LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.
NOTICE.
There will be a Priesthood meeting of the Salt Lake Stake of Zion, in the New Tabernacle in this city, Saturday, September 15th, at 11 o'clock a. m. A punctual attendance is required of the members of the High Council, all the Bishops and their counselors and of the Presidents of the various Quorums, (High Priests, Elders, Priests, Teachers and Deacons), that are organized in this Stake of Zion. We invite the Presidents of Seventies of the several quorums residing in this Stake. Members of the various quorums of the priesthood, residing in the Stake, who desire to attend, are at liberty to do so.

The Bishops will be required to give a report of their several Wards. This report will be filed in the blank already furnished and include all items according to the headings, together with such other information as shall fully indicate all changes and the condition of each Ward, on the 1st day of August during said month.

Assignee's sale.
Store Building on Main Street, lately occupied by Wm. Crocker, will be sold at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash, at the premises, on the 15th day of September, 1877, at 10 o'clock a. m.

These meetings are to continue to be held monthly, and monthly reports are accordingly required from each Ward of the Church in this Stake, according to previous arrangements.

Religious Services.—Religious services in the Tabernacle to-morrow afternoon, commencing at two o'clock, and in the meeting houses of the several Wards in the evening.

Not Able to be Around.—It will be remembered that during the summer Dr. Bernheim was injured by being knocked down and run over by a wild horse in one of the corrals in town. The injuries received by him at that time were so severe that since then he has been an invalid, having, we understand, been unable to leave his house.

A Swindle.—During the temporary absence from the city of Mr. George Lufkin, one Foster, better known as "Blah," a hack driver, went around among the debtors of that gentleman and collected quite a sum of money. After doing this Foster suddenly left for other parts, but Mr. Lufkin used the telegraph, and now he learns of the arrest of the runaway, at Kellon.

Standing Guard.—Yesterday Mr. Gibson Spencer was coming down Red Butte Cañon with a load of wood, when he was suddenly confronted by a huge bear, which stood in the middle of the road. The ferocious looking brute objected to the passage of Mr. Spencer and his team for a considerable time, apparently thinking he had a right to collect toll. Subsequently he seemed to change his mind, and let the load pass. Mr. Spencer was unharmed.

Extensive Fire at Corinne.—The following particulars of a fire at Corinne, were received by telegraph, at noon to-day:—
"The property of Louis Demers, a large store and house together, was destroyed by fire at one o'clock this a. m. A piano and a few other things, of nominal value, were saved. A lively stable was burned also, with eleven head of horses and mules, a saloon, and other stuff. The estimated loss is $30,000; insured $4,500."

A Hundred Thousand.—In reply to a question by Spencer Baird, United States Fish Commissioner, as to how many salmon eggs would be wanted for Utah this season, Hon. A. P. Rockwood has ordered, for the public waters of this Territory 100,000. The eggs will be shipped, from the United States Repository, at Salem, Massachusetts, on the 25th of September.

The Headquarters of the United States Fish Commission were formerly at Washington, D. C., the change to Salem having been only recently made.

Concise History.—For a concise, readable, accurate and comprehensive but brief History of England, commend us to the work by the late Charles Dickens. It is in two parts. But the book issued by Harper Bros. contains both in one volume. It commences with the time of the ancient Britons, and concludes with the accession to the throne and marriage of Queen Victoria. It is written in the famous author's excellent and inimitable style, is profusely illustrated and can be obtained for a single dollar of James Dwyer.

Nearly a Fire.—About nine o'clock last night a fireman observed that the roof of a back shanty, attached to the house of Mr. James Stevens, immediately south of the City Hall, was in flames. He and a number of other firemen rushed to the spot, and, with buckets, extinguished the fire in its incipency.

But for this timely discovery and prompt action the house would have been in a blaze, as the flames were creeping up to a couple of open windows with hanging drapery.

Some one who believes that brevity is the soul of wit, writes: "Don't eat stale corn-bread."

It is proposed in Indiana to change the marriage service so as to read, "who are taken to the altar, and the bridegroom shall answer, 'I do.'"

Notice to the Seventies in General.
Dear Brethren—The recent new organization of the Stakes of Zion has taken many Presidents and members of the Quorums, thereby depleting their numbers. You will please to take notice, that we are instructed from the Council of the Church, that you are to fill none of those vacancies until you are further advised.

We are your brethren and fellow laborers in the bonds of peace.

Silk.—The Deseret Silk Association met at Fireman's Hall, yesterday, Sept. 7th, Mrs. Zina D. Young presiding.

Mrs. Young stated that the Society was in a prosperous condition, having twenty-six pounds, three ounces, of reeled silk ready to be worked up as soon as we could get the machinery, which, she thought, would not be long. We could thus keep labor and capital in our own community, and be the means of finding employment for the rising generation, and for many that are coming to the valley every year. She spoke of the interest our late beloved President had taken in this enterprise. The examples he had set and the counsel he had given ought to stimulate the Saints to more diligence to make this one of the best branches of home industry. We had the requisite climate and what was needed now was the people to plant out trees and raise the cocoons, and ere long we would be able to supply the home demand with sewing silk of all kinds.

Mr. Paul A. Schettler said he felt greatly interested in the raising and manufacture of silk. He thought we ought to have a little more energetic. Our prospects for getting machinery was good.

Mrs. Annette Cummings said she had good success this year; had raised some very fine cocoons and 41 ounces of eggs.

Mrs. Lucy B. Young, of St. George, said she felt a deep interest in this branch of industry. There had been silk raised, reeled, and manufactured into various articles of wearing apparel in that section of country. She intended using all her influence towards this enterprise.

Mrs. Schettler said she had raised 30 pounds of cocoons and 8 ounces of eggs, and felt greatly encouraged by her success. The meeting was addressed by Mrs. Margaret P. Young, Miss Mary A. Rockwood, Mrs. A. S. Per and others. Meeting adjourned until the first Friday in October, at 3 p. m.

The Convicts.—Intelligence was received last night, at the United States Marshal's office, from deputy Corcor, that the escaped convicts met with a young herdsman, on the bottoms, between Grantsville and Half-Way House, on Wednesday. They captured him, and there was some talk of killing him, to prevent him from telling their whereabouts. "Jack" Wiggins was strongly in favor of murdering the lad, but the others were opposed to it, so they kept him till after dark, made him get upon his knees and swear that he would not divulge that he had seen them, and let him go.

They had four bottles of whiskey, a quantity of provisions, a shot gun and a revolver, and the same night some Indians camped in the vicinity missed five head of their horses, supposed to have been stolen by the convicts.

Between thirty and forty of the citizens of Tooele County are out aiding the officers to catch the desperadoes. Armed, provisioned and supplied with horses, as they are said to be, their capture may prove to be a very difficult matter.

Positively Absurd.—Utah needlessly imports many articles from east and west, but perhaps the summit of absurdity is reached in this respect in the importation of cracked wheat. Utah has exported to California many thousands of bushels of wheat, but why Utah should get the article back again cracked is not very clear. The reason assigned for it is that the California article is generally more carefully prepared than the Utah, being comparatively free from grit, gravel, and other foreign substances. There is considerable demand for cracked wheat, which is a very healthful article of diet, and it would surely pay the manufacturer to produce it as good and clean as possible. The California article commands a higher price than the home. The former should be entirely shut out of the market, by the home manufactured being made superior or at least equal to it.

A Moral Victory.
Slowly and sadly she turned away from the home of her happy wifehood. Her unconscious husband and children, ignorant of her flight, lay sleeping the sleep of innocence, while she was screening their heartstrings at every step. The early birds of morning twittered on the eaves. The early sun gleamed upon the cool waters of the lake. The air was sweet and the bird bucket put on a sorrowful smile as she passed them by. The garden gate gave quite a little groan as she pushed it open for the last time. Then she hung back her bonnet from her shuddering forehead and stepped out. Suddenly a lark whirled up from the poppled wheat field and gave his matin song to assure above. She stopped, and a strange humming look came over her face. "I will go back again," she murmured. A favored dove hopped on her shoulder and said "Coo." "I must go back again," she said. At the end of the lane, Tommy, the blind pony, ran up and rubbed his nose against her. "I will go back again," she cried. She turned her fair young face once again to the home of her love. There was a look of determination in her eyes, and with bold, brave steps she opened the wicket door and went up the gravel path. On the threshold of the door she halted. But the song of the lark burst out again, and nature triumphed. "I will go back again," she whispered. "I show there's a home dollar in the pocket, and he ain't awake yet."
