

OGDEN.

Ogden, Utah. Feb. 1, 1895.

Juettens City Notes.

Rich Addison, a gambler, playing fair in the rooms above the Blackstone, raised $25 on the ring and was when "Kid" demanded his winnings the case was referred to the police and he was sent to jail. This was not satisfactory; so he paraded his power and again demanded his money. It was not forced over promptly and he helped himself to his change. Then he was arrested and got up liberty by becoming sick.

D. W. M. Parr, of Kenosha, Wis., visiting the city from New York City, was staying at the Hotel Ogden. He is an eminent physician. He paid a visit to Salt Lake and was introduced to President Woodruff. The latter gave him yesterday morning.

Joseph McIntyre was before States Commissioners, Texas, yesterday for shooting a man in the Southern Pacific station. The victim was riding a fast freight train.
