

LATEST PICTURE OF ROYAL LOVERS.

According to a well defined rumor which is gaining ground in London and Berlin, an Anglo-German alliance of hearts is shortly to be effected by the betrothal of the young Crown Prince Frederick of Germany, son of the Kaiser, to Princess Helen of England, daughter of the Duke of Albany. The young princess is now staying at the imperial palace at Potsdam, Germany, on a visit. It is believed that the engagement will be officially announced very shortly.

TO FOLLOW HUSBAND TO PHILIPPINES.

Mrs. Lieut. Richard Hooker, whose marriage as Miss Louise Condit-Smith was one of the social events of Washington, has determined to follow her young soldier husband to Philippines rather than be left behind. Mrs. Hooker is a niece of the late Justice Field while Lieut. Hooker is a nephew of Senator Stewart of Nevada.

Mrs. Ed Callister, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Price, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Cowley, Mr. and Mrs. B. Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. P. Schmitt, Mr. and Mrs. Al Callison, Mr. Elmer Casady, Mr. Will Callister, Mrs. Frank Hawkins, Mrs. W. Smith, Mrs. D. Cook, Mrs. Chas. Hyde, Mrs. Will Morris, Mrs. Andrews, Misses Emma, Alquist, Leticia Finner, Blanch Casady, Nabal Casady, Sarah Edington, Mame Glover.

The Autumn Leaf club was delightfully entertained by Miss Annie LeVie, Wednesday evening. Six games of progressive high five were played, prizes being won by Miss Gertrude Williams and Mr. A. Cardwell, and the consolation by Miss Jennie Draper. Dainty refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening was devoted to a kangaroo court. Those present were: Misses Gertrude Williams, Mattie Butler, Gertrude LeVie, Alice Marks, Annie LeVie, Emma LeVie, Jennie Draper, Mrs. A. Cardwell, Mr. and Mrs. Maack, Fred LeVie, Henry Wette and Art Williams. The club then adjourned and will meet with Miss Alice Marks, Wednesday, April 9.

A number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Holding invaded their home on Monday evening and surprised the household. They were a very merry party and an enjoyable time was passed, the evening being spent at games, music and singing. Among those present were: Colonel and Mrs. Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Brewster, Mr. and Mrs. W. Guiver, Mr. and Mrs. Strickland, Mr. and Mrs. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Branch, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Sadler, Mr. and Mrs. Timms, Mr. and Mrs. G. Guiver, Mrs. Puri, Mrs. Newman, Miss Flossie Watson and Mr. Artyon.

Another of a charming series of luncheons was given by Mrs. E. F. Holmes on Wednesday. The table was beautifully decorated in pink and pale green, the centerpiece being a Maltese cross of white satin, hand-painted, and covered with duchesse lace on which was placed a vase of pink carnations.

Over the cloth were strewn carnations and ferns, and candelabra with shades of pale green, tulip, and garlands of pink wisteria aided in the dainty decorations. Covers were laid for 12 guests.

Mrs. J. Swenson entertained the social club at her home on Tuesday afternoon, a delightful time being spent by all present. The rooms were beautifully decorated, and delicious refreshments were served.

The Brunswick was the scene of a delightful bowling party on Monday night, a party of young people gathering at the alleys and enjoying the sport for several hours. The party consisted of Mr. Will Silverwood, Dr. Arnold, Miss Florence Dow, Miss Anderson, the Misses Boyd, Miss Stalter, Mr. Trapp, Mr. B. T. Cannon, Professor Anderson, Mr. Stephenson, the Misses Clark, Mrs. Dunyon, Mr. and Mrs. Chambers, Miss Ferguson, Mr. Hasten, Mr. H. D. Folsom, Jr., and Mr. Tremam.

The Purim ball given at the Ladies' Literary club house on Tuesday night was a distinct success, a large number being present to enjoy the pleasant affair, and the music and all other details being all that could be desired.

Mrs. Henry Lawrence entertained the Sewing club on Tuesday afternoon.

On Tuesday night the Pocomtous auxiliary of the Red Men gave a pleasant social in the A. O. U. W. hall, the entertainment consisting of an enjoyable musical program and cards. Prizes in the contest were won by Mrs. Englemann, Mr. James Keren, Mrs. M. E. Clark, Miss Pearl Clark and Mr. G. Morris. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. E. F. Root entertained the Sewing club on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. E. Leon has returned from Leadville and is guest of her daughter, Mrs. Sig Simon.

Miss Calloway has as her guests at the Knutsford, Miss Shaw and Miss Newhall of Maine.

Miss Birdie Boreman of Ogden will be the guest during Easter week of Miss Virginia Breen.

Mrs. Heber M. Wells and Mrs. E. S. Ferry have invitations out for two luncheons on Tuesday and Friday of next week.

A military hop at the post is one of the events scheduled for the Easter season.

Miss Trevitte, educationist, of the state university of Wisconsin, is visiting friends at 232 East Brigham street.

Mrs. Klehl, mother of Mrs. J. C. E. Kutz, has returned from her trip to the coast.

Mrs. Walter Lewis has returned to her home in Butte.

Mr. George M. Scott has returned from California.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gorlinski entertained informally at cards on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. C. E. Traver left this week to join Mr. Traver in Butte.

Miss Mamie Porter is in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Boyd, sister of Mrs. Lindsay, leaves for England about April 6th.

Miss Burke will pass the summer in the east.

Miss Minnie Marks has returned to her home in Kansas.

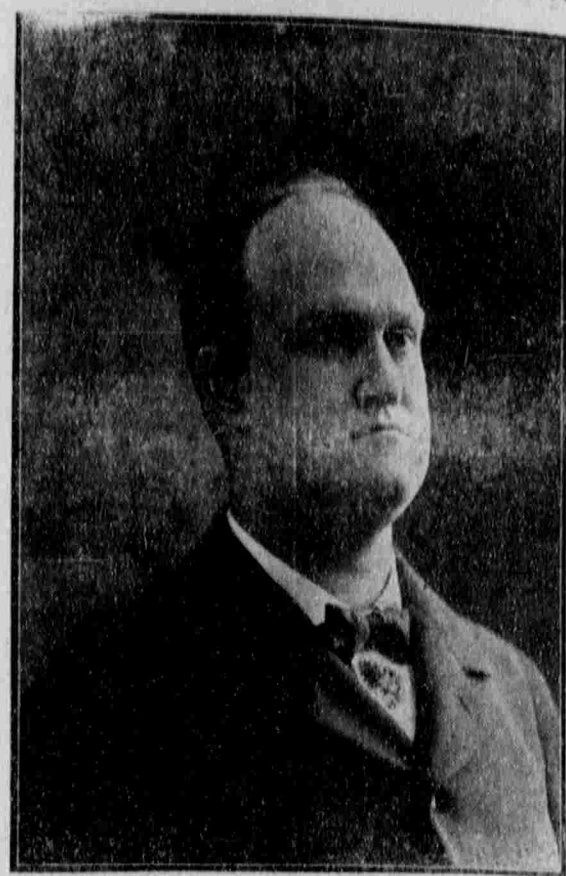

Mrs. Elmer Darling has returned from California, where she has been visiting with her mother, Mrs. Emma Elerbeck.

Battery A. of the N. G. U., will give a ball next week.

Mrs. J. C. McChrystal and little daughter have gone to Santa Cruz.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Margetts are expected home shortly, after spending

PROMINENT OGDEN CITIZENS.

JAMES PINGREE.

Hon. James Pingree was born in Ogden City, and is 29 years of age. He is one of the city's financiers and most prominent citizens, and has always taken a great interest in the business progress of the city. At the present time Mr. Pingree is cashier of the First National bank, also of the Ogden Savings bank. He is also treasurer of the Ogden Sugar company; secretary and treasurer of the Utah Construction company; secretary and treasurer of the Ogden Furniture & Carpet company. Mr. Pingree served Weber county faithfully as treasurer during 1887 and 1888. He is also owner of considerable property throughout the city and county.

the winter in Los Angeles; they will visit San Francisco before returning.

Miss Elizabeth Cosgriff has returned from New York.

Mrs. Silas Hemmingsway of Ontario, is visiting her sister, Mrs. N. B. Dresser.

The young people of the First Congregational church will give an April fool party in the church parlors on April 1.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Walker return today from their eastern trip.

Mrs. James B. Eddie will leave shortly after Easter for Scotland, where she will spend the summer.

Col. and Mrs. Bement of St. Paul are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Sturgis, at Fort Douglas.

Miss Luvera Snow entertained a number of her classmates from Rowland Hall at luncheon on Tuesday.

Mrs. D. Moore Lindsay will entertain at an afternoon function next Tuesday.

Mrs. E. F. Holmes will give a luncheon next Wednesday.

Mrs. H. M. Wells and Mrs. E. S. Ferry will entertain on Tuesday.

Mrs. W. T. Dunn of Bingham is the guest of Mrs. E. W. Genter.

Miss Breen will entertain informally on next Monday night.

Mrs. S. L. Boggs entertained the Sewing club at the home of Mrs. Plummer Wednesday.

Mrs. Klester entertained informally on Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Celia Lundquist entertained informally on Thursday night.

Mr. J. J. Judson returns today from his eastern trip.

Mrs. A. B. Richardson entertained the card club last night.

are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Shephard Benson of F. Street.

Mrs. Krug and father and Mrs. Koutz of Omaha are expected shortly to be the guests of Mrs. J. C. Laux.

Ed Parsons has returned to the city.

Mrs. Gustave Kroeger has gone to Omaha to visit her parents.

Mrs. Sherwood, Mrs. C. R. Lawrence and Miss Sherwood, who have been the guests of Mrs. J. C. Laux en route from California, left Monday evening for their home in Buffalo.

Mrs. F. A. Vincent will entertain next Friday evening.

Mrs. G. W. Snow and Miss Cora Snow have returned from California.

Mrs. Sturgis of Fort Douglas will be hostess at an informal evening party next Thursday night in honor of her parents who are visiting her.

Mrs. John Marshall and daughters will return from California next week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Guligey have returned from their eastern trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Mont Perry gave a Theatre party on Monday night, in honor of their guests, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Truman of Michigan and Mr. Sanford J. Truman.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Truman who have been visiting their daughter Mrs. Mont Perry have returned to their home in Michigan.

Mrs. Martha Groo and Mr. and Mrs. Hayes Groo of Montpelier, who have been visiting Dr. and Mrs. Elias Wright returned to their home on Thursday.

Miss Clara Carstensen entertained at an evening party at their home on Monday evening.

Mrs. W. H. Penrose of Fort Douglas left on Thursday for a month's visit in San Francisco with her son, Capt. Charles Penrose.

Mrs. Charles Miles leaves shortly for England.

Mrs. Lydia Plank has returned to the city from an extended visit in the East, and is at home with Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Harris.

Mrs. Kazebee, who has been the guest of Mrs. L. L. Downing for some time past, left today for her home in Wyoming.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. Jacob Bamberger and Mrs. Simon Bamberger will give a children's party for Misses Dorothy and Elsie Bamberger.

Miss Calloway entertained the card club at the Knutsford on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Burns Macdonald and Mrs. Duke Baxter leave on Monday for New York, to sail from there for a six months' tour of all the principal points of Europe. Mr. Macdonald goes to San Francisco, and there his family will join him in the fall.

Mrs. John Hinman was hostess at a charming luncheon on Wednesday, about nine guests being present. The violet idea prevailed in the decorations, being carried out in flowers, place-cards and menu. The guests were: Messrs. Samuel Paul, Putnam, Lewis, Gleason, Richter, Downing, Genter and Kazebee and Miss Paul.

Mrs. Albert G. Vorse entertained the Euchre club at the home of Mrs. Cherry on Tuesday afternoon.

The Third Street Card club was pleasantly entertained on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. A. N. Cherry.

Mrs. W. W. Armstrong of Park City will be the guest of Mrs. Hale of this city for several days next week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Snyder of Pittsburg are visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Greenwood.

Mrs. J. R. Walker and Mrs. E. S. Ferry entertained informally this afternoon in honor of Mrs. Burns Macdonald and Mrs. Duke Baxter, who leave on Monday for Europe.

Mrs. J. W. Neill will entertain at dinner at the Alta club on Wednesday, April 9.

OGDEN SOCIAL NEWS.

Hon. W. W. Burton's pretty home on the corner of Monroe avenue and Twenty-fifth street was the scene of a very delightful party Wednesday evening given in honor of Mr. Burton who had reached his sixth birthday on that date. The hours passed quickly in speech making, songs, recitations, instrumental music and other pleasures and a sumptuous repast was served. The guests departed at a late hour wishing Mr. Burton many happy returns of his birthday. Those present were: Pres. L. W. Shurtliff and wife, Pres. C. F. Middleton, N. C. Flygare and wife, George W. Larkin and wife, John Watson and wife, William Driver and wife, John A. Boyd and wife, Joseph Perry and wife, William Driver and wife, Fred Folger and wife, Moroni Fowler and wife, William F. Burton and wife, Thomas Burton and wife, Mr. Cooley and wife, Mesdames Martha H. Brown, Mary Stevens, Maria Stevens, Misses May Brown, Rose Canfield, Martha Michaels and many of his grandchildren.

A grand benefit ball will be given in the Fourth ward hall, next Monday evening for the benefit of the orphanage. The program will include a variety of songs, recitations, instrumental music and other pleasures and a sumptuous repast was served. The guests departed at a late hour wishing Mr. Burton many happy returns of his birthday. Those present were: Pres. L. W. Shurtliff and wife, Pres. C. F. Middleton, N. C. Flygare and wife, George W. Larkin and wife, John Watson and wife, William Driver and wife, John A. Boyd and wife, Joseph Perry and wife, William Driver and wife, Fred Folger and wife, Moroni Fowler and wife, William F. Burton and wife, Thomas Burton and wife, Mr. Cooley and wife, Mesdames Martha H. Brown, Mary Stevens, Maria Stevens, Misses May Brown, Rose Canfield, Martha Michaels and many of his grandchildren.

W. H. Wright & Son Co. had a grand opening this week. They served refreshments and Ford's full orchestra furnished sweet music.

The Child's Culture club met Friday afternoon with Mrs. Orson as hostess. A very interesting program was rendered.

The ladies of the Baptist church gave a social Friday evening. A very pleasing musical and literary program was rendered, and refreshments were served. The proceeds from the entertainment will go to the church fund.

The Pioneers of the Pacific will give another of their grand balls at Dignity's Dancing academy Monday evening.

Miss Birdie Boreman of this city, is visiting in Salt Lake this week, the guest of Miss Virginia Breen.

An event which promises to bring out a large crowd will be the grand concert to be given in the Grand opera house Tuesday evening, April 1, by the Salt Lake Tabernacle choir, as a benefit to the state to bring the art of music to its high standard throughout Utah, and is deserving of every aid and appreciation that can be extended him by the public.

Tuesday evening to evoke the music loving public of Ogden. Prof. Cooper has always taken a great interest in musical affairs in Ogden, and has been one of the most zealous workers in the state to bring the art of music to its high standard throughout Utah, and is deserving of every aid and appreciation that can be extended him by the public.

Tuesday evening to evoke the music loving public of Ogden. Prof. Cooper has always taken a great interest in musical affairs in Ogden, and has been one of the most zealous workers in the state to bring the art of music to its high standard throughout Utah, and is deserving of every aid and appreciation that can be extended him by the public.

Tuesday evening to evoke the music loving public of Ogden. Prof. Cooper has always taken a great interest in musical affairs in Ogden, and has been one of the most zealous workers in the state to bring the art of music to its high standard throughout Utah, and is deserving of every aid and appreciation that can be extended him by the public.

Tuesday evening to evoke the music loving public of Ogden. Prof. Cooper has always taken a great interest in musical affairs in Ogden, and has been one of the most zealous workers in the state to bring the art of music to its high standard throughout Utah, and is deserving of every aid and appreciation that can be extended him by the public.

Tuesday evening to evoke the music loving public of Ogden. Prof. Cooper has always taken a great interest in musical affairs in Ogden, and has been one of the most zealous workers in the state to bring the art of music to its high standard throughout Utah, and is deserving of every aid and appreciation that can be extended him by the public.

Tuesday evening to evoke the music loving public of Ogden. Prof. Cooper has always taken a great interest in musical affairs in Ogden, and has been one of the most zealous workers in the state to bring the art of music to its high standard throughout Utah, and is deserving of every aid and appreciation that can be extended him by the public.

Tuesday evening to evoke the music loving public of Ogden. Prof. Cooper has always taken a great interest in musical affairs in Ogden, and has been one of the most zealous workers in the state to bring the art of music to its high standard throughout Utah, and is deserving of every aid and appreciation that can be extended him by the public.

Tuesday evening to evoke the music loving public of Ogden. Prof. Cooper has always taken a great interest in musical affairs in Ogden, and has been one of the most zealous workers in the state to bring the art of music to its high standard throughout Utah, and is deserving of every aid and appreciation that can be extended him by the public.

Tuesday evening to evoke the music loving public of Ogden. Prof. Cooper has always taken a great interest in musical affairs in Ogden, and has been one of the most zealous workers in the state to bring the art of music to its high standard throughout Utah, and is deserving of every aid and appreciation that can be extended him by the public.

Tuesday evening to evoke the music loving public of Ogden. Prof. Cooper has always taken a great interest in musical affairs in Ogden, and has been one of the most zealous workers in the state to bring the art of music to its high standard throughout Utah, and is deserving of every aid and appreciation that can be extended him by the public.

Tuesday evening to evoke the music loving public of Ogden. Prof. Cooper has always taken a great interest in musical affairs in Ogden, and has been one of the most zealous workers in the state to bring the art of music to its high standard throughout Utah, and is deserving of every aid and appreciation that can be extended him by the public.

HEIR TO ITALY'S THRONE COMING.

If the eager expectations of the people of Italy are realized Queen Helene will shortly present her royal spouse with an heir to the Italian throne. Owing to the queen's health there will be no court balls at the Quirinal this season.