

WHEN AND WHERE TO PLANT TREES.

Superintendent Gives Some Timely Advice to Horticulturists.

To the Editors:—As the season for information about when and where to plant trees is now closing, it is of interest to horticulturists to know when and where to plant trees. I will give a few hints and suggestions to the public, through your columns, which will, I believe, best answer the question.

A good many trees are being planted this fall, and some are being planted in the winter. It is of interest to know when and where to plant trees. I will give a few hints and suggestions to the public, through your columns, which will, I believe, best answer the question.

WALKER'S STORE.
A Sharp Cut in Dress Goods Prices.

A Notable Sale, Entire Stock, No Reserve, Black and Colors.

The festive spirit of Thanksgiving time pervades the Store and our proclamation, although of a merciless inhospitality to be shown a GRAND, GOOD STOCK OF DRESS FABRICS will be the less interesting reading to you on that account, but make even more merry the glad season for tumbling into your possession the greatest of Bargains. A price-carrying, this, unknown ever before January at the earliest, however.
