This was another active day in the police court.

Brother George C. Parkinson, of Franklin, Idaho, is down from the north.

The Trebell-Muslin concert at the Theatre Wednesday evening, is attracting considerable attention.

The Ninth Ward Sunday school will not meet to-morrow, owing to repairs being made on the meeting house.

The children of the Sixth Ward Sunday School will have a gala day on Tuesday next—Washington's birthday.

W. F. WILLIAMS, a merchant of Price, Emery County, after a few days' sojourn in the city has returned home.

There will be no services in the Ninth Ward to-morrow evening, as the meeting house is undergoing repairs.

Deputies searched a house in the Eleventh Ward early this morning, for a Mr. Wiggins, but failed to find him.

Unger, the celebrated trunk murderer of New York, has been found guilty of manslaughter in the first degree.

The Fourth Quorum of Seventies will meet at the Twenty-first Ward meeting house on Monday evening, Feb. 21st, at 7:30 o'clock.

OWEN RYAN came up from the Ryan ranch, near Milford, on Thursday. He is a brother of Denny and Patrick Ryan, of Horn Silver place.

O. L. HANSEN and Ludwig Hansen are to appear on Monday morning, in the Third District Court, for arraignment on the charge of battery.

In the Third District Court to-day, default and judgment were entered in the suit of George M. Scott & Co. and Thomas Marshall vs. John A. Fitch-ette.

ONLY two wards having reported members for the Sunday school base and tenor class, it has been decided not to hold the meeting to-night at the Social Hall.

A MEMORANDUM book, without the name of the owner in it, but which from the contents, appears to belong to Robert Campbell, has been found and brought to this office.

A DELIVERY book was lost yesterday out of a wagon while going between Spencer Clawson's store and South Temple Street. The finder will confer a favor by leaving it at the DESKART News office.

The opening hymn for the services in the Tabernacle to-morrow afternoon, is the one on page 128, "Now let us rejoice in the day of salvation," the congregation and choir will unite in singing it.

The Fourth Quorum of Elders will meet in the Seventh Ward meeting house on Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. A full attendance is requested as business of importance to the quorum will be transacted.

Miss FANNIE R. CURTIS, an estimable young lady of Logan, Cache County, died suddenly last Saturday, of hemorrhage of the lungs. She was daughter of E. M. Curtis, and was born in Salt Lake City March 22, 1869.

The wires cast remain down, or at least they are silent from some cause, and again we have no afternoon dispatches to lay before our readers. "Now let us rejoice in the day of salvation," the congregation and choir will unite in singing it.

Five days' mail which has been accumulating amid the snow of the Sierras came in from the west to-day. That from the east will be in to-night. There is no assurance expressed that the blockade is permanently broken, quite the contrary.

The Payson Theatians intend to produce Bonicelli's great American play, "The Octoroon," in their Opera House on Monday and Tuesday evenings next. Mr. J. C. Graham has been engaged to appear in the character of Sam Seidner on the occasion.

BROTHER WILLIAM WHEELER and wife, who recently lost their children by diphtheria, desire to express thanks, through the News, to Brother William Campbell and other kind friends for aid and expressions of sympathy during the hour of trial and bereavement.

Mr. R. F. NESLEN, the well known salesman, has become a merchant, having opened his premises at 28 W. Second and South Street, with a full and excellent stock of dry goods and notions. His friends will find him there, ready and willing to accommodate them with anything they need in his line.

On Monday night Feb. 14, a U. & N. freight train ran over eleven horses between Logan and Mendon and caused their death. Seven of them belonged to the Logan and Mendon and caused their death. Seven of them belonged to the Logan and Mendon and caused their death.

The passenger train was snow bound in great shape, and up to the hour of going to press was snow bound in the yard. The snow plow left Eche early this morning and since passing Coalville has not been heard from. It is in all probability stuck in a huge snow bank or has left the rails. Last night was a storm for drifting snow and in many places it was piled up mountains high—a small mountain view means of course—Park City Call, Feb. 17.

SEVERE ACCIDENT.

A YOUNG MAN TERRIBLY MANGLED BY BEING RUN OVER.

Our correspondent at Spring City, Sanpete County, Lauritz Larsen, writing under date of February 17th, sends the following account of a lamentable occurrence that took place on Tuesday last: "A frightful accident occurred day before yesterday at Ephraim, in this county. Several teams loaded with wheat for Chester Station had just got outside of town and were travelling along the lane northward. Brother Loren Oviatt, of Chester, was walking alongside of his wagon, and without stopping his team, reached over to put two apples, which his wife had placed in his coat pocket, into the wagon box (on the front end of the wagon bed) and somehow his foot slipped or was CAUGHT BY THE FRONT WHEEL.

He was knocked down and doubled up under the wagon, the front wheel going over and breaking both legs. It passed along his left side and across his left shoulder, breaking his collar bone. He then tried to move himself out of the way, but only got his legs far enough for the hind wheel to run over and break them in a fresh place, thus sustaining four fractures in each leg between the knee and the ankle. He also received a bruise on his head, causing him to bleed from the right ear; this, however, is not considered serious. The injured man was immediately taken to his own house, and the surgical skill of Doctor Olsen, solicited. The doctor set the bones and tied up the shoulder, and with the aid of friends had the suffering man placed in as comfortable a position as possible under the circumstances.

To add to the injury it may be stated that his right leg was broken once before, about twelve years ago, and as a matter of course will cause greater difficulty. What the result of the injuries may be no one can foresee. When I left him yesterday he was in great suffering in his stomach, and it is feared that he may also have sustained some internal injuries. He has been sensible all the time since the accident occurred.

"Brother Oviatt was an active young man of excellent character. He is about thirty years of age. His parents are both dead, and he was reared at the home of Brother and Sister Thorp, at Ephraim. He was married about seven years ago, and now has a wife and three children.

"The awful occurrence has cast a great gloom over the entire neighborhood. Brother Oviatt's misfortune should serve as a warning to other men and boys against the unsafe practice of stepping up or down on the doubletrees while a wagon is in motion, and suggest to them the safer way of stopping the team while changing horses, but little time is there by lost and possibly a great calamity avoided.

Suicide.—A correspondent writing from Lehi, on the 17th, says that that afternoon, about ten minutes past two, a young girl about thirteen years of age, by the name of Sarah Platt, a niece of Mr. Samuel Low, conductor on the S. L. & W. Railway, through some cause which cannot be found out, took a quantity of strychnine while Mrs. Lowe was at the store.

The young girl found some of the poison, which had been in the house for a long time; when she was asked why she took it, she replied that she wanted to die. Dr. Wadsworth was sent for and all was done for her that could be done, but little time until about 3:30 p. m. she bore a good character from those who knew her. A short time ago, Mr. Law went east to visit his friends, and while he was in Chicago asked her if she would like to pay a visit to his home and family in Utah (her mother being dead and her father giving consent); she came with him and was treated kindly, so it is said, by her friends. It caused quite a gloom at the Junction, and especially in Mr. Law's family.

Following is the verdict of the coroner's jury:

TERRITORY OF UTAH,
 Lehi Precinct,
 Utah County.

An inquest held at the house of Samuel Lowe, Lehi Precinct, Utah County, Feb. 17th, A. D. 1887, before George W. Justice, of the peace for said precinct, upon the body of Sarah Platt, there lying dead, by the jurors whose names are hereto subscribed.

The said jury upon their oaths say that the said Sarah Platt came to her death by taking strychnine administered by her own hands on the 17th day of February, A. D. 1887, at Lehi Precinct, Utah County.

In testimony whereof the said jurors have hereunto set their hands the day and year aforesaid.

EDWARD SOUTHWICK,
 GEORGE GLOVER,
 JAMES P. CARTER,
 Jurors.

GEORGE WEBS,
 Justice of the Peace for Lehi Precinct.

Attempted Assassination.—Bishop R. N. Allred, writing from Chester, Sanpete County, informs us that on Sunday night last his son, Henry D. Allred, was shot at while out feeding stock. The would-be assassin had concealed himself fifteen feet of him, he fired one shot. Allred immediately returned the fire in a vain effort to placate the man making a hasty retreat, Allred pursuing, shooting as he ran, but having to slack up a little to reload. The man got into the brush, from whence the young man received a second shot only passing, however, through the skirt of his coat. It being dark he was not able to recognize his assailant.

Result of the Fire.—A fire generally is a disastrous occurrence and the sufferers consider themselves unfortunate at the time but it occasionally happens that what seems the worst of luck is really the best. In the long run. In the case of Coalter & Seelgrove the music merchants this would seem to be so. They now have a finer and better stocked store which seems to have risen like a phoenix from the flames, and the people seem to sympathize with their loss, or else get exceptionally well treated by the firm, whose patronage increases. On another page is an advertisement for a $75.00 organ.

The Shooters.—Following is the score of the medal shooting match by the Mill Creek team, which took place yesterday; so being the possibility, it will be observed that pretty good shooting was done:

John Hamilton 41, E. Barker 44, Wm. Hamilton 38, C. E. Miller 38, J. Hill 32, T. B. Ryan 42, R. S. Hamilton 29, T. B. Ryan 42, R. S. Hamilton 29, J. Nelson 44, B. Pierson 41, H. Barker 41, C. W. Miller 32.

The medal thus goes to Nelson until the next match, the last Friday in April.

Washington's Birthday Theatricals.—The full cast of "Rose Dale, or the Rifle Ball," the celebrated drama which the Home Dramatic Club produce on Tuesday afternoon and evening at the Theatre, appears in the advertising columns of the News. Leslie Wallace's great sensation is always a great attraction whenever it is presented, and with the strong cast the club have put into it, there is little question of its doing a prosperous business here on Washington's birthday.

THE USUAL RESULT.

JOHN ADAMS CONVICTED ON A STATEMENT MADE TO THE DEPUTIES.

To-day the case of the United States vs. John Adams, of Centerville, Davis County, was tried in the Third District Court. Mr. Dickson—Did you ever hear a rumor of it?

Witness, to Mr. Dickson—No; never heard it stated in my family that she was married to the defendant; I never asked him about it; he has been to my house four or five times during the last 30 days; I don't know where Lizzie is now; she left home three or four months ago; I think she left the day before the defendant was arrested; she did not leave because she heard the defendant was going to be arrested; she went to Mrs. Stoddard's at Utah; I have not seen her since; do not know where she is now; she went to attend to her sick sister.

Mrs. Jessie Cleveland testified—I am a sister of Lizzie Cleveland; I think her youngest child is about two years old, but do not know; I was not home when it was born; was home at the birth of the eldest child; I don't know that the defendant is reputed to be Lizzie's husband; last saw my sister a few months ago; I do not know when she left; Mrs. Adams did not tell her to get away; she said the officers were around; I did not say what the grand jury minutes show, or anything like it; Lizzie left a day or two after Mrs. Adams came; she was not home when the officers came; never have seen Lizzie and Mr. Adams in company; never saw the speakers at the services; and the numerous friends who testified their respect and affection for the late victim, C. Brown, by their endeavors to lessen the sorrows of the bereaved in their sad affliction.

Wm. B. Brown.

An Interesting Meeting.—Last evening the Deacons of the Eleventh Ward held their usual bi-weekly meeting in the ward school rooms. An interesting programme of exercises was carried out, and at the close, another quorum, making three in all, was organized. Besides this a number of vacancies were filled, caused by the death of the young men who have been recently advanced to the office of Teachers and Priests.

Wants Work.—James T. Phillips, lately from England, is in want of employment. He has been accustomed to work in a grocery store, and can set as warehouseman, the watchman, a storekeeper, gentleman's servant, or would make himself useful in any capacity. He can be heard of through this office.

Another Arrest.—Thomas H. Morrison was arrested this morning on the prevailing charge and taken before Commissioner McKay without unnecessary delay. His bonds were fixed at $1,500, which were promptly given and he was thereupon released. He resides in the Seventeenth Ward.
