

(Continued from page 127.)

anticipate help therefrom, should understand that the means sent forth is, and will be designed to furnish teams, almost or quite exclusively; and even the cases in which wagons will be furnished, will be rare. The poor, who can live in the States with little clothing, and little or no groceries, &c., can live equally as cheap on the road; and when once here, can procure the comforts of life by their industry. Souls are the articles for the Perpetual Fund to gather home, and that, too, as many as possible; and other things will be attended to in their time and place.

We are under obligation by covenant, firstly to apply the Perpetual Funds gathered in this country, to bring home the poor Saints who were driven from Nauvoo; and as soon as this shall be accomplished, we shall be ready to extend our exertions to other places and countries. Let the European Saints continue to add to their Perpetual Funds, which we doubt not they have commenced according to our previous counsel; and as soon as sufficient shall be collected to remove a suitable company, we will give instructions concerning its application, and emigration will commence.

One year ago, and the Perpetual Fund was not instituted. Returns have not been completed, this fall; but so far as we can judge, they will not now fall much short of $20,000, in the Valley. Let the Saints abroad imitate the example of the Saints here, according to their ability, and let this work continue to go forward with the same progressive ratio it hath hitherto done, and the time will be short, when all the poor and oppressed of Zion will feel its cheering influence, and the cry need no longer be heard, "I would go up to the House of the Lord, but I have not the means."

The Perpetual Emigrating Company consists of Brigham Young, President; Heber C. Kimball, Willard Richards, Orson Hyde, Geo. A. Smith, Ezra T. Benson, Jeda-

diah M. Grant, Daniel H. Wells, Willard Snow, Edward Hunter, Daniel Spencer, Thomas Bullock, John Brown, William Crosby, Amasa Lyman, Charles C. Rich, Lorenzo Young, and Parley P. Pratt, Assistants; Daniel Spencer, Treasurer; in place of N. K. Whitney, deceased. Orson Hyde and John Brown have been appointed Travelling Agents; and will be in the States the coming winter. Orson Pratt and Franklin D. Richards have been appointed Travelling Agents; are located in Liverpool; and their particular field of operations, at present, will be the British Islands.

Thus, brethren, we have given you a brief history of the situation and prospects of the Church in the Wilderness, and the wishes of our Heavenly Father, as made manifest by His spirit dwelling in us, for your edification, comfort and salvation. The signs of the times are highly portentous of a mighty and short work in these last days; and we pray God, the Eternal Father, that he will inspire your hearts with humility, faith and patience, & diligence in every means within your reach, to help roll that work forward, that you may speedily be found in Zion, rejoicing with us, and the Gospel be proclaimed to the ends of the earth in the name of Jesus: Amen.

BRIGHAM YOUNG,
HEBER C. KIMBALL,
WILLARD RICHARDS.

G. S. L. City, Deseret, }
September 27, 1850. }

[COMMUNICATED.]

DIED.

In this City on Monday, the 23d inst., after an illness of only forty-eight hours, Bishop NEWEL K. WHITNEY, aged 55 years, 7 months and 18 days. His disease was a powerful and fatal attack of the Bilious Pleurisy.

Thus, in full strength, and in mature years, has one of the oldest and most exemplary and useful members of the Church, fallen suddenly by the cruel agency of the King of Terrors—leaving a large family to mourn the loss of an affectionate husband, and a kind and generous father.

In him the Church suffers the loss of a wise and able Counselor—of a thorough, straight-forward, business man. It was ever more gratifying to him to pay a debt than to contract one; and when all his debts were paid, he was a happy man, though he had nothing left but his own moral and muscular energy.

He has long held the office of Presiding Bishop of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, to receive from the rich and to distribute to the poor, of the goods of this world. He has gone down to the grave, leaving a spotless name behind him, and thousands to mourn their loss of such a valuable man. It is hoped that all the members of this Church will be able to bequeath to the body at their demise, a pure and spotless name, which is of more value to those who remain than silver or gold.

DESERET NEWS.

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY.

TAKEN UP.

A spotted pig, 5 or 6 months old, by—[Us.

TWO

Pit and top sawyers, wanted immediately by—[Us.

There has been no frost in the Valley this fall.

THE TROOPS returned to the City in fine order about noon, last Sabbath: all was peace when they left Ogden. It was known that the Shoshones had fled to considerable distance, and no further attacks are apprehended at present.

Messrs. Livingston & Kinkead's first train of merchandize arrived on Saturday evening; and on Monday they will open their New Goods, in their New Store, south of the State House.

Messrs. J. & E. Reese will open their New Store on Monday. See Advertisement and handbills.