SALT LAKE CITY, October 9, 1871.

WEATHER ITEM.—The highest point reached by the thermometer to-day was 76.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRE.—Mr. McWade having been unavoidably deterred from appearing to-night in his great specialty, "Rip Van Winkle," a new and interesting bill has been provided. The nautical and sensational drama, "The Lost Ship," will be the first piece, and the entertainment will conclude with that mirth-inciting farce, "Larkin's Love Letters." The public favorite, Mr. D. McKenzie, will appear as Ben Trenchant, in the opening play.

It is announced that Mr. McWade will undoubtedly appear as "Rip" to-morrow evening. This character, as performed by Mr. Herne, took immensely here, and as McWade is said to be at least equal to the famous Jefferson in the part, the play is likely to have an excellent run again.

Before the commencement of the dramatic performances to-night, the "Illuminated Fountain," which is really a beautiful effect will be displayed.

DROPPED IN.—Elders F. M. Lyman of Fillmore, L. Farrell and Wm. H. Baud of Logan, Wm. Bramall, of Springville, D. M. Stuart, of Ogden, Joseph Hall, T. G. Odell, and J. G. Chambers, all of the Ogden Junction, Samuel Roskelly, of Smithfield, and Bishop W. W. Cluff, of Coalville.

ACCIDENT.—On Saturday last a woman, named Mrs. Watson, fell down one of the stairs leading to the gallery of the New Tabernacle, and had her arm broken. This is the only accident that occurred during Conference, so far as we are aware. We did not learn where Mrs. Watson was from, but we understand she was a visitor from one of the settlements.

SERENADE.—The gentlemen composing the Tenth Ward brass band have our thanks for the excellent music they discoursed in front of our office on Saturday. The Tenth is a live and enterprising ward and their having an efficient instrumental band is one of the evidences of the fact.

RAIN AND SNOW.—On Sunday a heavy fall of rain with snow on the mountains, and rain and some snow in the valley in the night, lowered the temperature greatly, converted the dust into mud, and did much other public good. There would have been a much larger attendance at the Tabernacle in the afternoon, but for the wet. The congregation were caught by the shower when returning from the Tabernacle in the morning. Good traveling after this.

GEORGE FRANCIS AGAIN.—We are honored in the receipt of a characteristic communication from George Francis the irrepressible. The "People's Candidate," the "Man of Destiny", the "Leading Orator of the Age," is preparing for the "Presidential Campaign of 1872" with his well known energy and confidence. We wish him a grand good time in his canvass.

THE unusual attendance at the court over the stable this morning, the giving way of the stairs and the deflection of the floor, caused some apprehension for the safety of the persons assembled, and the floor has been propped up to prevent accident.

CHANGE OF POST OFFICE.—Bro. Thos. Colborn, of Morgan County, informs us that the Post Offices at Enterprise and Mountain Green have been stopped, and one established at Peterson, of which he has been appointed postmaster.

THE MUSIC.—No one who attended the Conferences just past could fail to be otherwise than delighted with the musical portion of the exercise. The attendence of the members of the choir during the entire Conferences, was good, especially yesterday. It is but due Prof. Carleess and all connected with the choir to say that the choral exercises have become a very important and pleasing feature in our great worshiping assemblies, and visible progress has been made in the "divine art" of late. The excellence of the singing in our Tabernacles is a subject of frequent remark by strangers who visit us, the able and skilful efforts of Mrs. Careless being especially commented upon.

We must not omit also to mention the excellent accompaniment on the Grand Organ, by Brother Joseph Daynes, his performances being invariably executed in good style.

Prof. Fishburn's (Brigham City) choir also did excellent service during the Conferences. The singers composing it give evidence of having been carefully and competently trained.

GOING HOME.—Many of the country visitors at Conference returned home last evening, and more to-day. The streets have been exceedingly lively the past week and business has been correspondingly brisk.

CAR ON FIRE.—Yesterday morning, between 7 and 8 o'clock, one of the cars at the U.C.R.R. depot in this city was discovered to be on fire. Origin of the fire unknown. The car was badly damaged. It contained tea, household furniture, oil and chemicals.

"DESERET Deserted by the Saints," says the Omaha Bee, which is as unexpected news here as at Omaha. The Bee talks ignorantly of the upright statesmanship of the "ring" here, but comes nearer the fact when it says that the Mormons have no peculiar privileges which the ring is bound to respect, nor rights either for the matter of that, in their estimation.

UNDELIVERED DISPATCHES.—List of undelivered Messages at the Deseret Telegraph Office, Main St., Salt Lake City, which, if not called for before Nov. 1st, 1871, will be destroyed:

NEEDED PROPPING.—While a visitan was speaking of the Court being propped up, a bystander urged that the Court sadly needed propping.

PRESIDENT B. YOUNG is held in the highest respect by a hundred thousand people in this Territory, and by hundreds of thousands of others in the States east and west and in various nations of Europe.

THE CRUSADE.—Presidents B. Young and D. H. Wells went down to the court over the stable this morning, in answer to the indictments against them, but they were informed that the court had adjourned until two o'clock, when they were to appear again. The court room was densely crowded in the morning and doubtless would be in the afternoon, as an immense crowd had gathered around the entrance of the room before the time of opening.

NEWS FROM ENGLAND.—We take the following from the Millennial Star:

"From far-off Australia brother Beauchamp writes that opposition stirs the Saints to increased diligence, and aids the Elders in searching out and instructing the seekers after truth, a goodly number of whom have yielded obedience to the principles of the everlasting Gospel, inasmuch that the priests are warning the people to keep away from our meetings; and both priests and people in that remote region, as in all other places where the gospel has been proclaimed with authority from heaven, are chagrined and confounded at the progress of the Lord's "marvellous work."

"In the Swiss and German mission Elders Schoenfeld, Huber and Wilcken write that there is an increasing spirit of inquiry, more marked diligence among the Saints, and considerable addition to their numbers. Like cheering news comes from Scandinavia, where Pres. Peterson and his fellow-laborers in the ministry are being greatly blest in their labors."

"And here in the British Isles, where the gospel has been so long, so widely and so diligently proclaimed that one might fancy all had been warned, the Lord is blessing the Elders in searching out the honest and introducing them into His kingdom, and is bestowing upon them increasing influence with the Saints to guide them in the way of holiness, a path the faithful are anxious and striving to pursue to perfection."

The health of Elder Parry, who had been attacked with small-pox, was rapidly improving.
