LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THERMOMETER 70° in the shade at one o'clock to day.

THEATRE.—Last evening the play of the Streets of New York was very well rendered by Miss Walters and the other favorites.

This evening will be presented Morton's fine melodrama of the "Writing on the Wall, or the Legend of Elton Hall," in which Misses Walters and Voeller and Messrs. Margetts, Thorne, Marden, Paul, Malben and Thompson and others will sustain important roles.

On and after Monday next the doors will open at seven o'clock, and the curtain will rise at half past seven. A desirable change, as the evenings are getting long, and it is not so pleasant to keep late hours.

CAN'T THEY BE PUNISHED? — The Rochester Democrat is anxious to punish somebody. It says—

"Six hundred more Mormon recruits reached New York Monday, from Europe. How much longer is Utah's peculiar institution to be permitted to exist? Can nothing be done against it? Can nothing be done to punish Mormon crimes?"

O yes, punish the Mormons. There is so much crime in the country, especially in the Empire State, that somebody ought to be made the scape goat, and why not the Mormons? They have no friends, and it is so natural for cowardly rascals to want to hit those who have no friends, under pretence of punishing them for their crimes.

BEE MEETING.—There will be an important Bee meeting preceding the State Fair. The members of the Deseret Bee Association are requested to meet at the Historian's Office, at 10 a.m., on Saturday, Sept. 28th. All interested in this important culture are invited. A full house is desired. By order of the board,
R. V. MORRIS, Secretary.

MORE WATER.—We are informed that considerable feeling exists in the part of the city east of the Eagle Gate, in consequence of the continuous lack of water. For a number of weeks there has been little or none running from City Creek in that part of the city, and the inhabitants have been put to great inconvenience for domestic, irrigating and building purposes. Some residents have to go upwards of a mile to obtain water for household use, wagons come down to the Eagle Gate to obtain water for building, some buildings have stopped for want of water, and late fruit in some instances is a failure through lack of water for irrigation. Represen ations have been made to the city watermaster, but to little avail. If that official has too much to do, there are other competent persons, one of whom might be put in as watermaster or assistant. It is all very well to call upon all the residents of the city to pay increased taxes in order that the central portions of the city may have improved and increased water conveniences, but it is not so well for those citizens who reside some distance from the centre to be deprived of their usual water conveniences at the same time. This is a matter that needs looking after, and, if people are paid to do it, it should be done promptly, that injustice and dissatisfaction may cease.

MISSIONARY APPOINTMENTS.—Sunday, Sept. 29th:

Draperville, Elders L. D. Young, R. Miller and W. G. Young.

Fort Herriman, Thos. Taylor and D. Candland.

West Jordan, Milo Andrus, S. A. Woolley, and W. A. McMaster.

Sugar House, Isaac Groo and John Van Cott.

Big Cottonwood, R. F. Neslen and Geo. Teasdale.

South Cottonwood, G. G. Bywater, M. B. Snipp and A. Smith.

Meetings to commence at 10 a. m. and 2:30 p.m., except Sugar House Ward Meeting, which commences at 11 a.m.

These elders are requested to be punctual in filling the above appointments.
L. D. YOUNG.

We have been requested to publish the above, in consequence of some parties concerned mistaking the date for last Sunday.

THE EMIGRANTS.—From the following dispatches it appears that the emigrants coming may be expected in this city about half past seven on Thursday evening—

OGDEN, Sept. 23rd.

President Young. — Ticket agent at Omaha telegraphs me that about 600 emigrants, Scandinavians and English, left Omaha Sunday evening for Salt Lake. Expected to arrive at Ogden on Thursday evening, 26th. JNO. REEVES.

OGDEN, Sept. 25th, 1872.—Emigrants expected in on Thursday, 4 p. m., to leave here at 5:30 p. m. for Salt Lake.

ILL FEELING.—Says the Denver Tribune—

"A correspondent in Salt Lake City states that the ill-feeling between the Gentiles and Mormons in that place is rapidly increasing, and fears that the political excitement of the campaign will yet result in a serious riot."

We know of no ill feeling on the part of the "Mormons," but towards them some people never have any other than ill feeling. The "serious riot" part exists more in the wish of such than in reality.

OGDEN ITEMS.—From the Junction we learn the following:

A heavy snow storm on Monday night, between Evanston and Wasatch, drifts three feet deep.

All the cooks at the Junction Dining Rooms struck for higher wages.

FIREWORKS.—We learn that Mr. O F. Due, formerly of Copenhagen, Denmark, is going to let off some beautiful fireworks in this city. We are informed that Mr. Due while in his native country, made fireworks for his majesty, the King of Denmark and also for the Grand Duke Alexander of Russia. His programme will appear in the NEWS in a few days, stating place of performance, price of admission, etc.

FROM OMAHA.—S. C. Abbott, Esq., of the Omaha firm of S. C. Abbott & Co., booksellers and stationers, and dealers in wall papers and decorations, paid us an agreeable visit yesterday, in company with Mr. H. D. Johnson. Mr. Abbott is well know to many of the merchants of this city, owing to his Salt Lake business connections.

THE UTAH DELEGATION.—By courtesy of President B. Young, we are enabled to publish the following dispatch:

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 25.

Brigham Young:—We are well. Will start for home at 2 p.m. to-day. Kind regards. GEO. A. SMITH.

THE FUNERAL SERVICES of the late Elder Frederick Darke, were held this morning, at the residence of his daughter, in the 12th Ward. Comforting addresses were delivered to the relatives and friends of the deceased by Elders Samuel W. Richards and Joseph F. Smith.

NEW MACHINERY. — Eight patent improved looms, with machinery attachments, were received to-day for President Young's woolen factory. This machinery is of the most approved style of mechanism and was manufactured by the Bridesburg Manufacturing Company, of Pennsylvania. The cloth, &c., heretofore made at the Deseret Mills has been of a very superior quality, but when the new improvements are completed and in operation the product of the mills will be still more satisfactory. Those who doubt that superior cloth, in point of texture and durability, can be made in Utah, should examine that made at the Deseret Factory.

CALLED.—This morning Warren Hussey, Esq., banker of this city, accompanied by.— Anderson, Esq., President of the Emma Mining Company of London, favored us with a short call. Mr. Anderson has been on a trip to the Emma Mine, and is here to look after the interests of the Company. During conversation he said there was any amount of English capital ready to be invested in the Utah mines, as soon as capitalists there could be assured that their investments would be secure, and that their rights would be respected when once acquired. He thinks the approaching trial between the Emma Mining Company and the Illinois Tunnel Company will have an important bearing in this respect, and he expressed himself hopeful of an impartial trial, a verdict in accordance with justice, and favorable to the Emma Company.

MESSAGES at the Deseret Telegraph office for J. A. Speer, Capt., F. F. Oram, Dr. M. Grogan, Ed. Hatterick.

DIED.

In this city, Sep. 22nd, after a long and painful illness, SELINA, wife of William Dickenson, aged 53 years. Deceased was born at Hanley, Staffordshire Potteries, England, Sep. 6th, 1819.
