SENATE.

MWASHINGTON, 4.—Logan, from the committee on military affairs, reported favorably the bill to relieve members and the judge advocate of the Fitz John Porter court martial, of the secrecy imposed by their oath as to the vote of the court.

At the complesion of the marrial

Logan said he was authorized by the committee on appropriations to offer an amendment providing that hereafter any cadet dismissed for hazing should not be eligible for reappointment. He had consulted many of the best officers who had been in authority at the academy, and it is their and his opinion that hazing could not be stopped without such provision, and he believed such provision would stop it. The amendment was agreed to, and the bill as amended passed.

The following bills were reported favorably:

Morrill, committee on finance a bill to provide for the issue of duplicate checks by government officers in cases of loss of the originals. Passed.

Cameron, of Wisconsin, a bill to ratify the agreement with confederate tribes of Flatheads and other Indiaus and for the sale of a portion of their reservation in Montana required for use by the Northern Pacific. Calendar.

Bills introduced and referred.

The House went into committee of the whole (Converse in the chair) to continue the consideration of the naval appropriation bill. The debate upon he bill was prolonged.
Calkins offered an amendment that after July 1st the staff corps of the navy on the active list be reduced, by reducing the number of medical directors from 50 to 15; pay directors, 13 to 5; pay inspectors, 13 to 5, and placing officers removed on the retired list.

Agreed to.
After further debate and without action the House adjourned the history of all such measures. Polygamy, he thought, was on the decrease, and he prescribed education as the panacea for all the ills from which the people of Utah suffered. The Mormons as a people, in his opinion, were extremely ignorant, led by cranks and those who had their own ends to serve, and all necessary to bring them back to the paths of morality was to show their true condition.

Newspaper Law. duced by Senator Sherman, to-day, granting copyright to newspapers:

"Be it enacted, etc., that any daily or weekly newspaper, or any association of daily or weekly newspapers published in the United States, or any of the Territories thereof, shall have the sole right to print, issue and sell for the term of eight hours, dating from the hour of going to press, the contents of said daily or weekly newspapers or collected news of said newspaper association, exceeding 100 words.

Section 2.—That for any infringement of the copyright granted by the first section of this act, the party injured may sue in any court of competent jurisdiction, and recover in any proper action the damages systained by him, from the person making the intringement, together with cost of suit.
