THE CASES AGAINST MESSRS. THORUP AND MIELSON.

Atten o'clock this morning in the Third District Court, Herman Thorup, of the First Ward, was called for trial. He came forward and informed the court that he desired to withdraw his Engineers' ball will be held in the former plea of not guilty and make one of guilty. This change was made, and the time of passing sentence set for Monday, March 7th, at 2 p.m.

The case against Rasmus Nielson, of Hunter precinct, was next called. The bailiff shouted the names of the witnesses, Anna C. Larsen, Carl A. Larsen, Anna Larsen, Mary Petersen and Bringta Nielsen, but there was no response. The defendant was also ab-

This was done and a plea of guilty made.

Court-Are you ready for sentence

Mr. Brockbank-Yes, sir. Court-Is it your intention to obey the law in the future?

Mr. Brockbank-Your honor, I have no promises to make. The Court then imposed the full penalty, six months' imprisonment and a fine of $300 and costs. The prosecution in the case of RASMUS NIELSEN was then commenced, the defendant and witnesses being present. In the work of getting a jury the usual tactics were adopted, and the following jury sworn:

OGDEN ELECTION.

NOTHER VICTORY FOR THE PEOPLE-THE "LIBERALS" DISCOMFITED-GOOD GOVERNMENT FOR ANOTHER-TERM.

OGDEN, Feb. 14, 1897. For a number of weeks past the inentive genius of the self - styled Liberals" of Ogden has been called into requisition and given full play in an attempt to deprive the People's party of the city government at this election. They began as early as practicable after the registration was closed to invent causes for striking off the names of large numbers of voters the list, and as soon as they were circumvented in one they adopted others which were more or has successful.

They captured all the livery teams and other vehicles that could be bired for sent.

Mr. Dickson quickly as red for a bench warrant for the defendant, and attachments for the witnesses.

The court ordered that the papers issue, first remarking that Mr. Nielson had been to him yesterday and complained of being sick. The court further suggested that the defendant were run up at the Court House, City Hall, and other places. A large num-ber of small banners also fluttered in the morning breeze. The weather was extremely cold, and a storm looked was thrown open, the judges and clerks arrived, boxes were opened and ex-amined, and considerable time was consumed in erasing a number of names from the list of voters. In the meantime hundreds of people of both parties had arrived and were waiting to cast their ballots for the re-spective candidates. At length the preliminaries were settled, the windows were opened and voting com-menced in earnest, and for about two hours there was a tremendous rush hours there was a tremendous rush. Following were the judges of election at the various polls: No. 1—L. B. Stephens, H. M. Bond, Joseph Farr; No. 2—John Restall, G. O. Gordy, Isaac Farr; No. 3—F. A. Shiells, W. C. Warren, Wm. Lowe; No. 4—Wm. Helfrich, Geo. F. Brown, E. H. Anderson; No. 5—J. B. Hopkins, John Kelley, Hyrum Belnap; No. 6—John E. Hudson, C. H. Rank, B. H. Goddard. It will be seen that one member of the People's party, and two of the People's party, and two of the 'Liberal" party were appointed judges at each polling window. This is how the majority were allowed representa-tion by the anti-"Mormons" on this important occasion in the Junction

By 11:10 a.m. 1,701 votes were polled; by 12 noon, 2,119 had been deposited; at 2:50 2,475 were dropped into the bal-lot boxes. From this time the ballotisg began to slack up considerably, although some of the "Liberals" were flying around frantically in quest of more help to swell their numbers. And when matters began to LOOK GLOOMY, some of them were requested to speed up to the "Liberai headquarters" on Fifth street. Toward evening it became evident to them that their course was nearly run and that they were behind in the race. At 3:30 p.m. 2,534 votes had been cast—a higher number city election in Ogden.

At 5 p. m. 2,600 votes were in the repositories, and but very few were received afterward. The windows were closed about ten minutes past o'clock. It was then announced that the total number of votes polled was This, it was then declared, had "kifled the 'Liberals.'" This announcement was greeted with shouts of joy from one party, yells and whines of disappointment from the other as the lumense crowds began to disperse, and the ount began. What added to the chagrin of the "Liberals" was, that having expected reinforcements to their number from east and the north, they were disappointed, as the presiding genius was informed that the express train from the east was three hours late, and that from the north twelve hours behind. In pursuance of a proclamation issued by the Mayor, all the liquor SALOONS WERE CLOSED during the day. As a result, good order, peace and tranquility characterized the proceedings, as much so as at any previous election in this city. Good humor was general, and numerous pleasantries were exchanged; no acrimony was exhibited on either side. Mr. P. H. Lannan came up this morning. He had not been here long before he concluded that theirs was once more a "lost cause." Marshal Dyer, Deputies cause." "Further particulars from Monday's bloody tragedy on the Navajo reserva-tion, in which three white men and two indians were killed, state that every thing is as quiet as usual. Reports show that the Indians are not as much to blame as the white men who made the attack, as they should have made known their grievances to the Indian agent instead of taking the law into their own hands. The two men who accompanied the deputy to make the arrest of the accused horsethiet were trifling persons, and bitterly hated by the indians for very good reasons, and they were not slow in taking advantage of the situation. The Navajos are im-posed upon by this class of men, who may yet be the cause of this poweful tibe taking to the war-neth?
