

STRIKERS ARE LEAVING CAMPS.

Indications Are That All Will Be Gone Before the End of The Month.

THEIR IS NOW A LOST CAUSE.

Vacant Places Being Rapidly Filled With New Men—Output Increasing Daily.

(Special to the "News.")
Sandy, Dec. 15.—Some of the strikers here are trying to sell out so that they can move away before the end of the month. Twenty new men came in last night and the indications are that by the end of the week all the vacant places will be filled so that there will be no room for the strikers even if they wanted to return to work. There is now plenty of slack here for the coke ovens and indications are that much of it will be shipped to Castle Gate next week. There were 254 miners at work in the mine yesterday and the day before the output reached 375 tons.

FLATTENED OUT.
That the coal strike has flattened out is now being generally recognized. Here practically the full force of diggers is at work, with the usual output of coal and coke, and at Castle Gate operations will be resumed next Monday with half the customary force. The foreigners continue to leave the country, most of them with the intention of returning to their native sparghetti and olive oil. Demoli has gone to Florence, Colo., and Kellier remaining at Helper to do their level best to prevent the men from returning to work at Castle Gate. But for them it is claimed that 50 per cent of the foreigners would be back at work again.

THIS IS PAY DAY.

The ghost is walking in the militia camps today, and each soldier is being paid for 20 days' service. The enlisted men receive $1.50 per day, and the officers are paid according to their rank.

AT CASTLE GATE.

Everything Being Made Ready For an Early Start.

Special Correspondence.
Castle Gate, Carbon Co., Dec. 15.—There are over 100 men at present working at this point preparing the mine for operation, and all day long horses attached to drags of lumber could be seen toiling up the steep embankment to the mouth of the mine, this being necessary on account of the absence of motive power, the machinery not yet being started. There are also a number of men employed a short distance inside the mine preparing the armature consisting of electric motors, cables, etc. This will take some two or three days to complete. The Italian strikers here are commencing to realize that the company will not recognize their union and are weakening somewhat, yet there are some apparently determined ones among them who insist that none of them will go to work on the 21st inst. The output both at Winter Quarters and Clear Creek was increased today over Monday and Saturday's output by a considerable number of tons, and before many days it is thought that the normal output will be reached. The guardsmen encamped at these stations continue in good health, which in fact is the condition in general.

COUGHS, COLIC AND CONSTIPATION.
Few people realize when taking cough medicines other than Foley's Honey and Tar, that they contain opiates which are constipating, besides being unsafe, particularly for children. Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates, is safe and sure and will not constipate. Sold by Johnson-Pratt Drug Co.

NUT COAL.

A striking miner named Plasco has written the attorney-general, relating that on his return recently from Scotland to Clear Creek, he found that his goods and chattels had been removed from his house and stored in a hut in the vicinity, and the house taken possession of by the Fuel company. Plasco wanted the state to aid him in prosecuting the company. The attorney-general says the man has recourse under the law, but the state can do nothing for him.

Every man now hired in the coal region is obliged to forewarn the union, in fact enter into an iron and adamant to let such things severely alone forever and for aye—while in the employ of the Utah Fuel company. In view of the peaceable status of Sandy, 25 of the company guards there have been discharged.

GRAZING PERMITS.

Interesting Notice for Sheep Men is Issued Regarding Uintah Reservation.

The following notice of interest to live stock owners, was received last evening in the "News" office from Forest Supervisor Marshall at Kanab, Utah:

"On Dec. 1, 1903, the secretary of the interior decided to allow 125,000 head of sheep to graze in the Uintah forest reserve from July 1 to Sept. 20, inclusive, 1904, and also 15,000 head of cattle and horses from May 15 to Oct. 31, 1904. He also continued the existing cattle ranges in districts 3 and 10, in which established an additional cattle range in the west end of district No. 11, from which sheep shall be excluded, while cattle range is bounded and described as follows: Beginning at the southwest corner of the reserve, running the east branch of Little South Fork, in a southerly direction to the south line of the reserve, and thence southerly along the boundary line to the place of beginning. I am now ready to consider applications for grazing in the reserve, to the end that permits may be issued at an early date. The applications should be before this office not later than Feb. 1, 1904, all applications submitted after that date will not be considered."

JIM LEARY CANED.

James C. Leary is now pushing his weary way along life's path with the aid of a gold headed cane, which was presented to him yesterday, by F. H. Plaisted. On the knob of gold decorating the north pole end of the ebony stick is the single, simple, touching and pathetic inscription, "Jim," only that and nothing more, and accompanying the gift was this "heart to heart" letter from the donor:

"Friend Jim—You told me before the election that you would be disappointed with less than 2,400 plurality for Morris. I see by the official returns that he received only 2,270. Let me console with you, and at the same time accept this cane, which I hope in a future may enable you to Stand Up for Salt Lake. Sincerely your friend, 'F. H. PLAISTED.'"

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

The demand for the popular assembly dances has resulted in arrangement being made for a series of dances to begin with the evening of Jan. 5, and end after Easter. This will be a pleasureable announcement to many who were fearing that the events that have been so much enjoyed in the past were to be missed this season.

PANAMA REPUBLIC FULLY DISCUSSED.

Asst. Secy. of State Loomis Defends President's Course in Recognizing It.

NO DESIRE TO ANNEX PANAMA.

Executed Will of the American People With Due Regard to International Law and Rights.

New York, Dec. 15.—The conditions which resulted in the recent establishment of the republic of Panama were discussed tonight at the banquet of the Quill club held at the Hotel Manhattan, by Francis B. Loomis, assistant secretary of state of the United States, and M. Philippe Bunau-Varilla, minister for Panama. Mr. Loomis said:

"We have not desired to annex Panama, and we have not done so. The president simply executed the will of the American people, with due regard to international law and rights. He was instructed by Congress to secure a canal route on the isthmus of Panama if possible. He waited until the adjournment of the Colombian congress and gave the government of that country every opportunity to ratify the treaty, or to propose some proper method looking to the ratification of a new treaty, and the Colombian congress, in utter bad faith, rejected the treaty and adjourned."

"In less than a week's time, and before the president could be reasonably expected to turn to grave consideration of the Nicaragua route, the long expected and inevitable revolution in Panama came to pass. The people arose as one man, and in thorough accord, without the firing of a single shot, unreluctantly they quietly established a government of their own. They had their own independent and the right of secession was, I believe, expressly stipulated in some of their constitutions."

"The president dispatched our naval force ashore, consisting of forty marines, to do what they could to preserve peace, order and unimpeded transit across the isthmus. He promptly recognized the de facto government as soon as he learned that it was in peaceful possession of the country. This is the usual and necessary proceeding. We have on many occasions recognized new governments with an equal degree of celerity and promptness. Later the republic of Panama was given full recognition. We are acting fairly and lawfully under the treaty of 1846. The administration, I am sure, has no apologies to offer for its course."

Mr. Loomis discussed the rejection of the canal treaty by the Bogota congress, and continued:

"If the revolution in Panama had not occurred; if the American people, guided by the wisdom of its most learned, efficient and highly-trusted engineers, continued to think the Nicaragua route an impracticable one; if the people and Congress of this country had insisted that we wait for a year, or until such time as the politicians at Bogota were ready to negotiate a new canal treaty, and in the meantime the Congress had declared invalid the removal of the French concession, what might have happened on the isthmus? I may safely assert, without fear of contradiction by any well-informed person, that the government of France would not have stood by and witnessed the pillage of thousands of her people through the act which Bogota politicians devised for the looting from the French company of $40,000,000."

"The moment that the cables flashed from Bogota to Paris the last astounding news that the extension of the French concession was canceled, a French squadron from Martinique would have borne down upon the isthmus and perhaps landed marines at Colon and sent them across the isthmus to Panama and along the line of the canal to protect the interests and property of French citizens. There would, in all probability, have been armed conflict between France and Colombia, or France at least would have felt herself compelled to hold the isthmus for a long period. This would have wrought immediate and politically upon the sensibilities of the American people in respect to the Monroe doctrine, and we should no doubt have found ourselves viewing France with annoying aversion. The French warship might easily have been followed by those of England and Holland; and Panama, like the Balkan states, might well have been expected to furnish the spark to set half the world in flames."

"PE-RU-NA RESTORES HEALTH AND VIGOR."

Writes Mrs. Dr. Edwards, of Iowa.

An Interesting Letter From a Thankful Woman.

Mrs. Doctor Harriet Edwards.

Most of the Ailments Peculiar to the Female Sex Are Due to Catarrh of Pelvic Organs.

Mrs. Harriet R. Edwards, 1015 Brady, B., Davenport, Ia., writes concerning Peruna:

"Every physician knows that while the proper remedy will restore health the wrong medicine will act as a poison. Any physician knows that if he does not administer the proper medicine for a certain case it acts as a poison to the system, and it is therefore very important that one should have the right medicine."

"I have found that Peruna is a wonderful medicine to use in diseases peculiar to women. It quickly and permanently restores health and vigor and acts as a tonic to a worn out system. I have so far never observed a case which was not greatly aided by its use."—Rev. Harriet R. Edwards.

Peruna has cured thousands of cases of female weakness. As a rule, however, before Peruna is resorted to, several other remedies have been tried in vain. A great many of the patients have taken local treatment, submitted themselves to surgical operations, and taken all sorts of doctor's stuff, without any result.

The reason of so many failures is the fact that diseases peculiar to the female sex are not commonly recognized as being caused by catarrh. These organs are lined by mucous membranes. Any mucous membranes is subject to catarrh.

Catarrh of one organ is exactly the same as catarrh of any other organ. What will cure catarrh of the head will also cure catarrh of the pelvic organs. Peruna cures these cases simply because it cures the catarrh.

Most of the women afflicted with pelvic diseases have no idea that their trouble is due to catarrh. The majority of the people think that catarrh is a disease confined to the head alone.

This is not true. Catarrh is liable to Attack any organ of the body; throat, bronchial tubes, lungs, stomach, kidneys and especially the pelvic organs.

Many a woman has made this discovery after a long siege of useless treatment. She has made the discovery that her disease is catarrh, and that Peruna can be relied upon to cure catarrh wherever located.

Mrs. Judge McAllister writes from 1217 West Twenty-third street, Minneapolis, Minn., as follows:

"I suffered for years with a pain in the small of my back and right side. It interfered often with my domestic and social duties and I never supposed that I would be cured, as the doctor's medicine did not seem to help me any."

"I took Peruna faithfully for seven weeks and am happy indeed to be able to say that I am entirely cured. Perfect health once more is the best thing I could wish for, and thanks to Peruna I enjoy that now."—Minnie E. McAllister.

If you do not receive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
