Congregational Council to be Held.

NEW YORK, 31.—Thos. G. Shearman, on behalf of Plymouth church, and Joshua Van Cott, on behalf of Mrs. Emma C. Moulton, held a conference this morning, and came to an amicable agreement with regard to the letter missive calling a mutual council to decide on the questions submitted by Mrs. Moulton. Shearman stated that the letter was very short, and was merely an invitation to the church to meet and decide upon the following questions, presented by Mrs. Moulton for the church's consideration—"The action of the church in dropping me from its membership as it did; are its reasons for this valid and sufficient? My abstaining so long from the services and sacraments of the church while I did not wish to withdraw from its membership, and were my reasons for this valid and sufficient?" It was agreed that ten churches and five ministers shall be called on each side; and that the council shall convene on Tuesday, January 18th, 1876.

Bank Taxation.

The bank committee on municipal taxation have recommended that the banks henceforth decline voluntary payment of the taxes assessed upon the holders of their shares, and leave the same to be collected under the operation of existing laws; the clearing house has ratified the action.

Removed from Office.

Police Commissioners Matsell and Disbecker were removed from office this afternoon by Mayor Wickham, and Messrs. Dewitt C. Wheeler and Joel B. Erhart appointed commissioners in their places.

No Truth in the Charges.

WASHINGTON, 31.—Senator Spencer says there is no truth in the charges made against him by the Alabama legislative committee.

Liquor Establishment Seized—Arrests.

CHICAGO, 31.—Revenue Agent Brown and Deputy Collector Springer, acting under the orders of Revenue Supervisor Mathews, to-day, seized the distillery of the Illinois Distillery Company, formerly known as the Northwestern Distillery Company, and the largest house of the kind now running, its full capacity being 2,600 bushels per day; it is owned and run by Edward F. Lawrence, James F. Ballentine and John Robinson. There were on hand 2,000 barrels of liquor at the time of the seizure, and a hasty inventory showed the worth of the distillery to be about $120,000.

A. Chesing, leader of the opposition party and candidate for county treasurer at the last election, and manager of the Staats Zeiung, was arrested by the U. S. marshal this afternoon, and taken before a U. S. commissioner, on a charge of conspiracy to defraud the revenue, in connection with the whiskey ring; he gave bail in the sum of $50,000 to appear before the U. S. court when wanted. Ex-police superintendent Rehm was also arrested, and gave bail in the same amount. B. H. Miller, the retiring county treasurer, and Jacob Minty, former deputy collector, were likewise arrested, and gave bonds in the sum of $20,000. The general allegation is conspiracy to defraud the revenue laws, and a violation of the same.

WESTERN.

Yield of Gold and Silver in 1875.

SAN FRANCISCO, 31.—J. J. Valentine, general superintendent of Wells, Fargo & Co., publishes the annual statement of the production of the precious metals in the states and territories west of the Missouri River, including British Columbia and the west coast of Mexico during 1875, which shows an aggregate yield of $80,889,037, being an excess of 6,487,982 over 1874, and the greatest previous annual yield in the history of the coast. Nevada, Colorado, Mexico, Oregon, British Columbia, Montana and Arizona have increased; California, Idaho, Utah and Washington have decreased. The increase is actual except for Mexico, Oregon and Arizona, where it is apparent rather than real as compared with other years, the regular product accounted for and reported having been hitherto omitted. The decrease in California is in the main occasioned by the stinted supply of water for placer and hydraulic mining. Present prospects indicate an aggregate yield of $90,000,000 for 1876, of which Nevada will doubtless produce $50,000,000.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Still Investigating.

LONDON, 31.—The London Times has the following:

"A detective from Bremen has arrived in Liverpool, to investigate the operations of Thomassen, alias Thomas, with a view to discovering whether the man had any accomplices. It has been ascertained that Thomassen had made several trips between Liverpool and New York, and he once attempted to obtain a heavy insurance on goods which he wished to ship, and the suspicion has been raised that he might have been privy to the loss of the steamer City of Boston, in January, 1870. Thomassen and wife left New York in the June following that disaster, and went to Dresden, where they lived in a stylish manner. A short time before his death Thomassen was asked if he knew the Boston, and he promptly replied, 'Yes, she was an Inman steamer, I knew her very well.' The Messrs. Inman have no trace of Thomassen or Thomas on their book at Liverpool, but the most careful inquiries will forthwith be made at New York into the Boston's list of passengers and cargo, and the insurances on the latter. Last October Thomassen engaged a passage in the steamer Celtic, and at that time he made several attempts to insure a box, which he alleged contained $30,000 in gold, and was each time balked by the demand for inspection; but he sailed October 14th, and returned, landing at Plymouth November 7th. The voyage is therefore presumed to have been wasted, having been made only to quiet suspicion. Thomassen's movements in Liverpool were mysterious; although he informed the passage brokers that he was an entire stranger, he took his meals and slept from his hotel most of the time he was in the city. He was seen in company with another person at Waterloo dock after he had visited and inspected the Celtic, and the police believe that he had accomplices in Liverpool, who may still possess his appliances."

Disaster at Sea—The New Fugitive Slave Circular.

The British steamer Dante, from Liverpool for Bombay, while going down St. George's Channel to-day, came in collision with the Grosvenor; the steamer sank shortly after the collision and thirty persons were drowned.

The new fugitive slave circular, issued by the British Admiralty, causes almost as much dissatisfaction as the first one. The Anti-Slavery Society and the Birmingham Liberal Association have protested against it; the latter stigmatizes the circular as opposed to human freedom and to English feeling, and as disgraceful to the nation.
