

EXPERIMENTS IN PSYCHOLOGY

Oakland, Cal., Nov. 13.—Recent experiments in psychology made by Prof. Stephen de Lussard of St. Mary's college, have brought to light certain facts hitherto unauthenticated in the realm of psychic science, facts which may have important bearing on the hypnotic theory of crime.

Prof. de Lussard contends that by thought transference he was able to control the medium, although she was under the influence of another.

After the medium had come out of the trance she was asked why she had complied with Prof. de Lussard's request, who said that an imperative command, coming from an indomitable power had forced her to answer. Prof. de Lussard said yesterday:

"This new phenomenon tends to show that a medium in a state of clairvoyance may be put either in receptive mood and register a new impression in her brain cells, or that she is forced to act mechanically at the exact moment that she receives her consciousness. This new phase of the occult is well worth investigating, and it opens a wide field for further research."

RICHARD W. GILDER DEAD.

Editor of Century and One of Country's Foremost Literary Men.

New York, Nov. 13.—Richard Watson Gilder, editor-in-chief of the Century Magazine, died this morning at his home in New York.

and widely known as an author and lecturer, died unexpectedly tonight of a heart attack at the home of his wife, Mrs. Richard Gilder, in New York. Mr. Gilder was taken ill in the delivery of a lecture on "The Century of the Young Men's Christian Association of Orange, N. J., on Monday night, Nov. 3.

On the way home he collapsed, but managed to get to his room, where he died. Mr. Gilder was up the following day, but he suffered occasional seizures of sharp pains. His physicians, on the second day, realized that his malady was grave, but they did not acquaint Mr. Gilder with the truth.

This morning Mr. Gilder was resting easily. No fears were felt, and at noon his wife left the house. Soon after 1 o'clock she was recalled. Dr. Joseph Collins and Dr. Theodore Janeway were called in consultation with Dr. Hodgson, and it was realized that Mr. Gilder had only a few hours to live. He suffered great pain, and opiates were administered freely. The end came at 4 o'clock.

The funeral will be held at the Church of the Assumption and the burial will be at Bergenmont, N. J. The date and place of the funeral have not yet been selected.

Richard Watson Gilder early showed his bent for letters. Born at Bergenmont, N. J., in 1844, one of eight children, he was writing, setting the type for, and publishing the St. Thomas Register at Flushing, L. I., when he was 18 years old. Four years later he united with two young colleagues in the production of a campaign newspaper supporting Bell and Everett for presidential honors. His interest in politics carried him into the great civil struggle, then raging, and while still in his teens, he visited with Landis's Philadelphia battery and served in the campaign of 1861, when Pennsylvania was invaded by the Confederate forces.

The death of his father cut short a subsequent novitiate in the law, and threw on his own resources, the young man became, first, a railway paymaster and later an editor again. In "My Journalistic Experience," he tells how his duties as editor of the Newark Morning Register, a daily, and "Hours at Home," a New York monthly, published by the Scribners, proved too exacting for his strength. Moreover, the Register was losing money, he wrote, "just as fast as a newspaper can lose money, which is faster than anything else in the world."

He sold out his interest, but acquaintances he made stood him in good stead, and when Scribner's Monthly was started, absorbing "Hours at Home," Mr. Gilder found himself at the age of 26, in a position of honor and high literary influence. For eleven years he was managing editor of Scribner's under Dr. Holland, and when, at Dr. Holland's death, the magazine underwent a further reorganization and change of ownership, Mr. Gilder became, in 1881, editor-in-chief of the Country Magazine, a position he held until his death.

Better known as a poet even than as an editor, Mr. Gilder has published six books of verse, among which are Sonnets and Lyrics, which have been highly rated by critics. His best works are: "The World," "The Great Remembrance," "In Palestine," "Poems and Inspirations," "A

IF IT DISAPPEARS, IT'S ECZEMA

How to Tell Whether a Skin Affection Is an Inherited Blood Disease Or Not.

Sometimes it is hard to determine whether a skin affection is a sign of a blood disorder or simply a form of eczema. Even physicians are often puzzled in their diagnosis. The best way for any one afflicted is to go to Schramm-Johnson Drug Co. or any good druggist who handles pure drugs and obtain 50 cents' worth of poslam. Apply this, and if the itching stops at once and the trouble is cured in a few days it may be set down as having been eczema, as this is the way poslam acts in the worst cases of eczema, and in curing eczema, herpes, blotches, tetter, piles, scalp rheum, rash, barber's and other forms of itchy, scaly scalp, and all surface skin affections.

Any one who will write to the Emergency Laboratories, No. 32 West Twenty-fifth Street, New York, can secure, by mail free of charge, a supply sufficient to cure a small eczema surface or clear a complexion overnight and remove pimples in 24 hours.

CHRISTMAS WREATH AND "A BOOK OF MUSIC"

DREXEL BIDDLE ENGAGED IN RELIGIOUS WORK

Philadelphia, Nov. 13.—A. J. Drexel Biddle is devoting four nights a week to religious work. The success he has met in building up his Bible class in Holy Trinity church by making athletics and religion has brought invitations from several other churches to inaugurate his work with them.

In the church of St. John the Evangelist, where he and his Bible class took hold of the Sunday school which had dwindled to the point of abandonment, Rev. Edward Earle, the pastor, says the result has been to double the attendance of the school. Mr. Biddle's work has made a big hit. He has branches of his class in various parts of the city and all are flourishing.

FOR LARGEST SANITARIUM IN THE WHOLE WORLD

Chicago, Nov. 13.—Twenty-five prominent physicians and surgeons of Chicago met last night at the Chicago Athletic club and launched a plan for the establishment of one of the largest sanitariums in the world. The proposed institution will be used exclusively for those suffering from tuberculosis, who, while not poor enough to accept aid from state or county institutions, are not able to provide for the travel and care they need.

An effort will be made to limit admission to cases which give promise of cure.

Between 100,000 and 200,000 acres of land in New Mexico will be purchased and, when fully improved, will accommodate more than 1,000 patients.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

Mrs. Carina Temple Once Attached to Queen Victoria's Court, Tried It.

San Francisco, Nov. 13.—Mrs. Carina Temple, the divorced wife of Atty. Warner Temple, sought to end her life yesterday because, she said, she faced utter want and the thought of life as an object of charity was intolerable to her. Mrs. Temple swallowed nearly an ounce of carbolic acid, but received such prompt treatment that it is stated she will recover. The Temples were married at the British embassy in Paris 19 years ago. The husband was a barrister of social prominence and the girl was attached to Queen Victoria's court. The couple were divorced several years ago, and the woman has passed through every stage of poverty since that time, and two days ago she went to J. C. Westenberg, head of the Whoever Will mission, and told him that she had been without food for two days. He promised her aid and gave her temporary assistance, but she failed to keep an appointment with him.

SCHWEITZER PLAYS IN THANKSGIVING GAME

There is considerable jubilation at the U. of U. today over the fact that the faculty listened to the appeal of the students and rebuked Schweitzer, the crack half on the U. team. This means that he will be in the Thanksgiving day game against the Logan Aggies.

Loell was out for practice Thursday evening but found that his injury was such as to unfit him for work, and it has been definitely decided that he will not attempt to play in the game. This will mean a shift in the position of fullback but there is consolation in the fact that Schweitzer will hold down his place.

BURNING ECZEMA QUICKLY SPREAD

Started Like Ringworm on Hand—Hand Swelled and Then Humor Spread to Arms, Legs and Face—It was Something Terrible.

PRESCRIPTIONS FAILED: CUTICURA CURED HIM

"I have used the Cuticura Remedies for a very bad case of eczema with complete success. About fifteen or eighteen years ago the disease developed in the shape of a large pimple on top of my hand. It burned and itched so much that I was compelled to show it to a doctor. He pronounced it ringworm, and made very light of it. He gave me a wash and told me to apply it before going to bed and all would be over in the morning. But the next morning my hand was all swollen up and I poulticed it. When the doctor came to his office I showed him the hand and to my surprise he told me that he had never experienced such a case in his practice and said it was well I poulticed it. After trying his different remedies the disease increased and went up my arms and finally to my thighs and legs generally and finally on my face. The burning was something terrible. After I had tried this doctor, as I thought, long enough, I went to another doctor who had the reputation of being the best in town. He told me it was a bad case of eczema and that it would take quite a while to cure it. He administered ointment of the disease but no further.

"I finally concluded to try the Cuticura Remedies. I bought a cake of Cuticura Soap, a box of Cuticura Ointment and a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent and found relief in the first trial. I continued until I was completely free from the disease and I have not been troubled with another attack since. I still use the Cuticura Ointment in my family as it is one of the best remedies to heal a sore or other injury rapidly. I can freely and truthfully say that the Cuticura Remedies are the best so far as my experience went with them and I am still recommending them, feeling sure I am not making a mistake. C. Burkhardt, 236 W. Market St., Chambersburg, Pa., Sept. 10, 1908."
