San Francisco, 21.—The Republicans receive the nomination of Grant and Colfax with great enthusiasm; there was a salute of cannon fired. They are holding a meeting.

A company styled the Atlantic and Pacific States Telegraph Company has been organized here this week to build a new line across the continent. Ex-Gov. Low and Mayor McCoppin are among the directors.

The Tribune's special says the impeachment managers continue the examination of witnesses in regard to the alleged improper means used to influence the votes of Senators on impeachment.

A singular disease is prevalent among the cattle at Springfield, Ill. Nearly 200 cattle, mostly milch cows, have died in that vicinity within the last few days. They are dying very suddenly. The disease is extending to other localities. The officers of the State Agricultural Society have employed medical men to make a post mortem examination of the bodies of the dead cattle, to investigate the nature of the disease to the utmost of their ability. Some think the epidemic was communicated by a train on the Chicago and St. Louis railroad, as the first appearance was made along that line.

Chicago, 21.—The Chicago National Union Republican Convention has closed its labors and adjourned. Crosby's Opera House was closely packed all day, the convention opening at 10 o'clock with prayer by Rev. Dr. Gulliver, pending the arrival of the committee on resolutions, it having been ordered yesterday, that the adoption of the platform should precede the nomination.

Thompson, of Indiana, chairman of the committee, ascended the platform and read the resolutions, which were as follows:

First. We congratulate the country on the assured success of the reconstruction policy of Congress (applause) as evinced by the adoption in the majority of the states lately in rebellion, of the constitution securing equal civil and political rights to all; (applause) and we regard it as the duty of the Government to sustain these constitutions and to prevent the people of such states from being remitted to a state of anarchy or military rule. (applause.)

Second. The guarantee, by Congress, of equal suffrage to all loyal men in the south was demanded by every consideration of public safety, gratitude and justice, and must be maintained, (applause) while the question of suffrage in all the loyal states properly belongs to the people of those states. (applause)

Third. We denounce all forms of repudiation as a national crime, (immense applause) and the national honor requires the payment of public indebtedness in the utmost good faith to our creditors at home and abroad, (applause) not only according to the letter but the spirit of the laws under which it was contracted. (applause.)

Fourth. It is due to the labor of the nation that taxation should be equalized and reduced as rapidly as the national faith will permit. (applause.)

Fifth. The national debt, contracted as it has been, for the preservation of the Union for all time to come, should be extended over a fair period for redemption; and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can honestly be done. (Applause.)

Sixth. That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt, is so to improve our credit that capitalists will seek to lend us money at lower rates of interest than we now pay and must continue to pay so long as repudiation, partial or total, open or covert, is threatened or suspected. (Applause.)

Seventh. The Government of the United States should be administered with the strictest economy, and the corruptions, which have been so shamefully nursed and fostered by Andrew Johnson, call loudly for radical reform. (Loud cheers.)

The eighth deplored the untimely death of Abraham Lincoln and regretted the accession of Andrew Johnson to the Presidency, and accused him of treachery to the people, for which he had been justly impeached. (Received with cries of "Good," and loud applause). The ninth declared that naturalized citizens are entitled to and should be protected in all their rights as though they were native born.

The tenth eulogized the soldiers and sailors, and declared for the bounties and pensions appropriated by law for their services.

The eleventh favored the fostering of foreign emigration.

The twelfth expressed sympathy with all oppressed people struggling for their rights.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Additional resolutions were adopted, that the convention should be subject to be called together again by the executive committee; favoring the removal of the disqualifications imposed on the late rebels, and that the convention recognize the Declaration of Independence as the true foundation of a democratic government.

The chair announced the nominations in order.

Logan said, In the name of the loyal citizens, soldiers and sailors of this great Republic; in the name of loyalty, liberty, humanity and justice; in the name of the National Union Republican Party, I nominate, as candidate for Chief Magistrate of this nation, Ulysses S. Grant.

The nomination was received with a perfect frenzy of applause and cheers. The roll of the States was called, each State casting the vote solid for Grant. Stratman, who cast the vote for California, said that ten delegates had come 6,000 miles to cast their vote for Grant. Six hundred and fifty votes were cast in all.

The following are the nominations for Vice-President, in order: Virginia nominated Senator Wilson; Indiana, Schuyler Colfax; Ohio, Ben Wade; New York, Fenton; Maryland, Ex-Senator Cresswell; Pennsylvania, Gov. Curtin; Iowa, Senator Harlan; Maine, Hannibal Hamlin; Kansas, Pomeroy; Kentucky, Jas. S. Speed.

On the 5th ballot a break occurred in favor of Colfax, Iowa leading off, followed by Pennsylvania, and others falling rapidly into the line until the nomination was made unanimous. Wade's strength had gradually increased until it became evident that the contest was between these two. The Convention very soon adjourned.

San Francisco, 23.—The steamer Idaho brings Sandwich Island dates to May 9. The Honolulu Gazette says up to the 29 April, there had been no further accounts of volcanic action on Hawaii, and the earthquakes have ceased in violence and frequency, although the whole island was still moved with slight vibrations and two smart shocks have been felt so far as Honolulu.

Collections were making for the relief of the sufferers by the earthquakes. At Honolulu $3,000 dollars was raised in response to an appeal from Queen Emma.

The conservative Senators will move on Monday for a committee of investigation to probe the charges against Senator Pomeroy by Col. Cooper. Cooper, swore, before the impeachment Managers, he had been approached by a person acting in the name of Senator Pomeroy, proposing for $40,000 to secure enough Republican votes to obtain acquittal. The letter of Pomeroy, produced by Cooper, reads as follows:

Senate Chamber, Senate.—Sir, I will in good faith carry out any arrangement made with my brother-in-law, Willis Gaylord, to which I am a party. Signed, S. C. Pomeroy. Pomeroy publishes a card in the Intelligencer utterly denying that he ever wrote or authorized the above.

One witness yesterday testified that he gave Banks one thousand dollars to help to elect him to Congress.

Cincinnati, 23.—The Adams Express Company was robbed of three safes last night on the Jeffersonville Railroad, while the train was taking wood and water at Marshfield. The robbers seized the engine and disconnected the express car from the train and started off in the direction of Seymour. While in motion they broke into the express car, disabled the messenger and threw him out of the car. The engine and car were found deserted at an early hour this morning, standing on the track about a mile south of Seymour.

Chicago, 23.—Additional details have been received of the great express robbery on the Jefferson and Indianapolis Railroad last night. Two ruffians jumped upon the engine, overpowering the engineer, fireman and four others, and got on the express car, detaching it from the train. From thirty-eight to forty thousand dollars were taken.

In the Methodist General Conference to-day, Bishop Jones, colored, of the African Conference, now in session in Washington, was received into the organization. He presents a desire to unite with the Methodist Episcopal Church, if allowed to do so on terms of perfect equality. He represents some 960 ministers and sixteen annual Conferences. The Methodist Conference will consider the proposition on Monday.

The Republican's special says that Stevens has three new articles of impeachment prepared, which will be submitted to-day. Action on them is not known.

New York.—Mr. Burlingame informed the committee which waited on him that diplomatic courtesy required that he should pay his respects to the Government at Washington, after which he could doubtless accept their invitation to a banquet. Preparations have accordingly commenced for a sumptuous entertainment.

The Tribune says it is understood that the Court of Impeachment will adjourn on Tuesday without voting on the remaining articles, the managers being unwilling to risk another vote at present.

The authorities have made extensive preparations to suppress any demonstration that may occur.
