

MIKE SCHRECK DOES PECULIAR STUNTS.

Working Hard for Contest With Gardner Next Monday Night.

SECOND BATTILING NELSON.

Billy Hogan, His Manager, Is the Man Who First Handled the Durable Dane in Chicago.

It is not generally known, but it is a fact that Billy Hogan, the pugilist little fight manager, who is looking after the welfare of Mike Schreck, was the first man to handle the affairs of one Battling Nelson, alias the Durable Dane, probably the most talked-of boxer in the world today.

And here is another coincidence: Schreck is a large edition of Battling Nelson. In features he looks like Nelson's brother. In build they are different. Schreck has a more rugged appearance. While his body is covered with bunches of strong muscles, they are smooth, and he moves about with lightning speed. But he does it with such apparent ease that one wonders how it is done. Quick jabs and swings you would think will surely land, fall only on air. Schreck glides in and out all the time making things with his opponent, and like Nelson, he is coming all the time and does not stop. He is a powerful man. He is good natured, and gains clever and love to exchange wallop.

The sporting editor of the "News" gathered this much about the German fighting machine, while watching Schreck "work out" today and yesterday. He reminds one of a cat bent and put like a panther. While he appears slow and easy going, if you watch him closely you will see that he moves like lightning. A slight movement of the head, or perhaps the whole little body coming in or going back, and the blow is ready for the face or stomach, goes harmlessly against the unsuspecting atmosphere.

"He is the best natured fellow you ever met," said Billy Hogan this morning. "I go to him and say, 'Mike, get into training. I have a match for you next month. Well, Mike goes to work. He does not ask me who he is going to meet or what the articles of agreement call for. He simply gets ready for the match, goes into the ring and does his best. I will wager that Mike does not even know what's in the articles of agreement for the bout with George Gardner next Monday night. He knows he will meet Gardner, and believes he will knock out the former champion."

While this conversation was going on, Schreck was out the more than the time. For more than an hour he did not stop an instant. With a left hook he snapped the thick rope that held the punching bag in place. With a fearful right swing he crushed the bag like the popping of a paper sack, and yet he did not seem to exert himself. While the bags were being replaced, he was skipping the rope, or wrestling on the mat, or doing shadow work.

"You see I don't have to do very much work," said the German. "I have been working for a couple of weeks, and I do this to keep in good shape and prevent going stale. I don't care to box much in training because I cannot hit myself out and if I did that I might hurt somebody. Yesterday's rain did not stop me. I took about 10 miles for the match, and I feel good. I will keep up the roadwork until Saturday or Sunday, and also my gymnasium work."

While Schreck is working here, Gardner is keeping up his hard licks at the Ogden fire station.

"I am in great shape," is the word that comes from him. A big crowd of his Ogden friends will be at the Theater on Monday night, and they all expect me to deliver the goods and beat Schreck. I do not say I will surely beat him, but I will do my best. I believe I will be returned the winner."

NORMAL TEAM WON.
Defeated Woodward Crowd by a Score of 92 to 25.

(Special to the "News.")
Cedar City, April 9.—At the close of the athletic meet yesterday between the Branch Normal and the Woodward High School of St. George, the score of points stood: Normal, 92; Woodward, 25.

The contest lacked interest because the teams were so unevenly matched. But in spite of their severe defeat, the Woodward boys showed a courage and manliness that was very commendable. There was no acrimony in the kicking. Everyone seemed to want to do the fair thing and the meet has resulted. It would appear, in bringing St. George and Cedar closer together rather than separating as too often is the case. A grand hall was given in the evening in which all the athletes participated.

WOULD HART DRAW?
What Might Happen if He Fought With Jim Jeffries.

Marvin Hart is being urged to box Gus Roblin, the Ohio heavyweight, before he tackles the game of his life, Champion Jim Jeffries. The situation is a peculiar one in San Francisco at the present time, and there is just a chance that Hart will not be able to get away sailing in the negotiations with Jeffries for a match for the championship of the world.

Although it is now generally admitted that Hart was entitled to the decision given him in his fight with Jack Johnson, the elongated colored man from Los Angeles, the fact remains that he did not beat Johnson in anything like decisive style and the general sentiment among the promoters and critics of "Prize" that Hart would not draw a paying house with Jeffries.

PERFECT SCORE AGAIN.
F. L. Whitney Is the Man Who Bowled 300 Last Evening.

A month ago J. W. Hanes of this city bowled a perfect score—300. Since that time the mark has not been reached until last evening, when F. L. Whitney reached the record, making a straight series in the city league. Whitney was a member of the railroad team, and has

HOW THEY LINE UP.

Little Doubt Exists Over New York National League Team.

National League, New York.—This is one of the few teams over which very little doubt exists.

Boston has not yet decided on any definite line of outfielders.

Brooklyn is all at sea, and has not picked anything resembling a team.

Cincinnati has not chosen its infield for keeps and the candidates are scrapping merrily.

Philadelphia's outfield is still not settled. Pittsburgh's outfield is still full of candidates, and the pitching staff is not adjusted.

St. Louis is trying out sundry infielders and outfielders.

Chicago's team is uncertain, though Se. Joe says he has about made up his mind and will shortly make his announcement.

In the American league the Boston champions are still discussing first base and the outfield.

Cumple Mack's Athletics are trying out various young infielders.

Cleveland hasn't yet fixed up the outfield.

Detroit is worrying about its infield.

New York is puzzled over its outfield.

St. Louis keeps experimenting and shifting the infield.

Washington seems resigned to fate and ready to take anything Stahl wants to arrange.

Chicago looks complete and Comiskey says he contemplates no change.

Ban on Nadeau.
Cincinnati, O., April 10.—The national baseball commission today made formal announcement that Player Nadeau of the Portland, Or., club will be ineligible to play with any national agreement club until money due from him to the Brooklyn club shall have been paid.

Women Can't Bat.
New York, April 10.—Betting on horse races by women, through the agency of official messengers, permitted to pass through the grandstand, will be stopped this season by the Jockey club, which is said to have decided to take such action at its next meeting.

It is stated that the club will place a ban on grandstand betting commissioners at all the local tracks, beginning with the August meeting next Saturday. In the future, women desiring to place wagers will, by this means, be compelled to do so through their escorts, or else refrain from betting.

Numerous complaints of dishonest practices among the commissioners started the crusade for their extermination.

"DAD" GIMLIN THE MAN.
Ogden Team.

He and Not Walter Wilmet Will Manage Ogden Team.

It has now been definitely decided that Walter Wilmet will not manage the Ogden Pacific National league baseball team. But this announcement did not make the Junction City fans feel sorry.

Another announcement, or several of them made them happy. "Dad" Gimlin has consented to manage the bunch.

"Bill" Hansen has signed to catch. Two crack pitchers and several fast fielders have been signed and sent for. The fans at Ogden are giving the team their support, and the nine will be a good one.

Uniforms have been ordered and are on the way, and in short, the outlook for Ogden is exceedingly bright. By the time the 29th rolls around, Ogden will have a crack team and will be ready to engage in the fight for the pennant.

YANGER IN SHAPE.
Little Dago Ready for Another Clash With Mowatt.

Chicago, Ill., April 10.—Benny Yanger is in shape for his contest on the evening of April 14 with Tommy Mowatt at Kalamazoo, Mich., announcing yesterday from his training quarters at a down town gymnasium that he is practically down to the specified 128 pounds. The bout will be at 20 rounds.

"It has been a long time since I fought twenty rounds," said Yanger yesterday, "but I feel capable of going twice that distance. The long rest I have had has been no setback, and I never in my life felt in better shape. I expect to prove at Kalamazoo my contention that I am better in any department of the game than Mowatt."

Mowatt is training at West Baden, Ind., and reports from that resort are to the effect that the stocky dago fighter is in fine trim for the contest.

"PENNY" GOSSIP.
Local fight fans who want to see Schreck train, may do so by going to the Physical Culture hall on State street, but they will see little or no boxing. Schreck does not believe in it.

If all of Kelly's men will show up in the form displayed by Deines and Dutch Muller in Saturdays and Sundays games, local fans may depend upon it that the chances for the pennant being landed here are decidedly good.

No better evidence of the high plane on which the American motor car manufacturers are placing their product could be shown than the sales which they are making to former owners of foreign automobiles. This is especially so among the members of the Automobile Club of America. The president and the treasurer of the club were recent buyers of American cars.

The following statement by John T. Sullivan will be read with interest at this time:

"I see by a telegraphic dispatch from Atlantic City, N. J., that the Italian pugilist, Joe Grim, defies my punch. I have nothing to say further than if I cannot knock him out inside of six rounds that the winner can take entire receipts of the house, but I will not split the purse of the receipts, as the defeat would mean no more to do, in four ways. My blue and white has been that the winner takes six and I will meet him for six rounds in Philadelphia. Detroit is an other place they would permit on Tuesday, April 25, or Wednesday, April 26. This is my belief that I can do it. I am sure I can't land my right on inside of six rounds, and I don't propose to allow Grim to meet all comers, and further than that, I am doing so every night in my private tour."

"Yours very respectfully,
"JOHN T. SULLIVAN,
"Green Bay, Wis., March 23."
