INTEREST IN IRRIGATION.

Congress Attracting Widespread Attention Throughout the Country.

LOOK FOR 1,500 DELEGATES.

Health Conditions Good in Junction City—Close of Horse Races—News Briefs and Personals.

The interest that is being taken in the Eleventh Irrigation congress is far beyond the most sanguine expectation of those in charge. The newspapers throughout the entire United States have given the congress considerable space which has brought its importance before the public in general. The arrangement committee believes that fully 1,500 delegates will be present, and they are finding it quite difficult to find suitable rooms for them during their stay in our city, and those who have suitable rooms they can furnish, at a good price for delegates should report the same to the congress headquarters.

Senator Fred Dubois of Idaho has accepted the invitation to attend the congress, and will deliver an address on "Application of Reclamation Act."

Senator J. R. Burton of Kansas will speak on "Twelve Years of Irrigation and the Conservation of Water for the Prevention of Floods."

Senator C. D. Clark and J. A. Carey of Wyoming will be present, the latter having offered his services to the board of control in helping to further the interests of the congress.

State Engineer Dobson of Nebraska will represent his state at the congress. In a letter from T. S. Fustas, passenger traffic manager of the Burlington, he writes as follows: "As representative in that department of the Burlington road which has charge of emigration and colonization work, I naturally have great interest in all irrigation plans, and particularly in your forthcoming plans, and hardly a day passes but that I am something come up, that results in my being able to promote the cause."

RULES OF SUGAR BEET EXHIBIT. President H. O. Havemeyer for the American Sugar Refining company offers a magnificent $500 solid silver loving cup for the best sugar beets grown under irrigation. All sugar beets to be entered for competitive exhibit must show: First, name of county and state where grown; second, name of exhibitor; third, name and origin of seed; fourth, date of planting (if possible). Each sample exhibit is to consist of six average sized beets, three of which are to be exhibited and three are for testing by the official chemist and expert of the Eleventh National Irrigation congress.

All expenses charges must be prepaid on sugar beets to be entered at the exhibit.

Special Correspondence.

Eureka, Aug. 21.—The city started this week to prospect for water. Two men are busy engaged sinking a shaft on some city property northeast of the city. The shaft is to be developed for water to supply the camp with the liquid. The shaft is already down to 20 feet. Carl Burr has offered to sell the city his well, located at Henderson and 1st Eureka. The well, which is one of the best in this section of the district, was formerly used by the Bullion-Beck Mining Co. and is 20 feet deep. It will cost $100 to drill and fill with water. The price by Mr. Burr is $3,000, and the city fathers are seriously considering the proposition of purchasing the well if the title can be procured.

SERIOUS MISHAP.

While at work painting the ore house at the Eureka mine last Monday, Dave Betts, a painter, fell from a ladder and had his head and face badly cut up. A deep gash on the forehead required several stitches. He will be incapacitated from work for some time.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is just as good for children as it is for adults. Children thrive on it. It keeps their little stomachs sweet and encourages their growth and development. Mrs. Henry Carter, 785 Central St., Nashville, Tenn., says: "My little boy is now three years old and has been suffering from indigestion ever since he was born. I have had him doctor in Nashville, but in vain. I tried to do him any good. After using one bottle of Kodol he is a well baby. I recommend it to all sufferers." Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. Sold by all druggists.

The people of Utah county are interested in education, and the school boards are endeavoring to secure efficient teachers for the next school year. Many of the districts have up-to-date buildings. What is most needed is to unite all the school precincts of the county, and have the schools properly graded.

Everybody in the county is busy, and many improvements are under way. Material progress has been hindered by the scarcity of lumber, none being saved last year, and the mills have only started up in a halfhearted way, and all the lumber that can be obtained is being put into buildings.

The approach of a railroad and the opening of the Utah reservation will put a premium on every ton of hay and all the lumber that can be obtained is being put into buildings.

PRICE.

MURDEROUS ASSAULT.

G. W. Tracy, a Shepherd, Attempts to Annihilate Family.

Price, Carbon Co., Aug. 21.—George Washington Tracy came in from his sheep herds in the mountains to his home near Glen last night and came near doing away with his entire family, a wife and step-daughter and step-son. A few months ago he married the Widow Tolson of Spring Glen, Ariz.

He first attacked his wife and began to maul her about the house. At this juncture of the proceeding the grownup daughter interfered, when Tracy struck her over the back of the head with a large shovel used for irrigation purposes and cleaning out ditches. The best part of the back of the daughter's head was torn away with a good portion of the left ear.

The stepson now came to the rescue with a shotgun. This Tracy grabbed from the young man's hands and broke the gun over the youth's head, inflicting a wound which may prove serious. All three members of the family were unable to appear before Justice Ward at Heber tonight on account of their injuries. In the meantime Tracy was brought to Price and placed in jail, awaiting the outcome of the murderous assault.
