

49; Roy Weaver, 14: Lorain Weaver, 3; Taily Weaver, 3: Joseph White, 35. Fatally burned: Alice Weaver. Seriously burned: James Weaver. How soon he intends to an out with this objective is not yet End at, but the, pacification of the he shifters seems now engaging all histantion. When the move comes its doubtless be accomplished with herecy and swiftness which have CAUGHT IN TH COLD SNAP. How Jack Frost Ma e a Pinch Over a Large Are L ensterized all the British advances, Pittsburg, Pa., March 17 .- The mermilord Roberts assumed com the meanwhile the fate of Mafecury dropped to two degrees above ze-By remains unknwon. ro about daylight. This is the coldest. s revolt of the Cape Dutch in the weather ever experienced in March in mehan seems to have its neck broken and it is likely Gen, Kitchener will soon this section for twenty-three years. The all that lets the British troops Lima, O., March 17 .- The temperature dropped to seven below zero this in Mull and the Free State recuperate morning. The gas pressure is so weak that it is not sufficient to keep the house warm. There is suffering. Cleveland, O., March 17.—The lowest bings no rest to the engineers ort service. Girourd, the young dian officer who rules supreme over the railroads, is now putting his sys-March temperature experienced in fifim to the most severe test in an ender of Bartlett Sinclair. He had had an interview with Sinclair, and had teen years in this city was recorded savor to pour supplies from Capetown The mercury indicated to Biosmfontein early today. from one to three below zero had been at work at Burke when the mine at Wardner was blown up, but Savannah, Ga., March 17 .- Inquiries was absent and that great property in-terests depended upon him. The officer, Major Morten, replied that martial law had been declared and that he would have to go to Wardner. He testified that he heard Major Morten order some of his troops to break into his (Gill's) house. The soldiers broke in the door. He noticed other instances of a simi-lar character. He testified to general rude and harsh treatment suffered by the arrested miners at the hands of the troops. Later in the day he was arrested and went back to the mine with eight miners and worked all night with them to get the water which had accumulated, out of the mine. The on-

In his optim

could have been served.

been arrested.

davits.

pen'

men.

not acquit.

ditions in the "bull pen."

escaped into Montana. Had the mili-tary not been there, many of these would have returned and could have

Mr. Gill testified that he had been informed that no releases from the "bull pen" would be made except on the or-presented affidavits regarding men who he (Sinclair) refused to release them, saying that he took no stock in affithat it was the duty of reputable citiother witnesses. He testified that the deputies had had some trouble with former had informed Lieut, Lyons that the firemen had applied opprobious epithets to them. Then Lieut, Lyons had complained of this to him (Gill) unless the firemen apologized.

Sinclair had informed him

imulated, out of the mine.

tion. It is intimated that this effort is attributable solely to an interest in the personal welfare of the general. In this connection it is recalled that the President has had it in mind to ask Congress, for special legislation em-powering him to retire Gen. Wheeler, Gen. Lee and other brigadier generals of volunteers with the rank of briga-dier general in the regular army. Some of the persons who are interested in the success of this movement feel that by immediate resignation and the prose-cution of his present determination to attempt to secure his sent in the House of Representatives General Wheeler will rouse antagonism which may make it difficult or Impossible thereafter to secure from the House the legislation needful to secure his retirament. It was performed today in the pres-ence of the lord lleutenant of Ireland, Earl Cadogan, the duke of Connaught, commander-in-chief of the forces in Ireland, and a brilliant assemblage. All the troops wore the shamrock. The second day's sale of the Irish in-The ly disturbance made in Burke that day the disturbance created by There was no necessity for NEW SMALL ROLEGASE. soldiery. There was no necessity for the soldiers, he sold, as civil processes

the charge is that he ruined Emma Jensen, a young woman who is now but a regular Church trial at the town in which he lived, and that he had been exonorated, the charges not being sus-brings forth a new witness to give further testimony in her behalf, but not against Mr. Isaac Smtn. The statement that that gentleman's conduct is being investigated by the First Presidency is wholly untrue, as is also the statement that Apostle Teasdale is sitting upon the case. If Mr. Smith were guilty, or even accused, as the Tribune intimated, the matter would take the usual course of such cases and not go before the First Presidency, as

DUBOIS FAMILY HAPPY.

A Little Daughter Made Her Debut at

Their Home Today.

A special dispatch to the "News"

from Blackfoot, Idaho, this afternoon,

Dubois home today. The occasion for the unusual rejoicing is the fact that daughter was born to ex-Senator and is their first-born, and the friends of Mr, and Mrs. Dubois will extend con-gratulations to them."

NEW LIBRARY BOOKS.

Brice and others, Britain and Boer.

Laciani, Destruction of Ancient

Rawson, Twenty Famous Naval Bat-

FICTION.

JUVENILE.

Wife Sues for Divorce.

Garland, Boy Life on the Prairie.

Chapman, Practical Agitation.

Ely, Monopolles and Trusts.

Henley, Views and Reviews. Hurll, Michael-Angelo.

King, Irrigation and Drainage.

Chesnutt, Wife of His Youth.

Dickson, Black Wolf's Breed. Gray, The World's Mercy.

Patterson, Cromwell's Own,

Saunder's, Beautiful Joe,

The following new books have been

Mrs. Fred Dubois this morning.

received at the public library:

Adams, Modern Farmer.

Roberts, The Farmstead.

Hope, Captain Diepue

Whitney, Square Pegs.

"There is much happiness in the

It appears that the girl now

Other cases were disposed of in executive session by the board as follows James W. Riddle, convicted of grand larceny at Nebhi and sentenced on No-vember 29, 1895, to two and a half years' imprisonment; pardon denied. ing the matter, the Tribune continues that Isaac Snith, in whose care the girl had been placed while her brother had gone on a mission, was suspected Niels P. Christensen, convicted of forand charged with being the despoiler of her innocence, and that he accused nication and sentenced to seventy-five days, imprisonment; pardon denied. August Nielsen, convicted of murder his young son with being responsible for the outrage. As a conclusive charge, in the first degree and sentenced to life the paper states that this is not Smith's imprisonment; continued one month. first attempt of the kind, he having William D. Reeves, convicted of burbeen guilty of at least one other such glary and sentenced to two years; con-Mr. Isaac Smith of Logan entered an emphatic denial of the charge last tinued one month. Joseph Smith, convicted of grand larceny and sentenced to imprisonment evening, saying that he had absolutely no knowledge of such a case being for two years; continued one month. Lorin H. Harmer, convicted at Provo heard against him by the First Presi of adultery and sentenced to one year; dency and an inquiry into the facts to-day developed that Mr. Smith was not continued one month. so accused; that a young son had been so charged at one time, but he had had seventeen years of age, though she be-came a mother in May last." After a further preliminary statement regard-wrong in the past.

tained.

says:

Rome

tles

Teasdale is also slitting as judge upon the case." The paper then says that "Isaac Smith, a member of the Stake presi-dency of Cache county, is accused, and the charge is that he ruined Emma wall, England.

DENIALS AND CONTINUANCES.

Commandant Olivier, after leaving Emperadorp, went to Rouxville, where his new reported to be with only a Tal river.

Dr. Leyds, the diplomatic agent of the usual, has disappeared from Brus-According to a Globe special, telleved to have come to London, but whitg is known here about his ar-

al. It seems scarcely likely that would jump into the Hon's mouth, ad the encigetic Boer representative more ligely to be soon heard of at of the other European capitals departure of Lady Roberts from adon for South Africa today was de the occasion for a popular demon-Among her fellow travelers the duchess of Teck, who has rick Carrington and staff; Lady Ches-am, and Miss Rhodes, the latter Cecil des' sister.

large gathering of friends bade erts farewell, including Mr derick, the parliamentary secretary the foreign office Mr. Wyndham, the filamentary secretary of the war and the duke of Abercorn, La-Roberts was accompanied by her daughters, all in the deepest mourn. Shortly after they entered their carriage, the lord mayor presentthe three ladies with bunches of brock. The departure of the train vas the signal for a great outburst of UMILATI/ cheering and the waving of flags and handkerchiefs.

Vanzyl, Friday, March 16 .- The rallad has been reopened from Bloem-Gen. Pole-Carew and the grenadiers here just errived at Norvals Pont. Convicted a Wife Murderer.

Lexington, Neb., March 17 .- The jury he case of Frank Dinsmore, charged ith the murder of his wife and, John sue, the husband of his paramour, sumed a verdict of guilty of murder at hanging. Gov. Taylor at Louisville.

Frankfort, Ky., March 17 .- Gov. Tayleft the left the State capital today for devilie. An escort of twenty soldiers apanied him to the train. It is aid he is preparing to buy a house near the first degree and fixed the penalty siscille, Ky., March 17 .-- Gov, Tayresched here about noon. He was consultation with a number of proment Republican politicians during the ## Desert Land Legislation.

Washington, March 17 .- The House a bill abolishing the payment of is an are on land taken up by setthere under the desert land act. The committee also reported favorably a bill to refund $1.25 per acre to persons who have located under the pre-emption or how control under the pre-emption innestead laws and who have commuted their entries by cash payments at $250 per acre where the lands located railroad grant and the railroad was ver built.

JOCKEY CLUB MEET.

Event of the Sensori at New Orleans

Today. New Orleans, La., March 17 .- The rescent City jockey club long winter seeing will close this afternoon and be event will be signalized by the funning of the fourth Crescent City der-7. The field will not only be the largof leading fruit growers near here indi-cate that the fruit crop has not been materially injured by the present cold weather.

Rush of National Banks.

New York, March 17 .- A majority of the national banks in New York have already made applications to increase their circulation to the par value of the bonds deposited by them at Washington and the necessary papers have in most cases been forwarded to the secretary of the treasury. It is estimated that the increase in circulation will amount to at least $2,000,000 exclusive of the circulation that may be taken out on the deposit of additional bonds.

Bank President Sentenced.

Chicago, March 17 .- George L. Magill, formerly president of the Avenue Savings bank, which collapsed in August, 1896, was today convicted of receiving deposits knowing his institution to be insolvent, and sentenced to the penitentiary for an indefinite term. He was also fined double the amount He of the deposits received, the fine amounting to $2,396. Motion for a new of trial was made.

Legislators Brought to Time.

Albany, N. Y. March 17 .- The arrest of State Senator Ellsworth in Buffalo yesterday had its sequel in the senate this morning at daylight when, after an all-night session, the leader of the ma-jority and four other senators who aided in breaking the quorum were brought to the bar of the house. Their explanations were heard and on motion of Senator Grady, they were all excused.

Sighted the Smoke.

St. Joseph, Mish., March 17 .- The smoke of the ice-bound steamer Louisville which has laid ice bound five miles out on the Chicago course the past twenty-four hours was sighted this morning. The harbor tug with President Graham, of the Graham and Norton company aboard, started to plow through the ice at 7 a. m. A force of men had worked all night preparing provisions for the twenty-two passengers and crew aboard the Louisville. The tug reached the steamer which is now being coaled ready to start for the shore.

Gen. Otis Wants Filipino Soldiers.

Washington, March 17 .- The adjutant general received a telegram today from General Otis asking authority to allow Filipinos to enlist as members of the regimental bands in the Philippines. The request will be granted as a matter of policy.

Terrorized by Whitecaps.

Columbia, S. C., March 17 .- Governor McSweeney, who last night received dispatches from Neces. Orangeburg county, stating that the community ten thousand copies of which have alwas terrorized by whitecaps, has been informed that quiet prevails there today.

Too Cold for St. Patrick.

Detroit, Mich., March 17 .- The tempersture today stood at two below zero in Detroit and throughout Southern Michigan it was the coldest 17th of March in 23 years.

venture will be a successful one. She states that it is almost beyond human comprehension to know what the Idaho The St. Patrick's day parade was practically abandoned.

Colored Man Taken from His Lodgings ion the advent of the military defeated to the Isolation Hospital. the ends of justice. The guilty parties

Another case of smallpox was discovered in this city today. The victimis a colored man who answers to the name of A. Rand, who has been rooming at the rear of the premises known as No. 220 South State street. For several days past residents in that vihad been suspicious of cinity. who had been keeping pretty well under cover and otherwise acting in a pe cullar manner. His conduct led to an investigation and the inquiry to the declaration by Dr. Mayo that Rand had a well developed case of small-He was, accordingly hustled off zens to bring affidavits to convict and DOX. to the isolation hospital. Several per-The witness described conons have come in close contact. with His testimony was similar to that of Rand during his hibernation and it is not improbable that other cases of the disease will follow as a result of such the firemen under his control and the contact.

LATE LOCAL NEWS.

In the probate court today an order and said that if such epithets had been applied to him he (Lyons) would have shot the offender. Lieut, Lyons threatwas made by Judge Hiles dissolving the Pensylvania Smelting company.

The application of Alfred Oscar ened to send the firemen to the "bull Clamer to charge his name was grant-ed by Judge Hiles today, and hereafter the petitioner will be known as Alfred The dignity of the State officers must be upheld. Lieut. Lyons said. Later the firemen apologized and the trouble was amicably settled. - Mr. Gill Oscar Miller.

Marriage licenses were issued today to the following parties: Robert Swenson, 20, and Olga Anderson, 18, both of Murray; Carl Larson, 50, and Maria Blom, 38, both of Union: William King, 27, of Ogden, and Lottie Shipp, 22, of Salt Lake City.

Mr. Alfred Thomas, who returned recently from a three-years' mission to Germany, will enter the employ of the Johnson-Pratt Drug company as German clerk.

With the compliments of the Kutnewsky Brothers, managers of the Equitable Life Insurance Co., for Utah, the News has received a copy of the "Concise Atlas of the World" just is-sued by the Equitable. It is an invaluable little volume for reference.

The little daughter of Mr. George McAllister, of the Z. C. M. L. left home yesterday afternoon and for several hours was lost to her folks who were looking anxiously for her in all direc-tions. About 5 o'clock she was found by her father near the University building about a mile from home.

Prof. George Marshall has accepted an invitation from the president of the Young Men's Mutual Improvement as. sociation of the Eighteenth ward to deliver a talk to the young peopl the ward on "How the Battle of Bunker It will be made Hill Was Fought." the main feature of a "patriotic even-ing," which will be celebrated in the ing. ward during the present month.

A horse, driven by a countryman, took fright at a street car on West Second South street today, and began rearing and plunging until it had broken loose from the buggy when it pitched down the street at a terrific rate of speed. The buggy was some-what damaged but, luckly for its oc-cupant, the horse kicked loose from it before he was injured. When last seen the horse running madly west-

George E. Hill, B. H. Roberts' private secretary, has decided to quit Utah and make his home in Idaho. He will, Utah therefore, set out tonight with his with family, in company with Walter Scholes and his family, for Rigby, Fre Walter mont county, Idaho, one of the choicest spots in our sister State on the north, spots in our sister State on the horth, and where Mr. Hill owns a 160-acre farm. He will practice law in connec-tion with his agricultural and stock-raising pursuits. Mr. Hill has lived here for several years, and has a host of friends who send with him their sincere and earnest wishes for his pros-perity in his adopted State, although they regret his loss as a friend and substantial citizen. One is to be Organized in This City substantial citizen.

justries association was opened at the London mansion house this afternoon by the lady mayoress, with princesses and duchesses, countesses and comattending the stalls, which conducted the biggest kind of a trad

Most of the government officials holst-ed the Irish flag and the clubs were similarly decorated, the officials all wearing the green.

In the churches the preachers referred to the occasion, thanking Providence that the English had learned to love and respect their Irish fellow subjects as they never knew them or respected them before. The lord chief justice, Lord Russell of Killowen, set the example in the law courts and all the judges ollowing his example of wearing the shamrock below their ermine collars. The theaters are all prepared to mark the day in the same way tonight. On the stock exchange the enthusiasm shown in celebrating the day gave the room the appearance of a green house. The shamrock was everywhere, there was more toasting of healths than work. As a result prices were better, though nobody knows why.

The scenes at Aldershot were characteristic of the celebration of St. Patrick's Day, and in all the other garrison towns the shamrock was donned by all the troops privileged to wear it. At reveille the Irish bands made a tour of the barracks playing "Garry Owen;" "St. Patrick's Day in the Morning," and "The Boys of Wexford," in front of the officers' mess they played the national authem and cheered the queen.

that journal so sensationally declares. Several lawyers, who discussed the matter today, say that Mr. Smith has the best possible material out of which It is understood the queen having approved the proposed formation of a regiment of Irish guards will make the to weave a libel suit against that sheet. Whether or not Mr. Smith will take that course is not known in Salt Lake.

The usual lord mayor's procession took place in Dublin today. The lord mayor of Belfast and the mayor of Cork participated but a number of nationalist mayors refused to accept the lord may or's invitation to take part in the affair.

The chief magistrate met with a mixed reception and there were disor derly scenes at several points along the route of the parade.

St. Patrick's church, London, was densely packed when Bishop Bringle D. S. O. (distinguished service order), late chaplain of the British forces in South Africa, officiated at a pontifical high mass in the presence of Cardinal Vaughan. All the clergy and the congregation wore the sharprock, and the scene as the cardinal in his red and white robes slowly moved up the central aisle blessing the congregation was very impressive. was expected that the cardinal It would deliver the St. Patrick's day ad-dress, but this devolved on Father dress, but this devolved on Father Aidan, who remarked that both friend and foe were unstintedly praising Irish bravery, heroism and generalship just now so conspicuous on the battle field, and the "wearing of the shamrock emblem, of Irish nationality and cath-olicity had become by the gracious act of our most revered sovereign an ac-knowledgment of the heroism and valor of their Irish sons in the war."

CHRISTIAN GETS 30 DAYS.

Man Charged With Housebreaking Gets Off Easy.

Arthur Christian, who was arrested by Detective Sheets a few days ago on the charge of housebreaking, had a hearing before Justice Timmony this afternoon.

The evidence was not sufficient to justify the charge made and it was changed to petit larceny.

Next Week.

Mary E. Gordon filed a divorce suit gainst William R. Gordon in the Third district court today, alleging that the marriage took place in this city on De-Christian purloined an overcoat from the Walker house where he was emcember 4, 1894, and that for more The coat belonged to J. Paul. a year past the defendant has failed to of Bingham. Christian admitted steal-ing the cost. He was given thirty days provide her with the common neces-saries of life. Plaintiff further alleges that she is in indigent circumstances; in ill health and wholly dependent upon her own labor and help of friends for A NEW CLUB FOR WOMEN. her support.

Estate of Thomas G. Merrill.

An evening club for women is being organized in Salt Lake, to be known

William H. Woolley, convicted of grand larceny at Kanab and sentenced one year; continued one month. James J. Booth, burglary; same order. Jens T. Rhode, convicted of adultery at Brigham City; application for re-hearing continued one month.

CLERK BLAIR APPOINTED.

Made Special Master in the Auerbach Estate.

Judge Hiles made an order today appointing George E. Blair special master in the estate of the late Frederick H. Auerbach

Mr. Bla'r's duties will be to examine the accounts of Samuel H. Auerbach, the surviving partner of the firm of F. Auerbach & Bro., from the date of Mr. Auerbach's death; also to examine the stock of goods and personal assets now remaining in the hands of Mr. Samuel H. Averbach and make full report

Mr. Blair's appointment was made upon motion of Marshall, Royle & Hempstead, attorneys, on behalf of the executors of the Auerbach estate.

REFUSED TO ALLOW ALIMONY.

Divorce Case, Lindgren vs Lindgren, before Judge Hiles.

The divorce suit of Eva Lindgren against Carl Lindgren came up before Judge Hiles today upon a motion of plaintiff's for an injunction preventing the defendant from selling the house-hold goods, or from visiting Mrs. Lindgren at her home; also for temporary alimon 7

The parties, who are Swedish people, were matried in the old country in October, 1881, and have four children, Mrs. Lindgren based her action on the grounds of cruelty and failure to sup-

Today's hearing was somewhat humoreus on account of neither of the parties being able to talk English, Councilman F. S. Fernstrom was sworn as interpretor, and right well did he perform his part.

The plaintiff testified that her hus-band had abused her and one time placked her arms in the presence of their children. She further testified that Lindrren had ordered her to go to that country which is generally conceded to be much warmer than Sweden, their native land.

A son of the parties, who said his name was Harry, and that he was nincteen years of age, corroborated his

The defendant then took the stand and den's d that he had ever treated his wife in a cruel manner. He further wife in a cruel manner. He further stated that while at the Star mine, Pine canyon, he received an in-jury to his foot through a rock falling on it, and on account of this he had been unable to support his family.

Judge Hiles granted that part of the motion requiring the defendant to refrain from disposing of the furniture, but refused to enjoin the defendant from coing to his house, or allow plain-

Johnson & Fowler appeared for plaintiff, and Farnsworth & Lund for the defendant. titt

Judgment for Plaintiff.

Judge Hiles today rendered a de-cision in the case of Joseph C. Perry et al vs Martha D.Corey, quieting plaintiff's title to certain real property.

ward, and has likely gone home, ployed. in the county jail.

from the north this morning was Mrs. M. Atkwright Hutton of Wallace, Idaho, range for the publication of a book, ten thousand copies of which have al-ready been subscribed for by the Idaho State Federation of Labor. It bears the significant title, "The Coeur d'Alene, or a Tale of the Modern Inquisition in Mrs. Hutton has made a careful study of the interesting subject upon which the book treats. It is her first literary said that the men in the Coeur d'Alene district were lawabiding. They were not, as a class, inferior to those in any other mining community. There were some had men among them, but as a class they were exceptionally good These bad men were not permanent residents of the district. far as the Tiger and Poorman mine was concerned, the relation between the miners and Mr. Culberson, the active manager, were very cordial.

Without disposing of the witness, the committee then adjourned until Monday.

DOG CAUSES A BROKEN ARM Willie Holding Thrown from a Bicycle

with Serious Results This Afternoon.

Willie Holding, a "News" carrier, was the victim of a serious accident shortly after 3 o'clock this afternoon. The young man was riding along First South street, just below Second East street on his way to this office, when a vicious dog ran through a gate at him, throwing him from his wheel and causing him to fall heavily upon his left arm, the bones of which were broken between the elbow and wrist. The young man was picked up and taken to his parent's home for treatment by a doctor who was speedily summoned. Willie is the son of E. G. Holding, the well known electrician. His man friends hope for his speedy recovery.

His many

CŒUR D'ALENE TROUBLES.

Lady Author Arranging for the Publication of a Book on Them.

Idaho

Among the travelers who came in effort, but she modestly asserts that the

