

PETER OF SERBIA CROWNED KING.

There Were no Hostile Demonstrations During the Elaborate Ceremonies.

NO ECHO OF THE TRAGEDY HEARD

King Alexander's Murder Was at Least Outwardly, Forgotten.

SANG, "THANK THEE, OUR LORD."

In Festival Hall of the Palace He Received the Congratulations of the Diplomatic Corps.

Belgrade, Sept. 21.—Peter Karageorge, who was crowned king of Serbia today, there were no hostile demonstrations and no attempt to carry out the numerous threats against the new king's life. In the solemn ritual of the Greek church and in the elaborate state procession which preceded and followed the coronation the tragedy of Serbia's previous ruler found no echo. Amid the thunder of the saluting guns from the royal palace and the garrison, King Alexander's murder was at least outwardly, forgotten.

Here and in every garrison town of Serbia the dawn of the day was marked by a salute of 21 guns and before the sun was well up King Peter, on horseback, rode out from the palace. The procession then started for the cathedral, through the troop-lined streets. Behind the soldiers were packed dense crowds of men, in spite of the rainy weather, stood patiently awaiting to see the king. The royal heralds, carrying life guards, the heralds, carrying the royal standards and carriages, the Serbian princes, preceded the monarch. Beside King Peter rode his two sons, George and Alexander. The cathedral was reached shortly after. There the representatives of the foreign powers, the cabinet ministers and others had already been waiting for some time.

As King Peter entered the metropolitan cathedral and more artillery salutes were fired. The king then took up his position under a canopy, and the metropolitan, assisted by many bishops and other clergy, commenced the solemn service, the choir singing, "Thank Thee, O Lord." After the royal prayer, the king, wearing the crown and the royal mantle, and other ministers, handed the crown and regalia to King Peter. He kissed the crown, placed it on his head and robed himself in the royal garments. An artillery salute of 21 guns was then fired. The king then announced to the people that he was crowned. It was nearly three hours before the service was concluded, and the ritual of the church complied with, King Peter afterward signed the coronation document, which was witnessed by the metropolitan, the premier, the cabinet ministers and the heads of state. Wearing the crown and the head and fully robed, the king left the cathedral, remounted his horse and rode through the crowded streets to the palace. There, in the grand festival hall, King Peter received the congratulations of the diplomatic corps and others, attended the royal throne and once more took the scepter and orb in his hands. The ceremony of rendering homage was then performed.

King Peter offered the American minister, Mr. Jackson, the Karageorge star, which he presented to all the other ministers as a souvenir of the coronation. As Mr. Jackson was unable to accept the star his majesty will present him with his photograph and autograph.

RUSSIAN PRESS FRIENDLY.

AN AGITATION FOR A HOLY WAR.

Wandering Lamas Are Spreading It Among the Buddhists of Mongolia.

ALSO IN SIBERIA AND INDIA.

Removal of the Dalai Lama to Northern Mongolia Favored—Would Set Up a Kingdom.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 21, 12:45 p. m.—It is rather significant that with the success of the British expedition to Tibet and the protest of Russia against the British-Tibetan treaty some of the Russian papers have suddenly become greatly disturbed over the importance of the Buddhist pilgrimage to Moupin in February. According to information which has been drifting eastward from the depths of Mongolia, the agitation for a holy war noted at the time of the pilgrimage to Ourga in July last, continues. Wandering lamas are spreading the agitation not only among Buddhists in Mongolia, but among the followers of Buddha in the Altai regions of central China, among the Russian Buriats and even beyond the Siberian borders and in India. According to reports at Ourga there is a general agitation among the Buddhists in favor of freeing themselves from the domination of China, some of them favoring the removal of the dalai lama to northern Mongolia and entering on a holy war for the establishment of a Buddhist kingdom, while others advocate appealing for the protection of Russia. What effect the British expedition and the deposition of the dalai lama will have on the movement is the subject of much speculation. The Journal de St. Petersburg says it is possible that the February pilgrimage may compel Russia to attach serious attention to the agitation.

"We may expect developments of the greatest importance," the paper adds, "and should be prepared for any eventuality."

HARRON'S CASE.

Information Covering His Offense To Be Drawn Up.

Kansas City, Sept. 21.—In the case of W. H. Harroun, the St. Joseph grain dealer, who is charged with having manipulated fraudulent warehouse receipts for grain, Roland Hughes, prosecuting attorney, said he had instructed the assistant prosecutor to draw up an information covering the offense mentioned.

Harroun is already under heavy bonds in St. Joseph on charges of having forged bills of lading on which he is said to have realized large sums of money.

Harroun did not appear at the meeting of the directors of the Kansas City board of trade yesterday afternoon to show cause why he should not be expelled from membership in that organization. Instead he sent a letter to Secy. Bigelow saying he would be unable to be present and requesting a postponement of the hearing. The members acceded to this request. Action was postponed until this afternoon.

A dispatch from Troy, Kas., says that an indemnity bond was put up there by representatives of New York and Chicago banks to which Harroun is alleged to be indebted, and that they secure papers for the redemption of $9,000 bushels of wheat stored in the Harroun elevator at Elwood.

The wheat was attached a few days ago by the American National Bank of Kansas City and was in the charge of the sheriff.

OGDEN WILL BEAT LAST YEAR.

At Logan the Prospect is Less Promising and Beets May Have to be Shipped From the Ogden Fields.

(Special to the "News.")

Lehi, Utah Co., Sept. 21.—The Utah Sugar company's factory at this place commenced cutting beets at 7 this morning under the most favorable conditions for one of the most prosperous runs in its history. The Provo and Springville cutting stations started up yesterday morning in order to get the juice through the pipe line to this factory which will take from 24 to 36 hours. Mr. James H. Gardner, general superintendent of the Utah Sugar company's factories at Lehi and Ogden, and the Idaho sugar companies, stated that they would make a run of 100 days at this plant this year and that they expected to make even better records in cutting up the tonnage of beets this year than last. Last year an average of 1,100 tons of beets were cut up per day and as they will be running 100 days this year and expect to beat their record of last year, a tonnage of 10,000 or over is expected to be delivered in their sheds. The sugar per cent of the beets is as good or better this year than last, and the farmers all over this and Salt Lake, Wasatch, Sanpete and Sevier counties, are now busily engaged in digging their beets and are jubilant because of the excellent tonnage they are delivering to the factory. Three hundred men will be employed at this factory and at the cutting station in the factory alone. Mr. Charles Crabbs has been installed as local superintendent of this and the auxiliary stations, and Mr. John Devey as chief engineer. Mr. David Conder will be head foreman at this factory and Messrs. Enoch Russon and A. C. Pearson, assistant foremen. Mr. R. J. ## JAPANESE SLOWLY PUSHING NORTH.

Skirmishes Between Outposts and Patrol Parties Occur Daily.

KUROKI HASN'T CROSSED HUN.

Reports That a Battle at Mukden is Imminent Are Regarded As Premature.

Gen. Kuroki's Headquarters in the Field, via Fusan, Tuesday, Sept. 20, 11 a. m.—(Delayed in transmission.)—The Japanese are slowly pushing northward. The outposts are in touch near Yen Tai and skirmishes between outposts and patrol parties occur daily. It is believed that the Russians are gathering a force at Yen Tai preparatory to making a strong stand for the protection of the coal mines.

The Japanese are rapidly changing the gauge of the railroad from Newchwang and probably it will be in operation to Liao Yang in a fortnight. They are rushing forward supplies of ammunition.

KUROKI HASN'T CROSSED.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 21, (2:35 p. m.)—The reports that Gen. Kuroki had crossed the Hun river at Fushun turned out to be false. The Russians strongly hold the road to Fushun and Renshaipute. It is pointed out that if the Japanese had occupied Fushun the Russians would have been compelled to evacuate Mukden, since Fushun is nearer to Tientsin.

While the war office advices do not indicate that Field Marshal Oyama's main armies have yet resumed their forward movement, advance detachments of Japanese are feeling out the strength and disposition of the Russian forces and Japanese flanking columns are already pressing northward. The reports that a battle at Mukden is imminent are, however, regarded as premature. All that seems to be definitely established is that Oyama is in a position to capture Gen. Kuropatkin from the east. His advance forces are seeking to obtain command of the road leading to 20 miles east of Mukden. Yesterday they attempted to seize Da pass, on the road to Fushun, in order to turn the Russian left, but they were repulsed.

In addition to the two Russian corps already mobilized, seven other corps are to be called to the color.

NO CHANGE AT FRONT.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 21, 2:30 p. m.—Gen. Kuropatkin, telegraphing under yesterday's date, declares that the situation at the front is unchanged. He describes an outpost fight Tuesday at Da pass, half way between Renshaipute and Sinsintin. A Japanese force, consisting of four companies, marched up from Renshaipute, 23 miles north-east of Sinsintin, and tried to capture the pass and turn the Russian left flank, but the Russians repulsed the attack, and the turning movement was checked by Russian cavalry, supported by machine guns.

The receipt of the news at Tokio of the Japanese from the Russian channel was the probable origin of the rumor that Kuropatkin had crossed the Hun river, which runs 20 miles north of Da pass.

The most reliable information does not indicate the resumption of the Japanese offensive for some days.

SHOT HIS WIFE IN COLD BLOOD.

Joseph Kendall Kills His Life Partner in Owl Restaurant in Ogden.

THEN TRIED TO END HIS DAYS.

But His Revolver Would Not Work And the Cartridge Remained Unexploded.

RACED UP STREET GUN IN HAND.

Knocked Man Down Who Attempted To Stop Him—When Arrested He Claimed Wife Was Unfaithful.

(Special to the "News.")

Ogden, Sept. 21.—Joseph Kendall murdered his wife, Elizabeth Jenkins Kendall, at 11 o'clock this morning in the Owl restaurant. He shot her twice, one bullet entering her back just below the shoulder blade, and the other the left side of her head, near the temple. The woman fell to the floor, face downward, and expired almost instantly. Kendall, after shooting his wife, tried to shoot himself, but the gun refused to work. He then ran up Twenty-fifth street, pursued by Officer Hutchins. When near the corner of Grant avenue, a man attempted to stop him. He knocked the man down, and continued up the street to Ellis' second-hand store, carrying his gun in his hand, and threatening to shoot anyone who should attempt to stop him. Officer Hutchins caught him in a rear room, disarmed him, and took him to the police station, where he was booked on the charge of murder. The pistol contained two empty cartridges and three loaded ones.

When seen at the police station he made the following statement:

MURDERER'S STATEMENT.

"I shot my wife because she was unfaithful to me, and am sorry I did not kill Joe Rogerson and Smith. They were the cause of breaking up my family. I know my wife stayed with Rogerson last night, at Rogerson's rooming house, as she did not come home all night. I went to the restaurant for the purpose of killing her. Rogerson and Smith, and was then going to kill myself. This is the second time Rogerson has broken up my family. When I was married to Tilly Wicker he caused our separation. I then married Lizzie, and now he has killed her, and that will end it. I am ready to die for killing my wife, and wish it were all over with now."

WIFE WAS ARAID OF HIM.

Mr. Rogerson said this morning: "Mrs. Kendall told me and my wife that her husband had been cruel to her the last evening. When Mrs. Kendall came to our place last night she said she was afraid of her husband and we gave her a room. Here she stayed alone."

Kendall when asked if he had been cruel to his wife or treated her unkindly, stated that he had never laid a hand on her, and that he had always been good and kind to her, and although he was a poor man, he had always tried to care for her the best he could.

INQUEST THIS AFTERNOON.

Upon hearing of the murder, Judge J. A. Howell empaneled as a coroner's jury Sam Thomas, R. P. O'Neill and W. Farr, who with Dr. Dixon viewed the remains of Mrs. Kendall as they lay in a pool of blood on the restaurant floor. An inquest will be held this afternoon. Kendall has resided in Ogden since 1887. He has worked hard for a living, and is generally said to have a jealous, mean disposition. At times he has been known to drink to excess. He is about 60 years of age, while his wife, whom he married about three years ago, was only about 30. They have no children, and have been in the habit of associating with people of not the best reputation.

PLANNED THE MURDER.

Kendall and his wife had been living at a room in the Lawrence block. Yesterday he decided to move to two rooms on Twenty-sixth street. He left his wife to attend to the moving, while he was working on a building on Sixteenth street. Last night when he came home about half past ten he found that his wife had moved into the new quarters, but the doors were locked and she was gone. He then went to Rogerson's and inquired for her. They said she was not there. He enlisted the assistance of Captain of Police Brown to help locate his wife, and the captain made a search at 11 o'clock last night, but could not find her. Kendall then went to his room, broke open the door and went to bed. On arising this morning he made up his mind to commit the murder, and immediately went out in search of his wife, whom he soon located in Rogerson's restaurant.

CONTRACTORS ARRESTED.

Moran and Kelsey Charged With Violating Eight-Hour Law.

(Special to the "News.")

Ogden, Sept. 21.—Detective Pender arrested H. A. Baird this morning on the charge of being one of the men who helped hold up the Elephant gambling house about six weeks ago, where they made a big haul.

Complaints were issued this morning by County Attorney Hulanicki against J. P. O'Neill under the city ordinance to do sidewalk paving. B. J. Moran, under contract with the city to do street paving work, and L. C. Kelsey, under contract to put in the new sewer, all on the charge, under the revised statutes of 1903, of violating the eight hour law by having the employees work 10 hours per day. The complaints are H. A. Allers and Grant Frybarger, two of the officers of the Trades Assembly or labor unions of this city. The principal cause for the warrant is that the contractors have been employing foreign labor, and local laboring men and taxpayers cannot get a job.

HERBERTSMARK'S FUNERAL.

Ceremony Simple But Company Was Distinguished.

Friedrichshafen, Sept. 21.—The funeral service over the remains of Prince Herbert Bismarck, who died Sept. 15, took place today, was a simple ceremony, although it occurred in the presence of a distinguished company, most of whom were brilliantly uniformed, including representatives of the German sovereigns, the diplomatic corps and the German public services. Chancellor von Buelow, who was always a warm personal friend of the late prince, was present. Gen. von Hahnke, chief of the imperial military cabinet, represented the emperor.

The coffin was borne to the mausoleum by 16 servants in old Spanish costumes, such as formerly were worn by the servants of the Hamburg council.

BOY LOSES A LEG.

Six-Year-Old George Hackwell Run Over by Gravel Train.

George Hackwell, aged six years, a son of Joseph Hackwell, who resides at 6 Fifth avenue, met with an accident last evening which will cost him a leg and may endanger his life. About 8 o'clock he was run over by an Oregon Short Line gravel train at the crossing at Fourth North street, and had his left foot crushed to a pulp.

Reports differ as to the cause of the accident, one report stating that the boy was on his way home and that he reached the crossing at the time that
