LAID IN THE GRAVE.

Last Rites Over the Remains of the Late Moses Kirkpatrick.

MEMORIAL RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED and Ordered Spread Upon the Court Record—Testimony of the Deceased's Worthiness.

At 10 o'clock this morning, the Third district court was opened, Chief Justice Merrill on the bench. The report of the committee on resolutions of respect to the memory of the late Moses Kirkpatrick was called for. It was presented by Wm. H. Dickson, who asked that it be spread upon the minutes of the court as a perpetual memorial of the deceased, and that a certified copy be furnished to the bereaved family. The resolutions are as follows:

Whereas, Death has taken from us our friend and brother, Moses Kirkpatrick, a member of the bar of this and the Supreme Court of Utah, and whereas the memory of such we have held dear as we do that of all who were associated with us in the bar, and character, therefore, we, the members of the bar of said court, as a mark of respect for that purpose, have as a committee called for that purpose, here as a matter of sad love and esteem for him, adopted the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we deeply lost intellectual worth whereby he was enabled to the exalted purity of character, the exalting integrity and kindliness of Moses Kirkpatrick.

To all who shall strive for purity of mind and heart, he was a friend and brother.

To one who in the duties of competition, was to maintain a character for integrity, he was a great example.

To all those who wish to attain to that high self-respect which in the conflicts of opinion and debate maintains a kind and unmerited consideration for opponents, his character is the very highest block of emulation.

To every cause which he espoused he brought the inestimable advantages of learning, eloquence and courage. His was not easily moved by success or depressed by adversity.

He was totally charitable in his judgment of his fellowmen.

Into his daily life he carried, as few men ever could, the true spirit of the commandment "Do unto others as you would they should do unto you."

Through all the trials and relations of this life, he was always the same, unchanging friend, kindly, manly man.

Resolved, That we extend to the members of his family and relatives our sympathy and condolence in their great bereavement. The sorrow is not theirs alone, it is a common grief.

Resolved, That the supreme Court of this Territory be moved to spread these resolutions upon its minutes, and that a copy thereof be given to Mrs. Ellen S. Kirkpatrick, the widow of our deceased brother.

W. H. DICKSON,
CHARLES S. ZANE,
C. W. BENNETT,
WM. C. HALL,
JAMES DUNCAN.

Judge Merrill ordered the resolutions spread on the court records, and directed that they be made as requested. The court then adjourned till tomorrow as a mark of respect to the deceased.

THE FUNERAL.

The funeral services over the remains of Mr. Kirkpatrick were held at the residence of Mr. John A. Marshall at 12 m. today. They were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Bagley of the Episcopal cathedral, and were very simple and impressive. The attendance was quite large, the members of the bar being there in great number. The house was furnished by a select quartet and was very impressive and appropriate. At the close of the services those present were given an opportunity to view the remains, and many were they who took a last look at the departed. The floral offerings were profuse, the casket being literally heaped with flowers. The remains were interred in Mount Olivet cemetery.

TO THE YELLOWSTONE

With a Flattering Outlook of Increasing, Prosperous Rigby.

RIGBY, Bingham Co., Idaho,
July 8, 1895.

Editor Deseret News:

A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Omer Call, Miss Maggie and Master Waldemar Call of Williard, Utah, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. D. Call and son of Nephi, Utah, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Call and son of Rigby, Idaho, left this latter named place July 10 for Yellowstone park, where they expect to spend the next few weeks in viewing the wonders to be found there. All except Mr. and Mrs. Albert Call left Williard, Utah, June 28. After a pleasant journey through Box Elder and Cache counties, Utah, and southern Idaho—a distance of 200 miles—they arrived at Rigby July 1st; found the people engaging excellent health, and although, it [illegible] had been a year, the damage [illegible] had been as [illegible] as elsewhere. The present indications point to a good harvest.

The people are moving from their homes on the farms and are building on the townsite. Rigby will soon be a thriving little city. Water is plentiful, and through the numerous canals, thousands of acres of land are being brought under cultivation. The Great Southern, or Utah & Northern Idaho—a distance of 200 miles—has arrived at Rigby July 1st; found the people engaging excellent health, and although, it [illegible] had been a year, the damage [illegible] had been as [illegible] as elsewhere. The present indications point to a good harvest.

Great credit is due to the people for their energy and efforts in building up the country. From a barren waste they have made beautiful farms and pleasant homes. To those who intend seeking other places I should say that of the country offer many advantages and promises in the near future to be one of the finest valleys in the west.

Respectfully, A VISITOR.

Are The Dogs Starving?

This is a question that somebody in Davis county should answer with respect to the kennel kept by Mr. Kilroy between the Hot Springs and Bountiful. There are there a number of valuable dogs which are said to be starving. [illegible] Investigation will take [illegible] to ascertain if [illegible] is a fact.
