Trustee.

In my attempt to address you and to In my attempt to address you and to edify you this afternoon, my brethren and sisters, I feel very dependent upon the aid of our Heavenly Father to in-spire me with words that will be for your good. I greatly rejoiced in our forenoon session, listening to the words of life and light which were delivered to us, and to the excellent report which was rendered by Brother Clawson. It woured to me that a report of that kind, showing the progress of "Mor-monism," must be exceedingly discour-aging to the enemles of God, and they must feel very much dissatisfied with the efforts which they have put forth to thwart the work of our Father. I do not refer to people who simply differ with us in their religious views, but to those who are enemies of God and of those who are enemies of God and of not refer to be religious views, but to with us in their religious views, but to those who are enemies of God and of righteousness, and those who, belonging to any religious organization, are not carnest in their worship of the Master. An encouraging feature about the work of the Lord is that from its infamey it has never grown less, but has become a greater power in the earth from year to year. I wish to read to you a few verses from Section 3 of the Book of Dostrine and Covenants: "The works, and the designs, and the parposes of God cannot be frustrated, neither can they come to naught: "For God doth not walk in crooked paths, neither doth he turn to the right hand nor to the left, neither doth he vary from that which He hath said; therefore His paths are straight, and His course is one eternal round. "Remember, remember, that it is not the work of God that is frustrated, but the work of man."

he work of God that is frustrated, but the work of man." The Apostle Paul, In his day, said: "For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth." Are we not witnesses this day that this prediction has been ful-filed in the history of the Lat-filed in the history of the Lat-filed in the history of the Lat-filed in the history of the even the formed against Zion has ever been formed against Zion has prospered. The efforts of the even one to destroy the work of the Lord have only tended to spread it abroad. The persecutions which have been heaped upon this people have been the means of cementing us together, drawing us upan this people have been the means of cementing us together, drawing us more closely to God, and making us more united and powerful. It is the heritage of the Saints of God to be misheritage of the Saints of God to be mis-represented and persecuted by the in-sincere and the wicked; but their ef-forts have never blocked the progress of the work of our Eternal Father. On contrary, the labors of our most bitter enemies have been among the main factors in spreading the work abroad. The Lord has turned the wrath abroad. The Lord has turned the wrath of the wicked to His own glory. Had it not been for the persecution of the Latter-day Saints, the mustard seed would not have been cast abroad; but in the attempt to destroy the mustard rate to which the Savier compared talk, to which the Savior compared the Gospel, they have scattered the seed, and it has taken root wherever it has fallen. Some of our brethren, on account of the practice of a principle were driven into exile and had to seek a place of refuge in other parts of the country. Had it not been for that per-this nation and in the world, who have done us a great deal of good. The Lord has raised them up to befriend His people and to do a part for them which they perchance could not do if they were members of the Church; and although they have not accepted the Gospel, they are the sons of God, and the Lord has sent them on earth to perform a certain mission. I say, God bless them. God bless all who favor Zion, and all who wish her well. I pray that the Latter-day Saints may be faithful in their homes, and that they may set their own houses in President Smith mentioned this morning the evil practice of tobacco-using. This is a serious evil to which some of the Elders of Israel, especially in our outlying settlements, are addicted to; and it would appear from their actions as if they think more of The Lord Almighty never favored antheir cigarette, or their chew of tobac-co, than they do of their families and their association with the people of God, not to speak of the Priesthood which has been conferred upon them. This is disgraceful. They certainly cannot understand the value of the Priesthood. If they did, they would try to set an example in their own homes, that they might have the love and confidence of their families and lead them in keeping the command-ments of God. We are such a busy the lot of people that we do not appear to have time to serve the Lord. Especi ally is this the case in our cities. At least, we do not take time to serve the Lord. A short time ago I went into the home of Brother Wm. H. Seegmiler, president of the Sevier Stake of Zio and I was very much impressed with the beautiful practice he has in his home at their devotional exercises. When we got up in the morning we were invited into his parlor, and there one of his daughters played the organ, and we all sang a hymn; then one of the members of the family read a chapthereto. ter from the Book of Mormon, at the close of which we engaged in prayer. Altogether it took us about twenty minutes or half an hour, and there was a beautiful spirit in that home by rea-son of this practice. I thought to my-self, what a giorious thing it would be if all the Saints of God would take half an hour every morning to serve in this way, and thus assist in setting their own houses in order. In this way we would be able to gain a little knowl edge of the Gospel every day. The chapter read from the Book of Mor-mon, or from the Doctrine and Covenants, or from the Bible, would be with us during the day, and our reflec-tions would be upon that which it contained. I believe that the men and wo-men in Israel who take time to do this will succeed in saving their sons and daughters; for such a practice cannot help but have a remarkably good in-fluence upon the children. But we say we have not time, or we cannot get our families together. Where that is the case, we ought to begin to educate ourselves to carry out this plan, in order to fit and qualify ourselves for something better and greater. If we go back to Jackson County, we will have to take time to serve the Lord. There-fore, I say, what a giorious thing it would be if we could carry out this sim ple practice in our homes! I will tel you, brethren and sisters, sons and daughters from a home like that do disgrace their parents; they not not bring shame upon that house. Those who go astray, in the majority of cases, are from homes where these things are unknown. I thank the Lord that this practice was not simply for my benefit in visiting that home; it is a daily practice there, and I wish it were the daily practice in every home of the Saints of God. If it were, we would be a much more faithful people than we are today. There would be no need of sending out special missionaries to regulate families, or wards, because to regulate families, or wards, because there would be a missionary work done right in the home which would cause the members of the family to live lives of consistency, in keeping with the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. God help you, my brethren and sis-ters, to reflect upon these things, and see whether they are worth our effent. see whether they are worth our atten-

in a special fast meeting, and we asked the Lord to open up the way, that we might receive remunerative employ-ment which would bring in money sufficient to sustain the people through the coming winter. The way in which the Lord answered us was most marvelous. In the afternoon of that day we went out to locate a townsite, and just after we had attended to this labor and were we had attended to this labor and were about to return to our camp, the chief engineer of the Burlington system met us and said he would like to contract more with our people. He told us we be by the four people. He total have could have the option on a very large plece of work on the road. We felt that the Lord had sent him there to furnish the people em-ployment, and after conferring with the brethren we accepted the proposi-tion, and during the next ten months our people earned something over $96,-000. In numerous ways, not only in Wyoming, but in Canada and Mexico and other places, the Lord has evi-denced to us that He is willing to help us if we will be humble, seek Him in time of need, and consecrate our labors to the building up of His kingdom. I remember that on the day we broke ground for the canal which is being constructed in that country, and which will cost in the neighborhood of one hundred thousand dollars, men, women and children all knelt down upon the ground before it was broken and they petitioned the blessings of Almighty God upon their enterprise, and covenanted with Him upon that spot that if He would make them successful they would by the payment of their tithes and their offerings and their obedience and their offerings and their obedience to the Gospel strive to sanctify that place as a gathering place for the Saints of God. The Lord always blesses us when we manifest a living faith in Him, and are not afraid that we cannot ac-complish some task that He requires at our hands because it looks so large and hard to perform Whon we are sent hard to perform. When we are sent out to preach the Gospel, if we could only remember all the dosper, if we could only remember all the time that we are upon the Lord's errand and that His purposes are not frustrated, how much more strength would the Elders have than they do have now in some cases If they would only remember that the Lord commands His people to do nothing save He prepares a way whereby they can accomplish it, what hope and courage it would afford them in their labors! We ought to be a hopeful, prayerful, humble people. We ought to remember the Lord in all things. We should not forget Him when we are prospered. If we are blessed because of our humility and faithfulness, we ough not to imagine in our hearts that we have been able to accomplishd some great thing independent of the Lord. On the contrary, the more the blesses us, the more responsibil-ity He places upon us, the more humble we ought to be. I know that the Lord has raised bes of this Church, to be instruments in His hands in assisting to establish the work of God. We have friends in tion or not. May His peace and bless-ings be in the homes of all the Saints of God, and may we improve year after year. When we come together in our emi-annual conference, with the Spirit of God resting upon us, may we take a retrospective view of the preceding six months, and be able to discover that we have made some advancement, that we have benefitted some one, and that we are keeping pace with the work of God. I am grateful for a testimony that every principle which the Lord has revealed through the Prophet Josenh s of God, and that the work in which we are engaged is Ged's work, and not the work of man; that Joseph Smith was sent of our Eternal Father to establish the work, which he did estab-lish, and which is gradually filling the whole earth, as it is designed to do, bearing the message of peace on earth and good will towards all men. May the Lord help us that we may keep the spirit of this great and grand work, and prize our standing as members of this Church and Kingdom. I ask it in the name of Jesus. Amen.

steution. day a Stake of Zion in Mexico, or in Canada, or in some other places. These brethren, driven from their homes, formed the nucleus of new flourishing Stakes of Zion. I thank God that it a not His purposes which have failed, but the purposes of man. This should be an encouragement to every Latterday Saint, and a strong testimony that this is the work of God. It ought to be a testimony also to those who have sought to bring to naught the purposes of God. But some people appear to get into such gross darkness after opposing the truth that the spirit of repentance seems to withdraw itself from them, and they will not acknowledge the truth when it is demonstrated beter-day Saints in the establishment of Zion. In the building up of Stakes and settlements. He has operated in a most marvelous manner for the benefit of the Saints. The faithful and obedient are reaping the reward of their obedience. We exercise our own agency in becom-ing Latter-day Saints, but if we would be Latter-day Saints, indeed, it is ex-pected of us that we will be obedient and take counsel. The man who stands at the head of this people enjoys the revelations of the mind and will of God and it is our duty to heed his counsel. The past history of our people proves to every reasonable man that God has been with us; and although at times perhaps the people have been unable to wisdom of God manifested through His mouthplece, yet by pa-tience and obedience they have finally seen the course taken by the leader of Church vindicated by our Eternal ther. We have an abundance of tes-Father. imony that this is the work of God; in fact, I sometimes think it becomes to common that we do not appreciate i. In numerous ways He has adarbation? In numerous ways He has opened up the way before the Latter-day Saints, to enable them to accom-plish every purpose which He has indi-cated through His mouthplece. I have faith to believe that no work will fait that is undertaken by the direction of the Prophet of the Lord. There is no such thing as the Latter day Saints such thing as the Latter-day Saints failing to carry out the mind and will of God regarding the establishment of His work, provided they will live so as to enjoy the favor of God. It matters not what odds we may have to contend not what odds we may have to contend tay appear, if we have faith we can carry out the designs of our Heavenly Father

During the past year I have labored During the past year I have labored under the direction of President Snow and my brethren, in the establishment of a Stake of Zion in Wyoming. We had a large number of people there who were practically without means, and we did not know how we were go-ing to get through with the task before ing to get through with the task before us only we knew that we had been sent there with the sanction and under the direction of the Prophet of God. After the people, had got to the end of their means (and we did not receive a dollar from the Church to help in this dellar from the Church to help in this enterprise which we were sent to ac-complish, we asked the Lord to open up the way before us, that the brethren might get employment and earn suff-cient money to sustain themselves and might get employment and earn suffi-clent money to sustain themselves and the their families while they accomplished to that for which they had been sent. The Lord opened up the way. We got a small contract from the Burlington railroad that amounted to about $5,000. But after a while that was gone, and we scarcely knew what to do. So all the brethren and sisters came together NOTICE.

Dear Sirs,-In reply to your favor I would state that I have used the Putnam Nail for several years, and have advised my friends to use it only. It is hardly necessary for me to add that I prefer it to all others.

Ore tily Mont former.

The Putnam Nail enjoys the distinction of being the only Hot-Forged and Hammer-Pointed nal made by machinery, and which imitates the old hand process.

ROBERT BONNER INSISTS ON ITS USE.

All others are COLD ROLLED and SHEARED, as an examination of their edges near the point will show, and are liable to SPLIT or SLIVER in driving, to injure and perhaps kill the horse.

The above picture, from a photo representing Mr. Bonner in the act of handing his smith a Putnam nail, while superintending the shoeing of Sunol, will be sent in the form of a half tone, size, 5x8, on thick, white paper, with wide margin, on receipt of 2 cent stamp for postage, etc.

Of the hundreds of railroads in the United States, only one is longer than the Burlington Route. It owns nearly 8,500 miles of perfectly-equipped railroad. It runs through eleven great states. It operates more fast trains than any other western railroad. Forty miles an hour is no trick at all on the Burlington. Fifty
