

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRE. For to-morrow night, the management present an attractive bill for the public. "The Lost Ship," an exciting and sensational nautical drama, will be the opening piece. The distribution of characters is good, Miss Colebrook and Mr. M. Kettle sustaining the principal parts, the remainder being in care of Mrs. Carson, Messrs. Margotta, Thorne, Harwood, Evans and Foster.

The very funny farce, called in the bill, "Lawless Law," or, a Race for a Widow, in which "Paul" Margotta and John Langham will "do" a goodly number of their specialties.

MEETING AT THE CITY HALL.—The meeting of the members of the Society for the improvement of improved stock, etc., held last night in the City Hall was well attended and very interesting.

Communications from Helton, Southern Utah, and Gunnison, Sanpete county, relative to the establishment of branch organizations of the Society, were read.

Bishop Thomas Jenkins was appointed chairman of the committee on horned stock, Vice B. Stringham, resigned.

The President of the Society, W. Woodruff, Esq., made the gratifying announcement that the necessary funds, $20,000, had been raised for the purchase of the "Duke of Northumberland," one of the bulls recently imported from Canada.

A communication from D. Greig, Esq., for the value of the Cashmere goat was read, and referred to the committee on sheep, of which committee Mr. Greig was appointed a member.

W. C. Rydahl, Esq., gave a verbal report of his recent stock purchases in Canada, and said he was willing to give to the owners of three of the cows he had imported one hundred dollars for each of the calves they will have, when the calves are two weeks old. The report was accepted.

W. Jennings, Esq., expressed his satisfaction with both the price and quality of the animals he had purchased from among those imported by Mr. Rydahl; he had greatly improved their arrival here, although he feeds them less than his ordinary stock. He said that he would not take a hundred dollars for two weeks old calves from this stock.

Gratifying reports as to the management of sheep were made by Bishops Layton and Laughlin. The latter gave a few items of his seven years' experience in a great sheep raising district in England, two of which he was a shepherd. He never heard of the "wolf" there, and he had known one stock numbering forty thousand. He said that shepherds there are in the habit of shearing their sheep every October and November with a shaver made of tar, old butter and chamber lye. They regarded this as necessary to insure full crops of wool.

Remarks were made by Elders Cannon, Woodruff and Messer, in relation to the furtherance of the objects of the Society and the very gratifying fact in relation to the meeting last night, was the inauguration of measures by the President, Bishop, Edward Luntz, who was present, to form co-operative herds in this city.

HE MEANS BUSINESS.—We have received the following telegram, which shows that the sender means business:

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., JAN. 23, 1871.

Desert News: I will retail or wholesale city thousand lbs. of redwood, and five hundred thousand redwood shingles in Salt Lake City next week.

D. H. PARKHURST.

THE LOST SHIP.—"The end is not yet" hath often been said, but the old stock phrase is nearly played out now, if the Millionaires of New England tell the truth. They are getting ready for their final flight from earth to air, so say the eastern papers, and the time fixed for their departure is the 11th of next month. They have made mistakes before, and it is just possible they may be out of their calculations this time if they are not likely to feel very bad about it, they are used to it now.

POPULATION OF THE TERRITORIES.—The report of the Census Bureau gives the following as the population of the Territories in 1870:

Utah 100,000; New Mexico 85,245; Colorado 40,681; Washington 23,271; Montana 20,384; Idaho 14,880; Dakota 14,141; Arizona 10,508; Wyoming 9,118. The report says the population of Utah ten years ago was 40,000; of New Mexico 85,278; of Colorado 22,277; and of Washington 11,264.

"THE LOST SHIP."—All who wish to get a preliminary glimpse of it can do so opposite the Theatre. On the large advertisement board there, can be seen a splendid painting of it from the brush of the young artist Mr. Fred Lambourn.

THE LECTURE TO-NIGHT.—Do not forget the third lecture of the series on Astronomy to-night, to be delivered at the Tabernacle by Elder Orson Pratt. Half past 8 o'clock is the time of commencement.

NEW INDIAN AGENT.—It will be seen by reference to the dispatches to-day that the Senate has confirmed, among other nominations, that of J. J. Critchfield as Indian Agent for Utah.

SNOW.—Last night the weather moderated somewhat and toward daylight snow commenced falling, covering the ground with a slight coat.

CLOTHING A LA MODE.—A rare chance now presents itself to all who desire, and can afford to pay for, clothing out and made in the latest eastern styles, for Messrs Brown & Mathews, both partners of first-class clothing establishments on Wabash Avenue, Chicago, are in town. The first named gentleman is a member of the firm of Brown & Prior, famous for their men's furnishing goods, the latter of Brown & Mathews. Mr. Mathews is already known to quite a number of our citizens, he having on a former occasion visited this city, selling their orders and establishing his reputation for faithful and artistic style. Both gentlemen are staying at Room 31, at the Townsend House, where they will open their samples for inspection and will be ready to receive orders to-morrow.

JUSTICE'S COURT.—This afternoon as we go to press, the trial of James Gordon, for selling whisky without a license, was progressing. The witnesses were being examined who each had bought whisky at his place.

"P" STANDS FOR PAIN.—That spicy little sporting sheet, the San Francisco News Letter, of the 21st inst., contains an extract from a letter written in this city by its correspondent "P," in relation to matters theatrical. "P" has a short review of the engagement of the Langhorne troupe, the performances of that troupe in combination with the Couello's, the performances of Miss Sallie Hinchley and of Mr. Thompson, and of the appearance here of Mr. Milton Nobles, the comedian. He says the engagement of the Langhorne troupe was not a success; the Couello's had only two good houses, Miss Hinchley and Mr. Thompson were artists of very great ability, that the troupe here were regretted their departure and hope for their return; and that Mr. Milton Nobles is the possessor of great artistic merit and has a good voice, which, under proper control, "P" also speaks well of the troupe, and says one thing in reference to it which must be extremely gratifying to its patrons and proprietors,—"P" says that, "unlike any other sheet of the kind it paid from the start."

DEAR LADY.—Bro. M. Phelps, of Montpelier, writing on the 9th inst. says I feel pleased and thankful for the blessing of a mild and pleasant winter. So far we have not had more snow than the good sleighing, and the ground is still soft and yielding. A general time of good health and of peace and quietness prevails.
