LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES

EASTERN.

NEW YORK, 14.—A hundred and fifty-one passengers, of the wrecked steamer City of Washington, have arrived in this city; the remainder will arrive on Wednesday.

BUFFALO, 14.—During a heavy hailstorm this morning the passenger train from Hornellsville, on the Erie Railroad, ran into a gravel train, seriously injuring four laborers, and cutting and bruising several others.

TROY, 14.—William Deegan and James Herrick, while resisting arrest by policeman Bradshaw, in Lansingburg, last evening, were shot by officer Deegan, and fatally injured.

WASHINGTON, 14.—Alfred A. Schucking has been appointed consular agent of the German empire at Washington.

FT. MCPHERSON, Neb, 14.—Professor Marsh and the Yale College exploring party returned here today from the Niohara river, where they have spent the last month in investigations. The trip was successful, and many interesting discoveries were made. Many new extinct animals were found, among them several fossils of horses, camels, and rhinoceros. The party are all well, and start to-morrow for Ft. Bridger to explore the Uintah Mountain country.

NEW YORK.—Byron A. Steif, nephew of Charlotte Willetts, whose body was found in a house in 87th street, in a horrible state of decomposition, appeared at the coroner's office to-day, and said he first heard of her death this a.m. Deceased and brought him up from childhood. She was the executrix of his father's estate. She was of eccentric habits, never left her house during the daytime, and refused to have any servants or anyone else to reside in the house. Witness last saw her May 9. He called at the house four weeks ago, but could not get in. His aunt was probably then dead.

Mrs. Wellworth and her youngest son have taken up their residence in Sing Sing village, and yesterday attended Catholic service in the prison chapel. By special request no visitors will be allowed to see Frank, who, to-day, commenced work in the private office of the clerk of the shoe department.

NEW YORK, 14.—Rumors having been circulated that Thurlow Weed was seriously ill, an announcement is made that although he had suffered recently from a chronic difficulty, his general health has remained as good as usual.

The Swiss societies and Swiss populace of this city began their usual festival yesterday, and will bring it to a close to-day.

President McMahon, in conversation with a correspondent, says the real government of the country is now vested in the ministry, and "I am firmly convinced that the only change which they will introduce into the republic will be to carry out the programme which the late government proved itself incapable of doing. We are not impolitic enough to take steps similar to those taken by the empire, but everything that can be done to insure the Pope's safety and the necessary liberties of all shall be done. It is directly against the interests of Italy to expel the Pope from his dominions, for were he obliged to take refuge in a foreign country, the Catholics of all the world would unite in crying shame against Italy, and public opinion would be against the Italian government to such an extent that not only would our interference become compulsory, but might become the signal for a European war, from which Italy has little to hope and everything to fear. In accepting the Presidency I did not look to the future, but only to the right, and that left me where I saw men of every shade of political opinion, ready to tear each other to pieces, and lead a crowd of ignorant electors to do as much. The necessity of saving the army, our only hope for the maintenance of our country in the rank which belongs to her, out of this hideous scramble for power and profit, was the uppermost thought in my mind when the offer of the Presidency was made me. To me, to-day, the army, and make it the bulwark of French liberty ought to be the aim of every true Frenchman. There is no reason why the present regime, in its amended constitutional form, with the military executive who should rule over the country and rule the army, should not become established in France. When the words the 'Empire and Republic' become synonymous every citizen will be a soldier, and every soldier the servant of the republic, then there will be as little strife and wrangling in the country as to who shall be minister as there is at present as to who shall be Marshal."

NEW YORK, 14.—Lizzie Lloyd King, alias Kate Stoddard, the murderer of Goodrich, slept soundly in King's county jail last night. The leading papers were furnished her at her request to-day, and she read all they contained in reference to her case. Some of the statements, she remarked, were incorrect, but she did not particularize them. For a time she appeared in a melancholy mood, but subsequently she brightened up, and appeared very cheerful and conversed for some time with Fanny Hyde, the murderer of Geo. W. Watson, whom she considerably resembles. They spend the greater part of the time in each other's company. The excitement in Brooklyn over the case is unabated, and it is the topic of conversation in every house and on every corner, and this a.m. Miss King's effects, with the exception of a number of letters and articles of the deceased, found in her possession, were sent to the jail. The watch, pocket-book, rings, seals, etc., were handed over to the district attorney, and will be used as evidence on the trial. The trial, however, will not take place in three months, as it will be September before the next grand jury will be empanelled. Miss Palm, the affianced of Goodrich, had a long interview with the murderess to-day. The detective is still in search of Roscoe, as is also Lucette Myers.

The sensational reports of foul play in the case of the death of Miss Willetts are fully exploded. The body bears no evidence of murder, and the case is simply one where an eccentric old lady, living alone, died unattended.

A London correspondent publishes a story of a conspiracy to rob the Shah of Persia of his jewels. According to the story, which sounds very apochryphal, the parties to the plot were four persons. Col. Algernon Bignor Hawkins was leader of the party and organizer of the conspiracy; Semfino, his other name not known, a Jew diamond broker of Marseilles, but formerly of Salonica, Baron Narses Migraditch, a number of the Dadian family, formerly seraff or money lender of Aleppo, but lately of London and Paris, an entchian armian said to be connected with the eminent Oghor Dadian family, which so long has managed the finances of the Sublime Porte; the fourth and last was Toby Spring, a first-class burglar and safe blower. The plot does not appear to have been so elaborate a one as might be expected from such a combination of talented rascals, and it was discovered through the indiscretion of Narses, who, elated at the prospect of success, got drunk on opium, and was followed by the police to the rendezvous of the conspirators. The result was the capture of Toby Spring and Serafino, while Hawkins escaped and Narses considerately ran into the river and was drowned. The heaviest burden of the whole fell upon poor General Hadji Dochell Alledin, who has been permanently disgraced, and was sent home to Persia by the next steamer of the Peninsula and Oriental line.

The following telegram has been received at the office of the Anglo-American Telegraph Company in New York:

"The steamers Kangaroo and Edinburgh arrived at Placentia, Newfoundland, on Sunday a.m., with a cable on board for the two lines between that place and Sydney, Cape Breton. The Edinburgh came into collision with an iceberg in a dense fog, off Cape Breton. Her bowgear was damaged, but the ship was not much injured."

WASHINGTON.—The following statement is based on information from an official source. The accounts of Gen. Howard and his officers shows a deficit of $1100, though only a small portion is in the name of Gen. Howard. He admits that he has a balance of $3,000, which he he is ready to pay over to the proper officers. Nearly one half of the deficits are charged to the account of a subordinate formerly on duty in the west. Letters have been received from colored men who served in the army and navy, stating that they never received any bounty, though in some cases the accounts show to the contrary. It will require an investigation to ascertain whether forged entries have been made, or the statement in the letters are false. All the accounts have to undergo a further examination by the comptrollers, and their figures may be changed either for or against Howard, should those officers differ from others in the construction of various laws bearing upon the subject. All agree that there has been some dishonesty on the part of subordinates, though it is not believed that the defalcation will amount to as much as is generally supposed.

WASHINGTON.—The Department of State is informed by cable, from minister Sickles, at Madrid, that the Spanish government has issued a decree rescinding all embargoes, and ordering the immediate restoration of all property heretofore seized for political offences in Cuba.

CINCINNATI, 15.—A stone quarry at Pomeroy, O., caved in to-day, killing a young man named Hutcher and wounding Geo. Savage.

Two cholera deaths are reported here to-day. There were several deaths from cholera in Paducah, Ky., yesterday and last night; the number is not yet reported.

PHILADELPHIA, 14.—A most horrible murder, almost equalling the West Farms tragedy, in Dover, Del., has just come to light in Jennerville, Chester County, one mile north of the line of the Baltimore Central Railroad. On the 13th of June last, a strange man arrived at the hotel of the village, and took up his quarters there, saying that he came from Baltimore, and was an agent. He gave no name, and he was in appearance a young man, probably not over thirty, with black whiskers. On the following day a team, driven by Mr. William Uddersook, stopped at the tavern, and the agent and Uddersook took a ride, he accepting the invitation to do so, and they went away together. The team had been hired by Uddersook at Parksburg, and when he returned it in the evening, the person who took charge of it remarked that there was blood on the wagon. Uddersook made a plausible explanation of the circumstance and immediately left the neighborhood. The strange man was never after seen alive. On Friday last a large number of buzzards were noticed hovering about a wood 1½ Rosgate and Graysville, between Chinesville and Pennington ville. An investigation showed the head and trunk of a man, the arms and legs detached, which was recognized as the body of the stranger who had been stopping at Jennerville. A coroner's jury was empanelled and rendered a verdict was given. The murdered man was stabbed in three or four places, his throat cut, and both arms and legs severed close to the body. Uddersook cannot be found. He was, until lately, on the Baltimore police force, and is a young man. The object of the murder, unquestionably, was plunder. No clothes were found except a pair of shoes. It is reported that the same was known to have considerable money on his person. The severed limbs were buried in a separate spot from the body, and not far from the house of one Rhodes, a brother-in-law of the supposed murderer.

WASHINGTON, 14.—Dr. Mary E. Walker was, to-day appointed to a nine hundred-dollar clerkship in the office of the Treasurer of the United States.

Bronchitis, Diptheria, Coughs, Colds, and all Derangements of the Throat and Chest.
In any of the above diseases, immediate and perfect relief is obtained by effectually rubbing this detergent Ointment twice a day upon the neck, chest and back, and in all stages of inflammation, sore throat, and wheezing as the cheek; the same treatment may be followed with efficiency and safety.
Bad Legs, Bad Breasts, Old Sores, Wounds, and Ulcers.
