BREVITIES.

Greece is building three railroads.

Bill of the play—William Shakspeare.

There are 210 miles of paved streets in New York.

The first cadet who ever entered at West Point was the late Gen. Gates.

Florence Nightingale has been confined to her room for 11 years.

Reason is the flower of the spirit, and its fragrance is liberty and knowledge.

A son of Santa Anna is a robber chief in Mexico. A chip off the "old block."

A vocalist says he could sing "Way Down Old Tar River," if he could get the pitch.

The memory of many persons is nothing but a row of hooks to hang grudges on.

Spain is anxious to improve her population by procuring German and English immigrants.

A correspondent of an exchange says that feeding wheat fields down close after the ground freezes in the fall and winter, is certain death to the fly.

Hayti has four Presidents in the field, and, in consequence, is the worst governed country in the world. Salnave, Dominguez, Nissave-Saget and Rebecca are the four Chief Magistrates.

Count Adelsværd, one of the wealthiest noblemen of Sweden, is said to have refused an offer of seventy millions dollars, made to him by an English company, for his copper mine of Atrudaberg.

At a school at Wallsend, near Newcastle, England, the master asked a class of boys the meaning of the word 'appetite," when after a short pause, one little boy said: "I know, sir. When I'm eatin' I'm 'appy, and when I'm done I'm tight."

Leotard the great gymnast, at his exhibition at the Academy of Music, New York, leaped fifty-five feet in the air, and fell intentionally, but with every appearance of misadventure, a distance of forty feet, to the stage.

It having been hinted to a barrister who was worrying the Court with a long and dull argument, that he ought to bring it to a close, he angrily replied, "I will speak as long as I please!" "You have already spoken longer than you please already," said his antagonist.

The screw is the most powerful of all the mechanical forces. A screw loose is universally acknowledged to be a terrible misfortune, and fatal to the working of all social, mental and political conditions. A ship's screw, or propeller, is essential to the very motion of the vessel; in fact, a ship's crew propelher.

"There's our Jeremiah," said Mr. Shelton, "he went off to make a living by his wits."

"Well, did he succeed?" inquired his friend.

"No," said the old man with a sigh, and significantly tapping his head, "he failed for want of capital."

M. Gevers has been receiving from the city of Paris for twenty-five years a pension of ten thousand francs a year, because when a page of Napoleon I., he had the honor of announcing to the municipality the birth of the "King of Rome." The total payment thus far for this simple act have already exceed-$50,000.

A little fellow, not more than five years of age, hearing some gentleman at his father's table discussing the familiar line, "An honest man's the noblest work of God," said it wasn't trne; his mother was better than any man that was ever made.

An Edinburgh clergyman of rare and quaint genius, was one day seen gazing at the Carlisle mail as it came thundering down the bridges. "What are you thinking of?" said a reverend brother. "Im thinking that next to preachin' the everlastin' gospel, I would like to drive the mail."

"Really, my, dear," said Mr. Jones to his better half, "you have sadly disappointed me. I once considered you a a jewel of a woman; but you've turned out only a bit of matrimonial paste." "Then my love," was the reply, "console yourself with the idea that paste is very adhesive and will stick to you as long as you live.

In New York stock theatres the business manager gets $5,000 a year; the stage manager $60 a week; the leading man $75 a week; the leading lady the same; the soubrettes $50, and so on down to the ballet girls, who display themselves for $8 or $10 a week.

A religious paper is announced in Montreal, entitled the "Ave Maria," to be published in the interest of the Holy Virgin. A grand mass in requiem and a certain number of communions will be given to persons subscribing $20.

A family puzzle: In the family of Stephen Herrick, of Middlesex, Vt., there are three mothers, two grandmothers, one great grandmother, three daughters, two granddaughters, one great granddaughter, two wives, one widow, two husbands, two fathers, two sons-in-law, one grandfather, and one son-in-law, and only six members in the family.

An Egyptian ostrich has died in the Zoological Gardens at Paris, aged ten years. He was a well-known character, and "the smallest contributions thankfully accepted" was to be read in his eye. The children gave him cakes, buttons, and old nails. On opening his stomach, it turned out to be quite an old curiosity shop. Three pounds of old metal were found in it.
