ON Friday evening next Judge C. C. Goodwin will deliver a lecture in the Congregational church, the proceeds to be given to the Rescue Home mission for charitable purposes. The subject will be —Why should America not adopt a gold standard?

"TELL me," said one gentleman to another in the council chamber last night as the noises were wrangling over an unimportant matter, "what our brilliant law makers need now for this evening?" "Five dollars each," promptly responded the man spoken to.

COMMENDABLE complaint is being made by residents on First South street, in the western part of the city, in regard to what they think the unnecessary grading and cutting that is being done by the city in putting down the sidewalk pavement in that locality.

POLITICAL AFFAIRS.

Democratic City Convention in the Wasatch Hall, Monday Noon.

NO REGISTRATION FIGURES YET.

D. C. Dunbar's Resignation as Deputy Registrar for the Fourth Precinct Received.

The Democratic city committee, in making its call for a convention on the 9th inst., left the place and hour of meeting an open question. That, however, was attended to today by Chairman Schroeder and Secretary Dunbar announcing that the convention would be held in the Wasatch hall (old Federal court room) and that it would be called to order at 12 o'clock, noon.

RESIGNATION OF A DEPUTY REGISTRAR.

The following communication dated yesterday and addressed to J. R. Walden, county registrar, and the Utah Commission explains itself:

Gentlemen: I have declined to accept the chairmanship of the executive committee of the Citizens' party in the present municipal campaign and, feeling that such political work as will necessarily be involved in this position will prevent me from doing the part which will remain to be done in connection with the registration, I respectfully ask to be relieved of any and all duties and responsibilities as deputy registrar for the Fourth precinct, Salt Lake City, and further request that my resignation take effect today, as I expect to assume other responsibilities tomorrow.

Respectfully,
DAVID C. DUNBAR.

Mr. Walden stated to a NEWS representative today that he has accepted the resignation of Mr. Dunbar. He said, however, that he essentially did so last as the work of registration was about completed so that it did not seriously relieve. Mr. Dunbar, he said, had been his right hand helper and chief adviser during the registration work and he was glad his resignation came at the eleventh hour.

In regard to the appointment of a successor to Mr. Dunbar, Mr. Walden said that would not be necessary now but that what little remained to be done would be attended to by Mr. L. U. Eldredge.

To a NEWS reporter Mr. Dunbar said he did not think he could consistently accept the chairmanship of the Citizens and Independent Citizens' executive campaign committee and remain connected with the registration, therefore his action.

POLITICAL PARAGRAPHS.

P. W. McCaffery is reported as saying that he is going to the Legislature. In what capacity, however, does not yet appear.

J. R. Middlemiss is anxious to secure Legislative honors also, but he says his own friends are his worst enemies and that they will die him as good if they can help it.

Too Bad for the Reform School.

In the Third district court today Judge Judd called the attention of Judge Zane to a communication from the officers of the reform school, in which it was stated that an inmate of that institution, named John Finnegone, had broken out and committed a burglary, and his conduct was of such a character generally that they recommended that he be turned over to the court as an "incorrigible." Judge Zane ordered him committed to the care of the United States marshal until dealt with by the court.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, - OCT. 6, 1893.

First District Court.

Hyrum Hyde, for whom a bench warrant was issued several days since, appeared in court Thursday and in explanation of his non-appearance on the date set for him to plead, stated that he had received no notification of the setting of a time for him to come. The explanation was accepted by the court. By the charge of assault with intent to commit murder, Hyde entered a plea of not guilty, and the case was set for trial today, October 7th, 1893.

The grand jury reported that ten indictments were returned against and ten under United States statute, and been found.

In the Emery county land case of W. L. Brown et al. vs O. O. Kimball et al., judgment for plaintiff was rendered.

In the case of Edwin Lee vs James Healy, the jury rendered a verdict of $12 for plaintiff for services rendered as commissioner in a water case.

Lehi City vs J. T. Wadsworth, an appeal case from Lehi, in which defendant, who is a druggist, is charged with selling liquor in violation of the city ordinance of Lehi, came on for trial. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

Cases have been filed as follows:

James R. Edmunds vs John H. Jones, Servier county, to foreclose a $12,000 mortgage.

Hirsch Ascheit Co. vs St. V. Lee & Sons, to recover $200 for blacksmith tools, etc.

Leopold Goldberg vs Owen O. Nelson, administrator, (3 suits) for $500.00 on promissory notes.

Leopold Goldberg vs Owen O. Nelson, to recover $200 on a note.

DEPARTED MISSIONARY HONORED.

Services in honor of Elder P. A. Hinckley, who recently departed this life while laboring as a missionary in Sweden, were held in the Second ward assembly rooms Thursday. A letter from C. A. Carlquist, president of the Scandinavian mission, detailing the circumstances of Elder Hinckley's death, was read, also a brief biographical sketch. Elder Hinckley was born in Ljungby, Sweden, June 20th, 1853, became a member of the Church July 7, 1878, emigrated to Utah in July, 1884, and left for the Swedish mission November 23rd, 1891. The speakers were Lars C. Nelson, who baptized Elder Hinckley in Sweden, O. H. Berg, Bishop J. P. R. Johnson, Edward Peay, H. H. Berg and Bishop Evan Wells.

A Lecherous Scoundrel.

On Wednesday night some individual raised a window of L. M. Peck's house in the Second ward, and entered a bedroom occupied by a couple of young ladies. He attempted to get into the bed where the young ladies were sleeping, but they awoke and screamed for help. Mr. Peck rushed to their assistance, and the fellow hastily departed through the open window. In his hurry, however, he left his shoes just outside. Officer Wilkins examined the footwear in the morning, and has a clue as to who the owner is. An arrest will probably be made.

Housebreakers.

During the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Heath from their home in the Fifth ward Thursday, the house was entered and six dollars in silver was stolen.

The house of Mr. Dery, on the same block, was also visited at the same time, and the pantry suffered thereby. The police have the matter in hand.

Time Expires.

The term of imprisonment of Mrs. Jensen, the Pleasant Grove woman who was sent to jail on the charge of stealing wheat, expired yesterday.

Stimulate the Senses.

Brandreth's Pills are the great blood purifier. They are a purgative and stimulant, they act equally on the bowels, the kidneys, and the skin, thus clearing the system by the natural outlet of the body—they may be called the purgative, diuretic and diaphoretic medicine. They stimulate the blood-vessels to enable nature to throw off all morbid humors, and cure disease, no matter by what name it may be called. One or two of them taken every night will prove an infallible remedy.

Sold by every druggist and merchant store, either pills or sugar coated.
