WHO IS UNACQUAINTED WITH THE GEOGRAPHY OF THIS COUNTRY, WILL SEE BY EXAMINING THIS MAP, THAT THE

CHICAGO, ROCK ISLAND & PACIFIC R'Y

By reason of its central position, close relation to principal lines East of Chicago and continuous lines at terminal points West, Northwest and Southwest—is the only true middle-link in that transcontinental system which invites and facilitates the travel and traffic in either direction between the Atlantic and Pacific.

The Rock Island main line and branches include Chicago, Joliet, Ottawa, La Salle, Peoria, Geneseo, Moline and Rock Island, in Illinois; Davenport, Muscatine, Washington, Fairfield, Ottumwa, Oskaloosa, West Liberty, Iowa City, Des Moines, Indianola, Winterset, Atlantic, Knoxville, Audubon, Harlan, Guthrie Centre and Council Bluffs, in Iowa; Gallatin, Trenton, St. Joseph, Cameron and Kansas City, in Missouri; Leavenworth and Atchison, in Kansas; Albert Lea, Minneapolis and St. Paul, in Minnesota; Watertown in Dakota, and hundreds of intermediate cities, towns and villages.

THE GREAT ROCK ISLAND ROUTE

Guarantees Speed, Comfort and Safety to those who travel over it. Its roadbed is thoroughly ballasted. Its track is of heavy steel. Its bridges are solid structures of stone and iron. Its rolling stock is perfect as human skill can make it. It has all the safety appliances that mechanical genius has invented and experience proved valuable. Its practical operation is conservative and methodical—its discipline strict and exacting. The luxury of its passenger accommodations is unequaled in the West—unsurpassed in the world.

ALL EXPRESS TRAINS between Chicago and the Missouri River consist of comfortable DAY COACHES, magnificent PALACE SMOKING CARS, and SLEEPING CARS, elegant DINING CARS providing excellent meals, and between Chicago, St. Joseph, Atchison and Kansas City—restful RECLINING CHAIR CARS.

THE FAMOUS ALBERT LEA ROUTE

Is the direct, favorite line between Chicago and Minneapolis and St. Paul. Over this route solid Fast Express Trains run daily to the summer resorts, picturesque localities and hunting and fishing grounds of Iowa and Minnesota. The rich wheat fields and dairy farms of interior Dakota are reached via Watertown.

A short Retirement route, via Seneca and Kankakee, offers superior inducements to travelers between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Council Bluffs, St. Joseph, Atchison, Leavenworth, Kansas City, Minneapolis, St. Paul and intermediate points.

All classes of patrons, especially families, ladies and children, receive from officials and employes of Rock Island trains protection, respectful courtesy and kindly attention.

EVENING NEWS.

Friday, March 11, 1887.

CORRESPONDENCE.

SEVERE BUT FITTING WORDS.

SALT LAKE CITY, March 9, 1887.

Editor Deseret News:

I see you have expressed your views in last Monday evening's issue, in relation to the passage of the Edmunds-Tucker bill without the President's signature, and I think President Cleveland ought to feel very proud of having such an able apologist as you have proved to be in defending or at least excusing him in his non-action, by which he suffered that bill to become law. Your somewhat elaborate and ingenious reference to his trying position, may show a worthy consideration on your part for his official sufferings in that trying ordeal which demanded of him the performance of an official duty; but, sir, your eyes must not be closed, your heart must not be invincible to the fact, that the duty he failed to perform on that occasion could not be done by another, and for him to stand by and with placid indifference, see the rights and liberties and even the citizenship of many thousands of his countrymen wrested from them, when the stroke of his pen could have availed the evil and consequent suffering, was a crime of the highest order. The President holds his position for the purpose, and it is his sworn duty to see every citizen of the land protected in his constitutional rights, either at home or abroad, when the law provides for such protection, and he is appealed to for that purpose. Now, when he is appealed to by this unconstitutional and infamous bill, he prostitutes his office, denies his oath, and recklessly suffers the mass of the people of a flourishing Territory to be virtually disfranchised, because they are unpopular, and his popularity must be preserved at the sacrifice of all others, if needs be. I am willing to give him the benefit of all he could legally claim, and allow him the right of two witnesses at least, to be a testimony against him, and if in his sound judgment of constitutional law, he discovers two provisions in that bill that were opposed to the constitutional rights of the people of Eib, he was in duty bound to return it with his veto to the Congress which passed it. And I venture to say that his own conscience was convinced of this fact, and that there is not a sound constitutional lawyer in the land that cannot recognize in that bill most flagrant violations of the rights and liberties of American citizens in the possession of which they are guaranteed protection by the Constitution.

The fact that two great parties, and even national clamor, were pressing him, is no apology or justifiable excuse for his inaction. That fact was a pressing demand for his prompt and ready action to defend the right and maintain and defend his dignified official position. Has it come to this, that there is not one in the land that has the will and power to stay the tide that is surging against the bulwarks of our Constitution, threatening destruction to our entire political fabric? The plea that he did not sign the bill, makes it none the less inexcusable. He gave it his assent by silently suffering that to be which he was under the solemn obligation of an oath to prevent. Even what may be deemed a semi-official act may be admisible when no injury can result from it. As in the case of Jesus pleading with John to suffer him to be baptized; but when the liberties and lives of the innocent are at stake, inaction and silence are criminal in the extreme in him who has the power but not the will or courage to save. It requires no apology, disaster must follow such an offense. There can be no honorable release from the obligation that existed. Sins of omission are at times as terrible in their consequences as those of commission. The tender-heartedness even of an editor, will not be able to induce mercy to rob justice in the day of swift and certain retribution.

As an American citizen who has honored his country at home and in foreign lands, I honor the sentiments of a former President, that the government that will not or cannot protect its citizens in their rights at home or abroad is not worth defending. What then shall be said of that man who, at the head of this mighty republic, can look quietly on and silently acquiesce in the disfranchisement of thousands of its citizens (innocent of even the accusation of crime) by a despotic decree, without judge or jury, or the exercise of any judicial justification whatever. He might at least have done as much as Pilate did, and declared himself innocent of the wrongs perpetrated. In the discharge of his official duty it could be nothing to him whether the majority of the citizens of Utah were Jews, Gentiles, Mormons, Mahomedans, Catholics or Protestants, but the simple question—Are the provisions of the Bill entirely in harmony with the Constitution? That conscientiously answered, must be maintained.

No, sir. This whole matter was no "surprise party" arrangement sprung upon President Cleveland in an unguarded moment. He had ample time and opportunity to deliberate and arrive at conclusions. He was petitioned, entreated, and his high prerogative was invoked, imploring him to come to the rescue and avert the impending danger, to act the part of a man, the part of an overruling providence and power which he alone could exercise. He failed. The consequences of that failure will be to coming generations as the history of past struggles for freedom and liberty are to the present. It was the writing of "MENE TEKEL UPHARSIN" upon the wall, that cannot be effaced.

A BRIGHTER PICTURE OF BRIGHTON.

EDEN, Bingham Co., Idaho. March 5, 1887.

Editor Deseret News:

Brighton Ward, Bannock Stake, was organized about one year ago and is situated about 20 miles from the line of the Utah & Northern Railway, at Market Lake, and is about eight miles from Rexburg. We are getting along first-rate here. A previous writer stated that there was plenty of land yet to be taken up in Brighton and there was room for 500 more families. There is in Brighton Ward 15 sections and out of these there are now filed on 10½ sections.

He further states that there is a strong opposing element to the Church and that they are the worst and bitterest enemies. I always believe that it is right to "give the devil his due," but really I think that the aforesaid correspondent got off his base a little. I have been connected with the Brighton Ward since its organization and I never have heard of any opposition from our Gentile neighbors, but the opposite. They wish us well in all our undertakings. In fact would help us to build our school house (just completed) if we would allow them, and there has never been a Teachers' trial or anything but harmony since the organization of the ward, consequently there has none fallen away. We have a good country here, can raise nearly everything that can be raised in Cache Valley. Water is plentiful but it needs some good earnest Latter-day Saints, those that are not afraid of hard work, as it needs men of stability, and I think that Brighton Ward will come along. But a man that is too sanctimonious to do hard work had better give a wide berth to Brighton Ward. These are the plain simple facts and figures, and I do not wish any of your numerous readers to be misled about this place. We have plenty of material here to make good homes, but it needs a little more, and that is good, honest, hard-working Latter-day Saints. EDEN.

A farm hand named Jos. W. Brown while hunting near Colusa, Cal., on the 7th inst., had his gun accidentally discharged, making an ugly flesh wound on the right forearm. The flesh was torn away, but the arm will be saved.

At Fresno, Cal., March 6th, in a row in a Chinese gambling den, Ah Yen, a member of the Yuen Wah Company, was shot and instantly killed by another Chinaman. A Chinaman has been arrested on suspicion.

Fred. W. Young, manager of the St. James Hotel, committed suicide on March 7th, at San Diego, Cal., by taking chloral hydrate. A letter was found stating he would take his life, but assigning no cause for his act. He had been drinking heavily. He was of good family and popular. He was formerly a newspaper man in Rochester, N. Y.
