Boutwell, from the conference committee on the bill revising the United States statutes, submitted a report, which was agreed to.

Wright submitted a resolution to print 10,000 copies of the President's message approving the electoral count bill.

Hamlin, from the committee on rules, reported that after consulting with the House committee concerning the rule governing the admission to the Capitol during the electoral count, they had agreed to a concurrent resolution directing the Sergeant-at-Arms respectively to appoint fifty special policemen to act during the canvass of the vote, or whenever necessary, the expense to be paid equally from the contingent fund of each House.

Hamlin explained that the metropolitan police being demoralized, it was the object of the resolution to have special policemen to look after the light-fingered gentry who would be here; agreed to.

The secretary of the Senate was authorized to notify the House of the Senate's election of the members of the compromise committee.

Sherman submitted an amendment to the bill in regard to a sinking fund to pay the indebtedness due from the Pacific railroads, so as to provide for the Central and Union Pacific roads shall pay into the treasury, to the credit of such sinking fund twenty-five per cent. of their whole net earnings, providing that the amount paid in any one year shall not exceed $1,500,000, and the amount thus paid in shall be in lieu of the five per cent. of the net earnings, and one half of the amount carried for transporting the mails, paid into the treasury under the existing law; ordered printed.

The Chair laid before the Senate a message from the President calling the attention of Congress to the necessity of continuing the board for testing iron and steel, and recommending an appropriation of $40,000 to continue such board. He speaks of the great disaster which has befallen the country, and refers to the Ashland disaster as an instance where a great calamity might have been averted by a more thorough knowledge of iron, steel, and other materials, and referred to the committee on appropriations.

Paddock introduced a bill to authorize the board of trustees of Cheyenne, Wyoming, territory to enter into a contract with the city certain public lands; referred to committee on public lands.

The President said, under the Constitution, Congress cannot dictate to the Secretary of State what correspondence he shall hold with foreign States; referred.

The Speaker also presented the President's message stating that the commission to reorganize the army had reported itself unprepared to submit any plan, referred.

EASTERN.

Will Be Paid.

SAVANNAH, Ga., 30.—A Tallahassee special to the News says the assembly passed a bill to pay the democratic presidential electors.

Troops Moving from the Capital.

WASHINGTON, 30.—Four batteries of artillery stationed at the arsenal have been ordered to Fortress Monroe. It is thought that other troops will leave for the north and west to-day.

Breaking Up of a Swindling Insurance Company.

NEW YORK, 30.—A gang of fire insurance policy swindlers have been broken up by the arrest, to-day, of William Hale, of Plainfield, New Jersey. The swindling firm, of which the accused was a member, was that of Hale, Whitney, Potter & Company, having their office at 176 Broadway. Over fifty victims have been swindled out of sums ranging from $5,000 to $25,000.

Conservator Bonds.

Yesterday a gentleman called on the president of the East River bank, stating that his name was Cyrus G. Clark, and took from his pocket a number of Central Pacific Railroad bonds, representing a face value of $21,000. On these he asked a loan of $12,000. The president asked to have them left for examination, when they proved to be counterfeit, and Clark was held for examination. The numbers of the counterfeit bonds are as follows: 9529, 9995, 9493, 9422, 9485, 9487, 9499, 9495, 9532, 9517, 9535, 9547, 9551, 8855, 9649, 9541, 9534, 9948, 9988, 9923.

A New County Government.

These justices are to elect five county commissioners who are to have the entire control of the county affairs. This will give the democratic control of every county in the State, and enable them to elect five commissioners, sheriff and coroner in all the counties. The republicans now control thirty counties. The election of county treasurer, five commissioners, sheriff and coroner is taken from the people by this bill.

Ship in Distress.

A dispatch from Liverpool reports an American vessel off the coast in distress, believed to be the ship St. Nicholas, last from San Francisco. A lifeboat has gone to her assistance.

Change in Weather—Anticipated.

CHICAGO, 30.—The snow which has been on the ground since Thanksgiving, has at last commenced to disappear. It is raining to-night; the temperature is mild, and appearances are that there will be some damage done by floods.

What the Government.

Boston, 30.—The Journal says the treasury agents have worked up a case which will bring before the United States court, the largest manufacturing companies of the State, the National Tube works. It is charged that they received from the government above $100,000 in exported goods, on the plea that the goods manufactured out of imported iron on which duty had been paid, whereas they were manufactured from domestic iron. The suits to begin to-day, for the amount of drawback and penalties, which will increase the claim to half a million.

WESTERN.

About the Election Contest.

SAN FRANCISCO, 30.—Hence Davis, republican congressman elect from this district, whose seat Congressman Pyper asserts his intention of contesting on the ground of fraudulent voting, has a statement claiming that the clerical omission to enter the names of the votes on the great register is considered by the best legal authority not to affect the validity of the election, and that so far as concerns the votes being cast by non-residents, the circumstances of the case warrant the belief that such votes will be found as largely determined as republican. He expresses the belief that notice of the contest is made not with a view of following up the contest to a legitimate conclusion, but for the purpose of exercising temporary political influence, and that Pyper has no ground to stand upon on the premises.

More Rain—The Woodcock Suffered.

It has been raining heavily all day throughout the state, except in the southern portion, with the wind strong from the southeast. This evening's dispatches include the statement that the storm is extending southward, and will probably become general. It is snowing in the mountains on the line of the Central Pacific, but no snow has yet occurred to trains. Appearances indicate a protracted storm.

No clue has yet been obtained to the cause of the suicide of Lieut. Weedon, except that the letter referred to in this morning's dispatch, which is directed to a young lady of this city, instead of to his sister, contained but a few lines, the effect of the poison having overtaken him while writing it, and merely intimates that it is the last time he will address her.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Desires an Excuse for Not Going to War.

LONDON, 30.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Times, in a letter dated January 29, says the Czar's Moscow speech certainly remains unqualified by any later declaration, but that the times it is evident, judging by the tone of society at St. Petersburg and Moscow, as well as by that of public opinion in general, that this famous speech, although not officially retracted, is virtually withdrawn.

The argument adduced by the members of Russian society in justification of this course is that, Europe having interfered and the emperor having fallen for the lungs, notwithstanding what the Emperor said at Moscow, is relieved from individual responsibility. With regard to the preparation of the army, the public realization has failed, and the army is in a thing but a satisfactory condition. Having lived in this country during the whole course of the present crisis, and having carefully watched the here at Moscow, and the army, I unhesitatingly declare my convictions that the Emperor desires to have an excuse for not going to war.

DR. FRAZIER. Dear Sir: I feel it a duty I owe to suffering humanity to write you, stating the wonderful cure I have derived from the use of your Life Syrup and Strengthening Root Bitters. For some time I was sorely afflicted with a cough, raising bad stuff, with every symptom of being a confirmed consumptive. I tried different medicines and cures, without finding relief; I also consulted three of our most prominent Cleveland physicians, the last one of which pronounced me incurable, and informed me I could not live more than a few months. About this time, hearing of your wonderful success, I commenced taking your Life Syrup for the lungs. In connection with your Root Bitters, and at once was benefited, and after using the medicine some two months, I find myself entirely cured. If this statement of my case is not a recommendation to you in bringing your medicines to the notice of the suffering, my object in writing this note will be attained. For I firmly believe my life has been saved by your treatment.

We have pleasant weather with ten inches of snow on the level.

This is a great country for feed and stock raising. In the west for cattle and horses, but a bad country for sheep, as there are plenty of large gray wolves and mountain lions and wildcats. Besides, the sheep get pokemon on wild prairie. A great number have died this season.

There is lots of room for farmers yet, but none for stock raisers. We have petitioned for a survey. Our principal men are the sons of Bishop Rowberry of Tooele, and one of Philomont Merri's sons, Henry Merri.

Yours respectfully, Son of Heber C. Kimball.
