

CONTESTED ELECTION, TERRITORY OF UTAH.

Geo. R. Maxwell vs. Geo. Q. Cannon.

Argument of Matthew E. Palmer, Counsel for Sitting Member.

(Before the Committee on Elections of the House of Representatives of the United States, Washington, D. C., 1874.)

(CONCLUDED.) He thinks that the constitutional provision relating to the qualification of representatives from the States has no application to the Territories. And in support of this position, he refers to the fact that the Constitution applies to the Territories in precisely the same manner as it does to the States. And in support of this position, he refers to the fact that the Constitution applies to the Territories in precisely the same manner as it does to the States.
