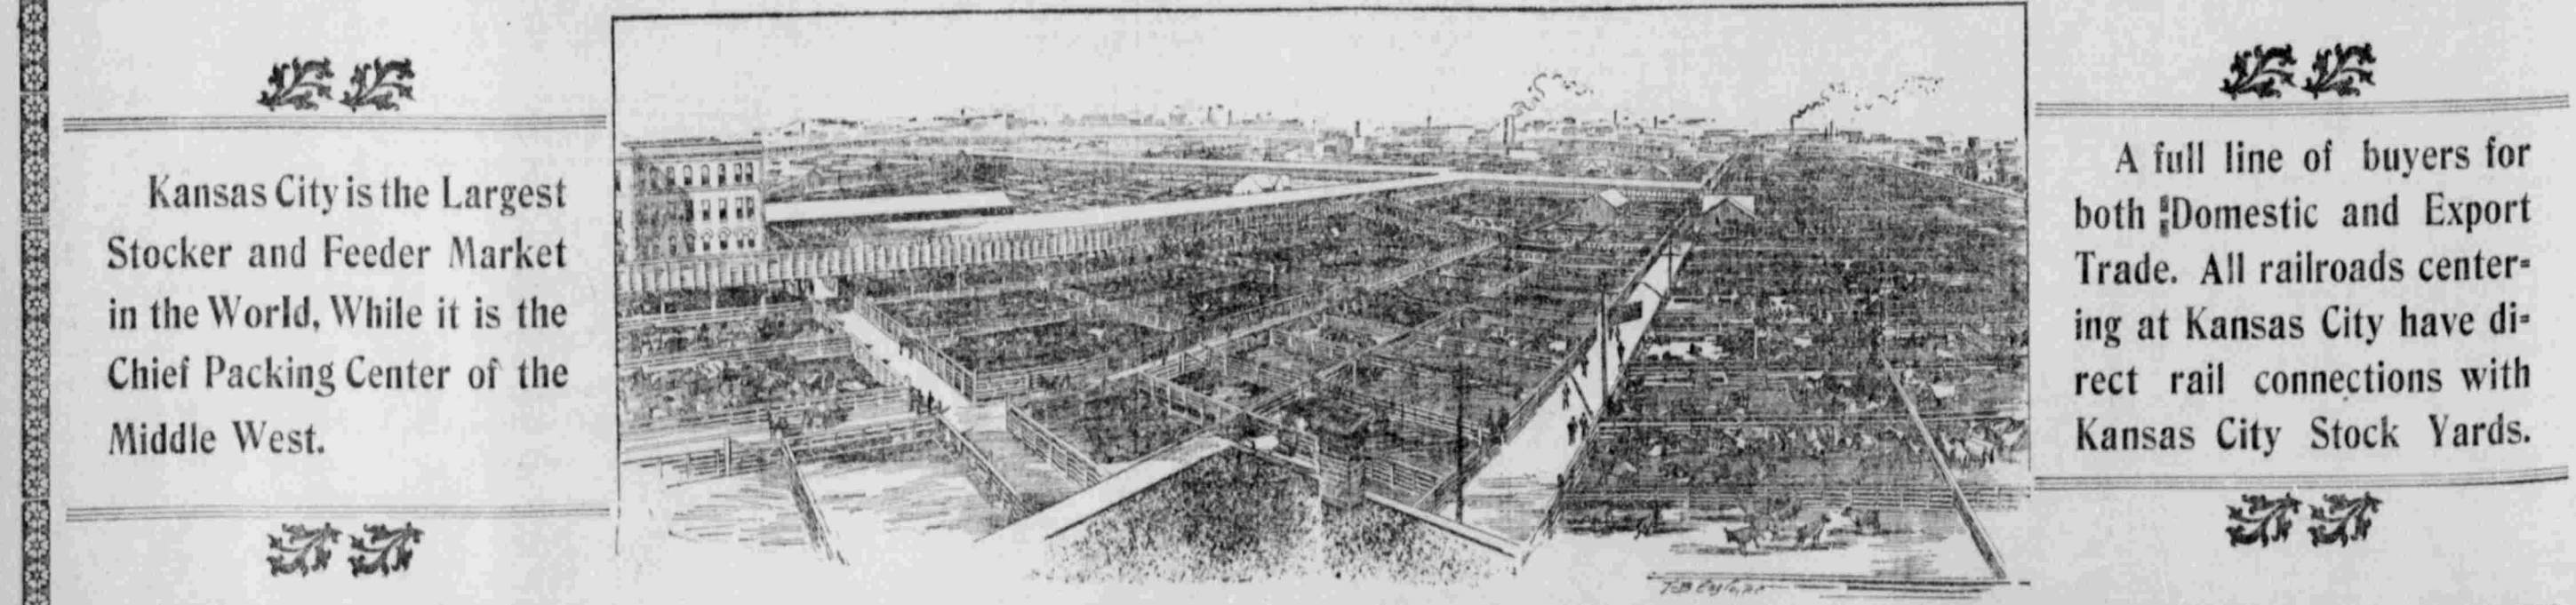

"The budget has not been discussed, the treasury debt is unpaid, we still owe the bank over a thousand million pesetas, agricultural wealth has not increased and fanaticism is spreading. In consequence of the support the government has given the church, which is attacking democratic institutions and the sacred rights of man. The government constitutes the best friend of Carlism. All dynastic governments are powerless to break the chain between king and pope."

In conclusion, Senor Pi y Margall says it is futile to expect the slightest improvement in the outlook.

Prussia's Bi-Centenary.

Berlin, Jan. 17.—The celebration of the bi-centenary of the kingdom of Prussia began today with all the pomp befitting such an occasion. The weather was cold and clear and all the approaches to the palace, gay with a profusion of flags and bunting, were thronged at an early hour with sightseers who assembled to witness the trooping of the guards's colors in the courtyard of the armory. Emperor Wilhelm, the crown prince and the Duke of Connaught arrived from the castle on foot. After an inspection of the color company they proceeded to the covered court, where the princes, gen-
