to detain them. That the case against them will be dismissed there is little doubt. This was predicted in last evening's "News." When released this morning, Phillips. McFarling and Jennings shook hands with their attorneys. Soren X. Chris-tensen and William Newton, in a way that indicated that the ex-prisoners did not intend to return in the immediate Wuture.

DECISION TOMORROW.

Frank Murrey and Harry W. Wil-Frank Murrey and Harry W. Wil-liams were before his honor on the charge of robbery. It was alleged that, on May 29, they held up and robbed a man named G. H. Foulds and stole from him a watch and chain valued at $20, The case of Murrey was continued until the 5th of next month, but Wil-liams was given a hearing. Judge Diehl will decide the case tomorrow morning.

MRS. WELLS BETTER.

Outlook for Her Recovery is Regarded As Very Bright.

At 1 o'clock today it was stated by the physicians in charge of Mrs. Heber M. Wells that the patient was progressing micely and had spent a quiet morning. No amputation has been attempted, and more has been determined upon, although Dr. Pinkerton is not yel sure whether one will finally be necessary or not. The blood vessels and it is on account of the consequent loss of blood that the greatest danger is feared. Mrs. Wells rested quiet-ily at the L. D.
