FOR SOBER CITIZENS.
The most important measure for the benefit, comfort, necessities and growth of Salt Lake City, is the bringing into use a sufficient quantity of pure water to supply present and future needs.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Sept. 25, 1905.
John P. Meakin, Esq.
My Dear Sir—I permit me as a humanitarian to thank you for the article on Mormonism. I endorse every word of it.

A CAPITAL CHOSEN.
The Australians have finally, after a controversy lasting for years, settled the question of a permanent capital. Naturally the choice would have been either Sydney, or Melbourne, or some other large city, but jealousy between these has prevented either from obtaining the votes necessary.

THE SCANDINAVIAN UNION
The Scandinavian question now being settled by the acceptance of the dissolution of the union as a fait accompli, a brief review of the past may not be without interest.

POLYGAMY IN NEW YORK.
The attention of the ladies who are so excited about Utah affairs, of which they are totally ignorant, or woefully misinformed, is respectfully called to the fact that both polygamy and polyandry are, under certain circumstances tolerated in the great state of New York.

circumstances. But we submit the self-evident proposition, that polygamy having been abolished in Utah, as all people here know, and all honest citizens freely admit, the few isolated cases of plural habitation which may still exist as a remnant of previous conditions, are no more of a menace to the purity of the American home in general, than are the few cases of plural habitation that may be found and tolerated in the state of New York, and far less so than the innumerable cases of illegal practices common all over the country, and not least notoriously in the camp of the prominent anti-Mormons.

AN APPRECIATIVE LETTER.
Readers of the Deseret News are aware that John P. Meakin, who is prominently associated with a number of fraternal orders and who is a gifted public speaker and reciter, has been lecturing in the Eastern States on subjects connected with the societies that he represents. At the same time he has occasionally delivered a lecture about Utah and the "Mormons."

There must be more diamonds in New York than in South Africa, to read of the thefts of them.
The late Sir Henry Irving was a genuine forty-niner. His stage career lasted just forty-nine years.

There is talk of reorganizing the Japanese army. It will be easy to reorganize it, but very hard to improve it.
Richard H. McCurdy, president of the Mutual Life Insurance company, writes poetry. No comment is necessary.

If radium really does cure cancer it should be applied to the ulcers that appear on the body politic in various parts of the country.
At Raleigh the President served notice on Congress that he is decidedly in favor of railroad legislation. He will "stand pat" on this, too.

THE TOOP SIMPLE LIFE.
Ladies' Field.
The charm of the "simple life" no doubt is great, but the first necessity for its success is that it should be made quite as comfortable as the complex life.

THE SILLY SEASON DEPENDED.
The Illustrated London News.
That the silly season is really the serious season is very clearly shown in newspapers. In the silly season we suddenly lose interest in all frivolities, and we suddenly become interested in controversies of which the contributors may be driving enough, but of which the problems are not revolving at all. The silly season is the only time when we are not silly.

RUSSIAN LAW.
New York American.
In Russia laws are made to be broken. A native critic said that Russian legislation was like a horsehoe; it came so hot from the anvil that no one dared touch it, it soon grew so cold that every one handled it, and finally it was trodden under foot.

HAPPY NAVAL OFFICERS.
Blackwood's Magazine.
The difference is very marked between English officers who go to sea early and those of other nationalities who do not. Not long since an international squadron was assembled in the same waters for several months. Foreign observers remarked of it that the British officers appeared to be happy and contented whereas the others were quite the reverse, and were longing to get home.

MONEY NO OBJECT.
St. Louis Globe-Democrat.
It is stated that the Lewis and Clark exposition at Portland will have a sur-non-existent, and they will then be at liberty to open independent diplomatic negotiations with Norway through her accredited representatives.

Both countries have, during the past century, developed at a most wonderful rate. They have been able to keep in the front ranks of civilized nations. The blessings of peace have been innumerable. There is no reason why they should not continue to enjoy those blessings, provided they avoid international strife and the dangers of taking part in the diplomatic contests of their powerful neighbors.

Was that house at Albany a house of cards?
Cuniff had money to burn, and burned it; but it wasn't his.
As was to have been expected, the South is giving the President a warm welcome.

Some of the city employes are pumping water and some are pumping voters.
There seems to be a new Albany re-ge-ncy. But its sole aim is the procurement of honest legislation.

MONEY NO OBJECT.
St. Louis Globe-Democrat.
It is stated that the Lewis and Clark exposition at Portland will have a surplus sufficient to pay back stockholders over 25 per cent of their subscriptions. St. Louisans have given little thought to the amount to be returned on their stock in the world's fair. They set out to give the greatest of international exhibitions, and the success of their effort is glory enough, regardless of the final details of bookkeeping.

NEAR HIS FINISH.
Worcester Gazette.
Castro is nearing the brink. He has been making monkey grimaces at Uncle Sam and at the Frenchman across the seas. And all the while, the sand in the glass of fate has run swiftly on. His finish has been so long in sight and so unmistakable in outline that he has grown used to the sight of it, and has tickled the nose of Destiny in an apparent endeavor to hasten matters. Already the earth crumbles under his feet; his toes hang over the edge.

TO "REVIVE" BRUTALITY.
San Francisco Chronicle.
President Roosevelt is reported to have expressed his intention to co-operate with the faculties of the American colleges to revise the brutality of the inter-collegiate football. He has doubtless been prompted to take this step because his son was injured and carried off the gridiron in the Harvard university football team's first trial match. The President's opposition to the brutalities of the game which have long been notorious, would have been more effective, we opine, if he had protested against his son participating in the trial matches of his college, on the ground that the game as played is over-strenuous and should be prohibited.

CIGARETTE FIENDS.
Worcester Gazette.
The cigarette problem is one of the most serious which faces the parents and teachers of America today. It is a fact beyond dispute, that the boy who smokes cigarettes is not able to keep up to the average, mentally or physically. In extreme cases, there is a tendency to criminality. The boy's mind is appealed to by an evil influence. The confirmed cigarette smoker is not a merely mischievous boy. He is unmistakably vicious. In dealing with juvenile incorrigibles, in New York city, the officers assigned to the task have learned to look at the hands of every boy who comes into their care. In nearly every case where the culprit is especially unruly, an examination of the hand shows the characteristic yellowed fingers of the cigarette fiend.
