President Cleveland Decides to Send a Representative

OF THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT

With the Commission to Investigate the Troubles Among Christians in Turkey.

CONVENTIONAL, Dec. 18.—It is now stated that President Cleveland will, after all, accede to the Porte's request to send a delegate with the commission appointed to inquire into the stories of the atrocities upon the part of the Turkish military in Armenia.

ROSS GARD WITNESS.
Washington, Dec. 18.—A telegram from the sub-treasurer at New York to the treasury department says that up to 2:30 p.m., yesterday $1,100,000 had been withdrawn.

CONFIDENTIAL BY A BUREAU.

Some lively meetings had in No. 1000.

CHICAGO, Dec. 18.—Inspector Nicholas Hunt, of Hyde Park district, was lately came into special prominence by his speedy disposal of the most serious case of house-breaking committed by a burglar in the hall of the second floor of his residence at 5 o'clock late at night. The inspector was in his eightieth and married. His wife held a formidable revolver and had a hand in the time in placing their enemies in the hands of justice. The burglar left all the talking and his inspectress judiciously used upon his nerves, which was to return to his room. As he reached the door the thief turned past him and fled down the stairs.

The inspectress is a burleson and holds the door of his business and a gun, which he had lied two shots at the fleeing man. Hearing him swear, she ran to the door and found the burglar had run through the window, threw up the shutters and waited. He calculated that the robs would run through the alley into the avenue. He was right, and was soon outside again. The burglar was so taken that he could hardly see the following day as he emptied his gun in vain. The thief escaped.

DEPUTY MARSHAL DISCHARGED.

No. 1000 Burleson During the Strike, but Was Exonerated.

CHICAGO, Dec. 18.—Judge Grosser has made an order that Wm. J. Stark, one of the deputy marshals arrested during the strike, be discharged, as the officer was in custody for an act done in pursuance of a state of the United States, and therefore was held in violation of the Constitution and laws of the United States. The marshal was held until his services were released and discharged from all obligations on the road.

Stark was appointed a U. S. deputy marshal during the late strike and on July 1st, 1893, giving the command of the police to the Illinois Central railroad. During the day care was arrested and burned, and this deputy marshal being attacked, Stark fired into the crowd and shot one Wm. E. Aspinwall, who died four days later. Stark was held until his services were released and discharged from all obligations on the road.

CHICAGO, Dec. 18.—The city council last night by a vote of 41 to 23 (not the necessary two-thirds) voted to pass Alderman Kerr's resolution appropriating $10,000 for an investigation of the recent shooting of George Washington, the third member of the League of the Comrades, the secretary of the commission, Col. T. P. Edgington, of Maryville, and accompanies them.

DO NOT WANT INVESTIGATION.

CHICAGO, Dec. 18.—The city council last night by a vote of 41 to 23 (not the necessary two-thirds) voted to pass Alderman Kerr's resolution appropriating $10,000 for an investigation of the recent shooting of George Washington, the third member of the League of the Comrades, the secretary of the commission, Col. T. P. Edgington, of Maryville, and accompanies them.

SIR JOHN THOMPSON'S WHOLE.

CHICAGO, Dec. 18.—Mrs. and Mrs. Stanford, wife and daughter of Senator Stanford, will accompany Miss Thompson, daughter of Sir John Thompson, to Liverpool, England, next month, to open a branch of the Maypole wharf sale for New York insurance. Mrs. Stanford has received a telegram from Winslow signed by all the members of the queen's household, conveying her safe arrival. Thompson's family has issued an expression of sympathy and particularly asking Mrs. Stanford to convey the sympathetic message to Lady Thompson.

A COAL COMBINE.

Story of a Mighty Syndicate's Encroachment.

DENVER, Dec. 18.—A special to the Deseret News says a Chicago syndicate, representing $12,000,000, has bought the properties of the Union Pacific, Western and Rock Springs coal companies at Rock Springs, Wyoming, comprising all the mines not owned by the Union Pacific. It is said the syndicate has bought the mines of Kansas and Nebraska and intends to take control of the string of mines reaching across the continent.

THE MINE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—Notwithstanding the fact that the estate of the deceased bill was submitted to begin in the House today, the measure was passed without a single amendment. The House, however, did not vote on the measure at the time of the change, and that the bill was frequently in the committee of the whole.

GALLINGER, (N. H.) presented a resolution inviting the annexation of Canada. Gallinger said it was written by a strong advocate of continental union, a member for nine years of the House of Representatives, and now connected with a New Hampshire newspaper. He asked reference of the resolution to the committee on foreign affairs.

Lodge introduced a resolution calling on the President for correspondence in the extradition case of General Bassa, a fugitive from the United States, and particularly asking the Secretary of State to take up the case with the Spanish government.

MOTION TO APPROPRIATE.

PROVIDENCE, Dec. 18.—The French Diet has been summoned to meet January 8th. The government intended after the close of the session to prosecute Henri Léonard, the socialist member of the Reichstag, who took a prominent part in the demonstration against the vote upon the opening of the Diet.

STRIKERS DESTROYED IN BLOODY FIGHT.

PROVIDENCE, Dec. 18.—A special to the Deseret News says the strike has been discontinued from public places repeatedly and they determine to continue. The miners have armed themselves with clubs and stones and congregated at the stores, but their forces were few and small. The strikers stopped driving teams. The men in voting appeared on the scene and the drivers, fearing themselves surrounded, started to run. At least two hundred shots were fired. One of the drivers was shot in the leg. His friends carried him home. A number of others were more or less injured.

To succeed John Worth.

CHICAGO, Dec. 18.—A special to the Deseret News says that the strike of the miners of the Illinois Central Railroad company had last night, the violence caused by the death of Mr. John Worth, was filed by the election of Mr. Robert E. Jenkins. President Jenkins will accept the office of president of the Illinois Central Railroad company next month. Although the intervening time is short, it was necessary to fill the position as there are many important papers requiring daily the signatures of the chief officers of the road. Mr. Jenkins, a well known attorney, was elected to succeed Mr. Worth as director.

Both of the new officials are longtime residents of Chicago. At the Chicago bar Mr. Jenkins has long been a prominent figure, and has filled the position of president of the Bar association. In hunting circles his name is equally familiar, having a directorship in the Field and Stream Club and in several of the south side social clubs.

RODNEY MEADE'S.

CHICAGO, Dec. 18.—The executive committee of the great masses of America, an organization embracing representatives of the railroads of the United States, Canada, Mexico and two cities in South America, met yesterday. Among those present were Robert Bissell, president of the Chicago & North Western, J. H. McCallister, chairman of the Union Pacific, and various members of the Chicago & Northwestern.

The committee reported without recommending the plan to establish the existing system outlined in the bill prepared by James Young of New York.

President Gompers offered a motion referring the matter to the executive committee. It was adopted.

The committee on local and federal roads voted to support the resolution of the charter of union of New England and that immediately become identified with their national organization.

The executive committee of the Deseret News voted to support the resolution of the committee on local and federal roads.

The committee voted for the purpose of arranging the program and defining upon the subjects to be reported by the committee and discussed by the members of the convention to be held in Los Angeles, Calif., on Oct. 18, 1895, and also to wind up the affairs of the present year.

The main object of the committee was to secure the adoption of the best methods and appliances for maintaining and maintaining railroad tracks.

The report was unanimously adopted.

THE TREAT WITH INDIANS.

Members of the Uncompahgre and Uintah Committee.

Leave Denver for Fort Duchesne to Commence Their Last Negotiations.

DETROIT, Dec. 18.—Captain E. S. Scott, of Alabama, and Captain William S. Davis, of Arkansas, members of the commission to treat with the Uncompahgre and Uintah tribes of Indians, left the city today for Fort Duchesne, and they will be joined, probably at Ouray, Colo., by Charles M. Johnson, who was present and tried the route of the Indians.

The secretary of the commission, Col. T. P. Edgington, of Maryville, accompanied the delegation.

THE TREATY.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 18.—The trial of W. H. Neal, of Guthrie, for the murder of Frank McNamee, is on in the circuit court before Justice A. C. Ritter. Yesterday was consumed in the argument of the defense, which was dominant on the ground that the boy to the interior trail was discharged without cause of defendant and for insufficient reason by Judge McNamee. The motion was overruled and the engrossing of the jury began today.

Neal is a telegraph operator.
