

BRIGHAM YOUNG COLLEGE.

Loan, Feb. 10.—In the presence of nearly 50 people the big basketball game between the B. Y. university and the B. Y. College teams was played in the gymnasium last Saturday evening. The result was a victory for the visitors by a score of 22 to 14. The local team was in good form during the first half, and it was then the game was lost, and in the second half they pulled themselves together and turned the tables over the Provo boys, scoring 8 to 7. The game throughout was a pretty one. The visitors were noticeably larger than the local team, and they showed, moreover, excellent training, their team work being first class. A feature of the game was the clever refereeing of Mr. Froese, the clever refereeing of Mr. Froese, the clever refereeing of Mr. Froese.

President Linford has gone to Bear Lake where he will deliver his instructional lecture on "Bacteriology" before the students of the county teachers' institute on Saturday. He will return Sunday evening.

On Wednesday, Mr. A. M. Fleming, cashier of the First National bank, and Bishop Spaulding of Salt Lake were shown over the college by Secretary H. Butler, Jr.

Levi E. Young of the University of Utah will deliver a lecture in the assembly hall tonight, his subject being "Life in Italy."

The College Book of Mormon society met Tuesday evening, and decided upon lines of investigation that will be taken up in the immediate future. The results of archaeological research in Peru, in Central America and in North America will be studied for the purpose of collecting data bearing on the Book of Mormon. The society will meet on Feb. 22 for the purpose of reorganizing and further outlining work.

President and Mrs. Linford entertained on Wednesday evening members of the faculty and their escorts to the number of about 30. The evening was very pleasantly spent.

Hyrum L. Baker, who was killed in a railroad accident at Multon, S. D., last week, was a former student of the B. Y. college. President Linford went to Mendon on Wednesday and spoke at the young man's funeral services.

The missionary class party in the gymnasium last Friday was a complete success, though it was not largely attended.

L. D. S. UNIVERSITY.

Last Tuesday morning the fourth-year normals visited the third and fourth grades of the Lafayette school—L. Asper.

One of the missionary students, Mr. Lawrence Layton, leaves for a mission to England next Monday.—Eva Evans.

Student J. E. Nelson accepted a position last week as a telegraph operator on the R. G. W. railroad, at Midway—Charlotte Wetzel.

The "Model School" and the '05 normals visited the Troy laundry last Thursday. Their purpose was to see the method and processes used in a typical laundry in cleaning clothes.—Sara M. Jensen.

The fourth-year students have received their class pins for which they went to Chicago several months ago. They are of gold, triangular in shape, and bear the school colors, gold and blue.—Vera Neall.

The advanced class in law has just completed the subject of contracts. They believe that the time spent in this study will be of great benefit to them in their business life. The class will now take up the subject of commercial paper, using as a text, Eaton & Gilchrist's work.—J. W. West.

A meeting of the sophomore class was held on Wednesday, for the purpose of electing new officers, and the following were chosen: President, Daniel Sperry; vice president, Vera Jones; secretary, Leona Cowley; treasurer, William Tanner. The new officers made short speeches, and the retiring officers were given a hearty vote of thanks.—Abbie Lowry.

In the commercial class meeting, a piano duet was rendered by Misses Annie and Sarah Larsen. The following officers were elected for the next semester: Ray Wiley, president; E. Blomquist, vice president; Miss Walker, secretary; Burton Munster, treasurer; and Robert Butler, yell master.—Clara Palmer.

The juniors held their regular monthly meeting on Wednesday. Miss Vera Jones of the '07 class recited a short poem, called "A Dance on the Ranch." Prof. J. L. Horne delivered an excellent talk. He spoke of our modern-day education, and showed us the advantage of a normal course. He then read extracts from several pamphlets on character building.—R. W. Young, Jr.

In the '05 class, Under President George M. Cannon rendered the following program at the last meeting: A talk by class speaker David O. Harris; a recitation by Gustave Bachman; a talk by the former president, Alfonso S. Tanner; a talk by the newly elected president, George M. Cannon; timely advice and suggestions by Prof. A. H. Christenson.—Sara M. Jensen, Sec.

Prof. Mills and a number of his students attended the Fourth-year and fifth-year time in short talks. The following were interesting throughout: James Forbes Done, Claudia Holt, Cornell Grant, Harold Roberts, Arthur Smith, Vera Howard, Aretta Young, Geo. H. Lambert, Alfonso Tanner, and Joseph B. Harris.

The meeting of the first years was held for the purpose of choosing new officers. President Raphael Olsen presided. Officers were elected as follows: Alex Wilkinson, president; Marcia Kowles, vice president; Mabel Murter, secretary; Marion Tanner, treasurer; and Miron Barlow, sergeant-at-arms.—Mabel Murphy.

WEBER STAKE ACADEMY.

Ogden.—Principal McKay gave a talk before the Boxelder County Teachers' institute today. His subject was "Grammar and How to Teach It."

Elder Peter Anderson addressed the students at devotional last Wednesday morning on the importance of having a testimony. Brother Anderson is one of our many friends, and we are always glad to see and hear him.

Prof. McKendrick gave a lecture before the M. L. associations of Clinton, Davis county, last Sunday evening.

Every available space in the academy, the principal's office excepted, is now occupied for class recitations. "more room next year" is the pressing need.

The lecture committee, alive to the interest of its patrons, has made arrangements by purchase, with the managers of Madam Bertha Kunz Baker to honor all season tickets at her engagement next Monday evening. This arrangement permits the patrons of the academy lecture course to go and hear Miss Baker without charge. Present your season tickets at the door.

Literature is out announcing the three "Picture Plays" to be given next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, by Albert Armstrong, in the Tabernacle, under the auspices of the lecture committee of the academy.

The basketball teams of the school for the Deaf and Blind, and the academy played their first league game Friday afternoon at the Lester Park pavilion. The game resulted in a victory for the academy team.

The members of the Academy Brass band have had some trouble in deciding on a suitable hour for practice, some of its members living in North Ogden makes it impossible to practice after school hours. Last Thursday they held a meeting and decided upon permanent hours, Thursday and Wednesday, 1 to 2. The band has just received three new instruments.

At devotional exercises every morning, students have to sit three and four in a seat, so crowded has the school become. This may be an inspiring sight for those who come to visit us, and together with the faculty, sit up on the rostrum, which, by the way, is none too roomy, but the students feel they would enjoy the devotional exercises much better if the study hall were just twice as large.

Our piano has undergone a thorough overhauling by a skilled workman, and is in every respect a first-class instrument again.

One student in the night school hall from Roy. He fires an engine all day and rides over 20 miles to and from night school three times a week.

The class in advanced Book of Mormon took steps Wednesday to procure a number of works on American Antiquities. The students will purchase about $60 worth of standard works pertaining to the archaeology of America. This small library will be located in room 1, where the class recites, and will be used both by the day and night school students, who also joined in the movement.

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.

A crowded house enjoyed the first performance of "The Little Tycoon," the opera given last Monday evening by the school of music under the direction of Prof. Thatcher. It was a finished and smooth performance as given by professionals. The principals were all in excellent voice, and the acting of Mr. Booth, Mr. Whittemore, Mr. Tuttle and Miss Peterson called forth much applause. Mr. Jarndine and Miss Ellason were the hero and heroine of the opera and sang their parts perfectly, while the young men and women of the large chorus gave much pleasure by their good singing, beautiful costumes and graceful dancing. So many were unable to get seats for the Monday evening that the opera was given a second time on Thursday evening with equal success.

The students who are to take part in the performance of "The Stoops to Conquer," attended in a body the performance of "Don Caesar de Bataan," given at the Opera House by Mr. Charles Hanford last Friday evening.

Bishop Spaulding gave Tuesday an earnest scholarly address to the college students, exhorting them to cultivate that vigorous health of body, independent thought and strong spiritual life which should be characteristic of western men and women.

Miss Rudolph, '05, entertains at her home tonight the members of the Sorosis.

Today begins the series of weekly 4 o'clock dinners given by the sophomores of the domestic science department. Each student in turn is hostess and prepares a delicious dinner, doing her own marketing and keeping the cost within a certain limit. The hostess today is Miss Egbert. She receives Miss Smith and her guests making in all a table of eight.

Mr. Joseph Y. Card of Cardston, Canada, a student in agriculture, received the prize offered by the Deseret Farmer to the student securing the largest number of subscriptions during the Christmas vacation. The contest was open to all church and state institutions of collegiate grade.

Professor and Mrs. Widtsoe went to Salt Lake this week to attend the funeral of Mrs. Young, the grandmother of Mrs. Widtsoe.

The seniors held a class meeting the past week and planned a series of social gatherings, the first of which will be a reception given by the young women to the young men.

Mr. Robert E. Wilson, fruit and tree inspector of Weber county, was the guest of Prof. Bull at the college on Friday.

Twenty-five students in agriculture were entertained by Prof. Merrill and Mr. Jardine one evening this week at the home of the former. A pleasant evening was passed with games and refreshments.

Prof. Bull's recent lecture at Boise on the coding moth has been receiving flattering comment in the press of the northwest.

The second performance of the "Little Tycoon" was even more of a college affair than the first. Each department of the college presented its share of the students attended in a body and showed

CELEBRATE DIAMOND WEDDING.

Important Event in Lives of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hannibal.

It is only a small percentage of men and women who have borne life's burdens together who are permitted to enjoy the distinction of celebrating the sixtieth anniversary of their marriage. This privilege, therefore, is the more appreciated by Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hannibal of this city, who with a few of their friends observed that important event in their own careers, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meyer, their son-in-law and daughter, respectively, at 229 east Second South street, on Wednesday of this week.

Mr. Hannibal was born in Copenhagen on Feb. 8, 1821, his natal day and wedding day both occurring on the same day of the month. Copenhagen was also the native city of Mrs. Hannibal, and Aug. 25, 1824, was the date of her birth. They emigrated to Utah, leaving their home in Denmark Dec. 18, 1852, arriving in Salt Lake City Oct. 3, 1853. The company with which they made the long and memorable journey was the first that left that country for Utah, a fact which places them in the ranks of the pioneers. They brought with them two children, both of whom are still living, Mr. Harold Hannibal and Mrs. Fred Meyers. Among the guests who were present to do them honor on Wednesday night were Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Madsen, Mr. and Mrs. L. Mott Iverson, Mr. and Mrs. C. Orlov, Mr. and Mrs. C. Cramer, Mr. and Mrs. N. Rasmussen, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morris, and Mrs. Thormastor. Felicitous speeches were made, congratulations offered and a generally good time had. The worthy couple are splendidly preserved in mind and body, and bid fair to enjoy many more years in mortality.

day evening on the "History of Healing." It is probable an election ball will be given Friday night.

The literary interpretation class furnished the program for chapel Thursday morning. It consisted of various readings from Riley and Field.

UNIVERSITY OF UTAH.

Both houses of the state Legislature spent yesterday forenoon at the University. They reached the campus at 10 o'clock, and were taken through the laboratories, shops, hall and class rooms where they could see the students at work. At 11:30 they met the faculty and students in the assembly room of the Museum building, where they were given an enthusiastic reception. Speeches were made by President W. W. Ritter of the board of regents, Gov. Cutler, ex-Gov. Wells, President Kingsbury, and Dr. Talmage of the University. President Love of the senate, Speaker Hull of the house, and other members of the Legislature. After the meeting the visitors and faculty were banqueted by the department of domestic science under the direction of Miss Wheeler.

The Rev. Benjamin Young of the First Methodist church was the speaker at chapel on Wednesday. His theme was "Character." He discussed it from the following topics: best education, good name, splendid courage, and common sense. He cautioned the students against imitating and illustrated his remarks with many amusing incidents taken from practical life. The musical feature of the program was a solo by Miss Holt.

Last night the '05 normal class gave a dance in the assembly hall of the Museum building.

The department of zoology has recently received for trial new forms of colodion and freezing microtomes. They are now in use in the histological laboratory.

A number of students have applied for an advanced course in plant morphology and a class in this subject will probably be arranged for next week.

Professor Chamberlin is slowly recovering from his recent sickness. He met his classes this week, but is still quite weak. In addition to supervising the department of biology, he is teaching 22 hours of the regular class work with the accompanying laboratory courses. The department will no doubt be given more instructors next year.

This evening Prof. Babcock will give a series of miscellaneous readings before the students of the Eureka high school.

On Wednesday afternoon, Prof. Byron Cummings and Attorney Mat. Thomas addressed the Salt Lake City teachers at the Lafayette school.

Mr. Frank V. VanCott of Salt Lake City and Miss Annie Anderson of Pleasant Grove were married by President John R. Winder. Mr. VanCott is night watchman at the University, and Miss Anderson is a member of the fourth-year normal class. After Feb. 15 they will be at home to their friends at 226 Fourth street.

Next Sunday evening Prof. Stewart will deliver an educational lecture at Santaquin.

Supt. Jensen of Sevier county schools has written Professor Stewart asking him to bring one of the critic teachers from the training school and conduct a teachers' institute at Monroe on Feb. 23 and 24.

Manager Elbert D. Thomas of the "Varsity Dramatic club has made arrangements whereby the University students can get reduced prices to see Mr. Ben Greet's production "Everyman." This is a fifteenth century morality play, and is of special interest to students of English literature.

Dr. Talmage returned from the east last Saturday and met his classes at usual on Monday. After leaving Washington, D. C., he visited higher educational institutions in New York, Philadelphia, and Chicago. While in New York he met J. R. Clark, Fred J. Pack, W. T. Ward Claude of the University. One prominent professor at Columbia told Dr. Talmage that the men studying there, who had degrees from the University of Utah, are equal to any graduate students they have. While away Dr. Talmage was caught in the great blizzard and says it was the coldest weather he ever saw. He had his thermometer along and it registered 4, 12, 22, 25 and 35 degrees below zero at different times and places along the route. The doctor returns in the pink of health, having gained eight pounds.

Next Friday evening the sophomores will give a grand ball in the Museum building.

Mr. Fred A. Burket, representing Ginn & Co., was a visitor yesterday.

SALT LAKE CITY SCHOOLS.

A plan is now being being perfected by the superintendent, according to which no teacher will be requested to attend more than one meeting per week. The new arrangement will give the teachers Saturday free.

The Lowell teachers are being treated to an interesting course of lectures by one of the members of the corps, Miss Laura Foster, on her experiences while traveling abroad.

will be at liberty Tuesday afternoons to give instruction at the Oquirrh school in martial training to any and all teachers concerned.

Instructor Garrett of the physical science department of the Bryant East Side High School gave a talk to the students of that school on physiology. Stereoscopic views added greatly to the interest in his theme.

An Athletic association has been formed at the East Side. The constitution has been adopted and officers will be chosen to direct the affairs for the present year.

The following meetings are scheduled for the coming week.

Tuesday—All the teachers of Lincoln, Lowell, Twelfth, Webster and Uintah, 4:15 p. m., city and county building.

Wednesday—First grade, city and county building, 2:15, with Miss Pollock, seventh grade, Fremont, 4:15, with Mr. Parratt; sixth grade, Lafayette, 4:15, with Mr. Wetzel.

Thursday—All teachers of Union, Washington, Whittier and Grant, city and county building 4:15, with Supt. Christenson.

Friday—First grade teachers, Fremont, 2:45, with Mr. Parratt.

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY.

Provo, Feb. 10.—Despite the inclemency of the weather a large delegation of teachers and representative students went to Payson last Saturday to attend the educational convention given there. In the morning a stake Priesthood meeting was held, at which President Brimhall with his characteristic earnestness, gave a powerful and spirited discourse on "The Growth and Ultimate Triumph of Mormonism." In the afternoon the convention proper came off and in the evening a concert and dance were given. The visitors were received most hospitably by the people of Payson, both as guests in their homes and as educators in their community.

There has been an increase in enrollment of over 50 this week, and new students are coming every day.

The College ball last Friday evening opened a series of such parties, to be given by the various departments in the school. The large students may congratulate themselves on the complete success of this social event. President Brimhall characterized it by saying it was the realization of one of his dreams—a dream in which the social standard of the school was reached. Several unique features were introduced, which, together with the tasteful decorations and splendid music, added to the evening's enjoyment.

Prof. Osmond lectured in Spanish Fork Sunday night.

President McRae of the Colorado mission was a visitor Tuesday, and addressed the students at chapel.

Our basketball team has recently won two victories. Friday last they played with the deaf mutes at Ogden and scored 64 points to 6. Saturday they met the A. C. boys at Logan and came out eight points ahead, the official score being 22 to 14.

Charles Richards, one of our basketball players, went under an operation Monday for appendicitis. He is doing nicely, his physicians say, but it will probably be some time before he is ready for the gymnasium.

One of our kindergarten girls has accepted a position in the kindergarten department recently opened in Spanish Fork.

A very interesting and striking discourse was given before the students last Sunday evening by the president. His subject was "The prayers of the Savior," and some of the pictures he drew will probably never be forgotten.

The kindergarten girls, with some of their friends, spent a jolly evening in the gymnasium Tuesday night. There the playing of games, dancing and eating of nuts were indulged in.

Wednesday evening a concert was given by the B. Y. U. Band and orchestra, the following being the program rendered:
