

FRAGMENTS.

The poultry fair opens in Ogden tomorrow.

The Real Estate Association will hold a meeting this evening.

Chickens stealing is still going on in the northeastern part of the city.

The Union Pacific train due in Ogden at 1:10 this morning did not arrive this a.m.

The Levick Company played in Provo on the evening of the 20th to a good house.

CURIOUS LEVICK. The popular young actor, makes his first appearance in this city in "Hoodman Blind" at the Theatre tonight.

THERE is a freight blockade somewhere between San Francisco and this city. Freight from California is now ten days over due.

LOUIS A. MORGANSTERN is here with the "Hoodman Blind" Company, which appears at the Theatre tonight and tomorrow night.

THE entertainment by the Twenty-first Ward Primary Association comes off tonight. A good program will be rendered. To commence at 7:30.

GOLDMINTH & Co., whose advertisement appears in this number, carry a large stock in Abbie's handsome new stock, on Main Street of ready-made clothing. See their ad.

THE new advertisement of the Godbe-Pitts Drug Company in another column. They are offering goods thirty per cent below any former figures and have an immense and well selected stock.

THE Sunday School concert in the Nineteenth Ward will be given tomorrow evening, commencing at 8 o'clock. An interesting programme has been arranged, commencing with "I'll be a Parley Francis."

TODAY S. P. Tinsell, Esq., of the Eagle House, was highly engaged, personally, with preparations to make Christmas pleasant for his employees. He never fails to substantially remember them at holiday times.

THERE has been an improvement in the postal service between Ogden and this city. Mail now comes through in twenty-four hours instead of forty-eight. Postmaster Barrett says the tardiness is not the fault of his office.

THE Co-operative Wagon and Machine Company, of this city and Ogden, are distributing copies of a very handsome calendar. It is a representation of an English sparrow sitting on a spray of roses, and the effect is extremely beautiful and artistic.

ELDER J. M. TANNER was seen in his old quarters on Tuesday at the B. Y. Academy. Provo, shaking hands with old friends and new ones. He does not know yet whether he will take his old position there or be assigned to some other post.

WE are requested to state that Sister Western and family desire to express their thanks to those friends who so kindly assisted them and administered to the wants of Brother Western during his sickness, and who rendered aid in connection with his funeral.

STUDENTS of the University branch house in this city are represented in our columns by the engraving of a fine cutter which calls attention to the immense stock of fashionable goods to be found at their establishment. In the sale of which the lowest prices and best of tea meet are guaranteed.

JOHN T. MORGAN, Esq., agent of the Anchor Line of steamships at Chicago, was in this city today. He has been making an extensive trip on the Pacific Coast, and is now on his return trip to the Lake City. The Anchor company run a line of first class steamships between New York and Glasgow. The magnificent vessel The City of Rome, is one of the line, sailing between New York and Liverpool.

Moab.

This famous town in Emery County has been afflicted with whooping cough during some months past, and several infants have died of it. There is now only on the north side of fences, houses, etc., as the fall has been light. Peaches were raised this season in Moab, which measured 11 inches in circumference, and as high as 10 pounds on tomatoes were produced from a single vine. Henry Holyoak, who furnished the above, had a squash vine which was 90 feet long and bore 18 squashes, the largest weighing 125 pounds and the smallest 15 pounds; total weight of the 18, 1150 pounds. There is no other given as indication of what can be done in the way of raising crops.

A Fine Display.

Decidedly the finest display of meats we have seen for some time is now on exhibition in the Thibault store market. Manager David Thibault and his competent assistants, always efficient in the matter of good and pressurable work, have fairly outdone themselves this time and gotten up an exhibit worthy of a long walk to look at. The decorative art on the mutton, the work of Mr. Charles Caldwell, is the finest and most artistic of the kind we have yet seen. There are two Mammoth hogs raised on the premises, one weighing 400 lbs. and the other 500 pounds, and any amount of everything the epicure could desire, in any quantity. The display of best and poultry is also first-class.

He "Skipped."

On Saturday evening last as the peaceable residents of Brigham City were preparing to retire to rest, an exciting incident transpired. It was about 10 o'clock p.m. when two gentlemen might have been observed making their way southward along Main Street. One of the aforesaid gentlemen was a deputy marshal, and the other was a man whose name was said to be Frederickson. The last named gentleman had been arrested at Bear River City on the young charge, and was being conveyed to the commission's office in this city for examination. As they were about to place the man who was under arrest in the back of the overcoat, laid it down, turned round and ran for life and liberty, as it is said, and may possibly be running yet, leaving the deputy to wonder over the matter. - Ogden Herald.

"Hoodman Blind."

This attractive play will be presented at the Theatre this evening. Concerning it and the company the Red-Bird Cause has the following:

"This play was ably presented to an appreciative audience last evening. The cast is very strong and much better than the average. Hoodman Blind is a deception played upon Jack Yent, an English farmer who is brought to view the courting of an unknown sister of his wife. Jealousy leads to a quarrel and separation.

The play is very pathetic and at times mingled with rich humor. Gustavus Levick as Jack Yent is very forcible and an actor of merit. Miss Celia Alsberg the rising California actress is also natural and clever."

FIRST DISTRICT COURT.

Items in the Junction City Judicial Circles.

A case which occupied considerable attention in the First District Court on Tuesday, was one in which James Allen, who lives on a ranch in Box Elder County, was charged with an assault with intent to kill upon the person of a Mr. Johnson. It seems that the difficulty between the two individuals originated through a horse, which both of them claimed. Allen had possession of the horse, and was working it about a year ago. One day Johnson was riding past Allen's house, when he espied the animal standing in a corral with a harness on. He entered the corral and made for the horse. Allen, who stated under oath that he was satisfied from what he had heard, told Johnson that he was not to touch the horse, and that he was to get out, or he would kill him; Johnson picked up a club and then moved out of the corral, where Allen hid the pistol on him at the time.

On this showing a complaint was filed against Allen, and the evidence was all taken. Prosecuting Attorney Evans represented his side of the case before the jury, while J. L. O'Connell, Esq., made a plea in favor of the defendant. The jury retired, and after being out some time returned a verdict of acquittal, and was discharged.

The case was transferred in the court was as follows:

U. S. vs. A. McFarland, unlawful abridgment; arraigned and pleaded not guilty.

The People, etc., vs. Levi Smith, embezzlement; arraigned and plea of not guilty entered, and bonds fixed at $500.

U. S. vs. Charles Engstrom, unlawful abridgment; arraigned and plea of guilty entered, and first Monday in May term set as date of sentence.

F. J. Hard vs. A. D. Marshall and others; case of mortgage to vacate, ordered sustaining the demurrer; argued and taken under advisement.

John Cummings vs. Emma Cummings; decree of divorce granted.

U. S. vs. Herbert Christensen, unlawful abridgment; arraigned and plea of not guilty entered.

Indictments were returned against three persons in the United States and three Territorial cases. That body they report that had been indicted in the following cases, which were accordingly ordered dismissed by the court: The People, etc., vs. Joseph Hansen, larceny.

The People, etc., vs. Anna Steiger, bribery.

The People, etc., vs. William Sheen, unlawful branding cattle.

U. S. vs. Christopher Nelson, unlawful abridgment.

U. S. vs. Andrew Nelson, unlawful abridgment.

The People, etc., vs. F. W. Merrill, burglary.

Yesterday there was another disagreement on the part of the jury. A man named Ferdinand Broschinski was indicted on a charge of stealing a calf. The trouble came about through a complicated list of circumstances. Mr. W. O. Jones and the defendant made a trade in which Mr. Broschinski received a cow in exchange for two calves, and a small sum of money. The trial was continued to the next day, and the jury was discharged.

The other business transacted was as follows: McCard & Nava-Mercantile Co. vs. P. A. Herdt; order for default to be entered, and judgment for defendant of $212.

The court ordered that James Allen, in whose case the jury disagreed on Tuesday, be allowed to go on his own recognizance.

Charles Russell, who had been arrested some days before on a charge of grand larceny, pleaded guilty to the charge. The court suspended sentence in his case during good behavior, and as long as he abstains from the use of intoxicants as a beverage.

Police Court.

J. G. Sharp is under arrest for petit larceny.

B. P. Moody pleaded guilty to defrauding the railway company out of a $10 fare and was fined $15 by Justice Pyper. He had no cash and will ornament the chain gang for fifteen days.

Joseph Day's wife was charged for drunkenness. He promised that it would be the last time the officers would find him in such a predicament.

Wm. Jones, a "nigger," pleaded guilty to having been drunk, and was assessed $5.

John Doe, a tripple, was arrested this afternoon on a charge of petit larceny; he is accused of having stolen part of a windlass.

Nellie Humphries and May Pettit, two notorious characters, were arrested today on the charge of larceny. They were arraigned in the Police Court this afternoon, and the trial was set for tomorrow afternoon. It is alleged that they went to a man who had temporary charge of an unoccupied house in this city, and represented that they were in a destitute condition, and so would like to have shelter from the cold over night. He granted the desired permission, but a day or two afterward discovered that they had taken the little furniture there was in the house, sold it at a second-hand store and disappeared. This was coupled with evidence that they had managed to keep out of the way until today.

Perry Houston was being tried in the Police Court this afternoon for exhibiting a deadly weapon, at the Clift House, on Tuesday night.

Third District Court.

Proceedings before Judge Zane today.

John M. Hurst vs. George Edgerton; judgment for plaintiff for $385.

Hiram Kimball et al. vs. C. E. Tolhurst; postponed till tomorrow.

Edward Brain vs. Sarah Randa Leigh et al.; decree for sale of property, subject to further decree of distribution.

J. R. Nichols vs. N. B. White; supplemental complaining filed and C. H. Whitney made co-defendant.

Crescent Mining Co. vs. N. B. White; same order.

Elizabeth Brown vs. Alex. Brown; application for divorce; the testimony in the trial of Alex. Brown on the charge of adultery, in which the jury disagreed, was read in evidence.

Geo. S. Clark was admitted to citizenship.

Fine Carp.

Last evening a shipment of the carp from the vicinity of Ogden was brought to this city. It was sent by F. J. Cannon, Esq., to Watermaster C. H. Wilken. There were eight fish weighing over a pound each, and about a year old; and 106 smaller beauties of but a few months old. The latter were transferred to Mr. Wilken's fish pond. The large fish were on exhibition in a tub at the City Hall today, and attracted a great many observers.

H. J. Peterson Discharged.

Today Hans J. Peterson, whose application for release from imprisonment yesterday was denied, was again before Commissioner Norrell. Further testimony as to the applicant's unusual condition was heard, and the court being satisfied, Mr. Peterson was released. He will leave for his home in Weber County this afternoon.

FIVE MEN SENTENCED.

Holdings in Judge Boreman's Court at Beaver.

BEAVER, Dec. 22. [Special to the Dispatch News.]—In the District Court, this morning, Judge Boreman, David Childster, Elijah M. Steers, George Holyoak and Daniel Macfarlane, charged with unlawful cohabitation, were each sentenced to a term of six months in the penitentiary as a fine of $200 and costs. Judge Boreman, in passing sentence, simply asked each defendant if he had anything to say why sentence should not be pronounced, or why the full penalty should not be imposed. Immediately after imposition of sentence the defendants were taken off to the penitentiary.

The jury in the case of J. C. Riddle, charged with grand larceny, failed to agree and were discharged at 10 o'clock last night. The case was then continued for the term.

The King libel suit is now being tried before the court.

The Wool Growers.

The wool growers all over this section of country are up in arms against the proposed reduction of the tariff on wool. On the 9th of January those interested in Utah will hold a meeting at the Salt Lake County Court House, on Monday, to discuss the proposed wool growers' association.

Resolved, By the wool-growers of the state of California, and the United States, that a petition be presented to a large number of people, has enabled American products to find a market in the wool-growing industry in California, as it is so important for wool-producers to compete, while paying the present standard of wages, with the labor and against cheaper ranges in other countries; that with the duty on wool decreased the small farmer who heretofore has derived a profitable revenue from wool raising would be compelled to abandon the industry, and the result would be that the wool industry in this country would fall most heavily on him; that over 1,000,000 people, as shown by the census, are engaged in raising wool, and when the large number of people who are dependent on this industry and are engaged in manufacturing woolen products are considered, the vast amount of capital invested and the large proportion of people whose property and in many cases whose existence depends on the continuance of this industry, who are secured only by the retention of the present tariff, it can be seen that to originate this industry is to cripple the country. The amount of duty is so considerable, amounting to only 10 cents per capita, that no one would be benefited by its reduction. Australia now prohibits and for four years past has prohibited the importation of American merino sheep, and it would be the height of folly to throw our markets open to them when she closes hers to us. Therefore the wool-growers of California earnestly appeal to their representatives and to Congress not to bring widespread injury by reducing the tariff on wool, and earnestly appeal to the people to retain the present duty, felt by non-benefited without which the industry could not exist. We have no concern with the views expressed by the National Wool-growers' Association and extend to them our hearty co-operation in their efforts to protect the wool industry.

It is stated that the people of the United States spend annually for liquors $5,000,000; public education, $8,000,000; sugar and molasses, $10,000,000; boots and shoes, $12,000,000; cotton goods, $12,000,000; lumber, $23,000,000; woolen goods, $27,000,000; iron and steel, $28,000,000; meat, $30,000,000; wine, $30,000,000; bread, $30,000,000; liquors, $30,000,000.
