. . .

The valentine idea has tinged a num ber of festivities this week and the next will be deluged with symbols of the fateful 14th, Cupids, hearts, rings and countless other devices being stored for valentine celebration. One of the largest events of the date will be the juntor promenade at the university, for which appropriate invitations have been issued.

On Thursday night, Mr, and Mrs. Weilington E. Lake entertained at a harge card party, 500 being the amuse-ment. The Lenyon parlors were used, strings of hearts in the two colors ex-tending from the chandeliers to the cor-ways. A pretty device was a canopy of hearts formed by strings of their and under it a table with a spread of graen and white hearts with a cut glass vare of white hearts with a spread of and under it a table with a spread of On Thursday night, Mr. and Mrs. punch.

2.4.5 The committees appointed for the old fashioned ball to be given by the Daughters of Utah Pioneers on the Stat, are actively at work in their re-spective lines, and the event promises to be as decided a success as last year. There will be two bands in attendance for the urner and lower floors, and a few old fashioned features will be intro-duced Mrs. A. W. McCune will spin and eard in the relic room, and other cus-toms of the past will be introduced. The opening march will take place at 7 o'clock. The committees appointed for the old

Valentine's day has been chosen by the Ladjes' Literary club for its an-nual breakfast, which is to be given at the Cullen hotel, and an innovation of this year will be the privilege to members of inviting guests, the entire list, including members, to be limited to 200, Mrs. C. H. Blanchard will be the treastingtress and toasits are to be retoastinistress and toasts are to be re-sponded to by Mrs. William C. Druehl, Mrs. Joel L. Priest, Mrs. W. R. Tyn-dale, Mrs. C. E. Allen, Mrs. Don Co-ray and Mrs. John Reed.

One of the elaborate events of next week will be the ball at Odeon hall to be given by the Utah Association of Fire Underwriters on Lincoln's birth-day. Gov. and Mrs. Cutler will be guests of honor and will lead the march.

One of the social interests of next week is the entertainment for the bene-fit of the free kindergarten at the thea-ter on Monday night, a large number of box and other parties being planned, among the hosts and hostesses being Gov, and Mrs. J. C. Cutler, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Ferry, Mrs. W. Van Cott, Lester Freed, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Odell, and Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Thomp-son, . . .

'Last night the Governor's club gave their second dancing party at Odeon hall and as before the event was a distinct success, the music and all details being delightful and a large num-ber present to enjoy the affair. Among the many features were the decorations which were in the club colors and carried out in brilliant electric lights.

Mrs. C. R. Pearsall will entertain

Temple, Monday evening in honor of their niece. Miss Bessie Bair of Ogden, the Invited guests being Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ershom of Denver, Mr. and Mrs. A. Frewin, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Brunner, Misses Irene Kelley, Elsie Watson, Joele Halsett, Mr. Mark Brown, and Clinord Ashby of the U. of U., Lue Halsett, Torm White, and Harold Cahoon. The time was spent in Instrumental and vocal music, after which dainty refreshments were sorv-ed. The decorations were potted plants and ferns arranged with pretty effect. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Snyder enter-tained a number of friends at their honday evening. Lieut. Farrell of the post entertained at a theater party on Thursday night.

The King's Daughters are planning to give a dinner Feb. 14, in compliment to Mrs. William Iglehart and Mrs.

after a month spent with relatives in Nebraska. partors being decorated in American Beauties and the dining room in dat-foduls. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilding have returned from their custern trip.

Mrs. J. G. Guthrie was one of Tues-day's hostesses her function being a luncheon and covers laid for about a dogen. The guests were Mrs. T. J. Nip-per, Mrs. E. E. Shepard, Mrs. Leary Monigomery, Mrs. J. I. White, Mrs. C. G. Goss, Mrs. A. Thompson, Mrs. W. L. Wetherbee, Mrs. C. J. Scott, Mrs. H. C. Adams and Mrs. Fred B. Jones were the guests.

Mrs. James Wells of Helena is vis-iting with her mother and sisters at the Sadler home on Eleventh East street.

Mrs. Helen Kimball has returned Airs. Heien Kimbali has returned from Berlin, where she accompanied Miss Rita Jackman and Miss Jean Hay-wood a few months ago. Mrs. Kimbali will remain until May, when she will again join Miss Jackman and Miss Haywood in Berlin.

Mrs. Winnifred S. Walker is at the Keith apartments, where she will be at home for the rest of the winter.

Mrs. Walter G. Tuitle left Tuesday for southern California, where with her parents, Colonel and Mrs. L. K. Bishop of Grand Rapids, she will spend some time.

Mrs. William Igleheart returned Wednesday evening after a trip of sev-eral months abroad. Mr. Igleheart re-turned the first of the week from California. California.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Strickland are at home, 116 south Fourth East street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Howard will soon be at home to their friends at their new residence on Brigham street.

Mrs. Irving Rendle has returned to her home in Rawlins. Wyo, after a pleasant visit at the Savage residence

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Clark and daugh-ters, Florence and Ada, will leave to-day for southern California, where they will spend two months. Mr. Clark's mother, Mrs. A. R. Clark of Denver, will accompany them.

Mrs. W. W. Rivers will leave to-day for Los Angeles and San Diego. She will be away about a month, re-turning by way of San Francisco.

Mrs. A. E. Hyde, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Rollin W. Dole, of Huntington Beach. Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wood and Mrs. E. Bonnemort left Thursday evening E. Bonnemort left Thur for a trip to California.

Mrs. Jennie Bothwell will leave to-

Be careful of your hands!

Yellow soaps will Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Kiser will leave for a tip to southern California the latter part of the month. make them red and coarse and hard; a source of never-ending annoyance and humiliation.

> Ivory Soap adds to their beauty; keeps them soft and sweet and dainty.

And so, we offer this suggestion: Use Ivory Soap for even so commonplace a purpose as washing dishes. It pays.

Ivory Soap 99 44 100 Per Cent. Pure.

Europe. Mr. Farnsworth met them in New York, where they spent a few days. . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Newell left Mon-lay for a three months' stay at Los Angeles. . . .

Miss Ella Steel of Portland, Or., is here for an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. Downing.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Nowbridge are guests at Hotel Del Coronado. They are accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Nowbridge of Goldfield, Nevada.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hale, who have been spending some time with their daughter, Mrs. Thomas B. Hunter, In Monterey, Cal., returned home Mon-day. # # #

W. P. Noble, with his daughters, Mrs. L. C. Robinson and Miss Mayme No-ble, have gone to southern California for the remainder of the winter.

*

Dr. and Mrs. Warren Benjamin are

Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Warner , and their daughter Miss Florence spent Sunday in American Fork, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Ting.

Sunday in Allerthan et al. of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Ting. Misses Allie Smoot and Vin Soren-son were in Salt Lake on Friday. The Utah Sorosis met Saturday af-ternoon at the home of Mrs. Phil Speckart. The sentiment for the day was "Better to wear out than to rust out." Sketches on the following arti-cles were made by the different mem-bers of the club: Lead pencils, match-es, toothpicks, nails, glass, china, lea-ther, and rope. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

A large number of friends pleasantly surprised Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Vincent Jr., at their home Tuesday evening. The evening was delightfully passed in various games, music and social chat. Refreshments were served.

Mrs, Edward T. Harding left the lat-ter part of the week for a visit with friends in California.

The character ball given Friday evening at the Sixth Ward Social hall, was in every way a grand success. Many excellent characters were rep-resented and well carried out.

Mayor and Mrs. C. F. Decker delight-fully entertained about 50 of their friends at their home Thursday even-ing. Sixty-three was the feature of the evening. An elaborate lunch was

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Slater, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Twelves and Mayor and Mrs. C. F. Decker left Saturday for California, and will visit mainly in Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Miss Dora Holdaway was hostess at Miss Dora Holdaway was hostess at an evening social given at the home of her mother, Mrs. Lille Holdaway Mon-day evening. Making candy, games and a good time in general were en-joyed by all. A dainty lunch was served and the guests were mainly the class-mates of Miss Holdaway.

The fiftieth birth anniversary of Mrs. McCullough was fittingly celebrated at her home Wednesday evening. About 40 rriends responded to the invitation and made merry the occasion. Games, cards and music all tended to make a most enjoyable evening.

About 20 friends pleasantly surprised Mrs. Mary Hendrickson at her home Wednesday afternoon. A pleasant so-cial time was passed and a dainty bunch served.

Professor and Mrs. A. C. Lund went up to Salt Lake Friday to hear Pader-ewski.

LOGAN.

A very pleasant social event of the week was the evening party given by Miss Hattle Smith and her sisters. Games and social chat as well as dain-ty refreshment, were enjoyed by the following guests: Messrs. and Mes-dames, E. W. Robinson, Andrew Elia-son, W. W. McLaughlin, O. H. Budge, Joseph Newbold, Edward Hanson, George Lindquist, O. C. Sonne; Mrs. Lucy Cardon, Miss Annie Eliason, Dr. George Thomas, Dr. T. B. Budge.

George C. Jensen, Charles Lindsay. Mrs. W. B. Preston, Jr. was most agreeably surprised on Tuesday af-ternoon by a number of her friends who came and spent a most enjoyable afternoon. Luncheon was served and games and music enjoyed. Those present were Mesdames Lucy Car don, M. R. Needham, Joseph Knowles, S. B. Mitten, Davis, Solon Barber, J. M. Blair, A. D. Thatcher, Parks, Jo-seph Odell, Walt Pyper, Lee Thatcher, M. Thatcher, Jr., Jesse Earl, Frank Earl, Slyvan Needham, Jane Thatcher, Boy Medilater, Guy Thatcher, ter.

On Saturday evening last the B. Y. C. dining room was the scene of a most delightful evening social, given by the Priscilla club. The Priscilla's are the Misses Jean Cox, Dora Wright, Laura Nebeker, Mary Sorensen, Edith Bowen, Johanna Moen: their guests were: Miss Cinthia Hill, Miss May McCarey; Messrs. George Torgensen, Luther Howell, Gardner, A. E. Bow-en, Horace Nebeker, Parley Petersen, George C. Jensen, Charles Lindsay.

GEORGIA BEAUTY TO RACE ENGLISHMAN.

An international motor car race for $1,000 was arranged quickly at a dinner party at Sherry's, New York, a few days ago. Whether the Amer-Ican or English competitor wins, the stake will be given to a worthy charitable organization.

Miss Violet Dudley, daughter of Edward C. Dudley of Atlanta, Ga., was at the dinner party given to Elgin Braine, an ardent motorist, who is at the Dorlton. He has won many races abroard. He drove his 90 h. p. car 123 miles in an hour over the Brooklands motor course. Weybridge, England. It happens that Miss Dudley is a most accomplished cauffeuse. When a liqueur was being served at the merry dinner one of Miss Dudley's admirers, knowing that she is going to England in the spring, exclaimed;

"Till bet $1,000 that Miss Violet, driving a 20-horsepower car can heat Braine in a 100-mile run over the Brooklands course."

"Done," cried Braine, Miss Violei arose, blushing becomingly.

"Of course I will not race for money unless-unless the winner gives the stake to charity." And so the match was arranged.

Miss Anna Frazier delightfully en-tertained the members of the Undine club and their escorts at her home Thursday evening. The rooms were bright with carnations, ferns and smil-

The marriage of Miss Irene Wilson and S. N. McGurrin took place this week and was celebrated with a pretty ix pink and white being the colors used wedding at the groom's home.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Lulu Buckle to Andrew Meilstrup, which is to take place next Wednes-day evening.

Mrs. L. L. Archer entertained her bridge club Tuesday. Four tables were played and the prizes were won by Mrs. Stingley, Mrs. Mayers and Mrs. Mrs. James C. Dick was hostess at a delightful bridge party on Monday, five tables being played and prizes won by Mrs. Fred Dern, Mrs. W. D. Donoher, Mrs. Elbridge Thomas and Miss McCornick. In the dining room Mrs. J. R. Glendenning and Miss Jas-mine Young presided at the table.

this afternoon in honor of Miss Paul ine Terry of Chicago.

A large affair of tonight will be the reception to be given by Prof. and Mrs. Kingsbury of the university.

Mrs. W. S. McCornick was hostess at a delightful luncheon and bridge party yesterday at her home.

Miss Julia Cullen gave a dancing party last night at her home, a number of intimate friends being delightfully entertained. . . .

Miss Gwendoline Tripp will be hostess at an informal party at her home this evening. . . .

Mrs. W. H. Bramel will entertain at a Kensington next Wednesday.

Mrs. J. E. Jennings was hostess at a bridge party on Thursday given in honor of Miss Terry, her decorations being in green and white and prizes won by Mrs. A. D. Cleveland, Mrs. Joseph Perry, Mrs. Frank Jennings, Mrs. James Franken and Miss Wil-lians.

The McMillan home on east South Temple street was the scene of a de-lightful dancing party last night, the rooms being bright with the season's flowers and the following being hostess-os: The Misses Norrine Thompson, Aline McMillan, Marjory Jacoba, Margaret Waiden, Dorothy Rooklidge, Ghadys McConaughty, Josephine Well, and Lu-cile Clark.

Mrs. A. T. McCanne entertained in-formally at 500 on Thursday, the rooms being decorated in red and white car-nations and the taily cards in red hearts. Mrs. J. M. Moore was prize-winner, and the hostess was assisted by Mrs. G. E. Mateer and Mrs. H. T. Saminatan. Sappington.

and the second A dancing party was given at l'uliy hall last night by the ladles of the Unitarian society and the usual pleas-ant time spent.

Mrs. O. W. Powers will entertain at idge tea at her home Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Marie Odeil has issued invita-tions for a valentine dancing party to be given at the Odeil' home Friday evening, Feb. 14.

Mrs. A. W. McCune, Jr., was hostes at an informal luncheon Thursday,

Mrs. L. L. Terry was hostess at a a bridge party on Wednesday for her guest, Miss Terry of Chicago, the rooms being bright with daffodils and the höstess assisted by Mrs. J. E. Jenning, and Mrs. D. C. Roberta, Prizes were won by Mrs. R. L. Tracy, Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. A. D. Cleveland, Mrs. James Franken, and Miss Jasa-mine Young. mine Young. . . .

Mrs. Lafayette Hanchelte entertain-ed about 20 friends at bridge on Wed-resolay, the rooms being pretifity dec-orsted with pink carnations and pink shaded candles and prizes won by Mrs. W. W. Armstrong, 'Mrs. J. J. Broughall, Mrs. John Earls and Mrs. T. H. Black. Broughan, T. H. Black.

8. 6. 8. Mr. and Mrs. James Dinwoodey en-tertained the Social Sixteen at their home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest H. Rich enter-tained at their home, 770 west North ax, pink and white being the colors used in the parlor, while red prevailed in the dining room. The evening was pleas-antly spent in games and music. At a late hour an elaborate supper was served by the hostess. The invited guests were the Misses Jennie Nel-son, June Edmonds, Kathryn Gabbott, Phes Slake, Leone Edmonds Lillieth Rhea Slade, Leone Edmonds, Lillieth Smith, Laura Parry, Ivy Frazier, Enid Edmonds, and Messrs. Samuel Has-kell, Bowen, Ray Dorlous, Lester Gab-bott, Clyde Edmonds, Walter Frazier.

The Undine club girls will meet with Miss Leone Edmonds, 806 east First South, Thursday, Feb. 13,

One of the social functions of the week was the Z. C. M. I. annual re-union given the employes by the man-agement of the institution, on Wednes-day evening, in the Odeon hall. The program consisted chiefly of square dances, and nearly 500 participated in the pleasant affair. Expressions of pleasure were general, showing the appreciation of those present. Light refreshments were served throughout the evening. . . . the evening. . . .

On Washington's Birthday, a red, white and blue domino party will be given at Unity hall by the B. F. Pefx-otto lodge for the benefit of the char-ty fund of the lodge, the participants to attend attired in tri-colored dominos. The affair is in charge of a committee composed of D. L. Levitt, E. K. Baer, N. J. Fulop, Ben. Epstein, E. Marcus, Geo. Auerbach, Harry Woolf, Salt Lake City; Sol. J. Kaplan, Henry Rosen-bluck Order bluth, Ogden, . . .

A pleasant affair of the week was the surprise party at the home of Mr, and Mrs. A, F. Elgsren, when about 50 of their friends met unexpectedly at their home and spent a delightful evening

On Tuesday Mrs. George Keysor en-tertained at an elaborate luncheon in honor of Mrs. David Taylor the table being pretifly decorated in pink and the following guests present to meet Mrs. Taylor: Mrs. Louis S. Cates, Miss Marsaret Miller, Miss Louise Sulivan, Miss Lela Stingley, Miss Loreen Leary, Miss Alleen Mac-lean, Miss fone Morrison, Miss Ger-trude Hanson, Miss Edna Balley and Miss Bess McMillan.

. . .

Mrs. G. P. Holman entertained in formally at bridge on Tuesday, the

Our delicious Cod Liver preparation without oil. Better than old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions to restore health for Old people, delicate children, weak run-down persons, and after sickness, colds, coughs, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles.

Try it on our guarantes. DRUEHL & FRANKEN, DRUGGISTS, Also SMITH DRUG CO., Salt Lake City, Utah.

. . . Mrs. John Groesbeck entertained her Sewing slub yesterday.

Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Beer and Mr. and Mrs. George W. Reed will enter-tain at cards on the evening of Feb. 13, at the Beer home, 181 B street.

Mrs. Ira H. Lewis and her mother, Mrs. O. A. Smith, have gone to south-ern California for the remainder of the winter.

Dr. and Mrs. F. S. Bascom will leave shortly for Cuba with their little son, Mrs. F. S. Richards will leave tonight for Los Angeles.

Captain Luhn of Leavenworth, Kan., is expected shortly to visit his sister, Mrs. George H. Smith.

Mrs. Robert Harkness and her daughter, Mrs. W. G. Sharp, will leave within a few days for the coast.

Mrs. James H. Moyle has gone to Los Angeles for a month.

Mrs. Emma Empey and Mrs. C. H. Doolittle have returned from a short trip to Chlcago. Miss Agnes Irvine will leave this evening for Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Savage will enve today to spend a month in the east.

Mrs. A. C. White and little daugh-ter, Josephine, and Mrs. A. F. Philips wil leave this evening for a three or four weeks stay in Los Angeles. Mrs. Philips's daughter will join them at Las Vegas.

Miss Katle Kraft of New York ar-lived in the city yesterday to join her dater, Mrs. John Weir, for a trip to Riverday Riverside.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Slade and daugh-tor. Katherine, leave this week to spend a month in California.

Jay T. Harris left Wednesday even-og for Ocean Park, where Mrs. Harris nd their baby are spending the win-er.

Mr. and Mrs. John Weir will leave to-iay for a trip to Los Angeles.

Miss Christine Fyhn will leave to-night for a short stay in Los Angeles

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Adams are spending a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs.

Miss Josephine Betsford will leave oday for an extended visit in south-on California.

Mrs. W. H. Sherwood will spend three or four months in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Glasfor and their laughter have gone to Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne G. Hemphill will leave March 1 for Omaha, where they will reside,

Mrs. F. L. Pearl has returned

AN EVENING COAT FROM THE ORIENT.

The pictured evening coat is one of a number worn by fashionable women this season. Attached to the black satin body, several inches below the knees, is a deep band of striped satin in rich oriental colorings. At the top of this band and above it are exquisite hand embroideries, the designs of which are repeated in the full Mandarin sleeve and on the coat fronts to the waistline. The neck is collarless and the fronts fasten doublebreasted with brass buttons and loops like those under the arms. The lining is white satin.

day for Los Angeles, where she will at home after a month's stay in south make her home, ern California.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H Alexander have gone to New York, where they will visit with their daughter, Mrs Wing B.

THE LARGER OUT SIDE

PROVO.

Mrs. Joseph Decker of Ogden is vis-iting in this city, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fera Decker.

The members of the I. O. O. F. and Rebecca lodges surprised Mr. W. H. Brercton at her home Monday even-ing. A delightful evening was passed in cards and music. Dainty refresh-ments were served.

A merry crowd of young married people pleasantly surprised Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Balley at her home Thurs-day evening. A delightful evening was spent in various amusements. A didicty lunch was served to about 40 guests.

. . .

1.0

Mrs. Charles Reynolds, who has spent the past fortnight with Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Ferry left for her home in Los Angeles Wednesday. Allen, and family.

Mrs. Alma D. Katz is expected from Portland about Feb. 20 with her sister, Mrs. Harry David Gue.

Mrs. W. J. Thomas will leave about the middle of the month for a short stay at Los Angeles and the beaches.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Miller left this week for the City of Mexico, to be away some time, Miss Pearl Weiler leaves this week or New York and Washington, where for New she will visit relatives.

S. V. Derrah will be at home for sev-eral months at the Alta club, during the absence of his wife and son in California.

Mrs. Karl Scheid returned Monday from the east. Mrs. Woodruff will not be back until the middle of the month. as she is visitin- friends in Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Scheid are at home at 40 south Twelfth East street.

Mrs. Grace C. Wooley is in Logan for few days.

Miss Rehan Spencer is visiting in

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Snow re-turned Monday from an extended trip in southern California.

Mrs. L. H. Farnsworth and two daughters returned this week, after spending the past six months in

The Social Sixty gave another of their delightful dances at the Social hall Wednesday evening, About 50 cou-ples participated. Miss Estella Halverson entertained about 20 of her friends at a house warming Tuesday evening. Some new FERD. T. HOPKINS, Prop., 37 Great Jones Street, New York guests,

Roy McAlister, Guy Thatcher.

Roy McAlister, Guy Thatener. Dr. and Mrs. H. P. Emeis enter-tained a number of friends at a sleigh-ing party on Wednesday evening. After the ride luncheon was served at their home. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Leo Campbell Capt. an'i Mrs. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Naylor, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Walters. Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Naylor enter-tained the following guests on Tues-day evening most pleasantly: Capt. and Mrs. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Campbell, Prof. and Mrs. W. S. Lang-ton. The date marked the fifth an-niversary of Mr. and Mrs. Naylor's marriage.

marriage. . . . The Usona society of the B. Y. col-lege entertained a number of their friends most pleasantly on Tuesday vening.

Dr. and Mrs. I. S. Smith were host and hostess at a delightful card party on Thursday evening.

A pleasant event of last week was the bob sleigh party given by the Misses Geneva Smith and Due Alvord. The U. A. C. Woman's club held its meeting on Saturday last at the U. A. C. with Miss Elizabeth Smith as hostess. The program consisted of a talk on art by Mr. Fairbanks. The Daughters of the Pioneers' liter-ary society were guests on this oc-casion. Refreshments were served.

The Daughters of the Pioneers Lit-erary society held a most interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. Mattio B. Hansen on Wednesday. The life and writings of Prest. John Taylor were given by Mrs. Hart and Mrs. Lafaunt.

Lafaunt. . . . Mrs. Nettie Sloan, Mrs. Linnar Prof. G. W. Thatcher and Mr. Fra Baugh have returned from a trip southern Utah, where they went the interests of the U. A. C. Linnartz went in

Mr. John Johnson, one of Provo's promising young men, and Miss Edith Curruit of Coalville, were married in the Salt Lake Temple Wednesday. Mr. Johnson brought his bride to a cozy new home on Thursday morning, and as they neared the spot they were con-scious that their friends had been there, Signs of all descriptions were tacked up on the outside, while the yooms were decorated with old shoes, good luck signs, ctc. Thurs-aday evening Miss Easte Reese at her home in their honor. Cov-entertained at a family dinner at her home in their honor. Cov-ducer was served, a pleasant social evening being enjoyed later. Mrs. Allie Horn is the guest of Mr. Mrs. Peter Groneman was pleasantly surprised at her home Thursday even-ing by the "Cross Sitck club." The time was delightfully passed in game and music. Lunch was served. Mrs, Leo Campbell for a few lays. . . . Mrs. Katle Preston and little daughter have gone to California for sev-eral weeks. . . . Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rydalch visited friends in Springville Wednesday.

Miss Verna Bowman returned

Wednesday the D. R. society met at the home of Mrs. LeRoy Lott. An in-teresting program was given and re-freshments served. Friday night the high school gave a most successful ball and social in the City pavilion. Thursday evening Misses Seely and Greenwood entertained the sophomores and juniors of the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Webb of Sugar City. Ida., are visiting Lehi relatives and friends, Hon. George Austin of Salt Lake City was a Lehi visitor Monday.

Mr. James Schow of Grand Junction, Colo., is visiting Lehi triends

Mr. and Mrs. James Briggs of Idaho Falls are visiting Lehi relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Briggs of Heber City are visiting Lehi friends.

Mr. J. H. Wood of Farmington is a Lehi visitor.

Messrs, R. L. Howard and Charles

Alden." Such was the unsual sen-

GIVES BOAT HER NAME. "I, Betty Alden, christen thee Betty

LEHI.