SUNDAY DISPATCHES

The Grayhound "Etruria" Encounters a Tidal Wave with Fatal Results.

Thos. B. Barry to Organize a New Knights of Labor Society.

Threatening Socialistic Gatherings in London and Chicago.

West Virginia Democratic, but the Majority is Exceeding Small.

Earthquake in California.—Opium Smugglers in New York, Etc.

By Telegraph to the NEWS.

Earthquake.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 18.—A shock of earthquake that was sharp enough to cause many people in hotels and private houses to run out into the street, was felt here this afternoon. The direction was northwest to southeast, the duration ten seconds. Telegrams tonight say the shock was felt throughout central California.

Don't Approve of It.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—Lord Carnavon writes to the Times deprecating the idea that the colonies should choose their own governors. This he says would imply choosing a governor by the political party then in power in the colonial parliament and the abandonment of those very few rights which he honestly believes are mainly in the interest of the colonies as enabling the crown to discharge its duties satisfactorily to them.

West Virginia Democratic.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—T. S. Riley, chairman of the democratic committee, West Virginia, sent the following dispatch to the Post:

Official returns from West Virginia are sufficiently ascertained to warrant the announcement of the election of Judge A. B Fleming, the democratic candidate for governor, by a small but sure majority. The rest of the state ticket is elected by larger majorities. The legislature will stand on joint ballot, 46 democrats, 44 republicans and one labor union independent.

The Anarchists.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—The socialists held an immense meeting in Victoria Park today to commemorate the Trafalgar Square and Chicago riots. Speeches were made from three platforms. Mrs. Parsons advocated the use of bombs. Graham, member of Parliament, denounced capitalists and landlords and said until the workers organized to take land, capital and machinery for their own benefit, they would continue to be slaves and the Trafalgar and Chicago scenes would be repeated.

Colored Atrocity.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 18.—John Atkinson and William Morrow, while returning home after a parade last night, were attacked by colored men of Thirteenth and Lombard Streets and both cut and slashed with knives and razors in a horrible manner. Atkinson, who is 27 years old, was fatally cut in the breast, back and abdomen, having altogether five wounds. Morrow's injuries are also pronounced very dangerous. The alleged cause of attack was an insult to a colored girl by the two men.

A Rough Passage.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—The Cunarder Etruria, which arrived this afternoon, experienced one of the worst passages in her history. On Tuesday last a tidal wave swept over the big steamer, and one sailor was killed. Five others were more or less, severely shaken up.

THE FATALITY

occurred Tuesday afternoon. The injured sailors were on duty at the time the tidal wave struck the ocean racer. They saw a mountain of water approaching. Terrified they scrambled forbafely, but with irresistible force the green water curled over and fell upon the big steamer like logs. Five sailors were jammed in a heap against the deck house; one, as stated, was killed and the others were injured. The wave washed the steamer fore and aft. The officers and crew are reticent about the accident, and the only information that could be obtained was from passengers.

The Recalcitrant Knight.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 18.—Thomas B. Barry, the expelled member of the Knights of Labor general executive board, this evening gave to the press a long article explaining his situation and repeating his former statement against Powderly's administration He says in part:

"The General Assembly of the Knights of Labor is not a fair representative gathering of the industrial classes of the order. The most unscrupulous methods are resorted to in order to prevent men who were known to be in any way opposed to the administration from being elected as representatives to the convention. The records are manipulated and changed in the general office, and membership is accredited to the administration's district and the President is seated in the convention, who had no legal right to seats therein, and representatives who were lawfully elected were denied seats in the convention. The clerks in the general offices were engaged in the manipulating of the records and selecting local assemblies that were known to be opposed to the administration, in order that steps might be taken to prevent them from having representation at this convention."

He then takes Powderly's general denial of his charges and reiterates his ability to prove all that he has said, claiming that Powderly knows this and fears to let him address the general assembly. He says of his trial by the general executive board, whom he had accused of wrong doing, that the constitution disqualifies disinterested parties, and with all the brazen effrontery they are endowed with they will not surely claim that they were not interested. Incompetent and unfit men were allowed to sit in judgment when they themselves were the

ACCUSED VILLAINS.

He denies ever having anything to do with the provisional committee and expects that he was expelled for telling the truth. "Being charged with plundering," he says, "I wait investigation of their actions and mine, and a court of law would be a good place for them to prove their charge of plunder against me."

He closes with a denial of the charges that he had not been a member of the order since last spring, having been a member of a lapsed local organization, and that he had fraudulently obtained money from the general treasury.

Although Barry's future actions are not yet clearly known, delegates and close friends of Powderly profess to have no fear of anything he attempts to do. If he undertakes to start it cannot be predicted how strong it will be. He believes he will have a big popular following, and says that one thing that will be required in such order will be strict honesty. Gossip has been freely indulged in among the delegates today, but in substance it differs little from what has already been stated in these dispatches.

A NEW ORDER,

To Revive Anarchism.

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—About a hundred and twenty-five men gathered this afternoon at Greiff's Hall, on the west side of the old time headquarters of the anarchists, with the understanding that they were there to organize a society "for the purpose of reviving anarchistic agitation among the free thinking laboring men of Chicago." One, Goerling, addressed the meeting and advised forming a new society, which would act in the interest of unsocial democrats. He said Chicago is now farther advanced in the cause than any other city in America and was ready for such organization. After a lengthy discussion it was decided to organize a new society and name it the "Arbeiter Bund." The society will appoint committees to hold agitation meetings and work up organizations all over the city.

Opium Smugglers.

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—The News (Buffalo, N. Y., says the arrest of Quong Yuen, a laundryman at New York, charged with smuggling opium, was followed last night by the arrest here of William Lund and Edward Milling, Americans, and Chong Lee, Ah Lung and So Hsw, Chinese laundrymen, charged with being accomplices of the New York Chinamen. When Quong Yuen was arrested it was believed in New York that the opium found there came from Buffalo and the officials here were put on the scent. They were satisfied the opium was smuggled across the border at Suspension Bridge and that members of the gang who acted as placers were Chinamen; yet no celestials were detected crossing from Canada; but at New York they were located and lodged in jail. Inspector Reynolds is confident that the young men for several months have been smuggling cans of opium by trains crossing the internal bridge, concealing them under their clothing. For each can they receive 75 cents. Lund is said to have made $30 in one week. Chang Lee is believed to be a brother of Quong Yuen.

SATURDAY NIGHT'S NEWS.

Henry W. King, Jr., was a Bigamist, and His Lawful Wife Killed Him.

The Expulsion of Barry Endorsed by the Knights of Labor Convention.

Lively Fight with Twenty Tramps Who Unlawfully Board a Railroad Train.

By Telegraph to the NEWS.

THE KING TRAGEDY.

He was a Bigamist and Killed by his Lawful Wife.

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—Mrs. Bechler, who committed the murder, lives in the fashionable quarter on the North Side, where she has a child four years old. It appears, according to the statement of a servant, the only person left in the house, that Bechler is an alias, and that the real person for whom it stands is Henry W. King, Jr. The servant declares King has not been there for six weeks; that on Thursday Mrs. Bechler, or King, first heard that he was going to marry a Miss Duffy, and became much excited. She has a child four years old which she left with a servant, and left the city yesterday saying she was going to Cleveland, where she lived before meeting young King. Her maiden name was Lizzie L. Gorde. Of late she complained that young King was neglecting her, and went to her husband's father and demanded that the young man support her properly. The servant declares Mrs. Bechler's conduct was entirely wifely during her husband's absence.

King's first wife disappeared after the divorce, and her attorney says she is now in Europe studying for the operatic stage. Her name was Carrie Walker.

OMAHA, Nov. 17.—Young King has been boarding at the Paxton Hotel with a woman, ostensibly his wife. At 7:30 a fair-haired, ladylike woman arrived from Chicago and registered as Mrs. H. W. King, Jr. She proceeded to her victim's room, and calling him to the door, a conversation ensued in which she upraided him, while he urged her to go away and leave him. She finally said with tears in her eyes: "Harry, will you take me to breakfast? I mean you no harm." He repulsed her roughly, and started for the elevator. She followed and overtaking him, drew a revolver and shot him in the mouth. He staggered away and she followed and fired three more shots, when he fell down the stairs leading to the rotunda, dying immediately. She rushed after him with the smoking revolver in her hand, and kneeling by his side, sobbed: "I've murdered my husband!"

Judge Brewer of the United States District Court, and many guests were witnesses.

The marriage of Henry W. King, Jr., was announced at Louisiana, Mo., Nov. 1, although it was claimed the wedding took place some time prior to that. The bride, Alice Duffy, is a daughter of the late Hon. H. C. Duffy, a member of the legislature from the Louisiana district some time since. The wedding took place at Atlanta City, and the fact was withheld from relatives and friends.

OMAHA, Nov. 17.—A reporter for the Bee saw the woman who did the shooting, and the following is her story:

"I am the legal wife of Harry King. We were married about four years ago in church. We lived in Quincy, Ills., for a time, and kept house at that time. We returned to Chicago and took up housekeeping at 210 Cass Avenue, where we lived happily and peacefully together until four weeks ago. Before the latter date Harry (the victim of the murder) came to Omaha and looked around for a place for the purpose of opening a store. He was with Mr. Andrews for a time. He returned to Chicago and informed me he had everything well under way. After remaining a few days he again started out giving me to understand that he was going to Omaha. I heard nothing from him and became uneasy. Finally I observed a dispatch from Kansas City that he had married Miss Duffy of that place. The news almost bereft me of reason and to be candid I was almost dumb. We had a pleasant little home with all the money we wanted and everything that heart could wish for at our disposal. I loved Harry as I loved my existence and to learn that he had betrayed me was more than I could bear and no doubt is more than any loving wife's heart can withstand. Well, I learned at once the whereabouts of the parents of the girl who unknowingly took my position beside my husband, and I telegraphed them that King had a wife residing in Chicago undivorced. The parents of Miss Duffy, alias Mrs King No. 3, reside at Louisiana, Mo. I also sent a dispatch here to the wife informing her that King was a bigamist. I suppose that she got the dispatch and is now on her way to Chicago to learn the sad news of her husband's infidelity, as I have learned it."

"Did you come here with the intention of killing Mr. King?"

"No, sir, that was not my intention. When I started I came here to have him prosecuted for bigamy. He had been married three times. Ora Walker, who is preparing to go on the theatrical stage in Chicago, was his first wife. He obtained a divorce from her on the ground of infidelity and some time afterward he became acquainted with me. When we were married, the fact that he had previously had a wife from whom he was divorced, was never made known to me. It came to me in all its horrors when I was his wife, but I overlooked all of it though it was hard, and I never did allow it to weigh upon my mind in the presence of Harry. My maiden name was Eliza Beedler, and my father is a retired capitalist in Chicago. Harry's father is quite wealthy, and lives on Randolph Street. It will drive him crazy when he learns this. The statement that he got a divorce from me is untrue. He never intimated he was desirous of separation and I always thought my womanly affections were rightly bestowed when I confided them to Harry until I learned of the facts that resulted in this."

"But have you seen Harry since?"

"Is he dead?"

These words were uttered by the woman to the reporter, who replied that the victim had met his death. As this information was imparted the woman reeled in her chair and fell into a semi-conscious condition, but soon recovered. When requested by a reporter to continue her story she said: "I did not come here with the determination of doing anything else than to bring him to justice. He not only blighted my life but he has invaded the sanctity of other homes. There is fickleness of woman behind all this and the public should not be too hasty in condemning my action. When I saw him in the parlor this morning he refused to listen to me. He even scoffed at my entreaties. I informed him that he would be prosecuted for forgery and bigamy, and he took me by the threat and said for me to shut my mouth or he would choke me to death."

"If you did not intend to kill him why did you carry such a weapon?"

"I carried it to protect my own person. When he treated me that way and provoked me I concluded I would call it into other service, and in consequence I shot."

"How many times did you shoot?"

"I do not remember; but I shot to kill every time. I was driven to it by his desperate attempts to frighten me out of taking action in the matter. The revolver was a 32-calibre, self-acting, and was tested and found perfect before it came into my possession."

"Then you have been assisted in this understaking?"

"My father never refused to lend me assistance, even when a child at school, and he lives today. Does that explain?"

Shortly after 2 o'clock Mrs. King No. 3, who had gone to Council Bluffs to visit friends the night before, returned to the Paxton House with her cousin, Mr. J. E. Snyder, of Lincoln, Neb. Somebody had told the unfortunate woman the particulars of the tragic event and she was completely prostrated. She had to be carried from the elevator to her room, and since then has been raving, insane, with lucid intervals. Her physicians say there is little hope of her surviving the blow. At present, she is under the influence of chloroform. This lady has been at different times, called Moore and Duffy. It was under the former, however, that she was best known. Her home is supposed to be Louisiana, Missouri. Advices from St. Louis state that she was married to King last August. Since her return she has moved in the highest circles as Mrs. King, and it is reported she had been welcomed to the family of her father shortly after the marriage. Although attempt was made to keep the matter quiet, the announcement of the fact appeared in a paper. This reached the eyes of the murderess, who immediately went to Mrs. Moore's family in Louisiana and informed them that the young lady was living with King, who was a married man, in this city. She telegraphed also to Mrs. King. The telegram reached here yesterday and was only delivered in the morning. Soon after, Mrs. King No. 3 left the hotel, but without telling where she was going. An hour later a note from King to his wife was received by the clerk of the Paxton. It was sent to Mrs. King's room, and she was found to be away. The note was returned to the clerk and placed by him in Mr. King's box. There it was found by that gentleman last night, who marveled greatly at the absence of his wife, who had unquestionably been frightened by her rival's telegram, which contained the information that she was coming here to prosecute King for bigamy.

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—A careful investigation made by the representative of the Associated Press tends to throw much light on the unfortunate parties in the King shooting at Omaha this morning. The apartments occupied by the couple at 210 Cass street are in a fashionable part of the city and they bear all they indications of refinement and culture. No one in the neighborhood knew of any man named King, but they all knew of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bechler. This was the name of the couple as they appeared to the people and tradesmen. The four-year-old boy claimed as Mrs. Bechler's own child is really her own brother. Mrs. King's folks live in Cleveland and her mother has been twice married, her last husband's name being the one under which she and King passed while living in Chicago. While the couple lived in Quincy, Ill., they assumed the name of Lagrade, a flyleaf in one of the books of the Cass street residence bearing Mrs. King's autograph as follows: "Libbie Lagarde, 420 Elm street, Quincy, Ill."

A Times special from Quincy, Illinois, says in substance: Henry W. King, or Mr. Lagarde, as he was called here, was well known in this city. He came here in 1866, bringing with him a very stylish and handsome woman, who was known as Mrs. Libbie Lagrade. A two-year old child was also with them, and it was understood to be the child of a dead sister of the woman. They all boarded at a house on Eighth Street. King, however, always came here on the Saturday night train from Chicago, remained over Sunday, and returned to Chicago Monday morning. The couple removed from place to place for some well defined reason. Mrs. Lagarde soon began to receive the attention of other men. She was a beautiful woman and always attracted attention when she appeared on the streets. When she left here it was known that she went to Chicago.

Desperado Queen Killed.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 17.—The desperado, Queen, was shot and killed near Vinita, Indian Territory, last evening, by District Sheriff Carter and posse. Frank Barber, who was with Queen, had his horse shot from under him, but escaped. Queen was in the Missouri Pacific robbery at Gibson, Indian Territory, last spring, and was wanted in different parts of the southwest on several charges.

Washington Notes.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—The annual report of First Assistant Postmaster General Stevenson shows that during the last fiscal year 12,288 fourth class postmasters were appointed. During the year 1645 postoffices were discontinued and the whole number of postoffices increased 2229.

The Secretary of the Treasury has directed the suspension of Quincy A. Brooks, collector of customs at Port Townsend, W. T., because of general dissatisfaction with his administration.

The second annual chrysanthemum and floral exhibition closed last evening and today General and Mrs. Harrison were the recipients of a number of beautiful floral gifts.

Fight with Tramps.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Nov. 17.—A gang of twenty-two tramps boarded a local freight train late this afternoon on the Boston & Albany Railway, between this city and Indian Orchard. When the train stopped at Indian Orchard station they were obliged to get off while switching was going on. Afterwards they attempted to board the train again, and a brisk fight ensued. The train hands beat the men off with coupling pins, and the ruffians retaliated by throwing stones until the train got out of reach. They then terrorized the community generally, and threw stones at the depot. Help was summoned from this city. A special train was made up with a force of policemen on board. The tramps were met just west of Indian Orchard station and the officers gave chase, each singling out a man. Six were captured in this way, and City Marshal Clune shot and killed a seventh. The shooting was accidental. The dead man is supposed to be a bank burglar.

A Fugitive Warden Caught.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 17.—News has just been received of the capture at Cumberland Gap, Tenn., of G. A. Gaffard, a fugitive from justice since last March, and under indictment for murdering or being accessory to the murder of three convicts at Coal Hill mining camp, Johnson County, Ark., of which he was warden. The brutalities to convicts at Coal Hill furnished a great sensation at the time.

Anti-Chinese Protest.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—The Woman's Industrial League tonight adopted a protest addressed to the convention at Indianapolis protesting against the admission of Chinese to the Knights of Labor. The appeal, in conclusion, says:

"We demand less selfishness from organized labor in the future and that it shall show more liberality to the interest of our wage workers. New York furnishes 20,000 prostitutes annually. These recruits come from the underpaid, underfed and starved-out women. If you are sincere as a body, protect your own household from immoral, leprous Chinamen, who are taking the bread out of the mouths of our wage women and driving them to prostitution and starvation."

The British ship Carstone, which arrived at Queenstown today from San Francisco, had on board the crew of the Danish ship St. Albans, Captain Lindhard, from Quebec October 25th for London, which was abandoned November 13th, 300 miles off Fastnet, waterlogged and dismantled.

London, Nov. 18.—The Standard regrets that Lord Randolph Churchill differed with it in regard to the Sackville affair. It says: "The knuckling down policy is not the best nor wisest policy in the face of such notorious and repeated acts of unfriendliness as we have recently experienced at the hands of the United States government."

Louisville, Nov. 17.—Near Mount Vernon, Kentucky, last night, Wm. Newcomb and John Roberts called Hiram Roberts from his bed in a store where he was clerking. Charles O'Reilly, Detroit.

Winnipeg, Nov. 17.—At Sherbrook, Ontario, the Herford railroad troubles have been resumed. About 125 Italians are now striking at Paquette, six miles from the border. Thursday night, by cutting away a portion of a trestle, they secured two engines which had been in use during the day. They had previously prevented the working of the steam plow. Their grievance is a singular one. They demand full pay, though during the past month the weather has been so wet that the men have been able to work only about half the time, but they consider themselves entitled to full pay, and are trying to secure it by means of intimidation and taking possession of valuable rolling stock.

DYSPEPSY.

This is what you ought to have, in fact, you must have it to fully enjoy life. Thousands are searching for it daily, and mourning because they find it not. Thousands upon thousands of dollars are spent annually by our people in the hope that they may attain this boon. And yet it may be had by all. We guarantee that Electric Bitters, if used according to directions, and the use persisted in, will bring you good digestion and oust the demon dyspepsia and install instead eupepsy. We recommend Electric Bitters for dyspepsia and all diseases of the liver, stomach and kidneys. Sold at 50c. and $1 per bottle by A. C. Smith & Co., Druggists.

A Scrap of Paper Saves her Life.

It was just an ordinary scrap of wrapping paper, but it saved her life. She was in the last stages of consumption, told by physicians that she was incurable and could live only a short time; she weighed less than seventy pounds. On a piece of wrapping paper she read of Dr. King's New Discovery, and got a sample bottle; it helped her, and she bought a large bottle, it helped her more, bought another and grew better fast, continued its use and is now strong, healthy, rosy, plump, weighing 140 pounds. For fuller particulars send stamp to W. H. Cole, Druggist, Fort Smith. Trial Bottles of this wonderful Discovery Free at A. C. Smith & Co.'s Drugstore.

Brought to Light.

The recent chemical investigations made by the National Food Analysts have brought to light one fact which will be of special interest to house-keepers—that the Cream of Tartar used by the Price Baking Powder Company is the purest made in the world. The crystals are from the finest grapes, imported direct from the vineyards of France, and when freed from all impurities, used by them in the manufacture of the celebrated Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder and Flavoring Extracts are used by the United States Government. 2
