

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Andrew Howat and Miss Howat entertained at a tea in honor of Mrs. Ethel Kimball, about 30 being present. The room was decorated in white and green, marguerites being used with ferns and palms. The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. C. E. Richards, Mrs. Fred Odell, Mrs. Robert Hampton, Mrs. Louise Schoppe, Mrs. Robert Steele and Mrs. Howard Stove.

Misses Alice Nibley and Veda Beebe were hostesses at a large evening party on Wednesday at the Nibley home, the room being decorated in white, carnations and ferns and the amusement being cards. About 40 were present.

Mrs. Louise Savare entertained a few friends informally at bridge yesterday.

Misses Mattie and Florence Hall entertained their card club on Thursday.

Eight guests were entertained by Mrs. Frank Schmitter on Wednesday at a luncheon in honor of Mrs. S. Hanna of Colorado Springs, the table being decorated in tulips.

Mrs. Barbee entertained informally at bridge on Wednesday.

Mrs. W. W. Armstrong entertained a few friends at an informal tea and bridge game on Wednesday. In honor of Mrs. Hoag and Mrs. Matson of Ogden and the prizes in the card contest were won by Mrs. Hoag, Mrs. John Reed, Mrs. E. M. Allison and Mrs. D. C. Jackling.

Miss Dorothy Thompson gave a card party on Wednesday in honor of Miss Edna Farnsworth, daffodils and tulips being the decorations and the tables done in the same flowers. About 30 were present.

The engagement of J. J. Greenwald of this city and Miss Mildred Rindholm of Portland, Ore., is announced, the wedding to take place early in the coming summer.

Mrs. W. H. Ferguson entertained informally at tea on Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Henry Bowles of North Dakota.

Mrs. E. M. Allison entertained for Mrs. Ralph Hoag of Ogden on Tuesday, her affair being a luncheon at the University club followed by bridge and the decorations being suggestive of St. Patrick. Mrs. Joseph S. Perry, Mrs. J. J. Broughall and Mrs. George Airls won the prizes.

Another St. Patrick's party of Tuesday was that at which Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Hark entertained 500 being the amusement and about eight tables played. The decorations were entirely in green.

Mrs. E. D. Hammond was hostess at two card parties this week, the first on Tuesday and the other on Thursday with about six tables played at each. Palm, ferns and shamrock were the decorations and prizes were won by Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Kimball.

Mrs. A. L. Hoppaugh entertained the Tuesday bridge club this week, and the prizes went to Mrs. Elbridge Thomas and Mrs. Lewis Evans.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lake entertained two tables at bridge on Monday night following an informal dinner for eight at the Kenyon.

Mrs. E. D. Miller entertained the afternoon club on Monday and the prize for the day went to Mrs. Upham.

Mrs. J. P. Megath entertained the bridge tournament on Tuesday.

Mrs. A. L. Cowan entertain the Young Matrons' club this week.

The Woman's Republican club gave a card party at the home of Mrs. D. N. Stramp on Tuesday, all details being carried out in the St. Patrick's idea.

Mrs. Louis S. Cates entertained at a party St. Patrick's luncheon on Tuesday, green carnations being the flowers used and the place cards painted in shamrock, while the favors were tiny green snakes. Green candles shaded in green and other details carried out the idea. The guests were Mrs. William T. Kiser, Mrs. Russell Schaller, Mrs. Percy Moulton, Miss Margaret Miller, Miss Gertrude Hanson, Miss Alleen Maclean, Miss Edna Bailey and Miss Tony Morrison.

Mrs. W. H. Ferguson and her guest, Mrs. Henry Bowles, were at home informally at the Ferguson home on Wednesday and a number of friends called during the afternoon.

Mrs. W. M. McCrea entertained her sewing club on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hall entertained a number of members of the Baptist church at a St. Patrick's party on Tuesday night, the decorations and all details being in the prevailing greens.

Mrs. E. D. Hammond entertained at a second 500 party on Thursday afternoon, the decorations being in green and white, and prizes won by Mrs. A. T. Graham and Mrs. Raymond Ackerman.

Mrs. Ralph Hoag and Mrs. Joseph Perry entertained at a luncheon at a luncheon at the Commercial club, their guests being members of their Ogden Bridge club.

One of the most delightful affairs of the week was the annual celebration of the Author's club, which took place on Wednesday night in the way of a social evening at the home of Mrs. August W. Grant. The room were beautifully decorated in pink and white, with carnations and ribbon streamers, the table in the dining room having a centerpiece of the pink and white flowers, while ribbon streamers in the same colors were brought from the chandelier to the four corners. A literary game was the feature of the evening, prizes being won by Mrs. E. A. Skinn.

DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S Oriental Cream or Magical Beautifier.

Beautifies Tan, Pimples, Redness, and all skin diseases. It is a perfect skin beautifier and is used by the most beautiful women in the world. It is a perfect skin beautifier and is used by the most beautiful women in the world.

DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S Oriental Cream or Magical Beautifier.

Beautifies Tan, Pimples, Redness, and all skin diseases. It is a perfect skin beautifier and is used by the most beautiful women in the world. It is a perfect skin beautifier and is used by the most beautiful women in the world.

E. Wilcox and R. H. Roberts. There were several musical numbers, and punch was served by Miss Edith Grant. About 40 were present.

Mrs. J. J. Devereaux entertained informally yesterday afternoon at a luncheon.

The Governor's club announces that on Friday evening, March 27, they will give the last of their series of dances at the Ogden hall. This promises to be the most successful of their series and the members have spared no efforts in arranging the details.

Miss Alice Smith and Miss Margaret King entertained the members of the

A FAQUIN SPRING TAILOR-MADE

Coat of gray and white striped broadcloth, characteristic in its artistic simplicity of the great maker. The very plain skirt, with bias center front seam, has wide bias footbands of graduated width—two in number—and the top of the skirt is finished on princess three inches above the natural waistline. Topping this long, flaky skirt is a semi-fitting jacket, with vest of plain gray cloth, fastening with silver bullet buttons, this reaching but to the top of the skirt belt. Sleeves are cut in one with the body of the coat, after the manner of the latest butterfly model, and trimmed with a turnback soft cuff of the plain cloth. Motifs of soutache, with crocheted buttons, trim the fronts and describe the empire waistline at back and sides.

Under club, Thursday evening, and a most enjoyable time was spent. Light refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Much interest is being manifested in the dancing party which is to be given by the Under club girls at Unity hall, April 17.

May and Mrs. Bransford returned Sunday from Los Angeles and Pasadena, where they have been visiting for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Heber M. Wells will leave today for the east. They will go with Joseph H. Young in his private car as far as Chicago, where Mr. Young's business takes him.

The Misses Margaret and Ethel Dooly reached New York this week on the Atlantic, after a stay in Europe of a year or so. They will come directly home, reaching here the early part of next week.

Judge and Mrs. S. F. Hanna will leave today for their home at Colorado Springs, after spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Baer at the Bransford.

Mrs. Arthur Trebborn of Denver is here to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Praevnik, at the Keith apartments.

Miss Whitaker of Los Angeles is here visiting Mrs. Murray Sullivan for a week or two.

Miss Le Compté of Park City is the guest of the Misses Osborne for a few days.

Mrs. W. B. Short left Tuesday evening for Los Angeles, where she will spend about two months.

Mrs. J. T. Treasurer is spending a few days with friends in Park City.

Mrs. T. H. Blahon has returned to her home in New Haven, Conn., after spending several months with her daughter, Mrs. J. Walcott Thompson.

Mrs. Fred Fuller left last week for Boise, where she will join her husband. They will spend the summer at the Idaho metropolis.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Walker and daughter, Glen, and Miss Hague will return this week from a month's stay at Hotel Glenwood, Riverside.

Mrs. and Miss White left Tuesday for their home in Iowa, after spending a few days with their cousin, Mrs. W. E. James.

Mrs. Clint B. Leigh and her two little sons are back from Long Beach.

Miss Pearl Weller is home from a trip to Washington and New York.

Mrs. Robert L. Campbell and little son are the guests of Mrs. Alice Horne.

Mrs. J. B. Conright and children returned Tuesday night from an extended stay in California.

Miss Daisy Raybould, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Raybould of Los Angeles, is visiting friends in the city.

A pure soap at a fair price!

There, in seven words, is the secret of the success of Ivory Soap.

And because it is pure and because it sells at a fair price, its sales increase as the years go by.

For bath, toilet and fine laundry purposes.

Ivory Soap

99 1/2 Per Cent. Pure.

Mrs. Henry Harrison left Tuesday evening for an extended visit in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Hugh Park will return this week after an extended visit in the east. She spent much of the time with her daughter, Mrs. Beebe, at Fort Leavenworth.

Mrs. Andrew Hamming, of Chicago, is here spending a few days with Mrs.

GIRLISH FROCK OF SPOTTED MANDARIN SILK.

One-piece dress of spotted navy blue mandarin silk, the spots in a soft, creamy shade. The skirt is plain in forward turning pleats, which are held to girly lines with narrow stitched bands of blue chiffon broadcloth. The little vest below the chemise of Valenciennes is also of the cloth, with tiny buttons and braid buttonholes of gold soutache. Cloth is further used in double bias bands above the hem. A round collar outlining the chemise to the edges of the vest is overlaid with another of Irish crocheted lace, and matching cuffs trim turnback cloth cuffs above those of Valenciennes insertions.

D. G. Lilley, on her way home from California, where she has spent some time.

Mrs. Elizabeth Baumgart returned this week after spending a month in California.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wood are at Ocean Park, Cal., and will not return before April 1.

Mrs. H. D. Gue and little daughter left Monday afternoon for their home in New York after spending some time with Mrs. Gue's sister, Miss Shearman.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE CITIES

OGDEN.

The musical history course recital given Thursday evening at the Ogden tabernacle by Mrs. Lillian Farnsworth was perhaps the best and most interesting of any yet given. Mrs. Farnsworth beautifully explained the great oratorio of Elijah, and the Ogden tabernacle choir under the leadership of Prof. Joseph Ballantyne did some magnificent work in the choruses of the masterpiece. The choir has been holding rehearsals on the oratorio several times every week, and created any of its previous undertakings, calling forth from the large audience rounds of applause. The soloists of the evening who did good work were Miss Myrtle Baugher, Mrs. A. H. C. Smith, Misses Weathia and Maud Belnap, Caleb Marriott, George A. Shurtliff and D. Ray Shurtliff.

Mr. and Mrs. William Eccles on Monday evening celebrated their silver wedding at their beautiful home, 2555 Jefferson avenue. It was just 25 years March 16, since they were joined in wedlock. Over 100 guests were present to participate in the festivities. Purdy's orchestra rendered sweet music throughout the evening, and dancing, singing and other pleasures were enjoyed. A dainty repast was served. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion with cut flowers, ferns and smilax, the color scheme being red, blue and white. The guests were recipients of the heartiest congratulations and many beautiful gifts.

One of the most enjoyable dancing parties of the season was given Tuesday evening at the Weber academy hall by the state Sunday school board. It was attended by about 300 young people who enjoyed St. Patrick's by tripping the light fantastic. The hall was tastefully decorated with green.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Patterson and family returned home this week from a pleasant trip to the coast.

The McDowell evening given Tuesday at the Congregational church, was an evening of music greatly enjoyed by the audience that packed the place. Mrs. Lillian Farnsworth outlined McDowell's life and his devotion to music, while some of his choicest works in instrumental and vocal music were interpreted by Miss Gertrude Biddle on the piano and Miss Margaret Armstrong on the violin. Mrs. Guering same several of his selections charmingly.

A pleasant farewell party was given Tuesday evening at the home of Joseph Harbushon on Eighteenth street in honor of his brother J. W. Harbushon, who with his family, will leave Ogden this month for Teton, Idaho, to make his future home. There were present about 40 guests who spent a few enjoyable hours at music and social chat. A dainty repast was served.

The Fourth ward roller society celebrated its annual anniversary Tuesday at the ward amusement hall. During the afternoon the older members of the ward enjoyed the affair. A pleasing program of speeches, songs and instrumental music was rendered, and a bounteous spread served. In the evening a delightful dancing party was given the young people.

Charles Meighan, Jr., who has been editing the Fremont, Kansas, Herald, has returned to Ogden to visit for a time with his parents.

Mrs. J. J. Brummett has as her guests this week H. J. Bykes and wife and Mrs. Robert Watson of Salt Lake City.

Miss Eva Manning and Orson R. Christensen, two popular young people of Hooper, Weber county, were married this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Farr, and Mrs. Enoch Farr returned home this week from a month's pleasure trip through California and Mexico.

PROVO.

Miss Sarah E. Giles of this city and Mr. L. H. Housgard of Mantle were married in the Salt Lake temple Wednesday. They returned to Provo Thursday, and the same evening a family dinner was served in their home.

THE MERRY DOZEN ENTERTAINED AT A SKATING PARTY AT THE ELDER RINK WEDNESDAY EVENING.

Mrs. Urelda Busch of Salt Lake has returned home after a most enjoyable visit with relatives and friends in this city.

Mrs. A. B. Simons was pleasantly surprised at her home Monday afternoon by a large number of friends. A social time was passed and a dainty lunch served.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Jevone and family of St. Louis visited Mrs. Jevone's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Anderson, a few days this week, enroute for Salt Lake City, where they will spend the coming summer. A family dinner was served in their honor at the home of Mrs. Anderson Tuesday evening.

The Le Senance Dancing club gave their first reception and dance Wednesday evening at the First ward social hall. The following gentlemen, with their partners comprise the club: J. F. Acord, J. W. Farrer, James Clove, Fern Decker, J. L. Barker, G. E. Burton, D. J. Blake, Wells Brimhall, Albert Choules, Harvey and Walter Cluff, E. H. Eastmond, E. J. Glade, C. A. Hedquist, H. C. and N. C. Hicks, E. E. Hinkley, J. R. Hodson, R. C. Irwin, Heber Jex, Thomas John, John Johnson, A. C. Lund, Hyrum Manuvaring, Wilford McAllister, N. H. Nelson, Monroe Paxman, P. G. Peterson, Ralph Paulson, Homer Rich, C. Rich, Fred Richmond, W. J. Robinson, Horace Sechrist, J. H. Slater, I. A. Smoot, F. W. Taylor, George S. Taylor, Archie Thurman, C. G. Van Buren and Alma VanWagonen.

Dr. W. M. Thome and Miss Sarah Johnston, secretary to Y. W. C. A., both of Salt Lake City, and Dr. and Mrs. Frank Thome of American Fork, Sunday with Dr. and Mrs. E. T. Thome in Provo.

The Elks and their ladies delightfully entertained at a whist party at their beautifully furnished lodge rooms Tuesday evening. The evening was very pleasantly passed in cards and music. Mrs. C. E. Decker carried off the prize for the most successful whist player on the evening. Elaborate refreshments were served.

The stake officers of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. delightfully entertained Monday evening in honor of Miss Sarah Giles, at her home. The time was delightfully passed in various games and music, and Miss Giles was presented with a beautiful mission chair from her co-workers. Ice cream and cake were served.

The Merry Dozen entertained at a skating party at the Elder rink Wednesday evening.

DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL TOILET POWDER

AN IDEAL, ANTISEPTIC TOILET POWDER FOR INFANTS AND ADULTS.

This is an exquisitely perfumed, antiseptic toilet powder. It is a household necessity for the nursery and the toilet of youth. It should be used freely after bathing, giving a delightful and refreshing effect.

Prepared by F. D. HOPKINS, N. Y. CITY.

GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM

For sale by

WILLES-HORNE DRUG CO.

No. 8 Main St., By the Monument, SALT LAKE CITY.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Evans have returned from a very enjoyable visit through California.

Miss Phyllis Sparks of Nephel spent the past weeks visiting in our city, the guest of Miss Rachael Fyne.

Mrs. M. Bennett spent a few days this week with friends in Salt Lake.

Mr. George E. Lund, formerly of this city, but now residing in Fruitvale, California, is renewing acquaintances in this city. While here he is the guest of his uncle, W. S. Rawlings.

Mrs. Frank Halliday entertained a number of her lady friends at her home Monday afternoon. A pleasant social time was passed and a dainty lunch served.

The sixty-sixth anniversary of the Relief society was celebrated at the stake tabernacle Tuesday afternoon. An excellent program, consisting of songs, musical selections and readings was enjoyed by all, after which refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed.

The Cross Stick club pleasantly surprised Mr. and Mrs. Ascel Gee at their home Friday evening. Games, music and a good social time was enjoyed by all. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Urelda Busch of Salt Lake has returned home after a most enjoyable visit with relatives and friends in this city.

Mrs. A. B. Simons was pleasantly surprised at her home Monday afternoon by a large number of friends. A social time was passed and a dainty lunch served.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Jevone and family of St. Louis visited Mrs. Jevone's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Anderson, a few days this week, enroute for Salt Lake City, where they will spend the coming summer. A family dinner was served in their honor at the home of Mrs. Anderson Tuesday evening.

The Le Senance Dancing club gave their first reception and dance Wednesday evening at the First ward social hall. The following gentlemen, with their partners comprise the club: J. F. Acord, J. W. Farrer, James Clove, Fern Decker, J. L. Barker, G. E. Burton, D. J. Blake, Wells Brimhall, Albert Choules, Harvey and Walter Cluff, E. H. Eastmond, E. J. Glade, C. A. Hedquist, H. C. and N. C. Hicks, E. E. Hinkley, J. R. Hodson, R. C. Irwin, Heber Jex, Thomas John, John Johnson, A. C. Lund, Hyrum Manuvaring, Wilford McAllister, N. H. Nelson, Monroe Paxman, P. G. Peterson, Ralph Paulson, Homer Rich, C. Rich, Fred Richmond, W. J. Robinson, Horace Sechrist, J. H. Slater, I. A. Smoot, F. W. Taylor, George S. Taylor, Archie Thurman, C. G. Van Buren and Alma VanWagonen.

Dr. W. M. Thome and Miss Sarah Johnston, secretary to Y. W. C. A., both of Salt Lake City, and Dr. and Mrs. Frank Thome of American Fork, Sunday with Dr. and Mrs. E. T. Thome in Provo.

The Elks and their ladies delightfully entertained at a whist party at their beautifully furnished lodge rooms Tuesday evening. The evening was very pleasantly passed in cards and music. Mrs. C. E. Decker carried off the prize for the most successful whist player on the evening. Elaborate refreshments were served.

The stake officers of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. delightfully entertained Monday evening in honor of Miss Sarah Giles, at her home. The time was delightfully passed in various games and music, and Miss Giles was presented with a beautiful mission chair from her co-workers. Ice cream and cake were served.

The Merry Dozen entertained at a skating party at the Elder rink Wednesday evening.

nesday evening. About thirty young people enjoyed the evening.

Mrs. Hattie Slater was very pleasantly surprised at her home Monday evening by the members of the Rebecca lodge. A delightful social and musical evening was passed. Lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Thurman of Salt Lake spent a few days visiting their daughter, Mrs. C. W. Reid, in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas John entertained at a musical Saturday evening in honor of Mr. Ray Holdaway, who has recently returned from Germany, where he has spent some time studying music.

Miss Virgie Boan has returned home after a delightful visit to California.

Mayor Decker, Councilmen Van Wagonen, Postmaster Clove, President Farrer of the Commercial club, and C. E. Loose entertained a number of city and county officials. A drive was taken around the city, after which luncheon was served at the Hotel Roberts.

Inspector James McCabe, of the migration service, was the guest of Postmaster Clove on Provo river Wednesday. In the evening he was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Clove at dinner.

Mrs. Gertrude Page entertained the members of the Frisella club at her home Thursday evening. A merry evening was passed in games and various amusements, after which lunch was served.

Miss Edna Beck left Friday for Beaver, where she expects to spend the summer.

The Pallas club formed a theater party Thursday evening for the flex theater.

LOGAN.

The regular meeting of the U. A. C. Woman's club was held on Monday at the home of Mrs. George W. Thatcher, Jr. Mrs. Perry had charge of the program for the afternoon and gave a most interesting talk on the Philippines. Many interesting souvenirs of the islands were also shown.

On Saturday last, Miss Dorothy Harvey was hostess at a 5 o'clock tea at the U. A. C. The table decorations were extremely pretty and an elaborate menu was served. The guests were Mrs. P. D. Steops, Misses Charlotte Kyle, Katherine Smith, Margaret Wilkinson and Mr. W. W. Clark.

The Presbyterian church was the scene of a pleasant social on Friday last, given by the young people of the New Jersey academy.

A pleasant social party of the week was the one given by Miss Mattie and Mr. Orson Lloyd. The guests were Misses Mamie Brown, Nora Redford, Clark, Cole, Messrs. Bowman, Norman, Lloyd, Clark, Milton, Mitchell.

The pupils of Mrs. Ruth Monchell gave a most entertaining recital at the home of Judge and Mrs. C. H. Hart on Friday.

The Daughters of the Pioneers literary society met at the home of Mrs. Maud Robinson on Wednesday afternoon. The program consisted of a sketch of the life of President Brigham Young.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Thatcher entertained the members of the Pavilion society at their partners at their home on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Spencer have returned from a trip to Salt and Ogden.

Mr. Edgar Watch left on Tuesday

$50 for a line

We will give FIFTY DOLLARS in gold to the person who sends us the best line to complete the "Lemrick" below. Answers may be in any form, although we prefer that they be written upon the back of a label taken from a can of Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate.

Competitors may submit as many lines as they wish, and if two or more persons submit the line decided upon, the money will be divided. Answers must be mailed on or before April 1st, addressed to GHIRARDELLI'S CONTEST, 18 Montgomery Street, San Francisco.

Here's the "Lemrick":

A tea drinking spinster named Fee,
Grew as ill as she ever could be,
Her friends feared the worst,
But she conquered the thirst,

Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate

(Less than a cent a cup)

A Pacific Coast product--always the best --for fifty years the Standard

It is made with scrupulous, conscientious care and old fashioned attention to cleanliness, purity, goodness and quality. No Chocolate at any price can be better or more delicious. Your grocer sells and recommends it.

COOPER