A New Jersey Editor's Testimonial.

M. T. Lynch, Editor of the Philipsburg, N. J., Daily Post, writes: "I have used many kinds of medicines for coughs and colds in my family but never anything so good as Feley's Honey and Tar. I can-not say too much in praise of it." Sold by Johnson-Pratt Drug Co. was returned a few minutes later. That was returned a few minutes netr. That the defendant, with several other men, were drinking together during the eve-ning and the taking of the watch was only a joke. The court, after hearing the testimony, took the case under ad-visement until today.

THE WOMAN OF THIRTY.

THE WOMAN OF THIRTY. When one knows the age of a woman one knows the woman. The very fact that she permits you to know her age exposes her character. She no longer masquerades. She has lost a certain un-certainty, an evanescent delicacy, that was irresistible charm. Women, like phi-losophy, are divided into two classes, the knowable and the unknowable. Also like philosophy, it is the unknowable woman who is the speculable. Therefore to get unmarried and about 30. The married woman presents certain in-escapable telltale data. She has children, and these children have apparent ages, two facts which go far in deternining her annuals. If she is unmarried and is not "about 20." she is under 30, again a defi-nite fact. Being "about 20" is indefinite. She may be more or less. No one huzards in being "about 20." It has nothing to do with dates; and many of us who from our youth up have filt no attachment for dates ena forgive the unatached their confessed indifference.-Keith Clark, in The Reader for September.
