BREVITIES.

If a sweet disposition does not come to a lady by nature, it will come to her by express—if the express brings her a new bonnet.

The Iowa farmer who strapped his shot gun to his plow to be ready for game will not be about again for some months.

A New Hampshire school teacher's certificate runs thus: "This is to certify that Tamar Noyes stands on a medium with other girls of her age and sex, and for what I know is as good as folks in general."

"You don't do work enough to earn your salary," said the head of a certain government department to one of his clerks. "Work!" exclaimed dandy. "I worked hard enough to get here. Surely you don't expect me to work now I am here?"

An Indiana paper has this scandal: "Owensburg, Green county, shipped one hundred and twenty barrels of whisky to Kentucky last week, to be manufactured into seventy-year old Bourbon. The process will occupy about forty-eight hours."

The number of separations between husbands and wives taking place in France has led to the formation of a society to agitate for the recognition of divorce, as alone calculated to prevent marriage from ceasing to be an institution. Ninety per cent. of the applications are said to come from wives.

The Palestine Exploration Society of New York is about to enter the field of the exploration in the Holy Land, and will turn its attention particularly to the country east of the Jordan, embracing the old lands of Elom, Moab, Gilead and Bashan, known to abound with ancient ruins and inscriptions, the discovery of which will materially assist study.

It is now proposed that those ladies who wish to wear a real hair mattress on their heads surmounted by several stories of hat with a parterre of flowers to crown the whole shall insert in their head-dress for the theatre an opera glass to rest on the top of the head, ranging fore and aft, so that gentlemen sitting behind them can see through it to the stage.

A canny Scot, who had accepted the office of elder because some wag had made him believe that the remuneration was sixpence each Sunday and a bowl of meal on New Year's day, officially carried round the ladle each Sunday after service. When the year had elapsed, he claimed the meal, but was told that he had been hoaxed. "It may be see wi' the meal," he replied, coolly, "but I took care o' the saxpense myself."

The value of old shoes.—Old shoes have their uses—a fact which few persons realize as they throw cast-off footcoverings into the ash-barrel. What does become of all the old boots and shoes? Many of them are cut into small pieces and put into chloride of sulphur for a few days. This makes the leather hard and brittle; and after it has been washed and thoroughly dried it is ground to powder and mixed with a sort of gum or glue. It is then pressed into moulds, and buttons, combs, knife-handles, and similar articles are the result.

I am particularly fond of lemon pie for dessert. At —— I went on peaceably for a couple of weeks, but always eating lemon pie under a silent protest, for I was a stranger, and did not like to make objections. Finally I called a waiter and said:

"John, what kind of pie is this?"

"What kind did you order, sah?"

"I ordered lemon pie, but this appears to be dried apple."

"Dat's lemon pie, sah. You know dey has a way of mixin' dried apples in de lemon pie, here, sah, to dat extent it requires a man of ability to 'stinguish 'em apart, sah. De lemons are scarce, you know, and dey has to 'conomize 'em so as to make one lemon do for sixteen pies."

There was always something irresistibly comic in the story they used to tell about a foppish passenger on a Mississippi boat, who had just for a little fun jumped on shore at a landing, and drawing a bowie-knife, rushed to a gawky looking fellow at a wood pile and exclaimed: "I've found you at last, you're the man I've been looking for." The gawky looked at him for half a second, then straightened out his arms like a jibboom, and knocked the fellow overboard into ten feet of water. Resuming his position against the wood-pile, he drawled out, "Is there anybody else in that boat looking for me?

EASTERN DISPATCHES.

Democrats in Conference—Political Conventions — Strikers Moving — Seven Hundred Dead Soldiers Disinterred—Big Conference of Political Reformers, Greeley to be Supported.

LONG BRANCH, 20.—A number of Democrats, representing different States, are in conference here to-day, for the purpose of securing a straight Democratic nomination at Baltimore.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., 20.—The delegates to the Baltimore convention met here to-day, and though pledged to no candidates the expression was unanimously in favor of Greeley and Brown.

NEWARK, N.J., 20.—The New Jersey Liberal Republican convention met to-day and was meagerly attended. Jas. M. Scovill, Gen. Kirkpatrick and others were present. H. W. Gale was elected president with several vice-presidents and secretaries; Gale made an earnest speech on taking the chair. The resolutions adopted endorse the Cincinnati platform and candidates, and ask the co-operation of other parties in the State. An executive committee was appointed. Several counties were not represented.

PHILADELPHIA, 20.—The daily meetings of strikers are suspended, in consequence of the small attendance.

PORT JERVIS, N. Y., 20.—A delegation of eight-hour men, from New York and the Erie railroad shops at Jersey city, attempted a public demonstration here last night, but only a few mechanics attended. The meeting was an entire failure, and the workmen all declined to engage in the movement.

NEW YORK, 20.—In the suit of Jay Gould against "Lord" Gordon, to-day, his "lordship" unexpectedly appeared at the demand of the counsel for Gould. Gordon was arrested under an attachment which had been issued against him, gave bail and was released.

The strikers are all quiet to-day. Five thousand out of seven thousand sugar refiners are on strike. The striking piano makers propose to march to Steinway's factory to-morrow morning and endeavor to induce the men working there to join them. The eight-hour league is arranging for a monster mass meeting to-morrow evening.

The case of Hilden vs. Gen. Butler, abruptly terminated to-day by the withdrawal of the plaintiff.

RICHMOND, Va., 20.—The bodies of seven hundred and eighteen Confederate soldiers were disinterred, at Gettysburg, recently and brought here. They were re-interred at Holywood to-day, with impressive and solemn ceremonies. The procession was two miles long. The streets along the route were draped in mourning and the stores were closed.

WASHINGTON, 20.—Attorney General Williams has returned. The President has suspended Logan H. Roats, Marshal of Western Arkansas, he having expended, during one year, two hundred and forty thousand dollars for expenses of court, or more than the entire amount of expenses of the courts in the State of New York.

NEW YORK, 20.—The conference of political reformers at the 5th Avenue Hotel to-day, elected Jacob D. Cox president, with W. C. Bryant and Gen. Dix vice-presidents. The following delegates were present: Senators Schurz and Trumbull; Gen. B. H. Hill and J. C. Hillyer, of Georgia; J. W. Bromley of the Hartford Post; Horace White of the Chicago Tribune; ex-governor Randolph, of Massachusetts; David A. Wells; Wm. Cullen Bryant; Henry Waterson, of the Louisville Courier-Journal; H. Barney, of N. Y.; Senator Rice of Arkansas; Wm. M. Groavenor; Theodore Tilton, as an outside delegate; Gov. Walker, of Virginia; and Senator Stockton of New Jersey. Gen. Cox stated the object of the meeting to be the fusion of the elements opposed to Grant. Senator Trumbull then rose and said, that while not fully endorsing the nominations of the Cincinnati convention, the liberal Republicans had gone so far that it was impossible to retrace their steps. If a man of acknowledged reputation could be brought into the field, he, Trumbull would support him; but under the existing state of affairs he saw no option but to support Greeley. Brief remarks were made by several others, and the convention adjourned till 8 p.m.

The night session was exceedingly stormy and inharmonious, and continued until long after midnight. Edward Atkinson and Parker Goodwin, made speeches strongly against Greeley. Wm. Dorsheimer, of Buffalo, supported him.

Schurz proposed to call on the various States to get an expression of sentiment from the delegates from the east. John Forsythe, representing Alabama, was for Greeley, as was also Rice of Arkansas. Connecticut was represented by David A. Wells, who said he was determined under no circumstances to support Grant, whether he would support Greeley depended materially as to whether in his opinion Greeley was the most favorable candidate presented. Ex-Gov. English said the democracy of Connecticut were all for Greeley. Gen. Warren, of Iowa had not been in favor of Greeley, but if nominated at Baltimore he would support him. Hillyer, of Georgia, and Waterson, editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal, and Judge Brinderhoff, of Ohio, made strong Greeley speeches. Schurz made the chief speech. He said he must support Greeley from necessity. The conference, shortly after one a.m. adjourned sine die.

A band of thieves took possession of the Fiedecks brewery, on 42nd street, to day, and drove off the workmen. The police cleared the rioters out.

BOSTON, 20.—Nearly 50,000 persons were in the Coliseum to-day, 30,000 being auditors. The feature of the first part of the programme were the singling, by Madame Rudersdorff, of "Let Bright Seraphom," the performance of the Strauss concerto of the waltz of "A Thousand and One Nights," Strauss himself leading the chorus, and a fantasia on the piano by Welhle. The second part of the programme opened with Madame Lentner's singing of the "Magic Flute," in which she won a greater triumph than has been accorded her since the opening of the Jubilee. The Garde Republican Band of Paris next appeared on the platform and was greeted with every sort of friendly demonstrations, when the band, under the leadership of M. Paulus, unexpectedly struck up "Hail Columbia," the scene became indescribable. Enthusiasm ensued, the cheers drowning the music. At the conclusion of this demonstration the organ and bands commenced the "Marseillaise," when the excitement was renewed, until the audience appeared almost wild with delight.

EUROPEAN.

BERNE, 20.—The French government has paid the Swiss government an additional two million francs, in payment of the expenses incurred in maintaining Bourbaki's army in Switzerland. The balance of over two million francs more will be paid shortly.

The provincial papers are commenting with some severity upon what they are pleased to term the "disgraceful closing scenes in Congress." There was something of the sort; and just here we would remark that Congress ought in justice to itself to have set an investigating committee to work to settle the responsibility for the infamous and treacherous character of the lemonade used in the last hours of the session. Lemonade rightly made is an innocent and cooling beverage. It is not a difficult drink to concoct; there has been no rise either in lemons or sugar to excuse adulteration, and we do not hold that the water-famine of the previous week excused the substitution of any other fluid in place of that usually employed in the manufacture of this mildly acid solace. But there was something radically wrong about this lemonade. It wholly unfitted several members for legislation. It made some noisy, some disputatious, some shaky at the knees, and damaged everybody who drank it. This lemonade business should be invested.—Washington Star.

A RAILROAD WATCH.

Travelers by Railroad frequently find their watches completely demoralized by the continuous jar of the train. To overcome this difficulty has long been a problem with watchmakers, and it is now successfully accomplished in the new grade made by the AMERICAN WATCH CO. OF WALTHAM:

It has a new micrometrical regulator, by which the slightest variation can be easily corrected. FISH BROS. UTAH WAGON.

JOHN W. LOWELL—GEN'L AGENT, SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.

These Wagons are designed especially for the Utah and Montana trade, with many important improvements never before used—improvements which experience has taught us are required for this section.

They are made of the toughest Oak, Ash and Hickory that the forests of Ohio, Michigan and Wisconsin can furnish.

This timber is thoroughly seasoned, being kept from three to five years in open sheds. The Hubs are then subjected to a degree of heat sufficient to make them perfectly dry, without injuring the fibre or strength.

The Hubs are of black Locust, and warranted not to check.

The fellies are soaked in boiling oil before being painted, and will not shrink.

The entire wood work of these Wagons is seasoned, so as to stand the severe test of this peculiarly dry climate.

They have clips around front Axle for the hound brace, and stay-chains instead of a bolt through the Axle. The Tires are fastened with the famous double-headed California Rivet. On all medium and heavy Wagons the tire is one eighth inch thicker on hind than forward wheel.

They are the best proportioned and best ironed Wagon that ever crossed the Missouri river.

We challenge comparison on each of these points.

The bottoms of Boxes have double cleats in the centre secured by double straps that hook over the top, instead of being simply rivited to the sides of the box.

Both lower and top boxes are ironed on top.

We use a Patent Thimble Skein of our own make, set by a Patent Axle Gauge, which secures perfect uniformity, and makes the Lightest Draft Wagon that can be made.

We use the Patent Bent Hound on the smaller sizes.

We have no hesitation in saying that our California Brake is the very best. We have patented an improvement by which they can be used without the box being on the Wagon. N. B. This improvement can be used by no other manufacturer.

The bolsters are iron plated, and have corresponding plates on the edges of the box. They have our Patent Gasket for King Bolt (found on no other wagon), which leaves a smooth surface for the bottom of the box, and prevents the king bolt from wearing into the bolster.

We give the following Warranty with each Wagon:

"We warrant the Wagon No..... of our manufacture, to be of good seasoned timber, and well made. any or shape within one year, resulting from defect, either in material or workmanship, we agree to make good without cost to the purchaser."
