

Today's Golden News

IMPROVEMENT LEAGUE SESSION

Want Council to Purchase Park Grounds—To Eliminate Politics From Fire and Police Depts.

OGDEN CITY SCHOOL AFFAIRS.

Military Instructor Selected for High School—Reception Tendered New Methodist Minister.

Ogden, Oct. 6.—The Ogden City Improvement League held a meeting last evening at the Weber club parlors. The most important business transacted was the decision to petition the city council to purchase 65 acres of land owned by Joseph Clark east of the residence part of the city, and known as the Methodist university site, to be laid out as a park.

A resolution was passed asking that the state senator and representatives of Weber county who are elected to the state senate and legislature in November, to use their influence in favor of the appointment of a chief of police and fire chief, and place them under the civil service commission. Another resolution was passed, asking that the city council be authorized to employ a lawyer to pass upon the power of the city council to purchase an up-to-date patrol wagon for the police department.

W. E. CHURCH RECEPTION.

Welcomed Tendered Rev. and Mrs. David Crane.

Ogden, Oct. 6.—A reception was given last evening at 8 o'clock at the Methodist church in honor of Rev. David Crane, the new pastor and his wife, who arrived last week to take charge of the church work in Ogden instead of Rev. Samuel Blair, who resigned to accept a more lucrative position at El Paso, Texas, to which place he with his family have gone. The reception last evening was attended by about 150 guests. It was commenced by the singing of "America." Mrs. Hess and Miss Nelson sang a duet, and sweet guitar and mandolin music was furnished by the Griffin brothers and Ralph Jensen. Prof. Underwood, in behalf of the Sunday school and Epworth League, welcomed the new minister, and his wife and assured them the hearty support of these organizations. Rev. Bruce Blood of the Baptist church, Rev. Alfred Brown of the Episcopal church, and Rev. Thompson of the Presbyterian church, each welcomed the pastor and expressed kindly feelings toward the M. E. church and hoped for continued brotherly love in the future. After the speaking, delicious refreshments were served, and an hour of sociality was spent. The church was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and cut flowers. Rev. Crane came to Ogden from Lexington, Mo.

CITY SCHOOL AFFAIRS.

A. L. Linder Chosen as Military Instructor at High School.

Ogden, Oct. 6.—The board of education last evening employed A. L. Linder as instructor in military training, which is to be commenced at the Ogden high school. The new armory building will be used for drill work for the present.

The matter of redistricting the city was referred to the teachers' committee.

A petition was received signed by Mrs. A. W. Agee and 22 others, asking Manager, E. A. Larkin, 406 1/2 St. Telephone 133-K.

Advertisements for the Daily, Saturday and Semi-Weekly News accepted on the same terms as at the Salt Lake Office.

Circulator, John J. McGregor, 256 Wash. Ave. Ind. Tel. 131. Office with Lambert Paper Co.

Payments for the Daily, Saturday and Semi-Weekly News should be made to the circulator. Delivery made by carrier on the same terms as in Salt Lake.

The board to build a schoolhouse at Nob Hill for the accommodation of the children in that part of the city, who have to walk now three-quarters of a mile to the nearest schoolhouse. Referred to the buildings and grounds committee.

The employment of a trust officer was referred to Chief of Police Brown, with power to act.

The resignations of Alice Flowers and Florence Stevens were accepted. The following teachers were employed: Beulah Bissell, Mary P. Smith, Catherine P. Shepherd, W. N. McKay, Clara Williams, May E. Scott, W. L. Muck, Mrs. Maud T. Horn and Mrs. J. K. Hutton.

The finance committee reported having received $1,800 in 1906 taxes, leaving an overdraft of $13.35.

DAMAGE SUIT.

A $10,000 damage suit has been commenced by Joseph McConnell against the City Rocks Mining company and the Salt Lake Hardware company, alleged to be due for personal injuries, consisting of the loss of some of his fingers, resulting from an injury received while employed by the mining company as a machinist's helper in August.

LIVELY RUNAWAY.

A lively runaway occurred yesterday afternoon, when a horse attached to a single buggy occupied by Mrs. James Field of Ogden, and her sister, Mrs. A. Redford of Idaho, Mrs. Field had been to the depot and met her sister. They were driving along Grant avenue, when the horse became frightened at something in the road and became unmanageable. At Twenty-fourth street it turned east at a rapid speed. A gentleman grabbed the horse by the bit, but could not get it under control. It ran along the sidewalk in front of Proudfoot's place, where Mrs. Field was thrown out and the wheel passed over her, causing severe bruising. Several gentlemen caught hold of the horse and succeeded in stopping it before any more damage was done.

FUNERAL OF ARTHUR ANDERSON.

A large number of friends assembled at the Third ward meetinghouse at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon to attend the funeral services over the remains of Arthur Anderson, the unfortunate 16-year-old boy who was killed Wednesday by being run over with a switch engine in the Union depot.

PROVO DEPARTMENT.

The "News" is delivered by carrier every night (Sunday excepted) at 75 cents per month. All payments and complaints should be made to R. D. Hale, agent for the Daily, Saturday and Semi-Weekly News, 324 North St. Phone Ind. 33 M.

CITY SCHOOL AFFAIRS.

Law to be Enforced to Compel Attendance—Durand Turned Down.

Special Correspondence.

Provo, Oct. 6.—The judge of the juvenile court, the great of the board of education and the city superintendent of schools have issued a letter of instructions to the parents, giving the law relating to compulsory attendance, which they intend to enforce.

At the weekly teachers' meeting, during the time for miscellaneous business, a lively discussion was entered into on the matter of examining papers. Current events were given by Fannie McLean, and "The proper arrangement of the daily program" was presented by S. H. Jones.

The seventh and eighth grades of the Parker school have been treated during the past two weeks to morning talks of 15 minutes each by Miss La Rue Farnsworth, a pupil of the seventh grade, on Mexico, from which she returned on a trip to the coast of California, by S. H. Jones, teacher of the seventh grade, and some excellent instructions in "The Seven School Virtues" by Principal S. P. Eggerston.

Mr. O. V. Harris of the Timpanogos school, and Mrs. Gertrude Page of the Maester school, were out this week. S. L. Harris, who is suffering from pneumonia.

Many of the parents of the Franklin district are keeping their children out to assist in the beet harvest.

A number of the teachers visited the Salt Lake schools this week.

The attendance is rapidly increasing.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE.

A three weeks' farmers' institute will be held in this city Saturday, Oct. 13, for the purpose of nominating candidates for county officers. The Democratic convention will be held at the county house Monday, Oct. 15. The Republicans will hold their primaries in the different wards Oct. 8, while the Democrats will meet for that purpose on the 15th.

KICKED BY A HORSE.

Leland, the son of Hon. H. S. Larsen, was kicked by a horse last week, displacing his leg. From last report he is improving slowly.

LARGE SHIPMENTS OF PEACHES.

Their office from their warehouse building at the depot to the Union block on Main street. This firm alone has sent out 25 full car loads of peaches this season. Besides the large shipments by express in case lots, more than 100 straight cars of peaches have been sent from Brigham City this season.

FOR THE MISSION FIELD.

Clarence E. Horsley will leave for a mission to Great Britain Oct. 17. He is the sixth missionary sent out from the firm of Wm. Horsley & Sons during the last few years. William Horsley, the senior member of the firm, has filled two missions to Great Britain. The firm is a popular one.

MISSIONARY ROMANCE.

Adolph Madison Reeder received a letter from Box "B" about 10 days ago, asking him to be ready to leave for Great Britain Oct. 17. He hardly knew how to answer or what to do, could not see how it was possible to get ready on so short a notice, and if he went, his "best girl" might go with him. He took the letter to the girl of his choice, Miss Ada Mathias, for her to decide and Ada, who is a very nice girl, was equal to the occasion. "Why not get married at once?" The problem was solved then and there and the happy couple are now on their way to the Salt Lake temple last Wednesday Oct. 3, and Dolph will be ready to leave for England Oct. 17.

WEDDED IN THE TEMPLE.

The following young people were also joined in the holy bonds of matrimony in the Salt Lake temple during the week.

Elias Jensen and Miss Edith Hansen. Leslie Hadley and Miss Lillian Burt.

MOUNT PLEASANT.

CHOIR REORGANIZED.

W. E. Watson is President and J. W. Jorgensen Leader.

Special Correspondence.

Mt. Pleasant, Sanpete Co., Oct. 4.—The building known as the old block has recently changed hands, the buyers being S. R. Hampshire and Charles Jensen. The consideration was $1,500.

RELIGION CLASS WORK.

Religion classes are just now being organized. Instead of the different departments, the churches are now, before all meet together in the meeting-house for opening exercises and then separate for class work. Much enthusiasm is manifested, and a profitable year is anticipated.

CHOIR REORGANIZED.

Since the division of the wards, the authorities have deemed it advisable to reorganize the choir. This was done last evening, when a good crowd came out to consider the matter. W. E. Watson was chosen president, with J. W. Jorgensen and Ida Johnson assistants; A. L. Larsen, instructor; J. W. Jorgensen, leader; Edna Madson, secretary and treasurer. The desire is to call young members and set as many as possible to take part.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ryland and family have returned after spending the summer in Pueblo and Denver, Colo.

The special train service given to accommodate conference visitors is much appreciated. Many are making use of the opportunity.

A missionary party in honor of Elder William Burton, who leaves for a mission to the Southern States Monday next, will be given at the Pavilion Saturday evening.

HYRUM.

STAKE CONFERENCE.

Mrs. Anna Rogers Suffering From Distressing Accident.

Special Correspondence.

Hyrum, Cache Co., Oct. 1.—The quarterly conference of this stake was held Sept. 29 and 30. At the Sunday meetings the tabernacle was crowded to its full capacity, and many had to be content with standing outside at window and door openings. Presidents William Hudge of the Logan temple, and Charles Hart of the council of seventy and Elder C. Thoresen of Cache stake were present.

The reports given by the bishops of the various wards and other officers, were of a very encouraging nature, and the remarks by the visiting elders and others were instructive and beneficial.

Another very pleasant feature of the conference was the singing of the Third ward choir under the leadership of A. Savage.

The conference of the Improvement associations was held on Monday evening, when an interesting program was rendered.

DISTRESSING ACCIDENT.

Mrs. Anna Rogers, while engaged at some outside work a few days ago, was seized with a fainting spell and in her fall her left foot was twisted out of the ankle socket. She is suffering a great deal and although under skillful treatment, the lady will be unable to move around for a long time.

SCHOOLS CROWDED.

The eight district schools that started two weeks ago are filling up very fast, and the school board is making arrangements for the opening of another school.

While some wheat was damaged with rust on account of the heavy rain, the school board is making arrangements for the opening of another school.

Beet digging is booming, and teams loaded with grain and alfalfa are busy even during the night, taking advantage of the beautiful moonlight nights.

BRIGHAM.

MISSIONARY ROMANCE.

And Other Weddings—Brigham Makes Record Peach Shipments.

Special Correspondence.

Brigham City, Boxelder Co., Oct. 3.—For two weeks the district court has been occupied in hearing the sensational Woodland shooting case and the end is not yet. The following eight "good men" were tried for the jury in the case: Peter A. Nebeker, Peter Lowe, David Holmgren, Mark Simonsen, Levi P. Campbell, N. J. Nelson, James E. Olsen and Lorenzo Jeppson.

The opening of the duck hunting season, Oct. 1, found many hunters at the Duckwater hotels and they report that they have never found shooting better. Each hunter has a list of names of ducks that he has shot just the number of fowls that the law allows. The $2,000 gasoline launch belonging to the Bear River Duck club was destroyed by fire Tuesday, caused by the explosion of the gasoline tank, just as the launch was leaving the boat house, about 300 ducks were roasted in it. The boat was insured for $2,000, so the loss will not be so heavy.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Republican county convention will be held in this city Saturday, Oct. 13, for the purpose of nominating candidates for county officers. The Democratic convention will be held at the county house Monday, Oct. 15. The Republicans will hold their primaries in the different wards Oct. 8, while the Democrats will meet for that purpose on the 15th.

KICKED BY A HORSE.

Leland, the son of Hon. H. S. Larsen, was kicked by a horse last week, displacing his leg. From last report he is improving slowly.

LARGE SHIPMENTS OF PEACHES.

Their office from their warehouse building at the depot to the Union block on Main street. This firm alone has sent out 25 full car loads of peaches this season. Besides the large shipments by express in case lots, more than 100 straight cars of peaches have been sent from Brigham City this season.

FOR THE MISSION FIELD.

Clarence E. Horsley will leave for a mission to Great Britain Oct. 17. He is the sixth missionary sent out from the firm of Wm. Horsley & Sons during the last few years. William Horsley, the senior member of the firm, has filled two missions to Great Britain. The firm is a popular one.

MISSIONARY ROMANCE.

Adolph Madison Reeder received a letter from Box "B" about 10 days ago, asking him to be ready to leave for Great Britain Oct. 17. He hardly knew how to answer or what to do, could not see how it was possible to get ready on so short a notice, and if he went, his "best girl" might go with him. He took the letter to the girl of his choice, Miss Ada Mathias, for her to decide and Ada, who is a very nice girl, was equal to the occasion. "Why not get married at once?" The problem was solved then and there and the happy couple are now on their way to the Salt Lake temple last Wednesday Oct. 3, and Dolph will be ready to leave for England Oct. 17.

WEDDED IN THE TEMPLE.

The following young people were also joined in the holy bonds of matrimony in the Salt Lake temple during the week.

Elias Jensen and Miss Edith Hansen. Leslie Hadley and Miss Lillian Burt.

MOUNT PLEASANT.

CHOIR REORGANIZED.

W. E. Watson is President and J. W. Jorgensen Leader.

Special Correspondence.

Mt. Pleasant, Sanpete Co., Oct. 4.—The building known as the old block has recently changed hands, the buyers being S. R. Hampshire and Charles Jensen. The consideration was $1,500.

RELIGION CLASS WORK.

Religion classes are just now being organized. Instead of the different departments, the churches are now, before all meet together in the meeting-house for opening exercises and then separate for class work. Much enthusiasm is manifested, and a profitable year is anticipated.

CHOIR REORGANIZED.

Since the division of the wards, the authorities have deemed it advisable to reorganize the choir. This was done last evening, when a good crowd came out to consider the matter. W. E. Watson was chosen president, with J. W. Jorgensen and Ida Johnson assistants; A. L. Larsen, instructor; J. W. Jorgensen, leader; Edna Madson, secretary and treasurer. The desire is to call young members and set as many as possible to take part.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ryland and family have returned after spending the summer in Pueblo and Denver, Colo.

The special train service given to accommodate conference visitors is much appreciated. Many are making use of the opportunity.

A missionary party in honor of Elder William Burton, who leaves for a mission to the Southern States Monday next, will be given at the Pavilion Saturday evening.

HYRUM.

STAKE CONFERENCE.

Mrs. Anna Rogers Suffering From Distressing Accident.

Special Correspondence.

Hyrum, Cache Co., Oct. 1.—The quarterly conference of this stake was held Sept. 29 and 30. At the Sunday meetings the tabernacle was crowded to its full capacity, and many had to be content with standing outside at window and door openings. Presidents William Hudge of the Logan temple, and Charles Hart of the council of seventy and Elder C. Thoresen of Cache stake were present.

The reports given by the bishops of the various wards and other officers, were of a very encouraging nature, and the remarks by the visiting elders and others were instructive and beneficial.

Another very pleasant feature of the conference was the singing of the Third ward choir under the leadership of A. Savage.

The conference of the Improvement associations was held on Monday evening, when an interesting program was rendered.

DISTRESSING ACCIDENT.

Mrs. Anna Rogers, while engaged at some outside work a few days ago, was seized with a fainting spell and in her fall her left foot was twisted out of the ankle socket. She is suffering a great deal and although under skillful treatment, the lady will be unable to move around for a long time.

SCHOOLS CROWDED.

The eight district schools that started two weeks ago are filling up very fast, and the school board is making arrangements for the opening of another school.

While some wheat was damaged with rust on account of the heavy rain, the school board is making arrangements for the opening of another school.

Beet digging is booming, and teams loaded with grain and alfalfa are busy even during the night, taking advantage of the beautiful moonlight nights.

BRIGHAM.

MISSIONARY ROMANCE.

And Other Weddings—Brigham Makes Record Peach Shipments.

Special Correspondence.

Brigham City, Boxelder Co., Oct. 3.—For two weeks the district court has been occupied in hearing the sensational Woodland shooting case and the end is not yet. The following eight "good men" were tried for the jury in the case: Peter A. Nebeker, Peter Lowe, David Holmgren, Mark Simonsen, Levi P. Campbell, N. J. Nelson, James E. Olsen and Lorenzo Jeppson.

The opening of the duck hunting season, Oct. 1, found many hunters at the Duckwater hotels and they report that they have never found shooting better. Each hunter has a list of names of ducks that he has shot just the number of fowls that the law allows. The $2,000 gasoline launch belonging to the Bear River Duck club was destroyed by fire Tuesday, caused by the explosion of the gasoline tank, just as the launch was leaving the boat house, about 300 ducks were roasted in it. The boat was insured for $2,000, so the loss will not be so heavy.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Republican county convention will be held in this city Saturday, Oct. 13, for the purpose of nominating candidates for county officers. The Democratic convention will be held at the county house Monday, Oct. 15. The Republicans will hold their primaries in the different wards Oct. 8, while the Democrats will meet for that purpose on the 15th.

KICKED BY A HORSE.

Leland, the son of Hon. H. S. Larsen, was kicked by a horse last week, displacing his leg. From last report he is improving slowly.

LARGE SHIPMENTS OF PEACHES.

Their office from their warehouse building at the depot to the Union block on Main street. This firm alone has sent out 25 full car loads of peaches this season. Besides the large shipments by express in case lots, more than 100 straight cars of peaches have been sent from Brigham City this season.

FOR THE MISSION FIELD.

Clarence E. Horsley will leave for a mission to Great Britain Oct. 17. He is the sixth missionary sent out from the firm of Wm. Horsley & Sons during the last few years. William Horsley, the senior member of the firm, has filled two missions to Great Britain. The firm is a popular one.

MISSIONARY ROMANCE.

Adolph Madison Reeder received a letter from Box "B" about 10 days ago, asking him to be ready to leave for Great Britain Oct. 17. He hardly knew how to answer or what to do, could not see how it was possible to get ready on so short a notice, and if he went, his "best girl" might go with him. He took the letter to the girl of his choice, Miss Ada Mathias, for her to decide and Ada, who is a very nice girl, was equal to the occasion. "Why not get married at once?" The problem was solved then and there and the happy couple are now on their way to the Salt Lake temple last Wednesday Oct. 3, and Dolph will be ready to leave for England Oct. 17.

WEDDED IN THE TEMPLE.

The following young people were also joined in the holy bonds of matrimony in the Salt Lake temple during the week.

Elias Jensen and Miss Edith Hansen. Leslie Hadley and Miss Lillian Burt.

MOUNT PLEASANT.

CHOIR REORGANIZED.

W. E. Watson is President and J. W. Jorgensen Leader.

Special Correspondence.

Mt. Pleasant, Sanpete Co., Oct. 4.—The building known as the old block has recently changed hands, the buyers being S. R. Hampshire and Charles Jensen. The consideration was $1,500.

RELIGION CLASS WORK.

Religion classes are just now being organized. Instead of the different departments, the churches are now, before all meet together in the meeting-house for opening exercises and then separate for class work. Much enthusiasm is manifested, and a profitable year is anticipated.

CHOIR REORGANIZED.

Since the division of the wards, the authorities have deemed it advisable to reorganize the choir. This was done last evening, when a good crowd came out to consider the matter. W. E. Watson was chosen president, with J. W. Jorgensen and Ida Johnson assistants; A. L. Larsen, instructor; J. W. Jorgensen, leader; Edna Madson, secretary and treasurer. The desire is to call young members and set as many as possible to take part.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ryland and family have returned after spending the summer in Pueblo and Denver, Colo.

The special train service given to accommodate conference visitors is much appreciated. Many are making use of the opportunity.

A missionary party in honor of Elder William Burton, who leaves for a mission to the Southern States Monday next, will be given at the Pavilion Saturday evening.

HYRUM.

STAKE CONFERENCE.

Mrs. Anna Rogers Suffering From Distressing Accident.

Special Correspondence.

Hyrum, Cache Co., Oct. 1.—The quarterly conference of this stake was held Sept. 29 and 30. At the Sunday meetings the tabernacle was crowded to its full capacity, and many had to be content with standing outside at window and door openings. Presidents William Hudge of the Logan temple, and Charles Hart of the council of seventy and Elder C. Thoresen of Cache stake were present.

The reports given by the bishops of the various wards and other officers, were of a very encouraging nature, and the remarks by the visiting elders and others were instructive and beneficial.

Another very pleasant feature of the conference was the singing of the Third ward choir under the leadership of A. Savage.

The conference of the Improvement associations was held on Monday evening, when an interesting program was rendered.

DISTRESSING ACCIDENT.

Mrs. Anna Rogers, while engaged at some outside work a few days ago, was seized with a fainting spell and in her fall her left foot was twisted out of the ankle socket. She is suffering a great deal and although under skillful treatment, the lady will be unable to move around for a long time.

SCHOOLS CROWDED.

The eight district schools that started two weeks ago are filling up very fast, and the school board is making arrangements for the opening of another school.

While some wheat was damaged with rust on account of the heavy rain, the school board is making arrangements for the opening of another school.

Beet digging is booming, and teams loaded with grain and alfalfa are busy even during the night, taking advantage of the beautiful moonlight nights.

BRIGHAM.

MISSIONARY ROMANCE.

And Other Weddings—Brigham Makes Record Peach Shipments.