PARIS, IDAHO.

Of Bear Lake Stake - Interesting Themes

Yesterday considerable excitement was created in our quiet community by the capture of Harry Egbert, wanted in Harney county, Or., for murder, and for whose capture there was a reward offered of $750. Word had been sent by telephone that he was wanted and he was apprehended by Isaac Thorn, Jr. He scened very unconcerned and told Mr. Thorn he would feed his horse some oats. He then purchased the oats and went to the barn to feed his horse, while Mr. Thorne telephoned to Sheriff McKoy. Instead of feeding his horse he took to the hills at a lively pace, but after running three miles he was overtaken by Friend Stone, our black-smith. Five shots were exchanged be-tween the two. Mr. Stong had no more shells for his revolver so he went to Mr. H. C. Wood's and borrowed a rifle, iosing sight of Egbert for the moment. After a little search he was found and ordered to surrender, which he prompt-ly did. He was brought to town on horseback. After he was examined he was found to correspond to the descrip-tion given. When captured no gun was found on horseback. After he was examined he was found to correspond to the descrip-tion given. When captured no gun was found on him and it is supposed that he lost it as he had chances to fire upon the searchers at close quarters, for they were riding through the brush all around him before he was discovered. Egbert had passed the previous night at Mr. H. P. Frodsham's, but it seems had not put in all the time there. Tracks were seen early yesterday morn-ing leading to and from Mr. H. C. Boley's, where, no doubt, he had been turned loose. But as they did not suit and no saddle was to be found at the place he thought he would try some other good farmer or else trust to his own faithful stead to make his escape. Last evening Sheriff McKey of Elko. Isaac Thorn, Lester Thorn and Friend Stong started overland with their priz-oner to Elko.
