

PROMINENT OGDEN CITIZENS.

JUDGE THOMAS D. DEE.

Thomas D. Dee, an excellent portrait of whom is shown above, is one of the busiest men in Ogden city, and one of the wealthiest. He is a native of Wales, having been born in that country in 1814. When he was about sixteen years old he emigrated to Utah with his parents and settled in Ogden. Almost from the day he entered the city there has always been some duty the latter has had for him to perform. His title as judge was earned by serving on the city bench from 1885 to 1891. He has been a member of the Ogden board of education for the last twelve years, and for six years has been president of the board. He is vice president of the First National bank, vice president of the Ogden Sugar company; president of the Ogden Rapid Transit company; president of the Utah Construction company; president of the Ogden Furniture company; president of the Dee, Stanford Shoe company; president of the Utah Canning company; president of the Ogden Pressed Brick and Tile company, and for the past six years has been a member of the state board of equalization.

Judge Dee also served in the Ogden city council from 1882 to 1891.

Oquirrh on Tuesday and lunched with the teachers.

The manual training work last week was making sleds for coasting.

The debating club of the student body met Friday and accepted the question submitted by Nevada and chose the affirmative side. The question reads: "Resolved, that the whites of the Southern states are justifiable in using every forcible means to maintain their supremacy over the negroes." The club will meet next Monday to decide upon some plan for preliminary contest.

Professor Acres' classes in chemistry began work in organic chemistry yesterday.

Last night at Zeta Gamma the following program was carried out: Reading, Clyde Staid; review of the Schley case, Chas. Manning; answering in of county officers, W. T. Taylor.

On Feb. 16, Professor Stewart will deliver a lecture to the people of Morgan city.

Miss Pearl Van Cott entertained the college women at her home today.

Professor Lyman will address the citizens of Draper Sunday night on educational subjects.

The '03 class is holding secret meetings. The '02s wonder what it means. Some of them have found out the secret. Junior class day exercises are being prepared.

At the last faculty meeting the question of introducing a language in the normal course was discussed and then referred to the normal committee.

UNIVERSITY TRAINING SCHOOL.

The second section of the training class began work in primary songs; games and stories under Miss May and Mrs. Westerveld.

Frank M. Driggs, superintendent of the school for the deaf at Ogden, visited the training school on Monday.

In connection with their colonial history work, the pupils of the fifth grade have been studying the methods of illuminating houses. The chief point is the evolution of the lamp from the dip and candle to the gas light and incandescent are light. Last week the pupils made gas in their laboratory.

The pupils of the lower grades are studying animal coverings. They visited ed the E. Mehney fur establishment down town and made a study of all the processes of preparing furs. Mr. Mehney was very kind and took pains to answer the many curious questions of the pupils.

SALT LAKE CITY SCHOOLS.

Supervisor Wetzel spoke before the teachers of Wasatch county at Heber today.

Superintendent Christensen and Principal Coombs were visitors at the Lincoln on Monday.

Miss Reiser of the Murray schools, was a recent visitor at the Lincoln.

Supervisor Wetzel visited the Longfellow, Bryant, Twelfth, Wasatch and Webster schools this week.

Mrs. Simpson substituted for Miss Loda of the Union this week.

Miss Bessie Williamson has been assigned to the Lowell in place of Miss Van Cott, who has assumed the principalship of the Irving.

Miss Sampson took her place at the Hamilton last Monday.

The schools have received some fine relief maps during the past week that will be of inestimable value in teaching geography.

J. J. Hutchinson of Joplin, Missouri, has been assigned to the Lincoln corps.

Mr. Elliott substituted for Miss Dwyer at the Emerson the past week.

Superintendent Pollock visited the Franklin, Washington, Bryant and Oquirrh the past week.

In a letter to a friend about a week ago, Mrs. Elliott wrote that her father was then very low, and gave no intimation of her return to Salt Lake.

Relative to the trouble yesterday afternoon after school between some boys and for which the Union school has been held responsible, it is learned from Principal Wallace that the boy who began the trouble was not a pupil of the school at all, and invited the trouble and was punished by the other boys for his delinquency. The matter occurred off from the school grounds entirely.

Miss Brook substituted for Miss Lloyd at the Grant this week.

Mr. Young, of the board of education, visited the Twelfth on Thursday.

Supervisor Wetzel has drilled the eighth grade at the Bryant in a beautiful chorus entitled "Brightly the Morning."

The eighth grade at the Hamilton saw Julius Caesar Wednesday night.

The Hamilton corps had a delightful surprise Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Pratt, with a big bob and four horses took them out for a jolly sleighride.

Miss Nowell, Miss Christensen, Miss Van Cott, Miss Morgan, Miss Larsen, Mr. Coombs of the Hamilton attended Ward's lecture Thursday.

Miss Jones of the Sumner, visited the Hamilton.

Miss Sallie Houghton visited the

ENGLAND'S CRACK GOLFER COMING.

American golf enthusiasts, and their number is legion, hail with delight the news that Harry Vardon, England's famous golf champion, is coming to America in the early spring to engage in some big contests. The famous British golfer will play on many links.

groom closed with a "round-up," as it was called by Instructor Decker. Mr. Decker spoke with much warmth on the necessity of entering into their societies and athletics. He stated that the book work is only half of the school work; that the student's aim is to be a good citizen, and that the good citizen is not the inactive man whose mind is stored with facts.

L. D. S. UNIVERSITY.

Salt Lake City.—Last Wednesday morning at devotional exercises, Harold Grow, W. M. Worthington, Ruel Walton and Miss Jane Pixon presented the university with a beautiful silk flag of the school colors, gold and blue.

This week has been given over more or less to examinations. The next semester begins on Monday. New classes will begin in many subjects.

Friday last was a red letter day at the university. The whole school, headed by Heila's band, marched from the business college to the various former homes of the college and back to the university, where a good program was listened to by a very large audience of students and strangers.

Wednesday evening, the missionary class presented the university with a finely bound copy each of the Book of Mormon and the Doctrine and Covenants, and about fifty dollars' worth of hymnbooks. This class now numbers 130 students.

Undoubtedly the finest high school in the state was arranged last Wednesday in the office of General Superintendent J. M. Tanner. Profs. Brimhall, Linford, Paul and Mills were the other members of the committee. These courses will be adopted next year by all the church schools.

Last Wednesday morning in general meeting, Prest. Paul discussed the ethics and morality of personal combats between young men. He showed that he only time a young man ever should engage in an encounter of this kind would be in self-defense or in defense of those whom he is in duty bound to protect. The remainder of the program was furnished by the Rho Beta Pi in discussing the question of prohibition. Student Clegg made a very good speech. The other speakers were Students Derbyshire, Parkinson and Petro.

BRIGHAM YOUNG ACADEMY

Provo, Feb. 6.—President Linford, of the B. Y. college, visited our classes for two days last week.

Prest. Brimhall spent Wednesday in

TO FIGHT YOUNG CORBETT.

Abe Attel, a young fighter, pronounced by competent judges to be in the McGovern and Young Corbett class, and a dangerous rival to both of them, is trying hard to secure a match with Young Corbett. He is sure that he can snatch the laurels from the new champion's brow.

Salt Lake attending to business connected with the academy.

The academy correspondent is pleased to be corrected in the matter of specialist grade teachers.

Members of the Parents' class were very pleased with Prof. Wolfe's lecture on "The Puritan Home" on Wednesday evening.

Several members of the faculty have added to the beauty of the sixth and seventh grade rooms by contributing some nicely-framed and very pretty pictures.

The class of 1907 gave a very enjoyable social on Wednesday evening. A number of teachers were present and joined in the games of the evening.

Some very fine geographical and geological models and contour maps have been made by the students of the natural science classes.

The opening ball in the gymnasium will be given on Friday night. Nearly two hundred invitations have been sent out and a very enjoyable time is expected.

Practice teachers of the training school have entire charge of one of the grades for one day each month. This enables them to gain experience in arranging seat work as well as conducting recitations.

Dr. Dewey has expressed his satisfaction and appreciation at the way in which the lectures he delivered here last summer are edited and published. The "White and Blue" is to be congratulated.

Classes in gymnasium work will begin next week. Prof. Swenson will conduct the gentlemen's class and Mrs. Freda Cliff will be in charge of the ladies. Much interest is being manifested by the students.

Mrs. Ida S. Dusenberry left for Washington, D. C., on Wednesday where she will attend the International Council of Women. During her absence the girls who have had a two years' course in kindergarten training will have charge of her work.

Mrs. Booth's class in the training school has had some very interesting lessons in physics during the past week. A small house party will be given in the near future to demonstrate to the children some of the elementary physical laws which they have discovered.

On Saturday evening the Alpha Beta club will debate before the Literary society on a subject of present interest. The debaters on both sides are devoting newspaper and magazine articles with a rapidity and relish that is surprising.

The academy Sunday school is in a very prosperous condition. Teachers report that the students are preparing their lessons with the same earnestness that characterizes their week-day work. Several classes have applied for larger rooms because of the increased attendance.

A movement is on foot to have all former students who attended the academy during the time of Dr. Macrae's presidency meet in a reunion during commencement week of this year. Dr. J. M. Tanner is the leader in the work and a meeting held on Tuesday several committees were appointed to make the necessary arrangements.

"The Indians and Their Traditions" was the subject of C. L. Christensen's interesting lecture before the Literary society last Saturday evening. Mr. Christensen lives among the Indians for twenty years and was well able to speak of their customs. Many questions were asked after the lecture, showing that the speaker had awakened keen interest in the subject.

Hundreds of students listened with interest to Elder B. H. Roberts' new lecture on "The Secondary Purpose of Christ's Mission" last Sunday night. Elder Roberts presented the subject in a logical and systematic manner and handled it with a force and vigor that greatly impressed his hearers. Many students have discussed in their classes some of the beautiful truths which he so clearly portrayed.

Last Friday evening a meeting of the normal students was called and some wholesome advice given by Prest. Brimhall. The academy records show that while more students enter this institution than any other in the state, there are not relatively so many graduates. The reason is that the demand for academy students is so great that many are called to their work before their course is completed. The school is drained every year for nearly three hundred missionaries and thus their school work is interrupted. Prest. Brimhall called the students to finish their course before entering active life and thereby to increase their usefulness. It is thought that hereafter students will make greater efforts to graduate.

BEAVER BRANCH B. Y. A.

Beaver, Feb. 6.—Attorney William F. Knox of Beaver delivered an interesting lecture before the Polymath society on Friday evening. His subject being the "history and development of the law."

Our numbers are still on the increase. Miss Ella Batty of Toquerville, entering Monday morning, has been called to their work before their course is completed. The school is drained every year for nearly three hundred missionaries and thus their school work is interrupted. Prest. Brimhall called the students to finish their course before entering active life and thereby to increase their usefulness. It is thought that hereafter students will make greater efforts to graduate.

The class in parliamentary law has been warmly debating the question of adopting the by-laws, as reported by its committee.

All appreciate the change in the weather and it is only a matter of a few days until the snow will be gone at its present rate of melting.

O. P. McShane of the Beaver district schools will lecture before the students Feb. 7th.

BRIGHAM YOUNG COLLEGE

Logan, Feb. 5.—The Philomathean Literary society holds another session tomorrow night. The great attractive number of the program will be a debate between the Excelsior class and the Phi Polo Debating society.

President Linford returned today from Salt Lake City, where he attended a meeting of the state board of examiners.

One of the advanced history classes, the class in civil war, under Prof. J. P. Miller, is pretty well warmed up to the subject. The class is considering facts previous to the proclamation of emancipation, and the strength of Professor Miller on the subject adds a great deal of interest to the already very interesting subject.
