The Largest and leading Portrait Studio in Salt Lake City is unquestionably that of Wehrmann & Fischer, gentlemen who have a wide reputation as portrait artists. The specialty of the Firm is life sized portraits in pastel, crayon and Watercolors, in which they excel, and their splendid work is hourly commended for superior finish and artistic excellence. The studio they are now occupying was established in 1886, and is located on the third floor of the Wells-Fargo Block, Mercantile Block, and have within term doing a large and prosperous business, monopolizing among their patrons many of the best citizens of Salt Lake City and vicinity. In the matter of prices they are very moderate and ever solicitous to please.

Mr. Paul Wehrmann and H. F. Fischer, the co-partners, are natives of Germany and came to this city from New York to locate permanently.

Every attention is paid to patrons and visitors to the studio.
