Press Committee Mails "Copy" to All the Leading Papers in the United States.

No expense is being spared by the Citizens' committee of the National Live Stock convention in order to make the week in the middle of January a red letter occasion in the annals of Salt Lake.

All the committees are working harmoniously to that end with the result that things are now drawing to a focus. The handsome lithographs advertising the occasion were received from a local firm this morning and Secretary Martin and his force of clerks have been hard at work all day today mailing them broadcast over the land.

The press committee also have drawn up some matter which today is being mailed to every paper of note in America. The matter pertains to the con-cert which is to be given in honor of the visiting stockmen in the Tabernacle on the evening of Wednesday, January The following in brief is what will appear in hundreds of papers through-out the land within the course of the

Hug her to your grateful breast, whis-per in her walting ear land for the annual convention of the National Live Stock association in Salt Lake City, they will be given at least one treat which no other city in the world can give. On the program for their entertainment is a complimentary concert at the great Mormon Tabernacle. To the stranger in Zion this Tabernacle is a constant source of vonder. From the outside the immense building with its curved roof looks like a giant, sleeping turtle; within, a celling without visible support other than the walls, arches over seats enough to accommodate 13,000 people comfortably It is a marvel of engineering and architecture and the idea was evolved from the fertile brain of Brigham Young The acoustics of the structure are un equalled and no pilgrim in this land of the Latter-day Saints can forget the experience of standing in the gallery at one end of the long building and hear-ing the sound of a dropping pin on the Excursions Via Oregon Short Line. speakers' table at the other end. In this fact lies the secret of the power and beauty of Tabernacle music. Nowhere does melody sound so sweet nowhere does harmony reach its full-ness and purity in the degree that it does here. A quaver in a single volc or one false tone cannot escape detec-tion. Therefore the Tabernacle choir tion. chestra. must be near to perfection. In ter years of loveable leadership Prof. Evan Stephens has brought his 500 or more. singers as near to the ideal as is humanly possible. Their singing is indescribable. It combines the fervor of the religionist with the art of the trained musician. It is a labor of love with them and a religious duty, no member of this choir is paid for for or her services. They are called to the choir as missionaries are called to the mission field and the 2,200 teachers who spreading Mormonism in every are country in the world, are evidences of the obedience which the faithful ac-

The Mormons are proud of the mus ical feature of their worship. Individ-ually they are proud of their volces and their ability to sing. The chil dren are trained to it from infancy in the Sunday school classes, and they graduate into the choirs of the ward There are twentymeeting houses. four of these meeting houses in Salt Lake City and each one of them good sized church. These twenty-four churches have choirs which surpass, perhaps, the paid and volunteer choirs in any of the other denominational churches. From the ward choirs the best and sweetest voices are called for singing in the Tabernacle, where general services are held on three Sunday afternoons in each month. It is a recognition which the ward singers strive or. It is the culmination of a life of devotion to voice culture. Once in the great choir their ambition is to stay there and perhaps some day become a soloist. Of the soloists each one is a superb artist. There are grey beards and wrinkled faces to be seen among the 500 which sit tier above tier in front of the grand organ on Sunday afternoons, and there are girls in short frocks. and not age is the consideration. They are good singers, all of them, and their ordinary Sunday music is enough thrill the soul of the song lover to its very depths. On special occasions,like the coming concert for the stockmen, they fairly surpass themselves and the magnificence of the treat in store can hardly be realized. This treat will be one of the many complimentary entertainments tendered the delegates and visitors to this great meeting. To enjoy this concert, how ever, the latter will be required to reg ister their names as delegates with the secretary of the association at the Knutsford hotel on January 14th, and thereafter at the Assembly Hall, where the convention will be held, when a book of coupon tickets will be issued, which will admit the holder to this and all other entertainments.
