ATTEMPTED SUICIDE IN JAIL.

Weber County Schools Will Have No Primary Supervisor-Wedding Permits-Briefs and Personals.

The case of Weber county against Emma J. Moyes, suit brought to recover $25.50 alleged to be due for support f one Caroline Copes, mother of defendant, is to be reopened on a writ of certiorari issued by Judge Rolapp. The application and affidavit of Mrs. Moyes sets forth, that the said suit was brought and judgment rendered by the judge of the municipal court. The affiant states that she is a married woman and that the interest and income of her estate does not exceed $5 per month; that she is 58 years of age and said income was necessary for her own support, and that under section 2500 of the Revised Statutes of Utah she is n nowise liable for the support of her nother, and further that the said nother, and in the entered against her in due time as required by law and further that the said court informed her attorney that judgment had not been entered, and that he understood been entered, and that he understood that the matter was going to be set-tled out of court, and further, that the said municipal court has exceeded the jurisdiction of said court, and that there is no appeal from said judgment. Wherefore, Mrs. Moyes asked for a writ of review fro mthe district court, that the said judgment and proceedings that the said judgment and proceedings and files of said action may be reviewed by the district court.
