WEATHER ITEM.—The highest point reached by the thermometer to-day was 88. The maximum of the High Council are expected to meet at the City Hall to-morrow morning at ten o'clock.

CONCURRENCE.—The funeral ceremonies of Mrs. Mary E. Croxall took place this morning at President Young's School House, which was filled with the relatives and friends of the deceased, who had assembled to pay their last tribute of respect.

The services commenced with singing by the choir, under the direction of Professor J. H. Taylor. Prayer was offered by Elder John Taylor, when the choir again sang. The Rev. George H. Cannon read a portion of the 14th chapter of the first epistle to the Corinthians, commencing at the 14th verse, making this the basis for remarks appropriate to the occasion.

President George A. Smith followed, and briefly endeavored to console the mourners under their bereavement.

President Joseph Young was the last speaker. He said that the deceased was a faithful wife and mother and an excellent mother-in-law, and that she was a true friend to the poor and the afflicted.

His closing words were: "Oh my Father, thou that knowest the heart, I commend her to thee."

The choir sang, "Oh my Father, thou that knowest the heart, I commend her to thee."

FROM THE SOUTH.—Dr. J. D. M. Crookwell called to-day, to say he had just returned from the extreme South, having spent some time in the States of Georgia, Alabama, and Florida.

He said that the climate was very warm, and that the people were generally happy and contented.
