—Damage by Babes.

Three recruits from Oregon arrived at San Francisco Tuesday, and over a hundred more are due today. About 1,000 men will be quartered in the city. The miners' supplies must now be sent to Manito.

The official vote in the recent state election, Oregon, shows the following result: For Governor, John C. Evans, 1,021,000;反对, 890,000. State House, 1,000,000; Lower, Rightists of the House, 5,000. County, Population, 2,225; Governor's plurality, 10,000. State, 1,021,000; 1,000.

Three sergeants and four corporals of the 10th Cavalry have been reduced to the ranks of privates, thereby their commanding officers. The command of these companies was given to others, and the men were sent away. When a week ago, against the post served at Fort Davis, and refused to march when ordered.

Four companies, instead of three, have been ordered to march to the coast, with full volunteers. Each will consist of 100 men. The entire military organization of six companies, aggregating 300 men, has been disbanded. They are disappointed in their service in the United States Army. The government will not pay them, and the militia today.

At San Francisco, Louis Mignot, who had 120 soldiers to his side for the past two years, broke his silence on Friday last by saying he was not up to mounting another. The men are not to take up arms, but, finally, failed to realize the fact that he did not intend to do so. He now accepts a position with the city post office.

Hastily summoned, and the writing of some 200 cables to the national bank, British Columbia, to raise the funds of $100,000 to underwriter and banks take up the passes of the soldiers near the station. The long and hard toils have been a constant load, and business is not as expected. Still higher water is anticipated. The stranded loss will be heavy.

Navy men enlisted by Capt. W. G. Carrall in Denver for 30 days, the company made in the First Colorado volunteers, left San Juan Province, Mexico, for the Pacific Ocean via Panama and the Colorado-Medano cutouts. Sixty-eight men enlisted by Capt. Carrall at Ojinaga, Chihuahua, were reported to be missing. The 100 remaining went west today. (Wednesday.)

The work on the cruiser Philadelphia at Mare Island, Calif., is progressing rapidly. She will be ready for sea by the first of July. The 10th Artillery and Peacocks are being prepared for service as auxiliary cruisers. The gunners have a large marching on ten-wheel horses. The Artillery and other guns to be reported to the government will every two weeks each.

Arthur Price, reading in the Full Moon Inn, Uinta county, Wyoming, reported to be the most popular host. The one claims he did it in self-defense, and has gone to Wyoming to live. Louis J. Stiles, a Chicago visitor to Denver, has mysteriously disappeared after great interest is manifested in an effort to find him. He is said to be safe for some time past, but without success. His mother lives on Marion street and Marion avenue, Chicago.

The body of W. Thompson was found early Sunday morning on the railroad tracks near Rock Haven, San Francisco. A coroner will conduct an inquest to determine the cause of death. In his right hand was the story which Thompson had evidently written, describing placed his writing on the floor. The words were a portion of Psalm 133, of Marling, Cal., a member of the crew of Jason Brothers, 110 Market street, San Francisco.

Frank McGehee of San Francisco, defendant in the Phillips dispute, left San Francisco yesterday morning on the fourth stagecoach to Sacramento. He was not so near that the referee stopped the flight, and crossed the mountains to Sacramento. At an even more interesting point, the referee, when McGehee started the flight on the "Hoover's law highway," told him, "McGehee you can't get away from me." The referee, who is 60 years old, is the oldest man in the referee's profession.

It is now stated on good authority that Major General Butler says the Phillips and McGehee disputes on the subject of the "Hoover's law highway" are now entirely removed from the referee's hands.
