FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

Several porcupines have been killed in the western part of town recently.

General W. T. Sherman reviewed the troops at Camp Douglas this morning.

Mr. George Calder, of Mill Creek, superintendent of Calder's Farm, left for the East this morning.

A man was seen on First South Street this morning, with his coat ablaze, caused by a lighted pipe and paper in his pocket.

A cow belonging to Elias Morris received some slight injuries and came near being run down by the U. C. freight train on Saturday p. m.

Sister A. Godfrey and niece, late of St. Caroline Place, London, are staying temporarily with Brother T. C. Gidges, 15th Ward. P. O. box 172.

Mr. John Hamilton, superintendent of the foreign banking house, the American Exchange of Europe, limited, of London, Paris and New York is at the Walker House.

Thomas Hughes says America is the country to make money in, and Europe is the country in which to spend it. This is nothing new. Dr. H. J. Faust expressed this same remark 15 years since, in the city of London.

The funeral services over the remains of the little daughter of Brother Ashley Woolley, of the 14th Ward, were conducted yesterday by Bishop B. A. Woolley. Elder H. F. Nelson and Bishop Woolley were the speakers.

The ceremonies over the remains of the little daughter of Brother and Sister Edmonds were conducted yesterday by Bishop Whitney. Consolatory addresses were delivered by some of the brethren present. The gathering of relatives and friends was quite large.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Pipes and Flues.—This morning we were shown by Mr. W. H. Miles, the well known brush manufacturer, a contrivance he has just completed for cleaning stove pipes and another for stove flues. Both are admirably adapted to the purposes for which they are intended and comparatively inexpensive. The purposes applying for a patent on both. They will be kept on sale by Sears & Tiddell.

Smallpox in Sanpete.—Bishop John W. Irons, of Moroni, sends us this:

"We have a sickness here resembling small pox. Public gatherings are stopped for the present. We shall be pleased to correct the report if our fears are not well grounded; but while hoping the best we fear the worst."

We regret to have to state that subsequent information confirms the worst anticipations in relation to the character of the malady.

A Good Move.—The Saints of the Fifteenth Ward have arranged for the purchase of a half lot of land adjacent to their meeting house. Some two or three meetings have been held to consider the proposition, and a committee of one to each of the thirteen blocks of the Ward will call on the residents this week and receive subscriptions. It is a most commendable project, and no doubt the proverbial public-spiritedness of the Fifteenth Warders will accomplish the object in view.

Wedded.—This morning George D. Pyper and Miss Emma S. Whitely were united in the bonds of wedlock. The groom is the son of the late Bishop A. C. Pyper and the bride the daughter of Brother Horace K. Whitney. The couple are intelligent and highly respectable, and among whom we claim to be ranked, and they will receive no heartier congratulations or more fervent and earnest wishes for their welfare than are tendered by us. There will be a reception of relatives and friends at the residence of the parents of the bride this evening.

Union Square Theatre Company.—Mr. Fulton, representing this celebrated organization, arrived in town yesterday to superintend arrangements for the production of the three new pieces to be played at the Salt Lake Theatre Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings of this week. They carry three car-loads of scenery. "The Ranters," which created so great a furore in San Francisco, is the opening piece. "A Parisian Romance" will be played Wednesday and "French Elites" on Friday, which will close the engagement. It is seldom that so strong an attraction appears in this city.

Ladies' Work.—Sisters E. B. Wells and H. M. Whitney, returned this morning from Nephi, where they had been attending the Sisters' Conference of Utah Stake.

On Saturday the Relief Society held their Conference, at which time a re-organization of the Stake officers of that Society took place, rendered necessary by the demise of Sister Amelia Goldsborough, the late President. The following officers were nominated by President William Paxman, and sustained by the unanimous vote of the conference. President, Mrs. Mary Pritchett; First Counselor, Mrs. Amy L. Bigler; Second Counselor Mrs. Neesham Brown; Secretary, Mrs. Mary Hyatt; Treasurer, Mrs. Thirza Maria Vickroy; Mrs. Mary Pritchett having presided over the Relief Society of Nephi for several years, a re-organization of the Ward was also effected by President Paxman and his assistants in the President. Mrs. Marinda Bryan, President; Mrs. E. R. Reddell, First Counselor; Mrs. Ann Midgely, Second Counselor; Mrs. M. E. Teasdale, Secretary; Mrs. Hannah Grover, Assistant Secretary; Mrs. C. Evans, Treasurer; Mrs. Julia Bryan, Assistant Treasurer.

The meetings were very interesting—Sunday morning, Primary Conference, in the afternoon, Y. L. M. I. A., and in the evening. On joint meeting of Y. L. M. I. A. M. I. A. Associations. The meeting-house was filled mostly with young men and women.

BLOODLESS SHOOTING AFFRAY.

A DESPERADO EXCHANGES BLOWS WITH OFFICERS IN THE SIXTEENTH WARD.
 Last night there came very near being a tragedy in the city of the Sixteenth Ward schoolhouse. A well known professional horse-thief named Andrew Pettit was in that vicinity between seven and eight o'clock, his horse being tied up a short distance away. He was approached by a man, supposed to be a deputy U. S. Marshal, who accosted him. In a moment Pettit drew a revolver, pointed it at the other individual and backed toward his horse. The man who intended to arrest Pettit was of course helpless under the circumstances, the thief having the drop on him. Reaching his horse the desperado leaped into the saddle and as he was riding off the other man pulled his pistol and several shots were exchanged, but so far as known, without effect.

The affair occurred in front of a house, and a young girl stood near where the scene was enacted and witnessed the whole of it. The congregation assembled at evening service in the adjacent school-house, heard the shots, but did not know what was transpiring. Pettit's hat, (a soft brown felt), was picked up from the street afterwards and is now at the City Hall. There is a bullet hole through the rim, a little to the right of the back and close to the heel, showing that the wearer had a close call.

We understand that the man who attempted Pettit's arrest was a U. S. officer, but we are not positive on that point, as up to one o'clock to-day the particulars had not been reported to Marshal Ireland. The officers have been after the desperado for some time, however, on account of some new horse-stealing operations. He is a desperate character, and the officers will be unwise if they take many chances in attempting his capture.

His reputation is that he will shoot without hesitation when his liberty is at stake. Since the above was written we have seen a gentleman who resides in the vicinity of the place where the shooting occurred. His statement corroborates the foregoing with the exception that instead of one man approaching Pettit there were three, two of whom U. S. officers and the other was Gideon Rolph, from whom Pettit had stolen some horses. Six or seven shots were fired, and the people in the neighborhood were considerably excited. One lady, Mrs. Stevenson, who was sitting by the bed-side of her sick daughter, fainted on hearing the sound of the pistol reports.

THAT MODOCRATIC OUTRAGE.

ELDERS MARKS AND DAVIS TARRIED AND FEATHERED.

On Friday last we published an account of the tarring and feathering, by a mob, of two Elders of the Church, at the house of Mr. Ellison, near Laurel, Indiana. We learn that the brethren who were subjected to this indignity and abuse were Elders B. R. Marks and D. F. Davis. Before Mr. Ellison, who is not a member of the Church, would permit the mob to take them a promise had to be given that they would do them no bodily injury. He informed the brutal crowd that he was armed, and that unless they made this agreement, if they took the Elders at all it would be over his dead body. They made the promise and Elders Marks and Davis were taken a short distance from the house, compelled to strip, and were tarred and feathered.

We understand that the young lady about whom the trouble arose, who had been baptized into the Church, had been abused by her parents who were opposed to the step she had taken, and she walked a distance of twenty-four miles to the house of an acquaintance, where she was stopping at the time the outrage was perpetrated upon the brethren.

After the tarring and feathering had taken place a gentleman, called upon the Elder and informed them that the crowd had gathered at a designated spot, and he had every reason to believe that they intended them further molestation and harm. He very kindly conducted them, by a way to avoid the mob, and after walking twelve miles they arrived at the house of a friend, who rendered them every assistance in his power. Brothers Marks and Davis felt none the worse for their unpleasant experience, and are full of determination to continue the prosecution of their labors with unabated energy.

A Good Discourse.—Brother Jaa. D. Stirling has been in the following:

"First. A. M. Cannon delivered a very interesting discourse in the 1st Ward Assembly-Rooms last evening. The subjects treated upon were the extravagance and folly of the people in dress, fine carriages, grand receptions, etc., patronizing our avowed enemies, instead of our brethren; the results of drunkenness, personal impurity, and every pernicious practice antagonistic to the principles of righteousness and the good order of society. He said we had been too lenient with the transgressor. It was our burden duty to eradicate all evil from our midst. The evil-doer had been tolerated too long in the community. We should use the riches which God has given us for the emigration of the poor and the establishment of manufacturing industries for their support. Let us educate our children, teach them the principles of the Gospel and promote the welfare of Israel. The remarks were replete with good instruction, and calculated to stimulate the Saints to a renewal of life in the Lord. All that were present felt the influence of the good spirit and knew the voice of the Good Shepherd. The discourse was listened to with the most profound attention."

"It is a little singular that a dispatch in relation to an interview with our highly esteemed Governor in Ohio, should find its way into the columns of the Ogden Pilot, and not be able to crawl down to Salt Lake. In the S. L. Herald, it is because there is a fellow feeling for the Pilot connected with the electric dispensing institution. Have you any idea who he is?"

TABERNACLE SERVICES.

Sunday afternoon, September 23.

The choir sang,
 Great is the Lord, 'tis good to praise
 His high and holy name.

Opening prayer by Bishop H. B. Clawson.

"Come follow me," the Savior said.
 Then let us in his foot steps tread.

Was sung by the choir.

The Sacrament was ministered by the Priesthood of the Tenth Ward.

Elder P. F. Goss, who returned a few days ago from a mission to Europe, gave a brief account of his labors and experiences abroad. As a statement of his operations has already appeared in the News, we deem it unnecessary to repeat. He expressed himself as feeling well in the work of the Lord, concerning which he bore a strong testimony. Elder O. W. Penrose was the next speaker. He repudiated a common notion that existed abroad concerning the Latter-day Saints, to the effect that they were under a species of coercion exercised by a few men; showed that their gathering together, readiness to perform any public duty and remarkable unity of purpose and action were the results of their knowledge of the divine character of the work they were engaged in and being possessed of the same spirit. He next explained the nature, authority and duties of the Priesthood, the arbitrary exercise of which was forbidden; also the character and organization of the Church, the same in form and spirit as described in the Bible. The system had been revealed from heaven anew to Joseph Smith. He illustrated the unanimity of spirit and self-sacrificing disposition of the people in their action in leaving their homes and preparing to give them to the flames, when the army, sent here on false representations, threatened to come into the city, destroy the leaders of the Church and outrage the women of the community. The people were not forced or coerced to take this action, but could have remained had they chosen to do so. They were possessed of one spirit, and founded upon the testimony they had obtained concerning the truth of their religion. He next showed that the people were united politically, because they had a common interest and saw and understood alike, and explained that the only "one man power" that existed here was in the anti-republican system that obtained in the appointment of Governors, in whose selection the people had no voice, clothed with the power of absolute veto. Judges placed in authority in the same manner, by every method of word-twisting, thwarted the will of the people, who desired that prohibition of the liquor traffic should obtain in our settlements. This was the one-man power existing, and the only species of it. The speaker concluded by bearing testimony to the restoration of the Gospel in this age, in its ancient purity and power, and its ability to right every wrong that existed in the world, and establish universal liberty, by which it would ultimately accomplish.

The choir sang an anthem.
 Benediction by Elder Elias Morris.

Road Agents at Work.—The Utah Journal states that as Dr. Norcross was crossing the bridge over Logan River, near Logan City, on Thursday night, on horseback, he was stopped by a couple of high-way-men, who commanded him to throw up his hands. Instead of complying he spurred his horse, which leaped forward and he dashed on to town and escaped.

Of Course.—Olat Olsen writes from Fountain Green, thus sadly:

"Last month there came to this town a man by the name of J. S. Swartz, selling the patent right of improvements in gates, known as the "Centennial Gates." I bought the exclusive right to manufacture, use and sell the above named patent right of him within the boundary lines of the Fountain Green Ward, Sanpete County; also the County of Juab; paid him one hundred and fifty dollars for said right. He promised to send me a brass model of said gates within ten days, as he was expecting to receive a large number of models from the East, and if any thing should happen that he failed to receive the models from the east within the specified time, he would certainly send me the wooden models that he had along with him, but he has failed to do so. He may be in the Territory, and probably see this letter, which will remind him of his promise to me."

We think likely that the itinerant vendor of rights to make, use and sell "Centennial Gates" doesn't need any reminder, as his memory is not likely to fall him on the subject. We hope Olat has not gained a little experience and lost some money, but the matter appears to have that complexion.

AN EDITOR'S TESTIMONIAL.

A. M. Vaughan, Editor of the Greenwich Citizen, Greenwich, Conn., writes:—Last January I met with a very severe accident, caused by a runaway horse. I lured almost every kind of snake to heal my wounds, which turned to running sores, but found nothing to do me any good till I was recommended Henry's Carbolic Salve. I bought a box and it helped me once, and at the end of two months I was completely well. It is the best salve in the market, and I never fail of telling my friends about it, and urge them to use it whenever they need a salve.

Medical Skill Hailed.

T. C. Coyle, of Clarkburg, W. Va., writes:—I am quite familiar with Scovill's Sarsaparilla and Stillings, or Blood and Liver Syrup, having used it for the past fifteen years as an alternative medicine, and can safely say that it is superior to any with which I am acquainted now in the market for the cure and control of those diseases of the blood that have baffled the skill of the masters of the medical profession.
