

CROWDS THROUGH VARIOUS RESORTS

rough Nearly a Month Was Clipped Off Summer, no Loss Will be Sustained.

EACH DAY A RECORD-BREAKER

Pioneer Sunday Schools Had Big Time At Wandamere—Bannockburn Victory Celebrated at Two Resorts.

The thronging of the various resorts goes on apace. At most of them each day's attendance is almost, if not quite a record breaker. When the final balances are struck at the season's close, it will doubtless be found that no loss was sustained by the respective resort managements by reason of the fact that nearly a month's business was lost in the beginning.

Pioneer Stake at Wandamere.—Yesterday the Sunday schools of Pioneer stake had their outing at Wandamere.
There was a very large turnout of old and young, and a happy day was spent by all. So successful was the undertaking, that those in charge determined that in future the wards will join rather than conduct separate excursions. The main feature of the day was a boat race indulged in by bishops and high councilors, the latter winning. Other events, with names of winners, were as follows: Twenty-five yard race for three-year-old girls, Vera Coon; 25-yard race for five-year-old girls, Verna Coon; 25-yard race for seven-year-old girls, Luen Coon; 25-yard race for eight-year-old girls, Lena Burbridge; 25-yard race for ten-year-old girls, Edna Coon; 25-yard race for 12-year-old girls, Maud Coon; 25-yard race for 14-year-old girls, Martha Brown; 50-yard race for girls over 15, Margaret Reed; first, Mrs. Lilly; second, Cup and saucer race for girls over 16, Ruby Reed; Boys' 25-yard race for three-year-olds, Milton Reed; eight-year-old boys, Louis Varney; 10-year-old boys, W. W. Barclay; 12-year-old boys, Ernest Bowers; 50-yard for 14-year-old boys, Frank Coon; one-half mile handicap, Roy Heath, first; Bert Reed, second; Men's 75-yard race, Collins Bowers.

Thistle Club at Wandamere.—The anniversary of Bannockburn is today being celebrated again, this time at Wandamere. The party participated in by the Caledonian and Thistle clubs. A ball game between picked nines from the two organizations is the feature of the day, there being many other interesting games, to conclude with a ball this evening.

The race for heads of departments, scheduled to be run on Tuesday, was not pulled off. The prize offered was a pair of shoes, given by Z. C. M. I., and yesterday a drawing was made for the coveted trophy, and Walter J. Lewis, manager of the book store, won the shoes.

Christian Union at Wandamere.— The Young People's Christian Union will hold a picnic at Wandamere on Friday next.

Real Estate Men at Saltair.—Committees representing the Salt Lake Real Estate association are busy at work arranging for the annual outing of that organization at Saltair, which will take place on July 11. Already many cash and other prizes have been donated by merchants and business men, and the list is growing daily. Among the contributions is a fine evening gown, the gift of the Walker Bros. Dry Goods company, from Paris and designed by Driscoll.

Scots at Lagoon.—The victory achieved by the Scottish clans, led by Robert Bruce, at Bannockburn, literally Bannockburn creek, was celebrated by several thousand Scotchmen yesterday at Lagoon. The gathering was under the auspices of the Thistle club of this city, but many people were present from Weber and Davis counties. The sons of Wales joined in the outing.
This action of the Welshmen was due to the fact that Welsh soldiers deserted from the English ranks and fought on the other side, convinced that the Scots were engaged in a righteous cause.

A fine program was carried out at Lagoon, consisting of bagpipe and other instrumental music, with dancing and songs. The contests, with names of winners, follow:
Boys' race, 50 yards—First, Lynn McBeth; second, William Nisbet.
Young men's race, 50 yards—First, Alexander Adamson; second, D. J.
Campbell.
Young ladies' race—First, Allie Mc-Donald; second, Lizzie Galt.
Half-mile race—First, A. J.
Churchill; second, Archie Nisbet.
Sack race—First, C. Jones; second, J. Eccles; third, D. Lee.
Married women's race—First, Mrs.
D. Campbell; second, H. Nation.
Three-legged race—First, Messrs.
Searl and Jones; second, Messrs. Merrill and McBeth.
Race for men over 50 years, 50 yards —First, Dr. Hill; second, Dr. Hill.
Young ladies' race—First, Olive Williams; second, Susie Campbell; third, Gussie Peterson.

Old Folks at Lagoon.—The old folks' committee is putting forth strenuous efforts to make the outing of next Tuesday at Lagoon the banner one in the history of such gatherings. It is expected that more than 2,000 persons over the age of 70 years will be in attendance, and the veterans will be taken care of in a most befitting manner. The program, with bill of fare, schedule of trains, etc., appeared in the "News" yesterday. In addition to the announcements therein made, attention is drawn to the following list of prizes that will be offered on the occasion: To the oldest pioneer present, $5; to the oldest lady present, $5 each to the pioneers present who came in the first company, July 24, 1847; arm chairs, dresses, patterns, and other gifts of the Salt Lake merchants, will be handed over to the bishops of the Davis stake to be given to aged people unable to attend the grand assembly on account of sickness.

Newspapermen at Lagoon.—Dainty invitations have been sent out to the newspapermen of the city to attend an informal little outing at Lagoon on Sunday, June 23, the guests of Messrs.
Simon Bamberger, Jacob Bergerman and Joseph Bander. The entertainment will consist of a ride and a lunch, and will be a strictly "free" affair, the intention being to afford a little relaxation to the men who write the papers, without interfering with their regular work.

costumes, and they walked, too, with disciplined step.
The Salt Lake Eagles won the baseball game, with a score of 8 to 0; Ringham was the other contestant.
There were games and sports of various kinds, including bicycle races, under the shade of the big trees, and under the parade, and before retiring to the Salt Palace, visiting Eagles were tendered a banquet at Eagles' hall.

A man who is in perfect health, so he can do an honest day's work when necessary, has much for which he should be grateful. Mr. L. C. Rodgers, of Branch-ton, Mo., writes that he was not only unable to work, but he couldn't stoop over to tie his own shoes. Six bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure made a new man of him. He says, "Success to Foley's Kidney Cure." For sale by F. J. Hill Drug Co.,

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

The wedding of Miss Evelyn Daly and Edward Jacob Roberts last night was among the most elaborate that have taken place here. The daily home on east South Temple street was the scene of the event, the grounds, porch and interior being brilliantly illumined and adorned for the occasion. The hall was entirely done in palms and smilax, wreaths of the green twining the staircase, and flowers in pink and white being all about. Pink and white very old in the library and dining room, the latter being a picture with its table covered with Duchesse lace and centerpieces of roses, and roses and marigolds banking the sideboard and mantels. American Beauty roses were used in the breakfast room, where punch was served from a table spread with Chiny lace; and in the drawing room, where the ceremony was performed, green and white were used, a canopy of smilax, white roses and corymbes, with a huge bell of the flowers forming a bow for the bride's party.
They entered to the strains of the Lohengrin "Chorus," two little ribbon bearers, Maurice Daly and Gertrude Edwards first, then two little flower girls, Evelyn Brown and Gertrude baskets of pink and white sweet peas, next the bridesmaids, Miss Merce Edwards and Miss Mildred McMillan, followed by the maid of honor, Miss Eudora Daly, then the matron of honor, Mrs. Roy Brown preceding the bride, who entered on the arm of her father.
Her gown was an exquisite creation of Duchesse lace with trimmings of rose point; her veil was of Brussels net and princess lace, and fell to the length of her gown, her bouquet was of brides roses tied with white ribbon. She wore also a cluster pin of diamonds and rubies.
Mrs. Brown wore a gown of white satin with lace trimmings, Miss Daly was in Duchesse lace over white tulle, the bridesmaids were in white silk with trimmings of pink embroidered rosebuds and the little flower girls were also in pink and white. Assisting in receiving were Mr. and Mrs.
Daly, Mr. and Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Brig, Cannon, Misses Lorene Leary, Beatrice Cheeseman, Elizabeth McIntyre, Lella Stingley and Bess McMillan. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts left in a late train for a short trip to the coast and will return to go to Wonder, Nev., to reside.

Another of yesterday's weddings was that of Miss Lida Hauxhurst and Raymond J. Winegar, the ceremony being performed at the home of the bride's parents, with Rev. Herbert Hays officiating and a large reception following.
Roses, sweet peas and corymbes were everywhere, the parlor being especially prettily decorated. The bride wore a white embroidered muslin and carried bride's roses. She had no attendants.
Assisting during the evening were Mrs.
Winegar, the groom's mother, and Mr.
and Mrs. E. Keeler, Mrs. McClellan, Mrs. Byron Cummings, Mrs. E. O.
Leatherwood, Miss Isabel Duncan, Miss Eva Thomas, Miss Ida Hartley, Miss Emma Laidlaw, Miss Magha Maclean and Miss Eva Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Winegar will spend a month in Idaho and will return to make their home here.

Miss Vernice Burton and Edward Hatch were married yesterday, the ceremony being performed at the home of the bride's parents, with Rev. Herbert Hays officiating and a large reception following in the evening for the relatives and friends. The rooms were brightly decorated with flowers and a number of intimate friends assisted in entertaining. Mr. and Mrs. Hatch will make their home in Heber City.

Today Miss Mamie Lovell and Joseph Wells will be married, the affair to be a very quiet one.

Mrs. William McCaskill gives a luncheon today at the Alta club.

Miss Valentine Murphy was guest of honor at a pretty luncheon yesterday given by Miss Claire Elmerick at her home, and a pleasant party was given by Miss Mary Mayne, the decorations being in white roses and ferns and about a dozen guests being present.

LIKE OPIUM EATERS

Coffee Drinkers Become Slaves.
"The experience, suffering and slavery of some coffee drinkers would be almost as interesting as the famous "Confessions of an Opium Eater," says a Boston man.

"For twenty years I used coffee at the breakfast table and incidentally, throughout the day. I craved it as a whiskey drinker craves for his morning bracer. I knew perfectly well that it was slowly killing me, but I could not relinquish it.
The effect on the nervous system was finally alarming and my general health greatly impaired. I had dyspepsia, serious heart difficulty, and insomnia. When I went to bed, I would find myself in a state of utter exhaustion. I would assuredly be due to the action of caffeine (which is the active principle of coffee) on the heart.
I persisted in its use, however, and suffered along just as drunkards do.
One day when I was feeling unusually depressed, a friend whom I met, looked me over and said: 'Look here, old man, I believe I know exactly what's the matter with you. You are a coffee fiend and it's killing you.
I want to tell you my experience. I found a blessed relief and freedom affected by heart, and made me a sallow, bilious old man, but through a friend who had been similarly afflicted I found a blessed relief and freedom told you about it. Try Postum Food Coffee, a grateful, delicious beverage, full of nourishment, that will satisfy your taste for coffee and feed your nervous system back to health, rather than tear it down as coffee has been doing.
I took my friend's advice, and within a week from that time, my digestion seemed perfect, I slept a sweet, refreshing sleep all night, and my heart quit its quivering and jumping.
I have been steadily gaining in health and vitality right along.' 'There's a reason.'"

OMAHA BOOSTERS THANK SALT LAKE

Missouri River Business Men Deeply Impressed With Reception Accorded Them.

LETTER TO COMMERCIAL CLUB

Heard "Gang" Sing Yellow Ribbon Song
And Dipped Heels in Great Salt Lake.
All of Which Was Appreciated.

The Omaha boosters who heard the Salt Lake Commercial club "gang" sing their yellow ribbon song, and then dipped their Missouri river heels into the waters of the Great Salt Lake, are deeply impressed with the city, and have written to the Commercial club to tell them all about it.

The letter is deeply appreciative of all that was done to entertain the visitors, and it will be filed as a memento of how good Salt Lake can be when she really takes in hand. It follows:

Commercial Club of Salt Lake City, Salt Lake City, Utah:
Gentlemen.—On account of the size and importance of the Salt Lake City were somewhat in doubt as to what kind of a reception we might receive there, but after the experience enjoyed at your hands Saturday afternoon and Sunday we are free to say that no more cordial reception or treatment has been received by us anywhere on this great trip.
The ceremony which was so important to us was performed in a room where the ceremony was performed, and we were pleased to see our governor and party by the attendance of Gov. Cutler and Mayor Thompson. Instead of finding a city wrapped up in itself with no room for visitors from other cities and states, we found your people a most hospitable set; instead of finding ourselves strangers we were taken in more like brothers.
Without exception we all enjoyed the delightful and instructive ride around your city and particularly the organ recital given in our honor. We recognize the compliment paid us and our quartet in allowing them the privilege of rendering a couple of selections in the tabernacle. To be loaded on the cars and shipped out to Saltair was another treat which but very few of us had ever enjoyed. The representation in the water showed clearly how much of a treat a duck in the lake is to Omaha visitors.

The fact is we cannot adequately express our heartfelt appreciation for these many kindnesses and favors. We may never be able to repay you.
Should you people return the call sometime we would be only too glad to do so. In the meantime, however, any of your people visiting or passing through Omaha are cordially invited to visit our club rooms and enjoy the little courtesies that we will be only too glad to extend.

We have had a very successful trip in every way and it has been a most instructive one to us. We have carried out the idea of it and have seen and learned from actual observation the commercial situation throughout the entire territory visited.
Thanking you again for your great kindness, we are,
Very truly yours,
WM. J. YETTER,
Chairman Executive Committee, Commercial Club of Omaha, Neb.
J. H. TAYLOR,
Chairman, Committee in Charge, Great

FUNERAL OF JUDGE REED.

After Services According to Masonic Rite, Interment is Had at Mt. Moriah.

Judge Christopher Reed was laid to rest yesterday afternoon, after services at the Masonic temple, commencing at 4 o'clock. The ritual of the order was carried out, under the auspices of Mt.
Moriah. The body was interred in the columbarium of the Mt. Moriah church, delivered a short address. Many friends and fellow Masons were in attendance, and the dual offerings were numerous. A son and daughter of the deceased, Robert W. and Lila, were the only members of the family present, in fact being the only ones left. The deceased was born in Judge Ritchie, W. J. Barrette, John T. Lynch, W. H. Wilkin, Dr. Thodore Meyers and N. C. Christensen.
Interment was in Mt. Moriah plot, Mt.

FUNERAL LARGELY ATTENDED.

Services Over Late Joseph H. Felt Held in Eleventh Ward.

The funeral services over the remains of Joseph H. Felt, Tuesday afternoon, were very largely attended. The Eleventh ward meetinghouse being crowded to its capacity. A large number of Z. C. M.
I. employees attended in a body, occupying seats by the side of the stand.
The places of the choir were filled by the quorums of the lesser priesthood, over which the deceased had presided for a number of years. The choir sang the choruses of the occasion was by those organizations, and Mrs. Margaret Hull sang "He Knows." The invocation was offered by Elder John M.
Knight, and Patriarch Angus M. Cannon pronounced the benediction.
Bishop Robert Morris presided over the services, and he was also one of the speakers. Others who spoke of the faith and faithfulness of the deceased were Elders Royal B. Young, Alphonse H. Woolley, Hamilton G. Park, Joseph E. Taylor, Seymour B. Young and George F. Richards.

The pallbearers were William H. Felt, and Joseph H. Felt, sons of the deceased, and his brothers John G. Charles B. George F. and Albert Felt. The

FOR SERVICES AS HOUSEKEEPER

Catherine Peterson Seeks to Recover $2,123 From John Carlson.

Suit has been filed in the district court by Catherine Peterson against John Carlson to recover the total sum of $2,123 for services rendered during the past seven years as housekeeper for defendant and also the additional sum of $88 the value of certain furniture which she claims to have purchased and put in the house and which Carlson has appropriated to his own use.
She alleges that her services were well worth $25 per month and she asks judgment for that amount for seven years time.

J. WARREN KEIFER HERE.

Former Speaker of National House Returning From Hawaii.

Hon. J. Warren Keifer of Springfield, Ohio, former congressman from his district and speaker of the house of representatives, was at the Knutsford last evening en route east from a trip to Hawaii. He went to the islands to see if the ports there could be made invulnerable, and is convinced that Pearl harbor can be made the Gibraltar of the Pacific. Mr. Keifer says it is the best deep water harbor that he found anywhere. "It is narrow at the mouth," he said, "but widens out enough to hold the largest fleet in the world. However, the harbor of Honolulu is not so strategic."
Mr. Keifer does not think Taft or Foraker are really in the presidential race. He says when the national convention meets, some unknown candidate will show up and tip over the apple cart of the Ohio statesmen, which will end their chances.

CURED HEMORRHOIDS OF THE LUNGS.

"Several years since my lungs were so badly affected that I had many hem-orrhages," writes A. M. Ake, of Wood, Ind. "I took treatment with several physicians without any benefit, then started to take Foley's Honey and Tar, and my lungs are now as sound as a bell. I recommend it in cases of lung trouble." Foley's Honey and Tar sops the cough and heals the lungs, and prevents serious results from a cold.

WILL RE NO GRAND JURY.

Union Men at Park City Regret Conduct and Agree to Maintain Order.

There will be no grand jury to investigate lawlessness in Park City, as a result of the recent tilt between linemen of the Bell telephone companies and members of the miners' union.

This is because the union officials have put themselves on record as opposed to their action on that night, and ashamed of it. They also give a guarantee that in the future they will maintain order, and that no effort will be made to molest workers for the telephone companies. Most of the miners are men of family, and they did not like the idea of being investigated by a grand jury with a view of proving them to be careless of their obligation to maintain order. They held a conference with the telephone company, in which an understanding has arrived at and pledges made for the future. In consequence of this termination of the difficulty, the district attorney's office has abandoned the movement to demand a grand jury.

ANDERSON LAD RETURNS.

Boy Started for Nevada, Got as Far as Nephi and Came Back.

home on Sunday last, and for whom diligent search was instituted for several days, returned yesterday afternoon. It was not a case of lost or stolen, but one of straying away. The boy's father, Dr. H. A. Anderson, is in Nevada, and it was with an intention of going thither that Pharos started, because west as far as Garfield, then changed his plans and went to the home of his aunt in Nephi.
Learning that the boy had run away, the relatives were not long in hastening his departure homeward, and he arrived here in the afternoon.

WESTERN MARKET LETTER.

Special Correspondence.

Kansas City Stock Yards, June 17.— Supplies of cattle last week were fairly liberal, although reduced from the volume of the week previous. Run today is heavy at 15,000 head, including 6,000 yearlings, the latter mostly grass steers. All grades of fed steers are steady to 10 higher today, best demand being for heavy steers. The medium and common grades of grass steers are selling weak at 15 lower today, but have no bad effect on the market for desirable steers. Cows and heifers closed last week 10 to 25 cents lower, and are shading downwards today. Two many of this class arrived last week, and few are needed this week in view of the present controversy with the packers in regard to the buying subject to inspection. The feature of the range cattle market last week was the sale Saturday of two cows of fed Panhandle steers, one load weighing 1,400 pounds at $3.25, and the other load lighter weight at $3.70.

These steers were raised and fed in Swisher county, Texas, indicating the progress of the transformation of the range in the panhandle country into farms. Top fed steers sold today at $4.50, top yearlings fed steers $6.05, grass steers $3.90 to $4.70, fed heifers up to $5.25, cows $4.65, veal calves $3.75 to $4.50, stockers and Although the supply of she Probate lamb was small last week, prices are clined to 25 cents on sheep prices, because of the glutted condition of the market in the east. High prices, four-caused many consumers to switch diet of cheaper meats. Supply to the is $400 head, and prices are still high their denormalized, good Texas mutton selling at $5.75, spring lambs around $3.00, ewes $3.50, yearlings $7.00, goat $4.35. Arizona sheep and yearlings sold late last week at $6.50, $1 pound.

Prices may react as soon as cooler, are emptied out, although killers have lost all the snap and vigor display-10 days or two weeks ago.
