

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

WANT INFORMATION.—A penny-a-line, who formerly bummed around Colorado doing odd jobs as he could get a chance on newspapers, has at last succeeded in getting his lucubrations admitted to the columns of the Chicago Tribune as correspondent from Utah. The readers of the Tribune and the people of Utah have much to bear with him for the same cause—he married the relative of a prominent officer in the Government! Chicago and Utah have common grounds of sympathy—the one in seeing his correspondence, the other in enduring his presence—until his patron's term of office expires, when it is altogether probable, he will descend to his original insignificance. Not having such a chance before as he has now, he is determined to make the most of it. He contrives to advertise himself in his letters to the best advantage. Probably this is the consideration for which he writes. His letters appear over a nom de plume; but he never misses a chance to drag in his own name. In his last communication he writes the style. He inserts his wife's name! His vanity, however, will not permit him to forego the pleasure of informing the public that he is the lady's husband! It would be terrible, you know, if it should be thought that the lady referred to was the wife of another person of the same name. He evidently has an eye to the future. His present job will not last long and he wants to let the public know a man by his name lives and holds office in Utah.

In his last communication he asks for information. The language he uses to do so is luminous, very, in fact, brilliant. Genius crops out in every word. He feels that he is giving the case of which he writes (the recent abatement of a liquor establishment) a clincher, and there is exultation and triumph in his tone.

Let the Mormons produce," says he, "even in their own barbarous laws, made and administered to crush out Gentiles, authorization for this wholesale destruction of liquor, if they can?"

The words "barbarous laws" and "crush out Gentiles," as used above, are very telling. We admire them. Will not some person let him see the law which he is so eager to have produced?

IN TOWN.—Dr. Winslow, the physician from San Francisco, who has been laboring among the Pueblo Indians, near Santa Fe, New Mexico, for some years, called upon us. He has obtained leave of absence for the purpose of visiting Ireland. He does not forego the pleasure of visiting the city, having heard it described by Father Kelly, who formerly labored here.

Studebaker Bros. are extensive manufacturers of carriages and wagons in Indiana. They have a branch of their business at St. Joseph, Missouri. Mr. P. E. Studebaker, Secretary of the company, is in town, having called on his way to California, to make arrangements for the further introduction of their wagons into this country. Mr. S. is aware of the necessity of introducing wagons made of different timbers, and he says the company will not risk its character on anything but good work. He will do business through H. B. Clawson, Esq., Superintendent of Zion's Co-operative Mercantile Institution.

THE American Builder and Journal of Art, for September has reached us, and contains, as usual, a fine series of articles, and several elegant illustrations. This journal is a credit to its publishers and to the city where it is issued—Chicago.

OMAHA CAMP MEETING.—There were about two thousand persons at the Methodist Camp Meeting near Omaha, on Sunday last. So far as the Omaha Herald could learn, up to Tuesday morning, the day on which the meeting was to close, but two conversions had been effected.

"THE WESTERN MONTHLY."—We have received No. 21, the September number, of the Western Monthly, from the publishers, in Chicago. In matter and style it certainly does not degenerate, but we think improves, and the palm of magazineedom in this country is no longer to be possessed, uncontested, by the great Eastern Cities; this one, published in Chicago, bids fair to rank, very soon, as the peer of its older contemporaries, published in New York and elsewhere in the East. It contains a steel engraving of Jerome I. Case, one of the pioneers and city-founders of the Western country, and this is an interesting feature of this magazine, a series of articles on the settlement of the West, with portraits of leading Western men, having appeared. The literary matter of the present number is varied and interesting. The publishers announce that an enlargement of the Western Monthly will take place in the October number, and that the subscription price will be raised to four dollars per annum. The address of the publishing company is Tribune buildings Chicago.

REVOLUTION IN MEDICINE!

THERE is no disease but Walker's Vinegar Bitters will cure. Their great success in healing all ailments is proving to the world that Doctors are the greatest humbugs of the age. Mr. Walker challenges the medical fraternity to show him a disease for which his BITTERS are not a cure, and if it can be done he stands ready to donate FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS to any benevolent Institution in the United States to be named by the person who will prove that the above assertion is not true.
